This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

Clerks of Associations will greatly assist in the compilation of these figures, if they note the following particulars in their Minutes:

1. The number of churches. 2. The names and post-offices of all ordained ministers whether pastors or not. 3. The separated totals of additions by baptism, letter, experience, and restoration. 4. The separated totals of diminutions by death, letter, exclusion, and erasure. 5. Amount of church expenses and benevolent contributions. 6. Specify on the title-page to what State the Association belongs. 7. Indicate if any of the churches are located in other States.

The Minutes of State Conventions and General Associations have heretofore furnished valuable help. The value of these Minutes will be greatly increased if they embody:

1. Correct lists of all the Associations in the State, with the total of statistics as given above.

2. The name and statistics of all colored Baptist Associations.

3. The names and statistics of all unassociated Baptist churches.

4. The number of Baptist meeting-houses, their value and seating capacity, together with the number and value of church parsonages, and the total value of all church property.

5. The statistics of Sunday-schools—giving in full—the number of schools, officers and teachers, scholars, volumes in library, scholars baptized, school expenses, and benevolent contributions.

6. The name and post-office address of every ordained Baptist minister and of each superintendent in the State.

7. Ministers ordained, churches recognized, and meeting-houses dedicated during the year—giving the name, date, and place of each.

8. Ordained ministers who have died during the year.

The clerks or secretaries of all Baptist Associations, Conventions, Theological Seminaries, Colleges, and other educational institutions, are earnestly requested to forward, as soon as possible, two copies of their Minutes, Reports, or Catalogues, to B. Griffith, D. D., No. 1420 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Should any churches fail to report at the annual meeting, let the membership previously reported be included in the total membership.

To insure insertion, these statistics should be received not later than Dec. 1.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

Letters to any part of the United States, two cents for every ounce, or fraction thereof prepaid. Registered letters, ten cents in addition to the regular postage.

Circulars, books (printed), and other printed matter, in packages not exceeding four pound in weight, one cent for every two ounces. All matter not prepaid at letter rates not free, must be so wrapped that it can be examined without destroying the wrapper. The sender may write his own name or address, with the word "From" above and preceding the same; and in either case may make simple marks intended to designate a word or passage of the text to which it is desired to call attention. Upon the cover or blank leaves of any book, or of any printed matter, there may be placed a single manuscript dedication or inscription, that does not partake of the nature of a personal correspondence.

Newspapers and periodical publications sent by persons other than the publishers and news agents, one cent for every four ounces, or fraction thereof.

Merchandise, samples, seeds in packages not exceeding four pounds in weight, one cent for each ounce or fractional part thereof. Samples may be numbered to correspond with the numbers in a descriptive letter.

Liquids, poisons, explosives, and other dangerous matter, excluded.

To Canada and the British Provinces.—Same as to any point in the United States.

To Brazil, British India, China, Denmark, Egypt, France, Germany, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Mexico, Newfoundland, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Sweden, and Turkey,—letters, prepayment optional. five cents per half ounce; newspapers, and other printed matter, or samples of merchandise, one cent for every two ounces.

The postage on all letters to be forwarded by mail to any part of the United States, or to any foreign country to which payment is required, must be prepaid by postage stamps. Letters deposited without being properly prepaid will be sent immediately to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

Anniversary.

The Seventy-eighth Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Philadelphia, Pa., May 24–26, 1892. There were present 286 life members, 352 annual members, and 19 missionaries, a total of 657, representing 31 States, including the District of Columbia and Canada. The Annual Sermon was preached by W. W. Boyd, D. D., N. J.

An address of welcome was made by G. D. Boardman, D. D., and the President, on taking the chair also addressed the body; a paper on "A Century of Missions and its Lessons," was read by J. N. Murdock, D. D., the Honorary Secretary; Rev. W. H. P. Faunce, D. D., spoke on "The Ground of Missionary Obligations"; Prof. Jesse B. Thomas, D. D., addressed the meeting on "America's Providential Relation to the World's Evangelization"; an address on "Baptist Missions the Sequence of Baptist Principles," was made by G. C. Lorimer, D. D.; a paper was read by Alvah Hovey, D. D., on "The Influence of a Century of Missions upon Christian Theology"; also, a paper by H. G. Weston, D. D., on "The Contribution of Baptists to Bible Translation in the New Missionary Era"; a number of foreign missionaries especially in European countries addressed the meeting by the aid of an interpreter; W. N. Clarke, D. D., spoke on "The Position of the Evangelistic Element in Baptist Missions"; missionaries from the fields at various times spoke on their particular work; representatives from the Southern Baptist Convention and from Canada were introduced and briefly addressed the Union; T. H. Pattison, D. D., made an address on "The Making of William Carey"; an address on "The Relation of William Carey to the Missionary Awakening of American Baptists," was made by Mr. Mornay Williams; and at a supplementary meeting of a special character, addresses were made by A. J. Gordon, D. D., on "The Missionary Outlook on the New Century"; and Richard S. Storrs, D. D., President of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

In addition to these addresses, there were reports upon the various fields occupied by the Society, and upon obituaries. Very interesting was the report of progress made by the committee on the Centenary Observance of the Modern Missionary Enterprise. Organization had been effected by the appointment of the Home Secretary, Dr. Mabie, as chairman. The sum needed, One Million Dollars, had been prudently apportioned, and methods outlined by which it is hoped that this desired sum shall be attained. This task is now in progress, and will continue up to the meeting of the Union in 1893. The other exercises of the anniversary were of a routine character.

The Annual Report.

The observance of the Carey Centenary had been prepared for by the appointment of the following committee: H. C. Mabie, D. D., Chairman; Wm. M. Isaacs, N. Y.; Rev. W. H. P. Faunce, N. Y.; Churchill H. Cutting, N. Y.; Rev. E. E. Chivers, N. Y.; Geo. D. Boardman, D. D., Pa.; Rev. R. H. Conwell, Pa.; Hon. R. O. Fuller, Mass.; S. P. Hibbard, Mass.; W. N. Hartshorn, Mass.; T. C. Evans, Mass.; W. H. Doane, O.; D. A. Waterman, Mich.; Edward Goodman, Ill.; Rev. J. C. Hoblit, Minn.; E. H. Sawyer, D. D., Mo.; Uriah Roraback, Ia.; Hon. M. S. Smalley, Kan.; Rev. C. H. Hobart, Cal. O. O. Fletcher, D. D., was selected as Assistant Field Secretary, and H. C. Camp, in the same connection among the societies of Young People.

The work of the year had been planned upon the basis of $600,000 expenditures; the actual expenses, including a deficit from the year previous, had been $635,927.24; this is an increase of receipts by $96,998.72. This does not include a second fund of $50,000 raised by Dr. J. E. Clough for a special purpose. A similar fund was secured by him for the enlargement of the work among the Telugus; the other fund was for an endowment for a High School at Ongole.

The new missionaries appointed were 33 male and 11 female, a total of 44. There had sailed for Burma, 12; for Assam, 5; for India, 19; for Siam, 1; for China, 10; for Japan, 3; and for Africa, 5. Thirty-seven had returned home upon leave of absence; 7 had resigned, and 6 had died.

The District Secretaries, whose reports in detail are to be found in the Annual, are thus commissioned: New England, W. S. McKenzie, D. D., Boston, Mass.; New York Southern: A. H. Burlingam, D. D., New York, N. Y.; New York Central: Rev. Geo. H. Bingham, Utica, N. Y.; Southern: R. G. Seymour, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Middle: Rev. T. G. Field, Elyria, O.; Middle Western: Rev. W. E. Witter, M. D., Des Moines, Ia.; South western: I. N. Clark, D. D., Kansas City, Mo. Lake: S. M. Stimson, D. D., Greensburg, Ind.; Western: C. F. Tolman, D. D., Chicago, Ill.; Northern: Rev. Frank Peterson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Pacific Coast: Rev. J. Sundeland, Oakland, Cal. There have been some slight alterations of these districts since the meeting.

Financial.

The Treasurer has received from all sources, for all purposes, the sum of $583,772.93, as follows: donations, $278,724.22; legacies, $130,986.71; the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, $82,670.97; the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the West, $35,520.28; additions to permanent funds, $20,600.00; income of funds, $2,792.65; Bible Day collections, $2,477.88; Go

There are now 70 funds of a permanent character, aggregating $370,-97.93.

The Field Abroad.

The special features treated of at length in the report are the wonderful and gracious revival in the Telugu Mission in India, the unusual and gratifying progress of the Baptist cause in France, and the first breaking of the light upon the millions of the Upper Congo in Africa, in the conversion of many near the station on the Equator. The work of translating, printing, and distributing the Scriptures is kept up in all the missions as circumstances allow. A new edition of Sgau Karen Bibles is in process of publishing at the Rangoon press, and a new edition of the Pwo-Karen Testament had been issued. The Shan Bible is practically completed and almost ready to be put into the hands of that people. The new edition of Judson's Burman Bible was being circulated. Revisions had been pressed in the Japanese Scriptures, and the work of giving the inhabitants of the Congo the Written Word, is being pressed.

Digest of Operations.

THARRAWADDY.—A station near Thongze, Rev. W. C. Calder, Mrs. O. L. George, and Miss Julia M. Elwin.

Assam.

There was encouraging growth of the Kohl mission, and also among the Garos. The lines between Burma, Assam and China are drawing nearer each other, and in a few years the territory lying between will evidently be in touch, and the missions form a long link binding the two great nations. The points now occupied are:

TURA.—The centre of influence among the Garos, and seat of the English government. Rev. M. C. Mason, Mrs. M. C. Mason, Rev. E. G. Phillips, Mrs. E. G. Phillips, Rev. Wm. Dring, Mrs. Wm. Dring, Mr. S. A. D. Boggs, Mrs. S. A. D. Boggs, Miss E. C. Bond, Miss S. H. Mason.

MULUNO.—A station among the Ao Nagas, forty miles south of Sibsagor, with 500 inhabitants. Rev. E. W. Clark, Mrs. E. W. Clark.

KOHIMA.—The seat of the English government among the Angami Nagas. Rev. S. W. Rivenburg, Mrs. S. W. Rivenburg.

WOKHA.—The government seat among the Lhota Nagas. Rev. W. E. Witter, Mrs. W. E. Witter.

India.

THE TELUGUS.

The wonderful progress in this mission continues. It is said that the whole community is leavened with the gospel; the caste people are giving attention; and the work is much easier because of the large number of Christians who are making their impress upon the country. The Ongole High School is being raised to the grade of a College. This institution is contributing largely to an increase of advantages among the people in educational and social lines. Another famine is dreaded, but the reports are of unusual interest even for this highly favored mission. The work and the workers are as follows:

OOTACAMUND.—A health resort on the Nilgiri hills. Mrs. Larenia P. Pearce.

China.

The year had been one of great disturbance, and the missionary interests had been seriously affected by riotous excitements; but the government is still well disposed toward foreigners and comparatively favorable to missionaries. Fears are expressed as to the ultimate effect of anti-Chinese legislation in America. The work however is to be pressed. The force is distributed thus:

BANGKOK, IN SIAM.—And its capital, with a population of 500,000, with extensive manufactures and commerce. Rev. Lewis A. Eaton.

SWATOW.—A treaty port, 225 miles east of Canton, has an active foreign commerce and large manufactories, and a population of 30,000. Wm. Ashmore, D. D., Mrs. Wm. Ashmore, S. B. Partridge, D. Japan.

Complaint is made that the reaction against foreign influence still continues, more against foreigners than foreign ideas; so that interest in Christianity is not abated, but there is strong aversion to the leadership of missionaries. This results in the disposition among the Japanese Christians to control their own churches and schools, and may result in self-support and other desirable consequences. There is, however, a large field of opportunity. The missionaries are located thus:

YOKOHAMA.—A city of European appearance, and one of the foreign settlements, with large commerce and a population of 61,553.

Africa.

The first real movement in the Upper Congo Valley had occured during the year, some sixty conversions reported at Bolengi, where the gospel has been preached for about eight years without much apparent result. The first ingathering has also occurred at Mukimvika, and the other stations on the Congo report pleasing success. The present force is thus distributed:

Mukimvika.—At the mouth of the Congo, and a healthful point. Rev. J. M. Lewis, Mr. Wesley M. Biggs, Mr. C. B. Antisdel.

Matadi.—The starting point of the Congo Railway, and a busy place. The caravans up river now start from this point. Rev. Wm. A. Hall, Mr. Theo. A. Leger, Mrs. T. A. Leger, Mr. Thos. Hill.

Kinjila.—Southwest of Leopoldville, 70 miles. Rev. P. Frederickson, Mrs. P. Frederickson, Mr. Christian Nelson, Mrs. C. Nelson.

Europe.

France.—The year has marked an epoch in Baptist work in France. The revival which began in 1889 increases rather than diminishes. Widespread Baptist publications have been a factor. More thorough organization of the converts has been accomplished with good results. Insistance upon the old faith has quickened the attention of men who were disturbed by rationalistic teachings. In Paris, the churches have been doubled. New stations had been opened at important points. New churches are organizing. The interests now are the two churches in Paris, 412 members; Denain, 236; Lens, 126; Chauny, 120; La Fere, 67; Lyons, 64; Montbeliard, 113; Valentigny, 16; St. Sauveur, 98; St. Etieune, 58; and Rouen. Thus there are 12 churches, with 12 chapels and 59 preaching stations, 15 pastors, 16 evangelists, and 5 Bible women; the total membership is 1,359, with 436 baptized for the year. It is estimated that these churches do really reach a population of 25,000 hearers.

Germany.—A healthy growth and progress is visible. A mission work among the Cameroons in Africa has been inaugurated, which is the work of a few brethren in the Berlin churches. The denominational paper has a circulation of 6,400. Other publications are devoted to interests of Sunday-school teachers and young people. There are also two other children's papers at a low price which are largely circulated. There had been 43,425 copies of the Bible circulated and 25 colporteurs employed. In the Theological Seminary 26 students had been enrolled. Work has been commenced in Dresden and Strasburg.

Denmark.—Here 253 baptisms afford ground for encouragement. Three new churches had been constituted, with a membership of 157. This makes 25 churches with 2,966 members, and in the Sunday schools are over 3,200 pupils. Emigration has depleted some interests.

Sweden.—Revivals are reported, with something over 750 baptisms. Missionary work is urgently pressed, both at home and among the heathen, two are at work in Spain. The Bethel Seminary had been relieved from a distressing debt. It is now proposed to raise an endowment fund, which promises success.

Finland.—In the midst of political, persecutions the number of baptisms had been 152, and two new churches organized. Chapel building is to be commenced at these points.

RUSSIA.—The work goes on in a remarkable way, notwithstanding the persecution to which brethren are subject, and in addition to this many Baptists live in the famine districts. The Union had forwarded nearly $1,000 in contributions to these sufferers. More than 500 had been baptized, in the face of these difficulties.

SPAIN.—The new methods of work entered upon result in increased interest in hearing the word, and the quickening of the life of the old organizations. There are no statistics but reports of energetic work are to hand.

Undesignated Missionaries.

In addition to the missionaries whose names have been mentioned under the different stations, the following have been appointed as missionaries of the Union, but have not yet been assigned to special stations: Mr. W. Anniversary.

The Sixty-eighth Anniversary was held in the Grace Temple, Philadelphia, May 29, 30, 1892. There were in attendance 58 delegates, 51 life members, 12 annual members, 3 life managers, and 106 visitors, a total of 230, representing 30 States, 2 Territories and Canada. There was no Annual Sermon at this anniversary.

The prepared addresses on the occasion were by T. H. Pattison, D. D., New York, on "The Bible; Its Preservation"; R. H. Pitt, D. D., Virginia, on "Doctrine: Its Relation to Character"; Z. Grenell, D. D., Michigan, on "Literature for Our Young People." The President, on taking the chair at the beginning of the business sessions, on "The Press, and the Special Functions of the Publication Society"; Jas. W. Willmarth, D. D., Pennsylvania, on "The Newly Edited New Testament"; Alvah Hovey, D.D., Massachusetts, on "Denominational Principles Restated"; Rev. E. R. Carter, Georgia, on "Sunday-schools and the Colored People"; Prof. Jesse B. Thomas, D. D., Massachusetts, on "True Biblical Criticism," and "The Work of the Car 'Evangel,'" by Boston W. Smith, Mrs. E. G. Wheeler and Rev. E. G. Wheeler.

The business of the anniversary consisted in receiving the reports, the election of new officers and board, and the adoption of resolutions touching the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to expenditures of public monies for sectarian purposes, reaffirming the value of the Sunday-school and Colportage work of the Society, the work of the Chapel Car, and approving the Society's efforts toward securing doctrinal instruction in Sunday-schools and Societies of Young People. A contribution of $3.071.00 was also made toward a second Chapel Car.

Bible and Missionary Work.

There had been received for Bible work specially $21,412.34, of which $3,200.16 were for revision purposes. There had been paid $30,901.85, and of this sum $2,477.88 had been paid to the American Baptist Missionary Union, and $1,000 to the Foreign Board of the Southern Baptist Convention for Bible work in foreign lands. The balance on hand for general work was $3,932.25, and for Old Testament revision particularly, $1,537.62. The final revision of the American Bible Union Version of the New Testament had been completed and printed The distribution of copies of Scriptures had continued, many languages being represented, and every part of the country having been supplied, as also Cuba, Canada, Mexico and South America.

In the Missionary Department the receipts had been $118,415.25, which is $22,921.93 more than the preceding year. Of this amount $31,323.56 were designated to the Permanent Funds. The total payments were $128,909.34, the funds being overdrawn $872.27. But there is a balance of $10,524.94 in the income of the Permanent Funds, which can be expended only as designated by the donors.

For the year there had been sustained 138 missionaries and workers, who had rendered 26,586 days of service, traveled 415,927 miles, sold 4,019 books, and gave away 2,316 others, distributed 609,716 pages of tracts, delivered 17,940 sermons and addresses, held 5,633 prayer-meetings, visited 53,964 families, baptized 695 persons, constituted 58 churches, organized 376 Sunday-schools, and held and addressed 531 institutes. The Chapel Car had been in commission during they ear, and by it 60 towns were visited, and over 500 persons professed conversion during the first half of the year under charge of B.W. Smith; the remaining half under Rev. E. G.Wheeler, 40 places were visited and about 400 persons professed conversion. The sphere of this work is along the lines of the Western railways, where facilities are rendered by the authorities. Ten churches and nine Sunday-schools had been organized by this means.

Publishing Department.

The total sales of the year were $533,656.59, being an increase of $4,062.80 over the preceding year. The new publications were 124 in number, and of these there had been printed 396,000 copies. The total number of all publications, including periodicals, was 35,403,500, being an increase over preceding year of 991,750 copies. In connection with the Southern Baptist Convention the new catechism by J. A. Broadus, D. D., had been issued, these two organizations exercising a joint control and ownership of plates. The classification of the new publications shows 14 books for Sunday-school libraries, 8 of a theological, historical, critical or polemic character, 28 in what are denominated the Young People's Series; 9 of a miscellaneous character, 9 in paper covers, and 54 new tracts; of these latter, 8 were in the Danish language, 3 in the French, 8 in the Swedish and 3 in the Portuguese.

The issue of periodical literature was as follows:

Baptist Superintendent	152,500
Baptist Teacher	715,000
Our Young Folks	1,191,000
Young People at Work	362,000
The Worker	452,850

Anniversary.

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Philadelphia, Pa., May 27, 28, 1892. There were enrolled as present, 194 life members and 297 delegates, a total of 491; these represented 39 States and Territories, and Canada and Germany. The Annual Sermon was delivered by A. H. Strong, D. D., New York, on "The Christian World in 1492 and the Christian World in 1892; or the Progress of the Kingdom in the last Four Hundred Years."

The prepared addresses and papers were as follows: The address of the President, on taking the chair; a paper by R. A. Guild, LL. D., R. I., on "Roger Williams, the Pioneer Missionary to the Indians of North America"; Rev. J. S. Murrow, on "Thirty-three Years among the Indians: Then and Now"; J. B. Hartwell, D. D., on "The Chinese in America"; O. A. Williams, D. D., Neb., on "The West of 1792, 1832 and 1892"; E. B. Hulbert, D. D., on "Home Missions as Related to the Stability and Perpetuity of Our Institutions." The celebration of the Centenary of the Separation of Church and State in America, was observed May 27, by a meeting, which was addressed by J. C. Long, D. D., Pa., on "Baptist Contention for Religious Liberty in America"; R. S. MacArthur, D. D., N. Y., on "The Beneficent Results of Separation of Church and State, and What Remains to be Done"; and a paper was read, prepared by H. S. Burrage, D. D., Me., on "Religious Liberty in the Sixteenth Century," and a memorial was adopted to be presented to Congress praying for the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, prohibiting the use of money obtained by taxation for any purpose controlled by ecclesiastical or sectarian organizations; addresses on the work among the Foreign Populations were made by Rev. J. N. Williams, for the French, Rev. H. M. Schaeffer, for the Germans, and Rev. N. P. Jensen, for the Scandinavians; there were also General Conferences upon the Educational Work and the Work among the Colored People, at which a number of brief addresses were made.

The Corresponding Secretary, after a service of thirteen years, declined to be re-elected, and resolutions expressive of the Society's appreciation of his work were adopted; but the brother who was elected to this place, having declined to accept, the Managers, after the adjournment of the meetings, persuaded Dr. Morehouse to continue until another could be found; at the same time constituting him Honorary Secretary. There was no other business of moment transacted. Resolutions were adopted looking toward the establishment of some adequate provision for the relief of aged and indigent ministers, the subject being committed to a body of seven brethren to report at the next anniversary. Other resolutions upon matters of current interest were also adopted.

The Annual Report.

This document begins with appropriate notice of the decease of eleven who had been prominently identified with the work of the Society; of these, three were active missionaries, and one in active service in the educational department. The operations of the Society had been conducted in 49 States and Territories, and in Ontario, Manitoba, Northwest Territory, British Columbia, Alaska, and six States of the Mexican Republic. The whole number of laborers supported wholly or in part had been 1,053, being an increase of 105. These were distributed as follows: New England, 32; Middle and Central States, 52; Southern States, 204; Western States and Territories, 727; Canada, 6; Mexico, 27; Alaska, 4. French missionaries wrought in 6 States; Scandinavian in 21, and German in 19 States and the Dominion of Canada. Seventy-five churches heretofore supported had become self-supporting, and 80 others had asked for smaller appropriations. Yet others clamor for aid and 145 new stations had been taken up. There had been 221 laborers among foreign populations, 326 among colored people, Indians and Mexicans; and 505 among Americans. The nationalities represented have been 14, viz.: Americans, Germans, French, Swedes, Danes, Norwegians, Indians, Negroes, Chinese, Mexicans, Bohemians, Poles, Finns and Welsh.

The results of the work for the year were: Number of laborers, 1,053; weeks of labor, 34,775; churches and out-stations supplied, 2,018; sermons preached, 79,082; prayer meetings attended, 49,312; religious visits made, 222,107; Bibles and Testaments distributed, 8,127; pages of tracts distributed, 916,080; received by baptism, 4,335; received by letter and experience, 5,053; total church membership, 46,624; churches organized, 119; Sunday-schools under care of missionaries, 1,122; attendance at Sunday-schools, 69,453; benevolent contributions reported, $50,937.37.

General missionaries had been employed in West Virginia, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado and New Mexico, Montana and North Idaho, Indian Territory, Wyoming, Washington, Utah and Southern Idaho, Oregon, Northern California and Southern California; also colored missionaries had been engaged in North and South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas. The Superintendents of the missions were: Wm. M. Haigh, D. D., Chicago, Ill., for the Western District; H. C. Woods, D. D., Lincoln, Neb., for the Central Western District; New England, F. T. Hazlewood, D. D., Boston, Mass; New York and Northern New Jersey, Halsey Moore, D. D., New York, N. Y.; Southern District, E. B. Palmer, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Michigan and Ohio, E. H. E. Jamison, D. D., Detroit, Mich.; Indiana and Southern Illinois, Rev. Dwight Spencer, Indianapolis, Ind.; and 20 general missionaries, with labors restricted to specific States. The detailed reports as given in the Annual are filled with interesting facts from all these fields.

The stream of immigration to this country shows no diminution, so much so that the radical change in the composition of the population in some of the older States is becoming apparent. Among the French, laboring principally in Rhode Island, Maine and New Hampshire, were 15 missionaries, at salaries aggregating $5,395.80. The 70 German missionaries labored in Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Texas, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, South and North Dakota, Colorado, California, Oregon, Ontario and Manitoba and the Northwest Territory; the amount paid for salaries was $13,676.56. The Scandinavian missionaries, 126 in number, had not been confined to the Northwest, but had labored also in New England and the Middle and Western States; their salaries aggregated $20,065.80. The Swedes, Danes and Norwegian work was principally in the Northwest, the Bohemian in Chicago, the Poles in Buffalo, N. Y., and in Wisconsin, and the Finns in Massachusetts. The appropriations for work among the colored people, excluding Educational work, were $11,957.13. The Indian work was confined to the Indian and Oklahoma Territories and one appointee to a reservation in California and the cost was $5,727.91, exclusive of educational work. The expenditures for Chinese work on the Pacific coast were $3,975.63. For the 18 missionaries in Mexico, there had been expended $11,265.81.

Church-Edifice Department.

The whole number of churches aided by gifts and loans was 121, which is 33 more than preceding year. The grants from the gift fund were 101; loan fund, 55; churches aided by gifts only, 66; by loans only, 20; by both gifts and loans, 35. These churches were located in 33 States and Territories. Of these, 86 were American churches, 16 Scandinavian, 5 German, 12 colored and 2 Indian. The aggregate amount of gifts had been $36,034.69; of loans, $29,900. The gifts averaged $356.75, and the loans, $543.63. The use of this amount of $65,934.69 secured to the denomination property valued at $285,897. The churches that had paid off their loans were 29, and 5 others had returned the amount of their gifts. Outstanding loans number 267.

Educational Work.

Rev. M. MacVicar, LL. D., continues in his position of Superintendent of Education. The work has assumed larger proportions than ever before. There are now 24 schools for Colored people, 5 for Indians, 14 Chinese Mission Schools, and 5 schools in Mexico. In these institutions the whole number of teachers had been 238, and the enrollment of pupils 6,687. They are thus sub-divided: Colored Schools, 202 teachers, 82 men and 120 women, 5,167 scholars, 2,219 male and 2,948 female; students for the ministry, 458; preparing to teach, 1,829. Indian Schools, 21 teachers, 7 male and 14 female, 413 students, 271 being males and 196 females. Mexican schools, 6 teachers and 256 pupils. These statistics, as far as they vary from those given in the Educational tables that follow, were made up in the early part of the year, while our tables show condition at beginning of year, 1893. New schools had been aided in Missouri and Texas. No large buildings had been erected during the year, but a few supplementary buildings had been constructed and plans for future building had been approved. The Florida institution had been removed from Live Oak to Jacksonville, a much better location. The whole number preparing for the ministry was 466. Attention continues to be given to Industrial and Medical Education in some of the institutions, as well as Theological.

Miscellaneous.

Attention is given in the report to the centenary of the adoption of that amendment to the National Constitution, which provides for complete separation of Church and State. And this centenary was observed as indicated supra. The extent of the correspondence of the Society is indicated by the receipt of 18,000 letters at the rooms; maps, diagrams and illustrations of the educational institutions had been prepared and appear in the Annual Report; the circulation of the

Digitized by Google

Home Mission Monthly had attained to 12,000 copies, and several issues had been devoted to special subjects; other publications bearing upon the work of the Society, and a large missionary map of the United States had been issued also. Co-operative relations had continued with five societies of women, and with the Publication Society in the matter of grants of literature to missionaries. Appropriate observance of the four-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America is recommended.

Financial.

The total receipts of the year, including conditional and permanent trust funds (not including Church Edifice loans repaid) $500,390.97. These came from 47 States and Territories, also from Ontario, British Columbia, Mexico, India, England and Burma.

The receipts may be classified as follows: 1. From contributions of churches, Sunday-schools, and individuals, including $39,524.31 trust funds, $242,161.73. 2. From legacies, $183,305.50. 3. Income from Church Edifice loans and invested funds, $41,300.56. 4. From the schools of the Society, $19,274.90. 5. Miscellaneous, including receipts for the Baptist Home Mission Monthly, $14,348.28. A further analysis showing to what purposes these receipts were applicable, gives the following results: 1. For General Purposes (i. e., for salaries of missionaries, teachers, officers, and expenses of administration).—From general contributions, $159,771.27; from legacies, $159,214.79; from all other sources, $20,281.11; total, $339,267.17. 2. Designated funds.—1. For Church Edifice work: (a) Benevolent Fund. Contributions from churches, individuals and Sunday-schools, $12,053.28; legacies, $23,005; from income of invested funds, $7,819.58; gifts returned, $1,375; total, $44,252 86; (b) Loan Fund. From income from loans, etc., $5,301.36; (c) contributions for Church Edifice Investment Fund, $1,000. Total for Church Edifice work, $50,554.22. 2. For school buildings and other objects, $29,812.87. 3. Permanent Funds (other than Church Edifice Funds)—From income to be added to principal, $700; contributions, $13,672 45; legacies, $1,085.71. 4. Conditional or Annuity Funds (donors receiving annuities during their lives).—From individuals, $25,851.86.

The total expenditures for the year were $448,038.24. For Missionaries' salaries, $207,466.96; for teachers' salaries, $82,684.34; gifts to churches, $36,084.90; loans to churches, $29,900; expenses of schools, $15,140.49: annuities, $15,908.66; expenses of administration at the rooms, $13,333.17; general expense and publication account, $13,171.14: superintendents and District Secretaries, $21,771.60.

The number of legacies being 66, aggregated a larger sum than for many years. It is noticeable that the sum of $159,214.79 arising from this source for the general purposes of the Society, was almost identical with the amount contributed for the general purposes by living contributors. The largest legacy was $76,085.03, and there were two others amounting each to $33,333.33 and $20,505. The balance in the treasury after payment of all obligations to April 1st, was $35,856.40 for the general work. There were 120 life members constituted during the year.

Next Anniversaries.

An invitation to hold the next meeting at Denver, Colorado, was accepted, conditioned upon a like action on the part of the other Societies, the time to be fixed by the Board of Managers.

Anniversary.

The Thirty-seventh Session, being the forty-seventh year, was held in the city of Atlanta, Ga., May 6-10, 1892. There were in attendance representatives from Alabama, 86; Arkansas, 29; District of Columbia, 7; Florida, 32; Georgia, 137; Kentucky, 100; Louisiana, 30; Maryland, 12; Mississippi, 47; Missouri, 46; North Carolina, 67; Western North Carolina, 9; South Carolina, 88; Tennessee, 54; Texas, 132; Virginia, 102; reported visitors, 8. The whole number entitled to seats on money basis was 852, and on Associational representation, 404, a total of 1,256. Of these there were present, on money basis, 749; as representing Associations, 221, a total of 970, which with reported visitors, made a grand total of 978 present.

The Convention Sermon was preached by J. B. Gambrell, D. D., Miss., from Isa. 54: 3, 4.

In addition to the reports of the Boards, noted below, the transactions of the session were as follows: An elaborate report of the Standing Committee on the Centenary of Missions, outlining proposed plans for the year; the adoption of clearer methods in the dissemination of missionary intelligence among the people; directing the Home Board to enlarge provision for destitution in the State of Louisiana, and the Sunday-school Board to co-operate in this work; and resolutions upon the general reformatory and moral issues of the day. A day was also set apart for addresses on the Centenary of Missions, when addresses were made by J. W. Carter, D.D., N. C., on "The Moral Basis of the Missionary Enterprise"; J. P. Greene, D. D., on "The Heathen Lost Without the Gospel"; John A. Broadus, D. D., on "How Best to Utilize the Centenary Movement," and H. C. Mabie, D. D., of the American Baptist Missionary Union, on "Personal Observations in Heathen Lands." A contribution of nearly $15,000 was made to the Centenary Fund. The work of the various Boards was made the theme of the reports of a number of Committees.

The printed Proceedings contain portraits of Junius Caldwell, Esq., late Auditor of the Convention; Basil Manly, D. D., at one time President of the Sunday-school Board, and a Vice-President of the Convention, and A. D. Sears, D.D., a distinguished pastor; all of whom had died during the Conventional Year. The usual tables of statistics of the denomination in the South are appended, showing in the territory covered by this body, 648 Associations, 9,323 ordained ministers, 16,654 churches and 1,282,221 members, of whom 84,076 had been baptized during the year. In addition to these, there are 11,251 churches of colored Baptists not in connection with this Convention, with a total membership of 1,180,681. So that in the Southern States, there is a Baptist membership all told of 2,462,902. Among the white Baptists there were reported 21 colleges, 30 female seminaries, and 31 academies of high order, with 760 instructors and 12,453 pupils. These institutions possess $2,607,157 in endowment funds, and a total of $7,223,067 of property, inclusive of these endowments. Among their churches there is a reported value of $14,703,308 in church property; but this is a partial report, as reference to our tables will show The several State organizations reported the employment of 887 missionaries, who preached 67,212 sermons, baptized 11,349 persons, organized 322 churches, and all at a contributed cost of $199,342.72.

In connection with this Convention there was organized a Southern Baptist Educational Conference, whose minutes are incorporated in the pamphlet of proceedings. There were representatives of 30 colleges and schools, who organized by the choice of W. R. Rothwell, D. D., of William Jewell College, Mo., as Chairman, and Thos. Hume, D. D., LL.D., of the University of North Carolina, as Secretary. Practical papers upon College and Educational work of all phases were read and discussed and arrangements made for a similar meeting at the next meeting of the Convention.

The Home Mission Work.

The Board of Home Missions reported the employment of 365 missionaries who had labored in 13 States, Indian and Oklahoma Territories and the island of Cuba. There had been 21 laboring in Cuba, 22 in the Territories and 26 in Western Arkansas and the Indian Territory combined; the remainder were distributed among the States, the largest force being 143 in Texas, 33 in Florida, 28 in Arkansas and 27 in Louisiana. Their work is summarized thus: Weeks of labor, 10,640; churches and stations occupied, 1,324; sermons and addresses, 46,866; meetings for prayer, 14,042; baptisms, 5,274; received by letter, 5,973; total added, 11,247; Sunday-schools organized, 342; religious visits, 54,336; churches constituted, 179; houses of worship built, 80; Bibles and Testaments distributed, 4,304, pages of tracts distributed, 919,472.

The Indian work of this Convention is becoming rapidly assimilated with ordinary mission endeavor, the Indians becoming, in many cases, self-sustaining and, in other cases, affected by the American civilization about them. The Creek Nation has taken the Levering School, established by this Board, under its own care and will sustain it in the future. Work among Germans and Mexicans has been prosecuted in Texas, and German missionaries are sustained in a number of Western cities. The Cuban work continues with unabated interest. A second payment upon the house purchased in Havana had been met, which thus provides for two-thirds of its cost. The last payment of $20,000 is due in November, 1892. The work is to be enlarged, not only by the establishment of new missions, but in providing for female education apart from the Romish influence of the nunneries and convents. Such a school has been established in connection with the work in Havana. The scheme of providing educational privileges for colored ministers and deacons had been continued in the sustaining of a number of competent men to hold institutes among them. A call is made in the report for enlarged work in the mountain districts and in a number of large cities, for which much larger provision financially must be made. The Board publishes as its organ Our Home Field, which shows a steady increase in circulation.

The receipts of this Board had been directly, from Alabama, $6,210.70; Arkansas, $838.80; District of Columbia, $127.57; Florida $1,059 20; Georgia, $12,196.82; Kentucky, $2,756.70; Louisiana, $1,066.72; Maryland, $6,438.26; Mississippi, $1,666.08; Missouri, $6,035.90; North Carolina, $6,434.84; South Carolina, $4,418.86; Texas, $3,500.88; Tennessee, $4,189.21; Virginia, $8,333.54; other States, $147.10; other sources, $9,976.01; a total of $84,871.19. In addition, co-operative work had been maintained with a number of States, by which there had been received and expended in such States, as follows: Alabama, $1,700; Arkansas, $4,000; Cuba, $2,400; Florida, $6,959.85; Georgia, $4,000; Indian Territory, $1,750; Louisiana, $7,302.20; Texas, $35,510.35; Tennessee, $1,700; Western Arkansas and Indian Territory, $1,295; Western North Carolina, $2,066; a total of $68,683.40. There had also been raised and expended for houses of worship in the same territory, $64,064.42. Including bills payable the whole amount passed upon the books of the Treasurer was $227,281.51. Among the disbursements had been for missionary work in the States, directly from the Board, $33,033.23; Cuba, $7,082.70; on account Cuban cemetery, $2,756.70; the Havana house, $22,981.24; church erection, $1,970.43; Our Home Field, $1,715.85; salaries of secretaries, $4,950; rents, printing, traveling, and other items, $4,886.86; State agencies, $4,474.24; and interest, $922.13. There is a deficit in the year of $9,662.50. The assets of the Board consist of a lot in New Orleans, $2,500; church and lot in New Orleans, $7,500; Key West Chapel, $2,000; Cuban cemetery, $5,000; Havana house, $75,000; and an insurance policy, $430; against which is a deferred payment on the Havana house of $20,000; making net assets, $72,430.

The Foreign Mission Work.

The report of the Foreign Board states that 21 new missionaries had been added to the force, and 5 others had been appointed soon to go out; these are designated to Brazil, 7; to Mexico, 7; to China, 8; to Africa, 3, and to Japan, 1. Six missionaries had inter-married, and two had married missionaries of other denominations. There does not seem to be any diminution of the force by death although several had terminated their relationship with the Board by resignation. There had been chapel and other improvements in the stations at Zacatecas, Shanghai, Maceio in Brazil, and Yang Chow of the Chinkiang mission. Among notable events there had been an increase in the number of churches and individuals who had undertaken the sole support of missionaries on the field, and it is hoped that this plan will be fostered until 100 such missionaries are sustained. Special grants had been made by societies and individuals for Bible work and chapel building.

The total receipts including time and call loans were $202,671.92. The contributions were, from Alabama, $6,808.73; Arkansas, $1,629.10; Western Arkansas and Indian Territory, $319.10; District of Columbia, $1 320; Florida, $1,459.75; Georgia, $12,963.21; Kentucky, $9,561.18; Louisiana, $1,909.13; Maryland, $6,550.64; Missouri, $7,824.38; Mississippi, $5,830.35; North Carolina, $9,698.76; South Carolina, $10,983.65; Tennessee, $3,992.89; Texas, $14,436.04; Virginia, $17,152.33; other States and countries, $247.36; other sources, grants and interest, $1,539.30. The disbursements had been for African Missions, $6,515.07; China Missions, $33,424.78; Japan Missions, $4,386.34; European Missions, $15,137.35; Brazilian Missions, $19,385.85; Mexican Missions, $28,568.78; salaries, $4,950: other itemized expenses, $5,566.33; agencies, $6,857.18; interest, time and call loans repaid, $76,629.29. A net liability exists of $16,932.24, but some of this is for unexpended appropriations for special purposes not yet available.

There are 10 main and 31 other stations, where there are employed 15 American and 3 native missionaries, 4 other unordained helpers; there are 10 organized churches, with 919 members, 90 of whom had been baptized during the year. The mission had been marvelously strengthened by the addition of Mr. Ginsburg, who was adapted to a peculiar work for which no provision seemed to have been made. The enforced retirement, it is to be hoped, temporarily of one of the missionaries through a painful accident has cast a shadow, but at other points, especially at Rio, unprecedented progress was reported. Three churches composed of foreigners have come under control of the mission, two being composed of German Russians. A church was established at Campos. The principal call is for a house of worship at Rio.

In the Mexican work are 6 main stations and 26 other stations, where 17 American and 1 ordained native missionaries are at labor; there are 9 native unordained helpers: the churches number 30 with 958 members, of whom 127 were baptized during the year. There are 4 schools, with 189 pupils. The work had been strengthened and houses provided at Zacatecas and San Pedro. New points had been opened for stated preaching and 16 colporteurs about to be added to the working force in new portions of the Republic. Dr. Powell, in charge of the general work, had removed to a new base which promises speedy results. In the Madero Institute are over 100 pupils, and it is rapidly growing toward self-support.

In the Chinese work are 7 main stations and 34 stations at other points; the American missionaries number 39, and 4 ordained and 25 unordained native workers; there are 13 churches, with 917 members, 130 having been baptized during the year. The effect of late riots has been to strengthen the cause through imperial edicts guaranteeing protection. At some points immense congregations flock to hear the gospel. In Southern China the outlook is peculiarly encouraging; here there are 4 male and 9 female schools which enrolled 340 pupils. The reports are filled with interesting incidents of missionary endeavor, but there is a restlessness in the case of a few missionaries as to methods, which may terminate their connection with the work, since this appears not to awaken endorsement from the home churches.

Africa.

LAGOS.—Rev. W. J. David, Mrs. W. J. David, Rev. C. C. Newton, Mrs. C. C. Newton, Miss Alberta Newton, with four native assistants and teachers.

ABEOKUTA (P. O. Lagos).—Rev. C. E. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Smith, Rev. W. T. Lumbley, Mrs. W. T. Lumbley, Henry Patterson.

OGBOMOSHAW.—Rev. P. A. Eubank, Mrs. P. A. Eubank, Rev. S. G. Pinnock, Mrs. S. G. Pinnock, L. O. Murray, native evangelist.

GUAN.—Jerry A. Hanson, native evangelist.

HAUSER FARM.—Albert Eli, native evangelist.

There are 4 main and 2 out-stations, manned by 11 American missionaries and 6 native unordained helpers; there are 4 organized churches numbering 111 members and 31 baptisms are reported. The mission had been much strengthened and the troubles alluded to in the last YEAR-BOOK have been settled and peace now reigns among the native Christians. The result has been an increase of interest, but the work presents no especial point of notice beyond a steady growth in its routine work.

Summary.

In 6 countries, this Board has 30 main-stations, 155 out-stations, 38 male, 36 female, and 17 unmarried female missionaries; 21 ordained natives, 49 male and 11 female native helpers, 74 organized churches, 2,723 members, and the statistics of the churches show 434 added by baptism, 82 by letter and 21 had died; there are 5 male, 10 female and 5 mixed schools, with a roll of 748 pupils; the contributions of these mission churches amounted to $3,956.09.

The Sunday-School Work.

The first report of the new Sunday-school Board treats of the history of the organization and outlines the character of the publications issued under its control. They comprise a monthly magazine for teachers, three grades of Quarterlies, for Primary, Intermediate and Advanced classes, "Kind Words," a Sunday-school paper for young people, "The Child's Gem," for smaller pupils, Lesson Leaflets, Lesson Cards and Bible Lesson Pictures. In addition, supplies are obtained from other publishing houses and distributed as demanded. Satisfactory contracts had been made by which the Convention becomes possessed of the profits accruing from the publication of these issues, rather than the enjoyment of a royalty which had been the case in previous years. A partial statistical statement of Sunday-schools in the territory of the Convention shows 8,862 schools with 52,213 officers and teachers, and 440,262 scholars; but this is far from the true state of the case. A much desired catechism prepared by J. A. Broadus, D. D., was about to be issued, and has been so done since the adjournment of the body. Special attention had been given to the cultivation of the missionary spirit, but the Board is yet too young to attempt a large missionary work in itself.

There had been received from all sources, but mainly from periodicals, merchandise, etc., $20,800.66. There had been cash payments on account of Periodicals, $11,589.91; merchandise, mainly in Sunday-school supplies purchased, $696 94; expense account, including salaries, postage, rents, furnishings and advertising, $6,196.23; the balance in cash to new account was $1,065.78. The assets of the Board were reported to be $4,408-.60; from which deducting open accounts against the Board of $326.97, leaves as net balance above liabilities for its first year of existence, $4,081.63.

Next Anniversary.

The next session of the Convention is to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, beginning May 12, 1893, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be delivered by W. E. Hatcher, D. D., Virginia.

The Fourth Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Philadelphia, Pa., May 28, 1892. There were reported 261 members. These represented 40 States and the Indian Territory.

The prepared addresses, as published in the Annual, were by S. W. Duncan, D. D., in opening the business of the Society; President Jas. S. Welling, LL. D., of Columbian University, on "What is University Education?"; President A. H. Strong, LL. D., of Rochester Seminary, on "Higher Education"; President W. R. Harper, Ph. D., of the University of Chicago; Prof. E. G. Robinson, LL. D., of the same institution; Lemuel Moss, D. D., Minnesota; President Jas. M. Taylor, D. D., of Vassar College; and Prof. F. H. Kerfoot, D. D., of the Seminary at Louisville. Besides these addresses, the time of the meeting was occupied in the hearing of the annual reports.

The report of the Executive Board opens with the statement that in the preceding year over four millions of dollars had been contributed to the educational institutions of the Baptists; there had been given to all institutions for colored people and Indians, $40,000; to six institutions for women, $100-000; to twenty academies and secondary schools, $400,000; to five theological seminaries, $250,000; and to twenty-nine colleges and universities, $3,500,000, a total of $4,290-000.

The YEAR-BOOK wishes to make this statement with regard to the variation between its figures and those of the Society. Its figures are obtainable from the reports first of Associations, which do not contain the items of large personal or individual gifts, such as have been recently made to the University of Chicago, for example; and second, from the reports of the institutions themselves, which report only the cash gifts which have reached them, and not pledges or subscribed but unpaid gifts. In the footings of the educational tables, however, these amounts are generally included, since the various institutions report these sums in their lists of property in interest-bearing funds.

During the year there had been completed the financial enlargement undertaken with the aid and encouragement of the Society, the following funds: Des Moines College, Iowa, $125,000; Carson-Newman College, Tenn., $45,000; Hall Institute, Pa., $35,000; Mercer University, Ga., $63,000; South Jersey Institute, N. J., $57,000; Ottawa University, Kan., $57,000; Keystone Academy, Pa., $52-000; Southwestern University, Tenn., $80-000; Wayland University, Wis., $32 000; Furman University, S. C., $12,500; Kalamazoo College, Mich., $100,000; Franklin College, Ind., $58,000; William Jewell College, Mo., $40,000; a total to 13 institutions of $756,500. Some of these sums are in forms of notes and in course of liquidation. To this sum the gifts of the Society were $125,150 from its own funds. New appropriations had been made to Bucknell University, Pa., of $10,000 toward $100,000; Williamsburg Institute, Ky., of $10-000 toward $35,000; Los Angeles University, Cal., of $2,500 toward $12,500; Cedar Valley Seminary Ia., of $7,000 toward $28,000; Spelman Seminary, Ga., of $35,000 for a new building for a Normal Training School; Cook Academy, N. Y., of $2,500 toward $12,500; and to Des Moines College, Ia., $1,500 for President's salary, and of $1,000 for five years for specific purposes. The unconditional gift to the Spelman Seminary was on account of the fact that no provision had been made by the Society for colored education, and was an exception to the general polity, but justifiable under the peculiar circumstances.

An appended table gives the list of appropriations made during the year, showing a total of $265,516 toward the securing of $1,332-316, to 28 institutions in 19 States. This does not mean that this amount has been actually paid, but is payable as the conditions of the appropriations are met. The report of the Treasurer shows disbursements amounting to $285,011.42, less a balance of $422.32. Of these there were given to various institutions, $243,346.11; to financial agents engaged in securing funds for the institutions, $3,254.-16; loans, $33,582.62; salaries and expenses, $4,406.21. The receipts had been $284,854.39, of which sundry contributions amounted to $684.00; Mr. John D. Rockefeller, $165,506.06; and account loans, $93,615.05.

Two prizes had been offered of $100 each by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., for the best essays on "The Duty of Christian Parents Concerning the Higher Education of their Children," and "The Duty of Young People to Obtain the Best Education Possible." These prizes were to be decided Nov. 1, 1892. The remainder of the report bears particularly upon the new University of Chicago, and there is a supplemental report of the Board on the matter of the affiliation with that institution of other, secondary, colleges.

The next meeting of the Society is to be held as determined by the Executive Board, but an invitation to hold the anniversary with the Southern Baptist Convention in Nashville, Tenn., was extended and received, and in all probability will be accepted. Due notice, however, will be published in the denominational press.

Young People's Union.

Principles and Purposes.

This new organization is designed to provide a fraternal Union for all young people's organizations in the Baptist Churches of North America. It was effected in the city of Chicago, Ill., at a convention called for the purpose, which met July 7 and 8, 1891. It holds a yearly meeting. Delegates to the Convention are appointed by regular Baptist churches, directly as where such churches have no special young people's organization, or indirectly where the churches have authorized departments for young people's work, in which case the young people's societies name representatives whose credentials must be certified by an officer of the church. It is, therefore, a strictly representative body, closely related to the local Baptist churches sending delegates to meet in this convention. The Convention is purely for conference and inspiration in this particular line of church work; it has no legislative functions. It does not, therefore, undertake to determine under what method the local church shall, in any case, conduct its work for young people. No special form of young people's work is imposed as a condition of representation.

The Second International Convention.

The Second International Convention occurred at Detroit, Mich., July 14, 15, 16, 17, 1892. Four thousand one hundred and seventeen duly authorized delegates were enrolled, representing nearly every State and Territory in the United States and most of the Provinces of Canada.

The exercises consisted of addresses of welcome by A. H. Finn, President of the Baptist Young People's Union of Detroit, on behalf of the Baptist Young People of Detroit, and Z. Grenell, D. D., on behalf of the Baptist churches of the city. Response was made by Wm. M. Lawrence, D. D., of Illinois, on behalf of the delegates. Prepared addresses were given as follows: "The Supreme Mission of Baptists," by Kerr B. Tupper, D. D., Col. "The Sunday Closing of the Columbian Exposition," two addresses: one by E. H. E. Jameson, D. D., Mich., the other by J. D. Fulton, D. D., Ill. "The Educational Possibilities of the Young People's Movement," three addresses: (a) "In Better Church Methods," by John Humpstone, D.D., N. Y. (b) "In increased Intelligence and Conviction," by Rev. E. E. Chivers, N. Y. (c) "In Intensified Personal Devotion," by Rev. R. G. Boville, Ph.D., Ont. "B. Y. P. U. of A., Its Principles and its Mission," by Rev. D. D. MacLaurin, N. Y. "Young People and Christian Benevolence," by B. D. Thomas, D. D., Ont. "The Stewardship of Money," by J. B. Gambrill, D. D., Miss. "Young People and Home Missions," by Lansing Burrows, D. D., Ga. "Young People and Foreign Missions," by H. C. Mable, D. D., Mass., and John E. Clough, D. D., India. The Convention Sermon was delivered by Wayland Hoyt, D. D., Minn., from 1 Kings 1: 50. A special feature of the opening evening of the Convention was a reception at the close of the services. Representatives from all the field of the Union spent thus an hour in pleasant greetings. The second day was occupied with the salutation of the flags, representing the twenty-four State and Provincial Unions affiliating with the International body, with speeches from representatives. International greetings were given by W. P. Hellings, D. D., Neb., for the West; Rev. Kittredge Wheeler, Conn., for the East; Geo. B. Eager, D. D., Ala., for the South; and Rev. Geo. E. Horr, Mass., for the Denominational Press. Early morning prayer-meetings were attended by many, and were characterized by great fervor. Nearly every State represented held a rally of its own at a separate time between the sessions of the Convention. Four meetings were held, known as the Meetings of the Colors. Green representing the South; red, Canada; gold, the Northern States (east of the Mississippi); blue, the remaining States west of the Mississippi River. At these meetings, matters pertinent to the Color sections represented were considered.

Departments of Work.

The Baptist Young People's Union of America in co-operation with the State and Provincial Unions that have been formed within the field and by provisional Committees acting for the body in the States and Territories not yet thus organized, undertakes to accomplish three general lines of work:

Organization. It seeks to foster organized work for young people in all the Baptist churches of North America, giving aid to every local church desiring advice, providing necessary constitutions, invitation cards, etc., for organization where desired, providing a common organ, known as the Young Peoples Union, a weekly newspaper, designed to aid local workers by presentation of methods, by reporting the news on this line of activity in other parts, and in giving general needed inspiration for the young people, and all interested in them, to undertake definite organized methods of work in the local church.

Education. Definite lines of effort for the culture of the convert life in Baptist churches is undertaken by the Union. The International lessons for 1892–93 are upon the life of Jesus and consists of thirty lessons, by Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, of Toronto, Ont. Books for leisure reading in connection with the study are recommended but not required. Daily Bible reading is fostered by what is known as the "Bible Reader's Circle," who follow a course of daily devotional reading, intended to traverse the entire Scriptures in four years. The calendar of daily readings is supplemented by a religious sentiment and an important fact in Baptist history for each day of the calendar year. The lessons and daily devotional readings are intended especially for home work by individuals. General work by the young people, assembled in a body, is outlined under three different heads, which represent three different kinds of meetings, viz.: The Prayer Meeting, the Conquest Meeting, and the Symposium. Topics are provided and helpful comments for those who desire them for aid in Prayer Meetings. A monthly programme is issued for the Missionary or Conquest Meeting, giving full directions for the conduct of this service. A monthly programme is provided for the monthly Symposium or educational meeting, under the auspices of the young people, in which a profitable outline is given of themes to be discussed or presented in brief papers, etc.

A pastor's course of lectures is recommended upon the Life of Jesus, to be given under the auspices of the young people for the benefit of the church and also of the community. These lectures for the present year are upon the following themes: 1. "Christ in the Old Testament; or, Forshadowing of the Incarnation." 2. "Dispersions and Conquests; or, the World Prepared for the Coming of the King." 3. "Four Portraits of Christ; or, the Authorship, Purpose, and Scope of the Gospels." 4. "The Silent Years; or, the Nazareth Training of the Divine Messiah." 5. "Christian Righteousness; or, the Tribute of Christian Art to our Lord." Suggestive syllabi covering these lectures are provided on application.

A simple but scholarly examination on the Life of Jesus will be provided at the conclusion of the thirty lessons for those who may desire it. The examination may take place on any date between May 1st and 15th, 1893, and certificates of attainment will be given the seal of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, to successful examinees. No fees are required for entrance upon these examinations, but upon the announcement of successful examinees, the latter will be expected to pay a fee of twenty-five cents to cover the cost in each case of their certificate and postage for its delivery. The total results will be announced by States, Territories, and Provinces at the International Convention in 1893, with recognition in a formal manner of the States, Provinces and Territories having respectively the greatest aggregate number of successful examinees and the greatest proportionate number of the same. There are four consulting Committees representing the four great color divisions, whose special purpose is to plan for the holding of general meetings. The Committee on the green will co-operate in furthering the interests of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Committee of the gold and the Committee of the blue will co-operate with the general societies of the Northern States. And the Committee of the red will actively plan for the co-operation of the young people in the work of the two general conventions of Canada. These general committees will, in matters common to all the color divisions, act as advisers of the Central Executive Committee at Chicago, thus, when necessary, enabling the whole constituency to co-operate in common plans toward common ends. In matters relating particularly to their respective color divisions these committees will act independently of each other, and with the aid of the general committee at headquarters, will actively conduct the affairs of their respective divisions.

Enlistment. It is earnestly hoped that during the winter of 1892-93 meetings, under the especial charge of these committees of the color divisions, in aid of the Missionary Centenary and other general lines of denominational work, may be held in all the prominent cities of the country, with the purpose to rally Baptist young people to hear of the work their fathers have founded and are now carrying forward with such consecration of means and prayers and earnest zeal. It is designed that these meeting be practically grand institutes where great bodies of our young people shall be inspired with love for Baptist principles, and enlisted in missionary efforts through existing denominational organizations. The annual meeting of the general Baptist Young People's Unions in the several States or Provinces where such general organizations exist, will constitute an important initiative in this series of institutes for denominational enlistment.

Financial.

The total receipts for the year for local supplies of all kinds and for subscriptions to the paper were $14,136.39. Loans were made to purchase the "Young Peoples Union" from the American Baptist Publication Society, amounting to $14,000. Loans were also made to cover immediate expenses of officers' salaries, traveling expenses, to fit up the headquarters and to put out circulars agitating organization, or giving direction for the same, and for all various necessary supplies for starting the paper at Chicago, amounting in all to $7,388.27. An earnest effort has been made, to raise, by popular subscription, a Founding Fund of $25,000, to cover these necessary loans incident to the inauguration of the Union on a working basis at headquarters. At Detroit $5,100.01 was reported as the amount received under this head. In addition to this sum, $3,917.74 was reported as pledged for this purpose, but as yet uncollected. At the Convention, by a popular subscription, pledges were added, making the total of cash received and pledges to the Founding Fund, yet uncollected, $11,616.13. It is the purpose of the Union not to make its work another regular dependency upon denominational benevolence, but a self sustaining work. When once the purchase money of the paper has been provided, it is believed that the profits of its publication, together with the income from badges, electrotypes, and such local Young People's supplies as the Union may properly publish in the prosecution of its work, will provide a sufficient amount to defray the entire expenses of the organization.

In order to encourage the raising of this first amount necessary to found the organization, a beautiful certificate will be given to the individuals and societies who may subscribe, recognizing their contributions to the Founding Fund. These valuable mementos will one day constitute noble monuments to the faith of those who stood together in the founding of this important branch of our denominational work. Resolutions were passed at the Detroit Convention, urging all our churches and young people's societies to lend a helping hand in raising the Founding Fund.

International Convention.

The time and place of the next International Convention will be duly announced by the Board of Managers.

Anniversary.

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting was held in Boston, Massachusetts, April 20, 21, 1892. In addition to the devotional exercises, reports and business, addresses were given by the following returned missionaries: Mrs. A. K. Gurney, Miss R. W. Ranney, Dr. Emma Cummings, Miss H. Phinney, Mrs. Lenia Faulkner Hale, Mrs. A. M. Bailey, Mrs. C. A. Nichols, and an exercise giving scenes from child-life in India was given by Mrs. J. F. Burditt. There was a memorial service for five missionaries who had died during the year. A paper entitled "What a Century of Christianity has done for Women," was presented by Mrs. C. S. Savage, New York. There was a discussion of work in the Home Department, in which several ladies participated. Three young women under appointment were presented. One session was conducted by young women exclusively, Mrs. W. H. P. Faunce, New York, presiding; reports of Junior Secretaries were presented, the young women under appointment spoke, and addresses were made by Miss Ranney and by Prof. Whiting, of Wellesley College. The Society voted to attempt to raise $200,000 during the Centenary Year of Missions. The Secretaries' Meeting was one of practical interest.

The Work at Home.

The statistics of the home field, which embraces the Eastern and Middle Atlantic States are as follows: 34,847 contributors in 1,447 churches; 685 children's bands, with 10,661 members. Five missionaries had returned to the United States on furlough, five had returned to their stations, and seven new missionaries had been sent out. Four young women had studied at Newton Theological Institution in preparation for service abroad. Sixteen children of missionaries were in the Home at Newton Center. Eight new leaflets had been issued, and 19 others reprinted. The monthly letter had been sent to all the auxiliaries. The form of "The Helping Hand" had been changed; the circulation is now 22,500. "King's Messengers" had a circulation of 19,656.

Financial.

The total receipts were $92,586.43, as follows: from Maine, $3,271.70; New Hampshire, $1,765.19; Vermont, $1,402.70; Massachusetts, $26,947.13; Rhode Island, $5,298.39 Connecticut, $4,854.04; New York, $21,100.67; New Jersey, $10,346.16; Pennsylvania, $9,296.03; Delaware, $228.05; District of Columbia, $880.05; other States, $203.41; foreign lands, $64.80; unknown, $30; Collections at meetings, $139.74; interest, $229.73; "Helping Hand," $488.98; sales of literature, $920.56; savings in exchange, $313.27; appropriations returned, $3,805.23. It was found necessary to use the contingent fund of $5,000.

The expenditures were for Burman Missions, $40,491.57; Assam, $2,192.01; Telugu Mission, $18,215.31; China, $3,975.83; Japan, $11,904.10; Africa, $8,739.66; Europe, $1,955.64; Home Expenses, $587.28; Interest on Annuity Funds, $390.00; deficit, $342.21. The receipts for the Home for Children of Missionaries were $924.70; balance from preceding year, $440.33; expenditures, $1,334.52; balance, $30.50. The receipts for the House for Bible Study were $935.17; expenditures, $873.05; balance, $62.12. The endowment fund for the Home for Children of Missionaries is now $2,434.87. Other invested funds amount to $16,676.68, of which $6,500 are annuity funds on which interest is paid during the lives of the donors.

Anniversary.

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting was held in Racine, Wisconsin, April 13, 14, 1892. The sessions were characterized by deep spiritual power. In addition to the customary devotional meetings, reports and business, excellent papers on "Christian Giving," and "A Century of Missions," were read. Addresses were made by Miss Louise Tschirch, Miss Minnie A. Buzzell, and Miss Louise Flemming and Dr. Bunker, returned missionaries. One session was conducted by young women. Mrs. L. Everingham presided. Reports from Temple Builders and Young People's Societies were presented. A paper entitled "According to the Pattern Shown thee in the Mount," was read by Miss Kidder, and a poem written for the occasion by Mrs. Dr. Anderson was recited by Mrs. Boyden. An address was also made by Rev. O. P. Gifford, on "Consecration." A Secretaries' Symposium, or Worker's Conference was a feature of the meeting. Many questions of practical benefit were considered.

The Annual Report.

This Society has 41 missionaries on its list, 6 of whom have been at home for needed rest and further preparation for work. Seven new names have been added during the year; 30 schools are reported, with 82 native teachers and 2,234 pupils. Among these lat-

Anniversary.

The Fifteenth Annual Meeting was held in the Grace Church, Philadelphia, Pa., May 22, 23, 1892. The exercises commenced with an address by Mrs. M. A. Ehlers, and a sermon by Rev. E. D. Burr, based on Judges 1 : 15. There were reported present 1,105, representing 35 States, one territory and 4 foreign countries. In addition to the customary addresses of welcome, there were addresses by Miss Mary Melby, on the Immigration work; Miss Hannah Sells, on the German work; Miss Elizabeth Garland, on the work among Colored People; Miss Maryetta J. Reedside, on the Indian work; Miss Mary E. Dobbins, on Church Missionary work; Mrs. W. E. Wamsley, on the general work of the Society; Miss J. P. Moore, and Geo. C. Lorimer, D. D. Following the latter address was an appeal for the deficit on building the training school, amounting to $3,500, which was secured. A joint meeting with the Women's American Baptist Home Mission Society was held, at which addresses were made and greetings interchanged.

The Annual Report.

The total number of branches, i. e., adult societies, reported was 1,635, the number of mission bands 442, thus making a constituency of 2,077 societies. A growing interest and more effort had marked the work among children. In the Missionary Garden Band, 153 boys and girls had been enrolled. Baby Band enrolled 2,977 little ones, and their contributions had sustained a teacher for six months.

The missions were: Afro-American, 19 stations and 34 missionaries; Asiatics, 1 station and 4 missionaries; Europeans, Landing Place, 1 station, 3 missionaries; Bohemians, 1 station and missionary; Germans, 8 stations and 13 missionaries; Danes and Norwegians, 7 stations and 6 missionaries; Swedes, 6 stations and 7 missionaries; Frontier work, 6 stations and 7 missionaries; Indians, 5 stations and 9 missionaries; Mexicans, 5 stations and 5 missionaries; Mormons, 2 stations and 2 missionaries; the total is 61 stations and 91 missionaries. The following is a summary of work accomplished: Weeks of labor, 2,585; religious visits, 47,472; religious conversations, not including visits, 14,725; Bible and teachers' meetings, 2,647; industrial schools and children's meetings, 4,106; Sunday-schools organized, 85; Sunday-schools labored in, 2,489; young people's meetings conducted, 1,629; women's meetings attended, 1,621; missionary meetings attended, 1,504; temperance meetings conducted, 520; temperance societies organized, 19; number of signatures to temperance pledge, 721; other meetings, including Sunday services, 8,387; days at Ellis Island, 365. Chinese Mission in San Francisco: Weeks of labor including time given by Chinese assistants, 73; religious visits, 1,263; evening school for boys, five nights in the week, average attendance, 365; prayer meetings attended, 47; Sunday-school sessions labored in, 177; other meetings, 236; pages of Christian literature distributed, 700; children's meetings, 65; day school, average attendance, 23.

The Treasurer's books show that, including last year's balance, the receipts for the general work had been $49,059.27, and the disbursements, $44,431.04, leaving a balance of $4,628.23. The receipts for the current expenses of the training school had been $6,331.61; of this amount $3,214.05 had been paid by students for board, and the remainder represents the interest on invested funds and contributions to be applied to the support of students; on this account, the disbursements were $5,613.55, leaving a balance of $722.06. There had been contributed toward the furnishing of the building, $1,698.53, and expended $1,948.53. The receipts for the Building Fund had been $9,235.40, which added to preceding year's balance, makes $15,728 50. For necessary remodelling and furnishing of the building, there had been expended $21,160.84, leaving a deficit of $5,432.34. The total receipts from all sources and for all purposes had been $71,123.38, and the total expenses $71,205.43, with balances in all departments except the Building Fund. Two legacies and one special gift had been made, aggregating $9,000. Co-operation continues with the Home Mission Society, and in accordance with the plans prescribed $4,618.21 had been paid into State Convention treasuries by auxiliary societies.

"Tidings" had reached a circulation of 11,000 copies. The cost of publishing had been $2,318.85, and the receipts from subscriptions $2,127.85. The paper had been enlarged. "Soster Budet" had been issued monthly instead of quarterly, the cost being $106.90 and the receipts $172.80. A Birthday Calendar had been issued. The whole cost of the literature had been $4,007.20, while the receipts had been $2,612.76. There remains unsold stock which would meet this deficit. The number of pages issued had been 3,843,400 and 29,500 pages had been purchased. The stock on hand represents 162,621 copies of various publications, aggregating 1,203,877 pages.

The Training School building had been completed and was dedicated December 10, 1891, which was ten years and some months after the opening of the school. The enrollment of students for the year was 54, of which number 37 were new students. The English speaking students were 38, Germans 8, Scandinavians 4, and Hollandish, Jewish, Bohemian and Mexican, 1 each. The class graduated numbered 9; of these, 3 were sent to the colored people, 1 each to Germans, Chinese and Scandinavians, 2 to Mexicans and 1 to the foreign field.

Next Anniversary.

The next annual meeting is to be arranged for by the Executive Board and will be announced in due time.

Anniversary.

The Fourteenth Annual Meeting was held in the Central Church, Newport, R. I., May 4, 5, 1892. There were present 289 delegates, representing every State in which the Society has a constituency. A Workers' Meeting was held with excellent practical results. Mrs. C. F. Genung, Conn., read a paper on "Missionary Work in Christian Endeavor Societies"; Mrs. L. G. Barrett, a paper on "How We may Enlarge our Circles"; Miss Nellie S. Bakeman, on "A Home Question" and addresses were made by H. M. King, D. D., on "Alaska"; Mr. Hezekiah Butterworth on "Mission Work in Mexico"; Mrs. De La Motta, Ga., on "What One Woman Can Do"; and Miss C. Butler, Mass., on "Progress in Mexico." In the department of children's work, papers were also presented by Miss Annie L. Crane and Mrs. Mary S. Hall. The rest of the sessions were devoted to routine business.

Financial.

While $45,000 had been asked for at the beginning of the year, the responses had aggregated only $28,431.15, which was much less than the preceding year's receipts. The difference was partially caused by a falling off in legacies from $7,877 37 to $250. The contributions of auxiliaries had been: Maine, $2,572.63; New Hampshire, $1,658.01; Vermont, $891.66; Massachusetts, $12,743 58; Rhode Island, $1,840 53; Connecticut, $2,401-.82; and from miscellaneous sources, $6,322 92. The expenditures foot up $33,398.94, including an item of $4,750 returned to contingent fund, borrowed for year's expenses. There had been received for the Alaska Orphanage, $4,179.05.

The Work.

Reports of the work as contained in the Annual show 14 teachers at Spelman Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., which had an enrollment of 837; 5 teachers at Mather Industrial School, Beaufort, S. C., where 170 pupils had been admitted; 3 teachers at Hartshorn Memorial, Richmond, Va., where 150 had been enrolled; 2 teachers at State University, Louisville, Ky., where were 295 students; 1 teacher at Roger Williams University, Nashville, Tenn.; 2 at Bible and Normal Institute, Memphis, Tenn.; 2 at Howe Institute, New Iberia, La.; 2 at Dawes Academy, Berwyn, Indian Territory; 2 at Baptist Academy, Atoka, Indian Territory; 3 at Monterey, Mexico; and one teacher each at Selma University, Ala.; Beaver Dam, N. C.; Kulli Inla, Indian Territory; Indian University, Bacone, Wichita Mission, Anadarko, I. T., Ogden and Provo, Utah; Fresno and Sacramento, Cal.; Butte City, Montana; Montemorelos and Caderita, Mexico; and Karluk, Alaska. Part of the work is the building of an orphanage on Wood Island, Alaska, for which over $4,000 had been secured, which is not half the needed amount. It would seem that the scope of the work of this Society is educational; but in the State reports there are references made to boxes and supplies sent to missionaries, but no special account is taken of these in the financial summaries.

Next Anniversary.

The meetings of the Society are arranged for by the Executive Board and announced through the denominational press in ample time.

Anniversary.

The Fourth Annual Meeting was held in Atlanta, Ga., May 6–10, 1892. Sixty-five delegates out of a possible seventy-nine were in attendance from the fourteen Southern States. One session was held each day. Apart from routine business, recommendations from the Home and Foreign Boards, S. B. C., and from the Executive Committee, W. M. U., formed the basis of the programme, and were severally introduced by the following speakers: Dr. J. Wm. Jones, Miss L. Moon, Mrs. C. W. Pruitt, Dr. J. M. Frost, Mrs. M. D. Early, Dr. F. M. Ellis, Mrs. L. B. Telford, Dr. T. P. Bell, Miss A. W. Armstrong, Mrs. F. B. Davis, Rev. A. J. Diaz and Miss G. Joerg. Discussion of each recommendation was followed by its adoption, as a line of work for the following year.

Annual Report.

Letters written, 4,077; postals, 348; leaflets and pamphlets distributed, 112,553; Christmas envelopes, 58,892; chapel or brick cards, 24,624; prayer cards, 20,390; mite barrels or boxes, 7,748; Centennial certificates, 7,574; papers, 2,970. The correspondence showed an advance of 50 per cent.; demand for missionary literature increased 100 per cent.; 2,800 more mite barrels indicated enlarged work; Centennial chapel cards and certificates opened new lines of endeavor. A week of prayer inaugurated the Centennial effort, of assisting in the collection of $250,000 Chapel Fund. One hundred and twenty-two boxes of clothing and supplies, valued at $6,776, were sent to frontier missionaries. Eighteen girls have been supported at boarding school in Havana, Cuba. Christmas envelope offering for North China missions aggregated $4,984. The Union maintained missionary departments in Foreign Mission Journal and in Kind Words (with enlarged space); provided monthly material for State and Woman's papers, and semi-monthly articles for State papers on Centennial topics.

Financial.

The Home and Foreign Boards, S. B. C. received and disbursed the contributions of the W. M. U., $19,242.53 for Home Missions; $25,040.27 for Foreign Missions: a total of $14,282, against $21,039 in 1888 (date of organization). Expenses for printing, postage, expressage, etc., $1,362. There are no salaried officers.

The Work for 1892-93.

Through recommendation of Home Board: 1. Moneyed contributions for support of missionaries; 2. Boxes to frontier missionaries; 3. Centennial Chapel Building Fund. For Foreign Board: 1. Support of women missionaries; 2. Christmas offering for Japan; 3. Centennial Chapel Building Fund. By recommendation of W. M. U.: An effort to secure at least $1.00 annually from every Baptist woman; band work, colored women, foreign population, Chinese S. School, circulation of missionary literature and Central Committee Expense Fund.

Next Anniversary.

The next annual meeting will be held in Nashville, Tenn., while the Southern Baptist Convention is in session, May, 1893.

Rev. G. A. SCHULTE, New York, N. Y.

This body comprises all the German Baptist Churches in the United States. It meets every three years. It has constituted itself a General Missionary Society, a Publication Society, and an Education Society, taking care of these and other general interests. It held its tenth session with the First German Church, Chicago, Illinois, September 27 to October 4, 1892.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. L. Kaiser, N. Y., from Exod. 17 : 8, 9. There were 260 delegates and visitors present coming from all parts of the country.

The publication interest was first taken up. During the three years, progress had been made. There are published "Der Senbote," a large weekly paper; two childs' papers, "Der Munte Saemann" (Cheerful Giver), and "Unsre Kleinin" (Our Little Ones); "Der Jugend Herold" (Youth's Herald), for young people; "Der Wegwiser," a monthly publication for distribution, and other tracts were published. An almanac was also issued. "Der Sendbote" has at present 7,000 subscribers, and "Der Saemann," 14,000. The property, including publications and the publishing house, amounts to $55,838. The changes effected in this department were the election of Rev. P. Ritter as business manager, and Rev. J. C. Grimmel as editor of the publications. Dr. Haselhuhn having been editor for fourteen and one-half years, had contracted severe illness through overwork, and was relieved of the pressing cares of the editorship, but was continued as emeritus editor for life.

In the missionary work there had been during the three years from 56 to 59 missionaries annually sustained. The German churches together co-operate with the Home Mission Society, this latter contributing for German work, dollar for dollar up to $7,500; the excess demanded is supplied by the German churches entirely. The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, had sustained a general missionary in Missouri, besides sustaining a number of missionaries in that State and in Kentucky. The Conference passed unanimously a hearty vote of thanks to this Board. There were appointed two general missionaries, Rev. H. Schwendener to labor especially in the Central and Southwestern Conferences, and Rev. W. Schunke to devote himself to the Northwestern Conference.

Foreign missions received large consideration. In Germany, seven missionaries were aided and one in Russia. There was aid rendered also to missions in India. As the German brethren abroad had taken up the mission in Kameroon, Africa, which the English Baptists after many years had relinquished to a society of another denomination, the German Baptists of the United States have joined hands with them, and sent out a missionary from America, besides giving considerable financial aid. The reports from that field are that the Lord is doing wonderful things for his people. Over $8,000 were collected among the churches to aid the starving and persecuted brethren in Russia.

Very encouraging reports came from the educational work. During the triennium, 33 theological students were received, and 24 finished their studies, who are all in the field and preaching. One went to Africa and one went to Burma. The academy connected with the Rochester Seminary, the institution most patronized by the German brethren, had made encouraging progress. There are 3 theological professors and 4 academical teachers; 1 of these also teaches church history in the seminary. Since the last conference a new building had been erected on the site of the old home for German students. It is a five-story building, furnishing rooms for 100 students, with lecture-rooms, chapel, gymnasium, family rooms for teachers, housekeepers, and servants, and supplied with all modern improvements. A professor's house was also erected. The whole expenditure was $42,138.

Attention is given to the matter of orphanage. The Orphans' Home at Louisville was reported to be in a prosperous condition. An Old People's Home had also been established and had begun a good work.

Our correspondent says: "On the whole, this Conference proved to be a very important event to the cause among the Germans, and with God's help, much good will undoubtedly result from it."

The arrangements for the next meeting which is to be held in 1895, are to be made by the Executive Board, and announced in due time through the denominational press.

preached by Rev. G. A. Schulte, N. Y. Other powerful sermons were preached during the session upon doctrinal topics.

The additions during the year were: By baptism, 410; by letter and experience, 324. The total membership reported was 6,720. The contributions were: For home and foreign missions, $5,200.

The next meeting is to be held at Philadelphia, Pa., during the last week in September, 1893.

Rev. A. Vogel, Peoria, Ill.

The Twelfth Annual Session was held at Colehour, Ill., September 22-27, 1892. There were present 52 delegates from Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, and Ohio. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. C. Tiemann, Ind., from 2 Cor. 8 : 5.

There were reported 200 baptisms, and the whole number of members, is 3,303. There had been contributed for home missions, $1,686.52; foreign missions, $496.77; education, $125.93; church building fund, $308.01; sufferers in Russia and India, $1,041.00; different objects, $1,220.00, and the whole amount raised for carrying on the work was $42,618.32. There are 32 ministers within this body. Twelve new mission fields were recommended to the missionary committee for aid.

The next session will be held at Detroit, Mich., beginning September 20, 1893, and the opening sermon is to be delivered by Rev. R. Strake.

The Northwestern Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

Rev. J. H. Moehlmann, Racine, Wis.

Clerk.

Rev. H. Schultz, St. Joseph, Mich.

This body convened with the Second German Church at Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 21, 1892. It comprises a part of Northern Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, and the Dakotas. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. B. Matzke, S. D., from John 10 : 3

Most of the churches reported a prosperous year, with the best prospects before them. There had been baptized 350, and the entire membership was reported as over 4,000. Contributions for missions amounted to $5,300. Ten new chapels had been erected during the year, mostly in the Dakotas. Four new churches had been organized. This Conference finds in the two Dakotas specially a missionary field of great promise. Thousands of persecuted German Russian Stundists and Mennonites, who reject infant sprinkling, are much inclined toward the Baptists. Thousands more of them who are driven out of Russia by cruel persecution will follow. What seems to be most needed are ministers and meeting houses. This promises to be a region dotted over with German Baptist churches.

The next session is to be held at Arlington, Iowa, beginning September 20, 1893.

The Southwestern Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

Rev. A. Franschel, Beatrice, Neb.

Clerk.

Rev. Fr. Hoffman, St. Louis, Mo.

The Twelfth Anniversary was held at Burlington, Iowa, September 21-27, 1892. The Opening Sermon was preached by Rev. F. Sievers, Mo.

The churches comprising this conference are situated in Southern Nebraska, Missouri, Southern Iowa, and Kansas. They reported additions by baptism, 151; by letter, 147; by experience, 41, and by restoration, 31. The whole membership was reported to be 2,636. There were four new churches organized and five houses of worship built. One Missouri church became self-sustaining. The contributions were as follows: Home missions, $1,213.17; foreign missions, $1,295.75; women's home missions, $165.00; education, $332.25. The whole amount for local and other objects was $29,142.62.

The next meeting is to be held during the latter part of September, 1893, at Concordia, Mo.

The Texas Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

L. Vogt, Greenville, Tex.

Clerk.

H. C. Sydow, King, Tex.

The Conference met with the Cottonwood Church, August 4, 1892. Rev. J. E. Sydow preached the Opening Sermon from Psalm 20 : 6.

There had been added by baptism, 17, by letter, 47, and by restoration, 7. The whole number of members was reported to be 488. The churches had contributed for home missions, $162.75; foreign missions, $122.00; ministerial education, $63.25; different objects, $335.05; orphans, $56.20. The whole amount of contributions was $3,930.85.

The next session is to be held with the Ebenezer Church at Greenville, Texas, beginning Thursday, July 27, 1893, Rev. G. Peitsch preaching the Annual Sermon.

The Swedish Baptists.

The great majority, probably all, of the Swedish churches in the United States are in connection with the various district associations, and their statistics are so included. There is a General Conference, however, which meets annually, and the session for 1892 was held at Oakland, Nebraska, September 29 to October 1st. Rev. O. J. Engstrand, Chicago, Ill., was made Chairman, and Rev. O. P. Peterson, of Minnesota, preached the Opening Sermon. The main business concerned the extension of missions and the relation of the Swedish Baptists to the divinity school of the University of Chicago. It was decided to begin missionary work in Texas, and to take steps for organized work among the Swedish churches in Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, South and North Dakota. Certain changes in the methods which obtain in the divinity school were recommended, and confidence was expressed in the administration of the Swedish department at the University of Chicago. The churches were discouraged from undertaking independent work in foreign lands not in connection with the American Baptist Missionary Union, but to contribute through that organization.

Anniversary.

The Twentieth Annual Meeting was held with the Union Church, Springfield, Ill., September 25–28, 1892. The attendance was large, and the meetings pronounced to be quite interesting. Rev. J. L. Cohron, Mo., preached the Introductory Sermon. The representation was 25 Associations and 10 churches.

The work of this body is in Africa, where there are now four laborers in the Congo field. In 1890, Mrs. John E. Ricketts was sent out by the Society to join her husband, and in 1891-92, two others were forwarded. Much of the means for these missions comes from friends in Great Britain, where there is a missionary agent in the person of Rev. T. L. Johnson. Blessing had come upon the work, and the church which had been formed some years since with 40 members now numbers 440. The churches in America do not seem to come up to the support of this work, judging from the earnest appeals which are made for funds. A debt of over $5.000 on the account of these missions exist. Friends in England would be more willing to aid if they saw a more generous disposition on the part of the American colored churches. The report of Rev. J. E. Ricketts from the field is full of interesting detail of encouraging work, not only in the way of evangelization, but also of school work. From our information we are unable to give report of financial work.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Atchison, Kansas, beginning September 26, 1893.

The Thirteenth Annual Session was held in Savannah, Ga., September, 18–20, 1892. There were representatives present from every Southern State. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. E. W. D. Isaac, Texas, from Luke 24 : 27 on "The Missionary Spirit." The Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. J. N. Waldron, from Mark 16 : 15.

This is the organization for foreign missions of the colored Baptists. While we are in possession of a full report of the proceedings, we are unable to review the work done for the year, since a great amount of unimportant work is given to the exclusion of the reports of the executive committee. Two missionaries are sustained in Africa, and there are indications that the interest in this work among the colored churches is increasing. The women are also being organized for the collection of missionary funds. It would appear that the receipts from the churches had been increased. There is no probability of the printed proceedings being issued before the appearance of this issue of the YEAR-BOOK, and personal correspondence on the part of the editor has thus far failed to elicit any response. The meeting seemed to be enthusiastic and a number of addresses on practical topics were made.

The next anniversary is to be held in Washington, D. C., in September, 1893.

The Sixth Annual Meeting was held in Savannah, Ga., September 15–18, 1892. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. D. A. Gaddie, Kentucky, from Matt. 28 : 18–20, on "The Discipling of the World by Baptists."

This appears to be the more rallying body of the colored Baptists of the United States. The object of the Convention is to secure the general and educational development of the race, and has no special missionary work laid out before it. The principal discussion appears to be that of "Education." Rev. Dr. MacVicar of the Home Mission Society was present and laid before the body detailed reports of the colored schools of the country. They were addresses by E. M. Brawley, D.D., on "The Bible on Education"; Rev. J. M. Waldron, on "Power for Service"; Mrs. S. H. Wright, on "The Women's Mission Work"; Rev. John H. Frank, on "The Baptist Churches of the First Century"; Prof. S. H. Floyd, on "The Press as the means of Civilization"; L. A. Scruggs, on "The Colored Man as a Physician"; Rev. A. J. Stokes, on "The Real Strength and Position of the Baptists"; Miss Sarah A. Blocker, on "A Weak Spot in the Baptist Ministry," and a Denominational Sermon was preached by Rev. J. T. Brown, Florida, from 2 Timothy 1 : 15 and Eph. 4 : 5.

During this meeting it appears that another organization entitled The National Baptist Educational Convention was formed, with Rev. P. F. Morris, Lynchburg, Va., as president, and W. Bishop Johnson, Washington, D. C., as corresponding secretary. There was a sermon preached before this body by J. H. Garnett, D. D., Kentucky, from 1 Cor. 13 : 12 on "The Relation of Material to Immaterial." We are not informed as to the proposed scope of this body, as it appears to be in the same line as that of the National Convention.

The question of organising a publishing house was largely discussed, and was referred finally to the Committee on Resolutions, but our report of the proceedings does not indicate that this Committee reported on the subject. The Treasurer reported receipts $274.50, and expenditures, $237.85; but of the items we are not informed.

The next meeting is to be held in Washington, D. C., in September, 1893.

The Eighteenth Anniversary was held with the Immanuel Church, New Haven, Conn., June 15–20, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. E. Kelly, Mass., from Matthew 28 : 18–20, and Mark 16 : 16.

There had been 5 missionaries employed by the Board, who had rendered 56 months of labor, preached 401 sermons, attended 592 prayer-meetings, made 3,603 visits, baptized 6 persons, and collected on their fields $1,636.24. In addition to this work, missions had been fostered at 6 points in New Jersey, and financial aid had been rendered to others. In Massachusetts, two churches had been aided in building houses, and two missions had been organized. Churches in New York State had been moderately aided. From only 2 of the 4 districts had there been reports rendered of monies expended in this work, so that the total of $2,238.83 is but a partial one. The Treasurer reported that he had received $1,099.76, more than half of which had come over from the preceding year. He had paid out $1,077.33, of which $556.58 was to missionaries. On the widows' fund there had been received $391.25, and $60.62 had been paid to 5 beneficiaries. The amount of money collected during the session and sent up to the meeting for various objects was $596.93.

It was resolved to take immediate steps for the organization of a Foreign Mission Department, and to establish a Board for this purpose with its own secretary, and it was resolved to celebrate this centenary year by attempting to secure from among the churches $1,000 for the work. Progress is being made toward the erection of a Baptist school to be owned and controlled by this body. An effort to raise $10,000 for this purpose was encouraged, and a Board appointed with full power to carry on the work.

During the sessions a sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Phillips, on "Christian Loyalty"; a paper was read by Rev. R. A. Motley, on "How to Make a Prayer Meeting Attractive"; a sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. K. Butler, on "The Worship of Christ." The Doctrinal Sermon was by Rev. T. Doughty Miller, on "Believers' Foundation"; a sermon on "The Oneness of the Human Family" was preached by Rev. J. W. Mitchell, and a paper by Rev. W. Troy was read on "Sunday-school Work."

The next session is to be held with the Mt. Calvary Church, Norwich, Conn., to begin Wednesday, June 14, 1893, and the Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. S. H. Browne, Mass.

Anniversary.

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held in the meeting house of the First Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Monday evening, May 23, 1892. The President, Hon. James L. Howard, of Connecticut, called the meeting to order.

Opening devotional exercises were led by Richard B. Cook, D. D., of Delaware, and T. E. Vassar, D. D., Kansas City, Missouri.

Addresses were made by C. C. Bitting, D. D., of Philadelphia, and Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Brooklyn.

The report says, "Our Library is constantly increasing in value, not only because of additions that are made, but also because of a more orderly and accessible arrangement of the material in hand. The frequent use made of it, shows the appreciation of those who are acquainted with its contents.

"Some of the archives of the Society could be reproduced, if at all, with great difficulty. Yet almost no provision is made to insure their preservation. We think the time has come when some special effort should be made to secure a suitable building, and that all the energies of the Society should be directed to this end.

"It is believed that the great body of Baptists in America must have in it members who are so proud of the history of our denomination, and who so believe in the preservation of the records of a glorious history, that they will respond to an appeal that has this end in view. The Board still prays and hopes that this undoubted need may be supplied soon."

The Building Fund has not largely increased, but is a beginning. It is believed that an addition of twenty-five thousand dollars would not only provide a suitable building, but also an encouraging start for an endowment fund for its future support.

Since the last report two hundred and thirty-six (236) bound volumes and five thousand and ninety (5,090) pamphlets have been added to the Library, which has now seven thousand four hundred and seventy-seven (7,477) bound volumes on its shelves, appropriately classified and catalogued.

The Treasurer's Report shows receipts, from all sources, $978.79; expenditures, $760.69.

Investments,

Building Fund, $2,500; other Funds, $1,500; interest of the latter only to be used for expenses.

General Committee.

J. B. Thomas, D. D., Chairman.

Rev. Walter Rauschenbusch, Secretary.

Plan of Organization.

The object of the Congress is to promote a healthful sentiment among Baptists through free and courteous discussion of current questions by suitable persons. The work of the Congress is subject to the control of the General Committee, which is composed of persons who have consented to contribute $5 or more annually toward the expenses of the Congress. The General Committee elects a permanent Executive Committee of 15 persons residing in or near the city of New York, and to this Executive Committe is entrusted entire control over the public meetings, and the securing of a full stenographic report of the proceedings. The General Committee meets in connection with the public meetings, and when called together by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee secures the appointment of a Local Committee in the city or town where a public meeting is to be held, which is to provide a suitable place for the Congress, entertainment for the officers and appointees of the Congress. Any member of a Baptist congregation may become an annual member of this Congress, and thus be entitled to all its privileges, and to a copy of the published proceedings, by he payment of the sum of $2.

Rules of Discussion.

The chairman of the Congress is appointed by the Executive Committee, and on all points of order his decision is final. Any member of a Baptist congregation who, by sending his card to the secretary, shall signify his willingness to speak on the topic under discussion, may be called upon by the chairman. All writers and speakers take the platform, address only the chair, and confine themselves to the subject assigned for the occasion. No person speaks twice on the same subject. Readers of papers are allowed 25 minutes, appointed speakers 25 minutes, and volunteer speakers 10 minutes. The secretary notifies all participants by stroke of bell 3 minutes before, and also at the expiration of their time, beyond which no one is allowed to proceed. No resolutions or motions are entertained at the public conferences.

Tenth Annual Session.

The Tenth Annual Session of the Baptist Congress was held in Philadelphia, Pa., May 19th to 21st, 1892. The topics for discussion were as follows: "The Christian Year, and How Far is its Recognition Advisable?" Addresses by H G Weston, D. D., Rev. W. H. P. Faunce, R. S. MacArthur, D. D. "Is a Union of the Various Baptist Bodies Possible"? Addresses by B. B. Tyler, D. D., (Church of the Disciples,) A. H. Lewis, D. D., (Seventh Day Baptist,) of "The Sabbath Outlook," Prof. J. A. Howe, (Freewill Baptist,) Prof. W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., (Baptist.) "The Inerrancy of the Scriptures." Addresses by Rev. T. A. T. Hanna, Prof. D. G. Lyon, J. B. G. Pidge, D. D., Prof. Howard Osgood, D. D. "The Pulpit in Relation to Political and Social Reform." Addresses by H. H. Peabody, D. D., C. R. Henderson, D. D., Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr. "Christianity in Relation to Heathen Religions." Addresses by Edward Braislin, D. D., Prof. Nathaniel Schmidt, F. M. Ellis, D. D. "The Relative Authority of Scripture and Reason." Addresses by President D. J. Hill, Prof. W. N. Clarke, D. D., E. G. Robinson, D. D., LL. D., A. T. Robertson, D. D. Closing words were spoken by Dr. Wilkinson in behalf of the Congress, to which Dr. Boardman, pastor of the church, responded.

The Seventy-first Annual Meeting was held at Anniston, November 22-24, 1892. There were enrolled as present 9 life members, 68 representatives of 45 churches, and 79 representatives of 33 Associations, in all 156 persons. The Convention Sermon was delivered by Rev. W. M. Harris, from Matthew 27 : 46.

The Report of the Board showed that 50 missionaries had been employed, who had rendered 5,443 days of service, traveled 24,884 miles, delivered 2,224 sermons, made 516 addresses, constituted 12 churches, baptized 198 persons, and 248 were baptized by others in connection with their labors, added otherwise, 252; organized 50 Sunday-schools, 29 women's societies and 28 prayer-meetings; maintained 79 out-stations, distributed 16,431 pages of tracts, commenced the erection of 13 meeting-houses and finished 6 others. They had collected on the fields for meeting-houses, $1,463.78; for missions, $1,247 95; and for other beneficence, $88.25. In addition to these items the Secretary of Missions had traveled thousands of miles in thed ischarge of his work, and performed an immense amount of clerical labor.

There had passed through the Board, funds to the amount of $8,546.24 for State missions; $4,034.08 for home missions; $6,217.59 for foreign missions; $362.25 for ministerial education; $60.45 for Howard College; $11.68 for Judson College; $444.99 for aged and indigent ministers; $500.36 for Bible and colportage work; $163.22 for the State Mission Quarterly; $12 60 for orphans; and $117.79 for Church Building,—a total of $19,197.18. This does not represent all the missionary beneficence of the churches; there had been given to foreign missions $7,661.22 during the year, and to home missions, $6,337.85. Among the disbursements are $5,636.11 to the missionaries on the fields and the sums that were for specific purposes as noted.

In the work of Bible and colportage evangelization there were receipts: from balance on hand, $3,078.70; donations from churches and individuals, $936.58; from the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, $74.39; and from the American Baptist Publication Society in Bibles and books, $307.30; making total resources, $4,396.97. There had been 12 colporteurs at work during portions of the year, who had traveled 6,297 miles, rendered 898 days of service, visited 3,700 families, preached 352 sermons, held 64 prayer-meetings, and organized 10 schools and 4 women's societies. They sold 1,525 copies of Bibles and other literature to the value of $950.46, and distributed 8,640 pages of tracts. The Board in charge of this work had also supplied many of the Sunday-schools with literature.

The Board of Ministerial Education had at Howard College 29 students for the ministry, at the Louisville Seminary 11, at high schools 3, and one colored student at Selma University, making in all 44. Besides these, 4 had been supported at Six Mile High School from private benefactions, and a number of Associations had maintained their own young men without calling upon the Board. There had been received in contributions from the churches $2,402.93, all of which had been expended in the work. If the Board should heed all the applications made it would require a fund of $5,000.

The report of the Trustees of Howard College was full of encouragement. At the present session there had been 142 students enrolled, which number is to be largely increased as the session proceeds. The assets of the Institution were in notes, some of which are yet to mature, $30,727.44; main building, four dormitories and other buildings and real estate, $100,625.00; cash on hand for various purposes, $15,514.18; a total of $146,866.62. The liabilities are $50,964.00, of which $40,000 is due a trust company, and $5,300.00 due on dormitory buildings. The Trustees of the Judson Female Institute also report an encouraging condition; there is a faculty of 12 employed in teaching and management, and an enrollment of 159 students. The Convention occupied some time in the discussion of the matter of denominational high schools to be established under the auspices of the body, but no definite conclusion was reached at this meeting.

The observance of the Centenary of Modern Missions was reported to be well observed throughout the State, and during the sessions occasion was given for addresses by John A. Broadus, D. D., of Kentucky, and W. D. Powell, D. D., and a contribution was made to the Centennial Fund of $15,402. The matter of Baptist Young People's Unions was also given due consideration, but no special organization was effected.

Other interesting matters were the reports on specific benevolence, especially that of the Orphans' Home which is not yet established, but which reports a condition which promises early establishment; an address by Rev. J. V. Cova, one of the missionaries in Havana; and a discussion as to the advisability of establishing and owning a denominational paper.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at Greenville, to begin Tuesday, November 7, 1893; and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be delivered by Rev. J. L. Lawless.

Women's Work.

The relation of the Baptist Women's Work to the State Convention is very intimate. The Central Committee reported to the Convention $2,082.69 for home missions, $1,399.86 for foreign missions, $507.04 for State missions, and $3,392.57 for church aid, thus making a total of $7,382.16. There are now 184 Mission and Aid Societies, of which 32 are newly organized. There are also 61 Sunbeam Societies, 14 being new.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting was held with the Franklin Street Church, Mobile, November 23–27, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was delivered by Rev. J. S. Simmons, from Deut. 4 : 7–9.

The report of the State Mission Board showed that two missionaries were jointly supported by itself and the Publication Society, and one jointly by it and the Home Mission Society. The work of these laborers is summarized in the reports of those bodies. In addition, the Publication Society supports a third man entirely, and another is sustained by the White Convention and the Home Board of the Southern Convention.

The Board of Trustees of Selma University reported that over 400 students were in attendance at that institution. Conversions were reported. A three-story brick dormitory is in process of erection. The course of study had been enlarged.

The Convention appointed W. R. Pettiford, D. D., to take charge of the raising of needed funds for the prosecution o missionary and educational interests. The plans adopted were thought to be the best that the Convention had ever devised for the enlargement of the work.

The report of the Statistical Secretary showed that 11,308 persons had been baptized during the year; that there were 63 Associations in the State, with 1,541 churches, and over 166,000 communicants. We indulge hope that these figures may some time be at the disposal of the YEAR-BOOK, but they are not now.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Eufaula, beginning Wednesday, November 22, 1893.

ARIZONA.

The condition of Baptist affairs in this territory continues about the same as last year. The association which has been reported previously has dissolved. The church at Buckeye has disbanded and that at Tucson is in a depressed condition. A new church has been organized at Mesa City where there is promise of growth. There are 7 churches now in the territory, with 4 pastors and 3 other ordained ministers. The pastors are located at Del Verte, Tempe, Prescott, and Cottonwood. The church at Phœnix lost two pastors by death the last year, and it is hoped that a new pastor will be immediately settled.

The Forty-fourth Annual Meeting was held at Fort Smith, November 2–4, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Lipsey, from 2 Cor. 5 : 9.

The State Mission Board had employed 24 missionaries. These had preached 3,235 sermons, delivered 1,185 lectures, held 695 prayer meetings, made 6,053 religious visits, baptized 269 persons, and added otherwise 279, organized 11 churches, and 101 Sunday-schools. They collected on their fields for foreign missions, $96.32; home missions, $49.00; State missions, $292.11; associational missions, $361.90; ministerial education, $37.20; for Ouachita College, $80.00, and from their Sunday-schools, $243.13, a total of $1,659.66. There had been paid for salaries of missionaries from the field, $2,570.72, and by the Board, $2,858.30; total expended, $5,429.02. There had been received from the Home Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, $1,899.40. The report was followed by a general free discussion. Further consideration of the matter of State missions resulted in the decision to provide a State evangelist and the greater part of his salary was secured during the meetings.

It was decided to press more vigorously the matter of Sunday-schools. After considerable discussion it was determined to establish a Sunday-school Board to be located at Jonesboro, and to employ a Sunday-school missionary, and to press the adoption of the literature as published by the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Thirteen ministerial students had been aided in Ouachita during the past year, and 10 were reported to be present at the current session. This number would be increased but for the want of funds. It was proposed to secure a house at the college for the exclusive use of ministerial students, and that the Baptist women of the State be requested to furnish it. The latest statistics of this institution are included in our educational tables. President J. W. Conger made an address in behalf of the college, showing that in 6 years beginning with nothing it had acquired property at the value of $75,000. There is an indebtedness, for the removal of which efforts are being made. Rev. C. M. Williams represented the new Central college, which is especially intended for the education of women. This is a new institution, the buildings of which are in process of erection, equipped with all modern conveniences.

Prof. W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., represented the seminary at Louisville, and $220.00 was contributed for the aid of students at that institution.

The consideration for foreign missions was made peculiarly interesting by the presence of Rev. W. B. Bagby, missionary in Brazil, who made an address on his work. The Sunday-school Board of the Southern Convention was represented in an address by J. M. Frost, D. D. In considering home missions, addresses were made by A. G. McManaway, D. D., J. B. Searcy, D. D., and W. P. Harvey, D. D. The usual reports on temperance, obituaries, and women's work, were adopted after interesting discussions.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Conway, beginning Wednesday, November 2, 1893, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by W. A. Welsher, D. D.

Women's Work.

There is a Women's Missionary Union which is auxiliary to the State Convention, which held its Fourth Annual Meeting at Fort Smith, November 3, 1892. Mrs. J. R. Hughes is president, and Miss M. May Clark is secretary and treasurer. Our information, while full and interesting, does not include the desirable details of receipts and expenditures. These are probably to be found included in the financial statistics of the General Women's Society in connection with the Southern Convention. There were reports on home, foreign, and State missions, education, band work, and plans for the succeeding year. Rev. W. B. Bagby made an extended address. The discussions were of a practical character.

This Convention met at Little Rock, August 21–25, 1892, when the delegation was the largest in its history. It was the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the organization, and the meeting was made an occasion of reviewing the work and growth of the colored Baptists of the State.

There were read historical sketches of the various associations and district conventions together with a complete history of the convention itself. These narratives are to be compiled and published in book form. The statistics showed that there are 27 Associations in the State, with 700 ordained ministers and 58,520 members. It still remains very difficult to get the accurate statistics of the colored associations.

The State Sunday-school Convention was held in Little Rock, June 23–25. The exercises were conducted in the form of an institute. A large number of schools were represented. This body is in co-operation with the American Baptist Publication Society, and sustains a Sunday-school missionary for the State. They also contribute to foreign missions and to educational work, but we have no statistics that are reliable.

There is also a Women's Baptist Convention for Arkansas, which met in Texarkana, June 21–22, 1892, and which held a profitable session. The object of the organization is to assist in the educational work of the State, though efforts are made to secure contributions for foreign missions, and also to sustain a woman missionary on the home field. Our correspondent gives us no further details.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting was held at the Baptist Summer Resort at Twin Lakes, near Santa Cruz, June 21–26, 1892. There were 44 churches represented by 107 delegates, and ten new churches were admitted to membership. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. E. B. Hatch, from Rev. 2: 10, on "Christian Faithfulness."

The mission work of the Convention is under the management of a General Secretary and an Executive Committee. The General Secretary reported for himself, 17,000 miles traveled, 69 churches visited, 1,358 letters written, and $1,000 raised for special evangelistic work. Besides this General Secretary, and in connection with the Home Mission Society, which contributed $5,000, the Convention had employed 24 missionaries, who had served 27 churches, preached 2,267 sermons, made 7,034 religious visits, attended 1,196 prayer meetings, baptized 112 persons and received otherwise 232; the total membership of the mission churches was 1,375, and 1,949 pupils were gathered into the Sunday-schools. These churches had contributed for all purposes $21,014.73, being $15.28 per member. The receipts of the mission treasury from the field were $5,444.45. Four of the churches had become self-sustaining. Much new and successful mission work had been undertaken, especially among the Swedes, Dane-Norwegians and colored people. The Church-Edifice Missionary had had supervision of church construction at four important points, having been engaged also in raising the means for the same. The Church-Edifice Department of the Home Mission Society co-operated with the Convention in this department, on the basis of $3 for each $1 raised on the field. Co-operation with the Boards of three Associations exists on the basis of dollar for dollar. The Women's Home Missionary Society of California is an ally of the Board, having furnished $700 toward the support of the Church-Edifice Missionary, and $500 toward the building of a house at Merced.

The Convention decided to create a Foreign Mission Board, which is to bear the same relation to the Convention that its present Home Mission Board does. Much interest was elicited by the presence of the Chapel Car "Evangel," and subscriptions were taken for a new car for the Pacific Coast. Chinese Missions were reported to be in a flourishing condition under the superintendence of Dr. J. B. Hartwell; there are 14 missions of the Home Mission Society, besides the missions of the Women's Home Mission Society; the conversions were reported to be 41, and baptisms, 35; the contributions to Christian work were nearly $1,700.

The reports of Committees on the several subjects showed the Convention to be in active sympathy with the general societies of the denomination as well as with California College and the Pacific Baptist Theological Union. The statistics of the educational institutions are included in the appropriate tables.

The next anniversary is to be held at Twin Lakes, beginning Tuesday, June 20, 1893.

The Annual Meeting for 1892 was held in connection with the other societies at Twin Lakes. The objects of the organization are to foster educational institutions, collegiate and academic, under Baptist auspices, and to aid students approved by the Board. Addresses were made on "The Work and Field," by G. S. Abbott, D.D.; "The Christian Student in Secular Life," by Rev. Frank B. Cressey; "The Pastor's Relation to a Denominational School," by Rev. Ray Palmer; and "Financial Aid to Students," by Prof. Bunyan Spencer. A revised Constitution was adopted, and apparently new life was infused into the Society. We are without details of the financial work accomplished.

PACIFIC BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL UNION.—This Institution is in its early infancy, and attempts now only to give such instruction as may be practicable to those students who are not able to attend a more fully equipped theological seminary. E. H. Gray, D. D., who is the President, alone gives his whole time to instruction; G. S. Abbott, D. D., gives instruction in homiletics, church polity and pastoral duties. During the past year 8 students had been in attendance. The income of the institution from interest, rents, membership fees and beneficiary fund had been $2,174.27.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting was held at Twin Lakes, June 21, 1892. This Society has several departments of work, in which their minutes show the following results: paid toward salary of Edifice Missionary, $700.00; contributed to building at Merced, $500.00; student's aid fund, $70.00; expense account, $149.00. Besides these items, the Bureau of Supplies had sent out to missionaries on the field boxes and barrels valued at $800. A department for children exists; the Bureau of Intelligence supplies literature and other information. Needy families also are supplied with religious papers and magazines. While in harmony with the general work, this Society is not auxiliary to the Women's Society, with its headquarters at Chicago. It meets annually with the other organizations.

There are in the churches of the General Convention, with which this Union co-operates, 19 Societies of Christian Endeavor, 18 Baptist Young People's Unions, and 1 Society of King's Messengers, with a total membership of 1,505. They reported home expenses for the year $902, and mission work $212, a total of $1,114. We are without details of the meetings, save that they were very enthusiastic, and pledges to the amount of $700 were made by the young people toward the purchase of the second Chapel Car for the Pacific Coast. It is presumed that the next meeting is to be held in connection with the General Convention at Twin Lakes, June, 1893.

The First Meeting of this newly organized body was held at Los Angeles, April 21–23, 1892. It proposes to occupy the territory in that portion of the State lying south of the north line of Kern County, and is in harmony with the corresponding body in the other portion of the State. The Convention Sermon was delivered by Rev. A. J. Frost, D. D., from John 8: 46, on the "Deity of Christ."

It being the initial meeting there is no report of work accomplished. The constitution was adopted, and general conferences on the various needs of the field were had. There were prepared addresses by Rev. O. B. Read; Rev. E. R. Bennett, on "The Centennial Movement"; Rev. Joseph Clarke, on "The Congo"; G. S. Abbott, D. D., on "Denominational Level-Headedness"; Rev. E. R. Bennett, on the "Genesis of the Young People's Work"; B. E. Street, on "The Sphere of the Young People's Work"; Willis Brown, on "The Needs of the Young People's Work"; and a Doctrinal Sermon by Rev. J. S. Dill, from Acts 17: 10, on "The Authority of the Scriptures." The Sunday-school work and Women's Foreign Missions, and Christian Education were also subjects of brief interesting addresses. The Convention decided to attempt to sustain a missionary on The Congo, and recommended for this position one of their own number.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society for Southern California was organized April 22nd, by representatives of 14 circles. This Society is to co-operate with the Southern California Convention. Mrs. Charles Winbigler, Riverside, was made president, and Mrs. A. E. Knapp, San Diego, secretary. This society is auxiliary to the Women's Baptist Home Missionary Society of Chicago.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held April 20th, 1893, at a point to be announced by the Executive Committee.

The Tenth Annual Meeting was held at Canon City, October 18–21, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Richard Montague, D. D., from Eph. 6: 17, on "The Sword of the Spirit."

There had been 29 missionaries employed laboring in 47 places. They reported 161 baptisms, and a total addition of 467. The membership of the mission churches is 2,247, and they had contributed $2,507.83.

One church became self-supporting, and three others were engaged in building. The amount of money expended in State work was $8,750, of this amount the churches of Colorado raised $4,200. In connection with the mission churches there are 29 Sunday-schools, having 2,910 scholars and 246 teachers. The work is much hindered by a debt of $4,000, but arrangements were made by which, with increased aid from the Home Mission Society, the work will not be retarded, and this indebtedness liquidated within two years. The Corresponding Secretary becomes the State Missionary and the women of Colorado have assumed his support.

The report on Foreign Missions was made by Rev. S. C. Davis; on Home Missions, by Rev. F. Barnett; on the Publication Society, by Rev. C. M. Jones; on Obituaries, by Rev. B. F. Lawler; on Systematic Benevolence, by Rev. A. A. Cameron; on Sunday-schools, by Rev. T. Anderson; and on Education, by S. H. Baker. In this latter report it appeared that the women's college at Denver, possesses valuable property estimated at $100,000 with the 20 acre campus and a fine building not yet completed.

The evenings of the sessions were devoted to platform meetings. At these, addresses were made by James Waters, D. D., on "Our Distinctive Principles"; Rev. F. A. Marsh, on "The Union and the Great Commission"; Rev. S. C. Davis, on "Wanted, Masters of the Situation"; H. C. Woods, D. D., on "The Hand of God in the Discovery and Development of America"; and K. B. Tupper, D. D., on "Our National Heritage, its Glory, and its Growth."

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held in the Calvary Church, Denver, beginning October 17, 1893, and James Waters, D. D., was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Annual Meeting for 1892 was held in connection with the State Convention at Canon City, October 19th. There were 24 societies reported containing 826 members, and the contributions from these societies amounted to $1,642 and mainly for missionary purposes. The two special objects of support are the Rose Bacon Memorial Fund which supports a young woman at the training school in Chicago, and a fund for a native worker at Madras, India. The young people proposed to raise $500.00 for State missions. The anniversaries are to be held in connection with the State Convention.

Women's Work.

The Annual Meeting of the women at the State Convention was reported to be full of enthusiasm. A Bible reading was given by Mrs. C. H. Woods, and addresses on practical topics were made by Mrs. F. I. Smith, Mrs. N. T. Reynolds, Mrs. W. J. Cooper, Mrs. K. B. Tupper, and Mrs. G. W. Breed. There are 30 circles in 56 churches for foreign missions, of which number 8 are new. There are 13 children's bands which had raised $144.00. The women had raised over $1,200 during the year and agreed to secure the $1,000 necessary for the support of the State Missionary.

The Sixty-ninth Annual Meeting was held at Willimantic, October 19, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by J. S. James, D. D., from Heb. 6 : 5.

The report of the Board disclosed the fact that 30 churches had received aid from the funds of the Convention to the amount of $4,375.03. Among these aided churches are five Swede, two German, and two colored churches; 15 old churches needed help and 6 were in new interests in growing towns and cities. Three new churches had been organized within the year. The Treasurer reported total receipts, excluding temporary loans, of $9,452.19.

Several addresses were made by representative men from the churches aided at this time and from those which had formerly received aid. An evening was devoted to addresses on home and foreign missions, at which F. T. Hazlewood, D. D., and Rev. J. F Burditt, of the Telugu Mission, spoke.

The statistics collated by the efficient Secretary, and which are found in detail in the appropriate tables, show 136 churches, with 23,077 members, benevolent gifts amounting to $55,798.48 and a total expenditure of $245,944.91.

The next anniversary is to be held in Danbury, beginning Tuesday, November 21, 1893, and the Annual Sermon is to be delivered by Rev. H. M. Thompson.

The First Annual Meeting was held at Willimantic, October 17, 1892. There were reported 85 societies of Baptist Young People, with 3,640 active, 1,047 associate, and 14 honorary members, a total of 4,709. This is an increase of 10 societies and over 700 members since the organization of the Young People's Union in the State.

The papers and addresses at this meeting were: on "Forward," by Prof. A. B. Birchard; "The Mutual Benefit of Organized and Individual Work," by Miss Jennie L. Spencer; "The Spiritual Condition of a Successful Union," by A. H. Parker; "Consecrated Work," by Miss Ellen P. Hubbell; "The Young People as Students of the Word," by Rev. J. H. Mason; "The Educational Possibilities of the B. Y. P. U," by Rev. F. E. Marble; "Baptists and Brown University," by President E. B. Andrews, D. D.; "What are we Doing for our Neighbors?" by Mrs. E. C. Sage; "The Young People's Society as an Aid to the Pastor," by Rev. W. G. Fennell; "The Relation of the Young People's Union to the Connecticut Bible School Union," by J. S. James, D. D.; and "Young Men Leading Young Men," by Rev. J. K. Wheeler.

The meetings were full of interest and enthusiasm, and the body takes its place among the organized forces of the State. The next annual meeting is to be at Danbury, in connection with the meeting of the State Convention.

Women's Work.

The Twenty-first Annual Report of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of Connecticut was presented at the meeting of the State Convention, and is printed in the minutes. The report contains advices from the Secretaries of the different Associations as to the progress of the centenary fund; the prospect everywhere is very bright of receiving even a larger amount than had been asked for toward the million dollars. The entire amount contributed the last year was $5,455.10. The missionaries employed by this Society are Miss Ella C. Bond, in Assam, Miss Annie Hopkins, in Burma, Miss Watson, in Burma, and Miss Rolman and Miss Schuff, both of whom were in America at the time of the meeting, in impaired health. The acting State Secretary is Miss Fannie L. Twiss, Meriden.

The Tenth Annual Report of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission Society of Connecticut is also printed in the Convention's minutes; it speaks encouragingly of the progress of the work through the State. A great degree of interest was shown at the annual meeting. The work among the Junior circles under the inspiration of the leadership of Miss Mary Howard, Hartford, has been very hopeful. The especial effort made by the Junior Societies in behalf of the Alaska Orphanage, had netted $726.50. The total amount raised through the State, besides this sum for Alaska, was in cash, $2,928.37; in supplies, $1,180.39, making in all, $4,835.26. The Vice-President for Connecticut is Mrs. E. A. Spencer, Suffield.

nia, numbering in all 25 churches and 38 Sunday-schools, meets in May and November. The churches of the Union are all connected with the Philadelphia Association. The Spring Meeting of 1892 was held with the Bethany Church, Wilmington, Delaware, May 10th and 11th, Rev. O. G. Buddington, pastor. The Rev. C. L. Williams, pastor of the Upland Church, Pennsylvania, presided. A missionary centenary address was made by R. G. Seymour, D. D. A committee was appointed to ascertain the views of the churches in reference to holding a council to consider the advisability of forming an association. Another committee was appointed to print the minutes of this and last year's meetings. Sermons were preached by Rev. C. L. Williams and Rev. L. J. Denchfield. Rev. T. M. Eastwood, Mrs. J. N. Cushing, and others, delivered addresses. The National Baptist was represented by Mr. C. R. Woodruff.

The 15th Annual Meeting was held with the South Chester Church, Pa., Rev. D. T. Firor, pastor. Sermons were preached by Rev. A. J. Furman and Rev. Miller Jones. Addresses were made by President H. G. Weston, D. D., Rev. M. Heath, Dr. G. M. Spratt, Miss Maud Price, of the Congo, Africa, and others. The evening of Wednesday was devoted to celebrating the Bi-centenary of the origin of Baptists in Delaware County. The committee on printing minutes for November, 1891, and May, 1892, presented the first copy ever printed of the "Journal of the Delaware Baptist Union." The committee was continued to print the Journal for next year and some of the back numbers each year. The most of the churches having expressed themselves in favor of a council to consider the question of an association, it was resolved by the Union that the formation of an association to be composed of the churches of this body was desirable, but that no council be called until after the council to be called by the Philadelphia Association to consider the question of the reorganization of the associations centering in Philadelphia shall meet and take action. A committee was appointed to memoralize the Delaware Legislature against appropriation of the funds of the State to Sunday-schools. The next meeting in May, 1893, will be held with the Baptist Church, Media, Pennsylvania, Rev. W. R. Patton, pastor.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The "Columbia" Association stands in the place of a General Convention in this District. J. J. Muir, D.D., Washington, was Moderator, and S. M. Yeatman, Washington, was the Clerk for the Session of 1892, held in the First Church, Washington, November 15–17.

The missionary work is supplemented by appropriations from the Home Mission Society and the Home and Sunday-school Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention. Four missionary pastors and one General Missionary had been sustained, besides rent provided for another mission and other necessary items. One church building had been completed. Steps were taken toward the establishment of another interest in a flourishing portion of the city. There are other points where the circumstances point to the desirability of immediate action in maintaining missions. The receipts of the Treasurer were $15,730 13, but of this $13,000 was from the sale of building on a removed mission, and $154.86 from outside sources. There had been paid for missionary work, $1,879.20; on interest and rent accounts, $251.75, and printing and miscellaneous items, $145.00.

The Baptist Home is an institution sustained by the churches of Washington. The general contributions were $1,968 58; special contributions, $32.20; beneficiary fund, $474.90; sinking fund, $19.50; and other items making a total of $3,200.40. The total disbursements were $2,593.73, leaving cash on hand to new account, $1,500.14.

The Woman's Foreign Mission Association, of which Mrs. M. M. Mason is president, and Mrs. J. E. Dexter is secretary, reported $674.59 as having been raised and forwarded for that object.

The work of the young people was recognized in a session specially devoted to them, when addresses were made by Rev. C. A. Fulton, of Baltimore, on "The Relation of the Young People to the Church"; J. O'C. Roberts, on "Christian Character Developed by Active Service"; E. Hilton Jackson, on "The Young Man in the Church"; Miss M. O. Buckingham, on "The Young Woman in the Church"; and Miss Florence Shuffle, on "The Young Christian in the World."

We have, up to the time of forwarding this to press, no information of the colored Associations, two in number. Such information as may come to hand will be found in the statistical tables.

ciations, 27 churches, and 7 women's missionary societies. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Curry, from 2 Cor. 5:14.

The number of missionaries in service was 41; these had rendered 899 weeks of labor, supplied 48 churches, and 38 out-stations; they had preached 19,070 sermons, made 438 addresses, attended 631 prayer meetings, baptized 221 persons, organized 10 churches, commenced the building of 12 houses of worship, and completed 4 others; held 95 children's meetings, made 19,084 religious visits, traveled 40,894 miles, and distributed 31,382 pages of tracts, besides other literature.

The Board had rendered aid to 7 young men preparing for the ministry, one of whom had finished his course and had entered upon his work. Much interest had developed in the way of church erection, and the demand for houses of worship at important points in the State continues to be imperative. Work had been pressed also in securing the unpaid subscriptions made to the endowment of the John B. Stetson University. Co-operation continues with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and acknowledgment is made of the gift of Bibles from the American Baptist Publication Society. The John B. Stetson University is fostered by this Convention. The faculty had been strengthened by the addition of three new instructors, and a department of physical culture had been added. One hundred and fifty-seven pupils, representing 13 States, had been registered in the preceding school year; 7 of whom were preparing for the ministry, and 2 for teaching. The real and personal property, exclusive of the new gymnasium building and apparatus, amounts to $64,400. Reference should be had to our educational tables for later statistics.

The total receipts for the year from all sources, including the appropriation from the Southern Baptist Convention, were $14,267.56, of which $1,328.58 was from women's societies; disbursements were, for foreign missions, $13,000; home missions, $907.16; missionaries of the State Board, $5,499.34; ministerial education, $525.50; church building, $3,739.42, and other items, making total disbursements, $13,432.03. The Convention was addressed by J. M. Frost, D. D., I. T. Tichenor, D. D., T. P. Bell, D. D., and C. C. Bitting, D. D., on the various departments of denominational work. There were also interesting reports on "Foreign Missions," "Home Missions," periodicals, temperance, obituaries, Sunday-school work, education, and women's missions, which elicited general discussions.

The session for 1893 is to be held at Lake City, beginning January 5, and W. H. Osborne was selected to preach the Convention Sermon.

The Fourth Annual Meeting was held at Kissimmee, January 6, 1892. The exercises consisted of general discussions on the following topics: "The Best System of Church Finances"; "Short Pastorates: Are they Hurtful or Otherwise"? "The Propriety of Holding Church Conference at Stated Times." There were but 12 members of the Conference present.

The Baptist Ministers' Relief Association, of which Rev. C. H. Nash is president, and Rev. L. D. Geiger, Ocala, is secretary, was organized for practical local work. The next session is to be held at Lake City, preceding that of the State Convention.

Women's Work.

The work of the Baptist women of Florida is intimately connected with the State Convention. Mrs. L. B. Telford is the corresponding Secretary, and is elected by the Convention. She reported 29 missionary meetings attended, 2,280 copies of literature distributed, besides a large number of other appliances. There had been raised $260 for the Cuban Girls' School, and supplies of clothing had been secured and distributed among worthy missionaries. A meeting of the women was held, at which reports from 11 local societies were read; $115 pledged for the Cuban Girls' School. Addresses by Rev. C. V. Waugh and C. C. Bitting, D. D., were made, and other interesting literary exercises.

The Seventieth Annual Meeting was held at La Grange, April 5–9, 1892. There were present 145 representatives of 29 Associations, and 62 representatives of 39 churches and missionary societies, aggregating 207. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. E. B. Carroll, from Eph. 3: 14. The report of the Board of Missions showed 58 missionaries sustained, who had performed 316 months of service, served 200 stations, preached 4,395 sermons, delivered 2,882 addresses, held 1,865 prayer meetings, and 1,478 other religious meetings, baptized 319 whites and 739 blacks, a total of 1,058, constituted 31 churches and 119 Sunday-schools, commenced the building of 24 meeting houses, traveled 81,552 miles, and made 8 868 religious visits. They also raised $9,334.50 for church erection. Eight Sunday-school institutes and 9 Sunday-school conventions were held. In addition to this, the Corresponding Secretary had traveled 21,496 miles, preached 110 sermons, and delivered 115 addresses. In the department of the instruction of colored ministers, 12 institutes had been held, 55 sermons preached, 150 addresses delivered, and special instruction given to 100 preachers and 77 deacons. Ten aged and needy ministers, and one widow had been partially sustained at a monthly outlay of $144.

All the contributions for missions sent by the churches pass through the Board. There had been received for foreign missions, $10,431.94; for home missions, $11,513.87; for State missions, $19,045.71; for indigent ministers, $1,898.87; for the De Votie Fund, $1,660.20; for ministerial education, $2,856.24; for Indian missions, $312.48; for Cuban missions, $1,142.94; for Cuban Girls' School, $98.05; for theological department, $288-.03; on the old debt, $919.41; for the Havana Church, $134.92; for the orphans' home, $1,970.93; for the theological seminary, $200.59; for endowment Mercer University, $8,739.05; for the Hearn School, $150; for Mexican missions, $2,427.65; for church buildings used on the field, $9,341-.47; for educational purposes and school buildings, $37,300; amount reported and used on the field for special purposes, including $1,122.20 for the theological seminary, $12,689.23; collections and cash pledges at the Convention, $3,001; and for numerous other purposes, principally special gifts in the foreign and home fields, $1,006.97; so that the whole amount passing through the hands of the Board was $125,515.18.

The Trustees of Mercer University, which is controlled by this Convention, reported the presence of 183 students in the literary department, 5 in the theological; exclusive, 40 in the preparatory department, and 40 in the Hearn School, a total of 268, of whom 25 were preparing for the ministry. It would seem from the report of the Executive Committee having in charge the aiding of ministerial students, that there were 37 of this description; to 18 of whom aid had been rendered to the amount of $1,743.03. The offer of the American Baptist Education Society to give the University $10,000, provided the Baptists of Georgia would raise $40,000, had been complied with. Important changes had been made in the faculty which, it is expected, will result in the strengthening of the Institution. In addition to Mercer University, there are other prosperous institutions especially for female education. For the latest statistical information concerning which reference should be had to the educational tables. The business of the Convention was principally of a routine character, no prepared addresses were made; but the largest liberty was given to free and open discussions which arose upon reports on the state of religion in Georgia, Sunday-schools, Education, Home and Foreign and State Missions, Temperance, Religious Literature, and Obituaries. The report on the state of religion is unusually filled with innumerable interesting facts; among which, we note the average salary of ministers to be $486.31; that of 1,088 ministers, but 14 are single; longest ministerial life was 52 years; the average value of libraries is $153, ranging from $3,000 to $2; the average value of property owned by ministers is $3,255, ranging from $20,000 to $30; 75 per cent. supplement their salaries with secular callings; 9 per cent. live in parsonages, and 70 per cent. live in their own homes; 1,349 churches hold service but once each month, and 785 do not hold prayer meetings; the longest reported pastorate is 37 years. During the sessions, addresses were made by W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., and J. M. Frost, D. D., in the interest of general denominational work, and a sermon was preached by J. J. Taylor, D. D., of Alabama.

Appended to the reports is the usual statistical table, which shows 46 Associations as members of the Convention, and 18 other Associations in the State not members, but friendly to its objects. Later statistics than those given are found in their appropriate places in this volume, but it is to be noted that 370 churches, with about 10,000 members of primitive or anti-missionary Baptists, are contained in the table, but excluded from the YEAR-BOOK.

The next session is to be held at Dawson, beginning on Tuesday, April 4, 1892, and the Convention Sermon is appointed to be preached by Rev. F. C. McConnell.

The Sixteenth Annual Session was held at Cumming, July 21–23, 1892. There were 6 Associations represented by 21 delegates, and 38 churches by 38 delegates, a total of 59 persons present. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Osborne, from Gen. 4: 9.

This Convention is composed of churches in the northern portion of the State, but is in harmony with the General Convention, with which it co-operates. The printed proceedings contain no report of the Executive Board, and yet this Convention sustains a missionary and his wife in China, and a native preacher in the Indian Territory. The report of the Corresponding Secretary is printed in full, by which it appears that there had been received $1,249.79. The disbursements were: for State missions, $275.60; home missions, $168; foreign missions, $311.37; education, $233.46; aged ministers, $56.25; orphans' home, $6.25; miscellaneous, $217.76, a total of $1,268.69.

The interest in educational matters steadily increases. There are 3 high schools within the territory of this Convention affording low rates of tuition and board, and enabling any young person to secure the advantages of a moderately good education. The students of these schools are encouraged to finish their work at the larger denominational institutions of the State. A part of the session was given to the discussion of Sunday-school topics and the fostering of interest in this department of work. The Convention missionary to China, Rev. C. W. Pruitt, was present at this meeting, and interest in missions was largely quickened in consequence.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Carnesville, in Franklin County, commencing Thursday, July 20, 1893, and Rev. W. A. Boyd was appointed to preach the Convention Sermon.

Rev. W. L. Geiger, Vidalia.

The Third Session of this body was held at McRae, November 17-20, 1892. The sessions are reported to have been largely attended, and were harmonious. A number of the more influential brethren in the State were present and close relations were maintained with the State Convention. The attempt to establish an educational institution in South Georgia had been successful, and the "Freddie Shipp" College is about to be opened for work. A general evangelist had been maintained throughout the year. The financial results amounted to $4,415.23. The executive committee and the board of the State convention had worked together for this result, and it has been developed that this Convention will prove a valuable auxiliary to the main body.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Statesboro, beginning Wednesday, November 15, 1893.

The Twenty-second Annual Meeting was held in Cotton Avenue Church, Macon, June 8-13, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. R. L. Darden, from Heb. 12:2. Other sermons were preached at the evening sessions, and on the Sabbath the Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. H. M. Smith, and the Doctrinal Sermon by E. K. Love, D. D. A memorial session was had, and addresses delivered with reference to the death of 13 ministers.

Including the Corresponding Secretary, there had been 15 missionaries employed in co-operation with the Boards of the Home Mission Society and of the Southern Baptist Convention, and also aid was received from the Georgia State Convention. The Home Mission Society had contributed $2,500, and the Southern Convention and Georgia State Convention, $2,000. The collections by missionaries were $2,156.24. There had been paid for missionary labor $3,670.06, and expense account $240. The missionaries had preached 1,936 sermons, delivered 1,214 lectures, visited 1,023 churches, baptized 764 persons, attended 1,130 prayer meetings, and 691 other meetings, organized 19 churches and 63 Sunday-schools, made 1,717 religious visits, organized 64 women societies, and collected, besides the amount noted above for missions, $2,288.49 for church and school aid.

There is also a co-operation with the Georgia Convention and Home Board of the Southern Convention in fostering theological institutes for ministers and deacons, which had called forth profound appreciation and gratitude. Plans for the improvement of this system of work were suggested calling for more elaborate attention, and for longer periods of instruction. The interest of this Convention in the Spellman Seminary and Atlanta College is very great. The seminary was reported as having enrolled 836 students, and 74 of these had been converted during the year.

Various committees on the different departments of Christian beneficence and denominational endeavor reported, and these reports elicited free and full discussions. Elaborate reports of the missionaries showing in detail their receipts for all purposes are published in the printed proceedings.

The next meeting is to be held with the Friendship Church, Atlanta, beginning Wednesday, June 8, 1893, and the Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. C. G. Holmes.

Women's Work. (Colored.)

The Fourth Annual Meeting of the Women's Missionary Baptist Convention was held at Macon, June 9, 10, 1892. There were 36 members in attendance. Essays were read on "Worship and its Delight," "Missions," "Women's Work," and other practical topics. Rev. W. G. Johnson preached a Memorial Sermon over the departure of a number of members. Addresses in the interest of the Atlanta and Spelman Seminaries were made by teachers from those institutions. There had been received from the various Women's Societies $168.88, which had been devoted to missionary purposes. At this meeting there were reported 41 Women's Societies, and these brought up to the meeting in addition to what had been paid for missions, as noted above, $330.33, so that the grand total from this source would be $499-.21. The meetings are held in conjunction with those of the State Convention.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting was held with the Flagg's Chapel Church, Milledgeville, July 21-24, 1892. There were enrolled 54 delegates. Rev. W. G. Johnson delivered the Introductory Discourse, from Isa. 32: 17. The evenings were devoted to the preaching of other sermons. Miss A. C. Williams read a paper on "The Relation of Baptist Parents to Sunday-schools"; Miss Rosa Dozier, on "The Mistake of Little Things"; Miss C. Auffling, on "Fitness for Sunday-school Teachers"; Mrs. E. K. Love, on "Missions"; Mrs. A. B. Reddin, on "Temperance"; Mrs. S. C. Comer, on "Religious Training," and Miss Mary Ridley, on "Self Education."

The Publication Society had maintained 2 Sunday-school missionaries in co-operation with this body. The statistics of their work are included in the general summary of that Society. The contributions from the schools for the purposes of the Convention were $43.65 for minutes, $72.25 for missions, $44.06 for State Convention, $34.30 for poor schools, $39.80 for general purposes, a total of $241.36. A very brief statistical table of Sunday-schools is appended to the printed proceedings, which shows but a tithe of the figures to which the colored churches are entitled; but these were all that were reported to the meeting. It would seem that the colored brethren experience as much difficulty in obtaining the statistics of their Sunday-schools as the YEAR-BOOK does in its collection of facts.

The next meeting is to be held with the Bethesda Church, Americus, beginning Thursday, July 20, 1893, and Rev. R. G. Johnson was appointed as the preacher of the Introductory Sermon.

IDAHO.

In this State there is one Association, and some of the churches of the Utah Association are located in it as well. The ground is preeminently missionary, and the work is sustained in large measure by the American Baptist Home Mission Society. A moderate degree of prosperity is enjoyed by the churches, but we have not noted any matters of particular interest.

The Thirty-third Annual Meeting was held at Peoria, October 25-27, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. B. Riley, from Psalm 33: 12.

The number of missionaries for a part or all the year had been 46. These had rendered services as followed: Sermons preached, 3,367; prayer meetings held, 1,432; religious visits, 6,010; baptisms, 267; added otherwise, 238. The Treasurer's report showed: Cash balance, $765.38; collections, $9,598.50; additions to Permanent Fund, $3,050.00; from interest, $581.50; a total of $13,995.38. Balance on hand, $782.47. The Permanent Trust Funds were $9,984.86.

The Sunday-school Commission had maintained 2 missionaries who had visited 144 churches, and 106 Sunday-schools, held 302 religious services, besides attending 53 institutes and conventions, preaching 200 sermons, and delivered 385 addresses; they had visited 658 families, organized 4 Sunday-schools, and traveled 24,568 miles. Their statistics show that 642 churches in Illinois have Sunday-schools, and 190 churches have none. The total church and mission schools were 706; 639 schools reported 8,032 officers and teachers, 61,356 scholars, and 1,727 scholars baptized. These schools contributed about $1,300, and $1,500 was received from the Publication Society.

In considering the reports, addresses were made by Rev. J. B. Brown, and Rev B F. Rodman, who are district missionaries, and by a number of missionary pastors reporting from their fields, and an address was made by G. L. Vance, on "How can we bring our members and churches to realize their obligations to State Missions"? The report on the state of religion was read by L. A. Abbott, D. D. It speaks of the year having been marked by blessings, the pastors being faithful, and the churches active, and the young people's movement had been the opening of new sources of Christian work. Dr. E. Mammen spoke on "The importance of State Missions, and how to Enlarge them." Special committees reported on the details of the work as follows: On the church edifice fund by J. Bulkley, D D.; relations of the women's work by E. A. Stone, D. D.; the foreign population by Rev. J. S. Forward. In considering educational matters addresses were made by Prof. Franklin Johnson, D. D., C. E. Hewitt, D. D., A. A. Kendrick, D. D., Rev. B. F. Leavitt and F. W. Goodspeed, D. D.

A platform meeting in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America was held, at which Prof. Galusha Anderson, D. D., spoke on "Marks of Providential Design in the Discovery of America"; C. E. Hewitt, D. D., on "To what extent have the Baptists of Illinois aided in the Development of the Divine Providence"; and A. A. Kendrick, D. D.

The next session is to be held at a place to be determined upon by the Executive Board, October 17, 1893, and Rev. D. D. Odell was appointed as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Forty-seventh Annual Meeting was held at Peoria, October 24, 25, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Weber, from Heb. 13 : 9.

The programme of exercises consisted of criticisms upon the sermon, which afforded general discussion. A paper was read by A. W. Fuller, on "Unity of Organization, and its Relation to Baptist Progress"; an address by Gilbert Frederick, D. D., on "Races and Religions of Palestine"; an essay on "Evangelism," by Rev. S. E. Davies; an essay by E. A. Stone, D. D., on "What was the Permanent, and what was the Temporary Element in the Enduing of the Holy Ghost on the Day of Pentecost"? The report of the Committee on Obituaries showed that 9 ministers of the State had died within the year.

The next meeting is to be held in connection with the General Association October 16, 1893, and the Sermon was appointed to be preached by Rev. J. W. Tanner.

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Peoria, October 28, 1892. There are 16 associational unions organized, and local organizations in almost every Association in the State, and, a large number of these failing to report, no accurate statistics are available. The Treasurer had received $224.26, and expended $169.52. Addresses were made by Miss Ella MacLaurin on "Missionary Topics"; Rev. F. R. Swartwout on "The Stewardship of Money"; Rev. W. B. Riley on "The Meaning of the Movement"; and L. A. Crandall, D. D., on "Young People and Evangelistic Work." A general discussion on "Methods of Work" was an interesting feature. Over $200 was contributed for the furtherance of the work.

The Sixtieth Anniversary was held at Logansport, October 3–7, 1892. There were in attendance about 250 delegates. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Williams, from Matt. 22 : 20.

The general missionary, or evangelist, had labored in destitute portions of the State, and several dead churches had been resuscitated, and several churches had been stimulated to complete houses of worship. At 11 points aid had been rendered in sustaining a regular minister. New houses of worship had been dedicated at 4 of these points. At others, lots of ground had been purchased and chapel buildings begun. In addition to the State work there had been extended mission work accomplished by Associations. There are nearly 200 weak and inefficient churches in the State, besides great stretches of country that are destitute. The receipts for State work exclusive of associational work were from collections, $3,687, and interest on permanent funds, $426; a total of $4,113. The disbursements were to permanent fund of preceding year, $1,051; for missionary work, $4,410; taxes, $11; a total of $5,472. There is due the permanent fund, $1,359. This permanent fund is $12,500.

The subject of State Missions occupied largely the attention of the Convention. The principal addresses were by Rev. S. S. Clark, Rev. Allan Hill, on "Our Eastern Desert," Rev. J. J. W. Billingsley. Numerous addresses by missionary pastors and others were had. "Home Missions" was the subject of addresses by L. Kirtley, D. D., and Rev. F. N. Huckleberry, on "Foreign Missions." Addresses in commemoration of the Missionary Centennial were made by Rev. D. Heagle, D D., on "The Attitude of the Early Church to Foreign Missions"; B. F. Cavins, D. D., on "The Attitude of the Reformation under Martin Luther toward Foreign Missions"; Rev. A. B. Chaffee, on "The Extension and Organization of the Foreign Missions under William Carey"; Rev. F. N. Huckleberry, on "The Awakening of the American Churches to the Cause of Foreign Missions under Adoniram Judson"; Rev. W. F. Taylor, on "The Results of a Century of Missions"; S. M. Stimson, D. D., on "The Million"; and a paper by Mrs. S. W. Stimson, on "The Organization of Women's Foreign Work." On the work of the Publication Society, Rev. J. B. Thomas, Rev. E. S. Gardner and Rev. A. B. Whitney made addresses. On Education an address was made, by W. T. Stott, D. D., who reported the present property of Franklin College at $300,000, and other addresses were made by Rev. N. Carr, and Prof. C. H. Hall.

Thirteen new pastors, who had come into the State during the year, were formally introduced and welcomed. The Obituary Committee reported the decease of 11 prominent workers, 6 of whom had been ministers. A reading course, covering 50 weeks in a year, averaging about 36 pages a week, was presented with recommendation. This course is open to all, and provision to assist in the purchase of books was recommended. There was also a sermon by C. R. Henderson, D. D., from Judg. 5 : 2.

The next session of the Convention is to be held at Columbus in October, 1893, and Rev. Addison Parker was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Pastors' Conference.

This Body held its Second Annual Meeting October 3, 4, 1892, at Logansport, in connection with the State Convention. A general discussion was had on "Our Associational Opportunities," led by Rev. C. M. Carter. A discussion on "The Religious Needs of the State" followed a paper by Rev. N. C. Smith, on "The State of Religion in our Churches." A paper on "The Social Condition of the Working Man" was read by Rev. Addison Parker, and an address was made by Rev. W. F. Taylor, on "The Liturgy and the Cathedral."

The Tenth Annual Meeting was held at Oklahoma City, O. T., October 20–23, 1892. This body includes the churches in both the Indian and Oklahoma Territories. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. S. H. Mitchell, from Rev. 2 : 18, on "The Relation of the Ascended Christ to His Church."

The number of missionaries employed had been 7. They had rendered 207 weeks of service, preached 762 sermons, attended 338 prayer meetings, made 1,022 religious visits, baptized 111 persons, and received otherwise 215, and organized 10 churches. The financial report shows salaries paid by Convention, $392.04; paid by Associations, $756.09; contributed by Southern Baptist Convention, $150.00, and by the Home Mission Society, $200.00 toward these salaries. In addition the Home Mission Society contributed $6,975.00, and the Home Board of the Southern Convention $1,000.00 towards the missionary pastors, and the Home Mission Society contributed $1,200, and the Home Mission Board of the Southern Convention $50.00 for church erection. The total expended for missionary work from all sources was $10,617.65. In education the amounts expended were by the Territorial Convention $415.00, the Home Mission Society, $9,660.00, the Women's Home Mission Society $3,250.00, a total of $13,335. In addition the Council of the Seminole Nation contributed $2,000 for Seminole Academy.

The addresses on this occasion were voluntary discussions of the various phases of denominational work, and extended addresses were made by M. MacVicar, D. D., and Rev. I. N. Clark respectively, on Education and Foreign Missions. The Indian Educational Commission in aid of the Indian University is endeavoring to raise an endowment of $250,000 for that institution. In the two Territories occupied by these bodies there were reported to be 17 Associations and 265 churches, with a total membership, including unassociated churches, of over 15,000. Peculiar difficulties exist which prevent the Year-Book from obtaining full statistics, owing to the indifference of clerks in making reports, and also from the fact that some minutes are printed in the Indian vernacular, and very few of those that are published in the English language show full and accurate statistics of their churches.

The next annual meeting is to be held at South McAllister, beginning Thursday, June 22d, 1893, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. Daniel Crosbey.

The Fifty-first Anniversary was held at Mason City, October 26–28, 1892. There was an attendance of 215 life members, delegates and visitors. The Annual Sermon was preached by J. C. Maple, D. D., from 1 Cor. 1 : 21.

There had been 71 missionaries, an increase of 9, and the largest number ever supported by Iowa Baptists; they had supplied 144 churches and out-stations; baptized 380 persons, and received otherwise, 304. The Missionary Secretary had traveled 18,873 miles, and collected for missions $9,327.04; notwithstanding difficulties, church building continued with increasing rate over the last year; 32 buildings had either been dedicated or are in process of erection; 10 had asked for help from the church edifice fund, and 7 are in places where the population otherwise would be entirely without a place of worship. During the year $2,300 had been received in gifts by these churches, securing property to them of a value of over $20,000. The financial statement shows balance from preceding year $1,400, from the Home Mission Society, $1,900, from the churches of Iowa, $10,426.34, a total for missions of $13,726.34. Receipts on account of church building were $2,300, including $1,787.30 added by the Home Mission Society, so that the grand total for missions and church edifice work in the State was $16,026.34, and $13,995.72 was expended in the work.

The reports were followed by papers by Rev. F. W. Parsons, on "The Position of the Country Church"; and Rev. E. H. Lovell, on "The Place of the City Church in Our Denominational Life." There was a further exercise consisting of reports "From the Picket Line," by the missionaries of the Convention, 15 of whom made short addresses. Rev. C. J. Pope made an address on "Enlargement," which was followed by a collection of over $600.00 for increased work of the Convention.

The committee on pastoral supply reported that over 80 churches had applied for aid in settling pastors, and 60 of these applications had been answered with gratifying results. Foreign missions received consideration in a report by Rev. W. E. Witter, and addresses by W. F. Gray, Rev. F. P. Haggard, O. O. Fletcher, D. D., and Mrs. I. J. Stoddard, Miss Sara M. Stuart, and Miss Minnie A. Bussell, representing the Women's Work. The report on home missions was attended with a commemoration of the discovery of America, at which addresses were made by H. W. Tilden, D. D., on "The Marks of Providential Design in the Discovery and Occupation of America"; W. N. Haigh, D. D., on "Distinctive Characteristics of American Christianity"; and P. S. Henson, D. D., on "The Perils and Promise of American Christianity."

Mason, on "Higher Education for Young Men," and a paper by Mrs. A. Loughridge, on "Higher Education for Young Women." The annual report refers to the successful issue of the effort to raise the endowment of $28,000 for Cedar Valley Seminary at Osage, and of advances made in the same direction for the institutions at Burlington, Des Moines, and Pella. The amount of money devoted to students needing aid was about $500.00. We have not been informed as to the details of this work. The meeting closed with an address by Galusha Anderson, D. The Thirty-third Anniversary was held at Wichita, October 11–13, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Tuttle, from Rom. 5 : 19 and Rev. 22 : 11.

During the year 58 missionaries had been under appointment, who had supplied 72 churches, and 77 out-stations. There had been 553 baptisms, and 490 had been received otherwise. Nine churches and 24 Sunday-schools had been organized. The Missionary Secretary had traveled 25,468 miles; there had been 3 district missionaries who had baptized 103 persons; aggressive work had been pressed among the Swedes, French, Germans, and Negroes; 10 churches had been aided from the church edifice fund, and $10,511.58 had been paid in church debts. The liabilities of the Convention had been $14,366.16, and the receipts from all sources had been $11,399.72, leaving a deficiency of $2,966.44.

The Financial Secretary of Ottawa University reported happy advance in the institution, and successful completion of a canvass for increased endowment, additions to the buildings, and the inauguration of a new president. The attendance of pupils was greater than ever before. Forty thousand dollars had been added to the endowment. The number of students for the ministry was 30.

The reports were discussed in addresses by Rev. A. B. McCurdy, on "The Fundamental Character of our Convention Work"; Rev. C. H. DeWolfe, on "Our Need of Better Organization, and How to Secure it"; Rev. J. S. Nasmith, on "Our Western Fields," in which it appeared that in the western half of Kansas there are only 9 ministers, while there are nearly 250 in the eastern half.

The report on Home Missions was attended with an address by H. C. Woods, D. D., on "The Hand of God in America's History." In foreign missions the contributions reached $5,453.76, which is a gain of over $3,000 over the preceding year. Rev. J. C. Post, Rev. P. A. Eubanks, W. H. Williams, D. D., and O. O. Fletcher, D. D., made addresses on this topic, and 13 persons indicated their willingness to go to the foreign field if the way was opened. Other reports were made on "Systematic Beneficence," "Women's Work in Missions," and "Sunday-schools." There had been 2 Sunday-school missionaries at work in the State, sustained by the Publication Society. Addresses on this topic were made by Rev. J. E. Denham, on "The Sunday-school as an Evangelizing Agency," and C. C. Bitting, D. D. Several colored brethren spoke, representing the 13,000 colored Baptists in Kansas. Strong resolutions in the interest of temperance were passed, as also of the topic on the closing of the World's Fair on Sunday.

The next Anniversary is to be held at Ottawa, in October, 1893, and Rev. A. B. McCurdy was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

Superintendent of Missions.

J. W. WARDER, D. D., Louisville.

The Fifty-fifth Annual Meeting was held in Covington, November 12-15, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Perryman, from 1 Kings 2 : 2.

The report of the Executive Board showed that 72 missionaries had been employed, the results of whose work was pronounced to be without parallel in recent missionary history of the State. The number of conversions being 1,997, baptisms 1,204, and added otherwise 1,018. These figures were not complete because some pastors did not report full labor, and the reports of district missionaries if full would have enlarged the figures. The missionaries preached 4,744 sermons, attended 1,547 prayer meetings, made 20,621 religious visits, donated 400 Bibles, and 91,170 pages of tracts, organized 82 new Sunday-schools, besides a vast work done in similar lines by district missionaries. The total contribution to missions for the year was $37,949.84. The number of churches contributing to missions was 808, leaving 651 that contributed nothing. The constituency of the contributing churches was 40,950. The Baptist numerical growth in the last decade was 32 per cent., while that of the whole population was 16 per cent., and the increase in mission contributions was 68 per cent.

The report of the Baptist Ministers' Aid Society showed: received on bonds, $233.00, and paid on previous bonds, $3,040.00. From other sources, $1,716.14; total cash and invested funds on hand, $7,416.14. There had been paid to beneficiaries $1,868.80, which had been devoted to the care of 16 persons. Cash balance on hand for immediate use $236.81. In the discussion which followed this report, it was urged that an effort be made to raise $50,000 endowment for this fund.

In the Orphans' Home, 46 had been received during the year, and there were then 60 under the care of the Society. The main building had been completed at the cost of $26,000, which affords accommodation for 130 children. The furnishing of the rooms in the new building is now in progress, through benefactions of individuals. All this building fund except $9,500 had been contributed in the city of Louisville.

The various reports on missions and kindred topics was the occasion of general discussions. In considering State Missions, attention was specially given to the work of the mountain region of Kentucky, and provision made for the building of a chapel in an important mountain town. The report on Sunday-schools was the occasion for an interesting address by J. M. Frost, D. D. In considering the report on the colored people an address was made by Rev. J. H. Garnett, President of the Colored University, who made a plea for help, and his cause was endorsed and recommended. The report on Education pronounced the outlook in all the schools and colleges of the State as gratifying. There are in addition to the Theological Seminary at Louisville, and Georgetown and Bethel Colleges, 8 other institutions some of which are exclusively for the education of women. New institutions have been established in the eastern or mountain section of the State, whose needs make demand for enlarged contributions, which are being made with gratifying success. Prof. W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., represented the students' Aid Fund of the Seminary, and its general interests were represented by F. H. Kerfoot, D. D. Other institutions in the State were represented by their presidents in interesting addresses. There is a standing committee on Kentucky Baptist History, which had completed the histories of two of the Associations. The report on women's work showed the total amount raised for various objects through missionary societies, chapel cards, boxes of supplies, etc., $2,958.78.

The centenary of modern missions was observed by reading the report on Foreign Missions by Rev. L. O. Dawson, and on Home Missions by Rev. E. E. Bomar, and an extended address by W. D. Powell, D. D., Missionary in Mexico, following which there were contributions made to the centenary fund of over $14,000.

The next meeting of the Association is to be held in Lebanon, beginning Saturday, October 15th, 1892, and Rev. B. J. Davis was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

A paper on "The Importance of Church Discipline," prepared by W. S. Ryland, D. D., was read for him in his absence. An address on "New Testament Evangelism," was made by W. H. Felix, D. D. A paper was read by T. T. Eaton, D. D., on "The Present Place and State of the Pious Dead," which was followed by a general discussion. Rev. E. N. Dicken presented a paper on "Evangelists," which also elicited a general discussion. "The Scriptural Relation of Baptism to Salvation" was the topic of Rev. W. C. Taylor. J. H. Boyet, D. D., made an address on "The Proper Training of Young Converts." A general discussion was had on "The Best Methods of Promoting Missionary Interests in Our Churches." An address on the centennial movement was made by W. D. Powell, D. D. The usual interesting exercise peculiar to this Society by which the eldest and youngest ministers present relate their experience and call to the ministry was had; the participants being Rev. S. Ragowskey, and J. S. Kirtley, D. D. The report on obituaries noted the departure of 15 ministers during the year.

The next meeting is to be held preceding that of the General Association at Lebanon in October, 1893.

The Forty-seventh Annual Session was held in the Valence Street Church, New Orleans, August 19–23, 1892. There were present 89 representatives of 45 churches, and 8 Associations. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. C. W. Tomkies, from Acts 1 : 14.

The year had been marked by many embarrassing obstacles, principally a great overflow, which was without parallel in a half century, and the low prices obtained for agricultural products, so that missionary appeals were unheeded from a large proportion of the churches. Notwithstanding these difficulties, there had been maintained 20 missionaries in their work. These had preached at as many stations, 1,640 sermons; held 1,022 prayer meetings, visited 2,574 families, made 640 addresses, traveled 31,122 miles, built 6 houses of worship, organized 6 churches, and 32 Sunday-schools, distributed 35,000 pages of tracts, baptized 364 persons, and labored 2,941 days. The Treasurer reported collected for State missions, $5,668.38; foreign missions, $1,801.40; home missions, $606.70; ministerial education, $251.60; colportage, $120; conventional funds, $127.06, which with the balance of the preceding year amounts to $8,882.96. To this should be added for church buildings, raised on the field and spent on mission churches, $3,245.80; and raised on the field and appropriated by missionaries, $1,824.60; making a total of $13,953.36. The difficulties which had prevailed throughout the State had caused a decrease in foreign missions, but under the influence of the centennial movement the hope was cherished that the present year will more than redeem the past. Generous help had been rendered the State by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The women's societies had been active, having given $390.65 to home missions, and $2,194.90 to church building improvement. The American Baptist Publication Society had supplied many Sunday-schools with literature, besides giving $600 toward French missions, distribution of Bibles and other literature. The work among the French, under the direction of native Frenchmen, is making gratifying progress. The destitution in this State is pronounced appalling. In a population of 1,150,000, about half are negroes, and among the 575,000 white population there are about 25,000 Baptists. In 21 counties, with a population of over 300,000, there are no Baptist churches whatever; in 15 towns and cities, with over 2,000 inhabitants each, only 5 have Baptist churches, and New Orleans is the only one that has more than 1 church, and that city of 250,000 has only 3. More than two-thirds of the smaller towns have no Baptist churches, and there are churches in only 30 out of 59 county sites; and, in some of the counties, there are not only no Baptist churches, but none of any Protestant denomination. So it is estimated that one-third of the population is without the gospel.

Mount Lebanon and Keatchie Colleges are the educational institutions of the State. Mount Lebanon had donated $500 worth of gratuitous work, exclusive of two students for the ministry. The Keatchie had done the same, exclusive of 12 ministerial students, for whose support the churches had given $481.63.

During the sessions, J. R. Sampey, D. D., represented the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, securing a contribution of $255.75, and a contribution of $139.20 was made toward the deficit in the fund for ministerial education; $632.03 were contributed toward the indebtedness of the State Mission Board, and 1,278.50 were pledged for the ensuing year. There was also a contribution made to foreign missions, amounting to $14,000 in pledges. Reports were adopted on the various departments of "Denominational Endeavor," "Temperance," "Work Among the Colored People," "Women's Work," and resolutions expressive of gratitude for the overthrow of the Louisiana State Lottery were adopted.

The Centenary of Modern Missions was observed in addresses by Rev. G. M. Harrell, on "Missions, the Law of our Spiritual Being"; T. P. Bell, D. D., on "What Baptist Have Done in Foreign Missions"; D. I. Purser, D. D., on "The Centennial Movement and the Sunday-school Board"; and I. T. Tichenor, D. D., on the "Centennial of Modern Missions."

The next annual meeting is to be held at Mount Lebanon, beginning Friday, August 18, 1893, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. J. U. H. Wharton.

Women's Work.

We are without any information with reference to the work of women, beyond the report on that subject contained in the printed proceeding of the State Convention. From this it appears that there are 70 societies reporting to the Central Committee. They had given $390.65 to home missions, $2,195 on church building and improvement, and nearly one-fifth of all that the State gave to foreign missions. It is estimated that of the 26,000 Baptists in the State, 17,000 of them are women. Mrs. C. C. McCloud, Shreveport, is corresponding secretary for this department.

The Twentieth Annual Meeting was held at Baton Rouge, September 7–12, 1892. There is active co-operation with the Home Mission Society, which has a missionary for the State at large, whose work is contained in the summary of that Society. The Publication Society also sustains a Sunday-school and Bible Missionary, whose report to the Convention showed an increased interest among the pastors and churches in this work. He had sold 120 Bibles, and donated 333 others; he had sold 9,235 books and donated 78, distributed 21,290 pages of tracts, delivered 155 sermons and addresses, held 62 prayer meetings, visited 310 families, constituted one church, and organized 43 Sunday-schools, and held 25 institutes.

There are 15 district associations connected with the Convention, in many of which there are high schools under Baptist control, and as feeders of Leland University. These schools aim no higher than the teaching of the rudiments of a preparatory English education. The Christian Herald is owned by the Convention, and is a weekly publication issued from Leland University.

The Sixty-eighth Annual Meeting was held at Waterville, October 3–5, 1892. The Anniversaries were preceded the evening before the meetings by an address by Rev. N. E. Wood, on "Some Affluents of Christianity." The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Young, from Luke 1: 15, 16, on "Elements of Greatness in John the Baptist."

There had been under employment 1 corresponding secretary, 2 State missionaries, 1 Sunday-school missionary, and 49 missionary pastors had been sustained at 56 points. In addition 1 point had been supplied by students during their vacation. The work of these missionaries corresponded with the ordinary work of pastors, and no special table of the results of their work is appended in the report. The Committee on the State of Religion reported an increase of 2 churches; 178 churches had more or less preaching during the year and 74 had none, nearly one-third of the churches. There is a decrease of membership of something over 400, but a slight gain in membership in the Sunday-schools. There are about 90 societies of young people. In 168 churches there had not been a single addition by baptism, and 57 churches are without a Sunday-school. A number of churches had, however, become self-supporting. Under an Executive Committee steps had been taken to increase the efficiency of the churches, and to secure larger contributions for missionary work.

The Permanent Fund of this Body now amounts to $78,044.32 The Treasurer reported receipts from various sources of $14,231.33. In these amounts are included, from legacies and donations, $2,431.97; rents, interest and dividends, $3,668.70, and ordinary contributions, $3,481.06. There had been paid in aid of missions $4,744.50; salaries and expenses of Secretary and missionaries, $3,828 02: special grants for church buildings, $3,106.25; and other items making the total expended $14,180.36. There had been transferred to the permanent fund $4,963.96. In addition to the permanent fund the Convention holds real estate in Portland of the value of $20,000, and holds in trust several church lots and parsonages.

During the sessions there was read a paper by Rev. B. A. Mason on "The Hancock Association Benevolent System." Rev. J. H. Parshley delivered an address on "Associational Privileges and Obligations." Miss E. J. Cummings, M. D., spoke of her work in India. An address on Foreign Missions was made by H. C. Mabie, D. D., and Rev. C. H. Spaulding spoke in the interest of the Publication Society. Mr. E. Nelson Blake made an address on the work of the Home Mission Society, and Mrs. L. G. Barrett on that of the Women's Home Mission Society. An Address on the work among the French Canadians was made by Rev. L. B. Talbott. There were the usual reports on Missions and Sunday-schools, as also on Needed Reforms and Publications. Four ministers who had entered the State during the year were formally welcomed. The force of ministers had been increased to the number of 14, but the Obituary Committee noted the decease of 2 pastors.

The next meeting is to be held at Auburn, on Tuesday, October 3, 1893, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. E. C. Whittimore.

The Seventy-third Anniversary was held at Waterville, October 6, 1892. In place of a sermon, the Address was delivered by President B. L. Whitman, on "In His Name, a Motto for Faith and Life."

The receipts from churches and individuals were $569.78; from income of invested funds, $202.22; proceeds of bonds and notes, $725.00; balance on hand, $112 79; a total of $1,699.79. There had been paid to beneficiaries $866.15; ordinary expenses, $16.20; reinvested funds, $711.25; balance to new account, $6.19. The invested funds now amount to $4,700.

The number of students aided was 11, 8 being in Colby University, and one each in Medical Training in New York, at Bangor Theological Seminary and in Hebron Academy. The one in New York is a young lady preparing for service in the foreign field.

Reports were made from the various institutions in the State fostered by Baptist churches, and plans were taken for establishing on a permanent basis the Biblical Professorship in Colby University. An address was made by Geo. Bullen, D. D., of the Newton Institution. Rev. W. S. Ayres spoke on "The Basis of our Expectations of Great Results."

The next annual meeting is to be held at Auburn in connection with the State Convention, and Rev. J. M. Wyman was appointed as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Fifty-seventh Annual Meeting was held with the Seventh Church, Baltimore, October 25–27, 1892. There were present 384 representatives of 46 churches, and 59 representatives of 18 churches, a total in attendance of 445. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. Alfred Harris, from 1 Cor. 15 : 17.

During the year 27 missionaries had been employed, 12 of whom were colored. The total number of churches and stations supplied was 31. The summary of their work is: weeks of labor, 1,035; sermons preached, 2,006; addresses made, 984; prayer meetings held, 2,530; baptisms, 226; miles traveled, 22,637; religious visits, 8,329; Bibles and Testaments distributed, 464; pages of tracts distributed, 37,099. To this should be added the work of the Secretary, who had performed a large clerical work, and visited officially many missionary points. One church had become self-supporting. The missionary stations are in 14 counties of the State, and 6 churches in the city of Baltimore. Two general evangelists had also been employed for a portion of the time. Mission work among the Chinese of Baltimore is also undertaken.

The report of the Treasurer showed receipts from white churches for State missions, $4,876.84; Sunday-schools, $374.40; from colored churches, $283.87. Sunday-schools, $24.50; from Women's Home Mission Society, $240.43; from dividends and interest, $606.11; ground rents, $1,061.50, a total of $7,467.65. There had been also receipts for special objects, $612.87. The grand total was $8,080.52. All of this was expended and an excess of $236.94, which represents the deficit for the year. The investment account, or permanent fund, was reported to be $4,520.10. The educational fund received $727.17. The disbursements were, in aid of 11 ministerial students, $700.00, interest and postage, $15.86. Balance due the Treasurer, $19.62. The Building Loan fund had received $1,054.56. The securities belonging to this fund were $2,320. The securities belonging to the Association, including what is known as the W. G. Rider fund, amounted to $32,479.10. The Treasurer of the Widows' and Superannuated Preachers' Fund reported receipts, including interest on invested funds, $2,397.27. Disbursements in aid of 3 beneficiaries, $275.00. The balance of $2,122.27 was deposited in interest-paying banks.

There had been sustained 11 young men; 2 at Richmond College, 4 at theological seminaries, 1 at Baltimore College, 5 at Wayland Seminary, and 2 had been approved who had not entered institutions. The receipts of the account are entered in the paragraph above.

The relation of women's work to this body is so intimate that it is really part of the general work. The Baptist mission rooms had been removed to more commodious and suitable quarters at No. 9 West Lexington Street. During the year 667 letters and 140 postal cards were written, 20,412 packages sentexclusive of local sales and 262,400 copies of 48 leaflets printed, 161,000 chapel cards, 85,000 children's day programmes and 23,000 mission cards sent out. The business of over $3,000 had been prosecuted at no expense to the denomination. The Treasurer reported balance $482.34, cash from sales, $3,055.21, donation from ministers' conference, $14.25 and interest, $4.41, a total of $3,556.21. The Association resolved to pay the rent of the mission rooms. The Women's Baptist Home Mission Society, of Maryland, reported to the body its 10th anniversary. They had received $4,923.11. The number of auxiliary societies was 33 and bands, 39, besides 25 Sunday-schools assisting. The receipts had been divided as follows: Home Board of Southern Convention, $3,503.71; State work, $182.33; Centennial Fund, $1,237.07. "Women's Mission to Women in Foreign Lands" is the title of the work among the women in foreign missions. There had been raised for general foreign missions, $421.13; salary of woman missionary in China, $108.32; centennial fund, $790.49; other purposes, making a grand total of $1,924.90.

There were reports attended with interesting discussions on State missions, education, finance, temperance, women's work, home and foreign missions and Sunday-schools. The interests of young people were represented in an evening session, at which addresses were made by J. W. Jones, D. D., on "The Relation of Young People to Home Missions"; and Rev. E. Y. Mullins, on "The Relation of Young People to City Missions." There were also addresses by a number of missionaries under employment of the Board. A closing session was devoted to the observance of the missionary centenary, at which A. J. Rowland, D. D., spoke on "The Home Mission Aspect of the Movement"; H. A. Tupper, D. D., on "The Foreign Mission Aspect of the Work"; and F. M. Ellis, D. D., on "The Practical Aspect of the Movement in Maryland."

The next meeting is to be held at a point to be determined by the Executive Board, beginning Tuesday, October 24, 1893, and Rev. F. B. LaBarrer was appointed to be the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Nineteenth Anniversary was held in the Pleasant Street Church, Worcester, October 2d, 1892. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. F. M. Gardner, from Isa. 42 : 4.

During the year 58 churches in small towns had been aided to the amount of $6,725. In one association, aid had been given to 16 churches. One of the mission points had itself established a mission interest, and contributed to the Convention's work. In some of the larger cities, mission points had been established or maintained. Work had been prosecuted among the Swedes, Finns, and French. Appropriations had been made to 12 churches and missions to help in the building of houses of worship. Almost all of the needy churches were supplied with resident pastors.

The financial statement was: balance from preceding year, $418.49; from 216 churches for the general work, $8,838.59; individual donations, $239.50; from the society for propagating the gospel for a special point, $300; Fiske will account, $200; for preaching, $66.25; income from invested funds, net, $9,598.83; from trust funds, $478.05; from Capen fund, $2,985; from the invested funds, $18,707.78; total receipts of $38,832.49. The disbursements were: for current expense, $10,777.41; French missions, $475; city missions, $1,490; for evangelistic service, $500; missionary's salary and expenses, $1,330.02; superintendent's salary and expenses, $2,280.98; treasurer's salary, $620; printing and other incidentals, $834.06; to churches and missions for buildings and repairs, $8,985.91; interest paid on special funds, $408.25; on Capen fund, $2,310; a total of $31,913.89, leaving a balance on hand of $6,918.60. Seven legacies had been left to the work, not all of which had become available, the processes of the law not being completed.

Addresses were made by the president at the opening of the session; Rev. A. B. Coates, on "The Growing Needs of our Growing Work, and How to Meet Them," and D. B. Ford, D. D., in the interest of the monument to Isaac Backus, for which purpose a sufficient amount was subscribed to insure its erection. Among the resolutions commendatory of denominational enterprises and other usual points of interest, were two expressive of the sense of the body that aid should not be rendered to any church in its building enterprise, where the furnished house should exceed a cost of $18,000, and recommending that the Board do not take a sum exceeding $8,000 from the invested funds in any given year.

The place of the next anniversary is to be selected by the executive committee, the time being in October, 1893, and Rev. E. P. Farnham was appointed to be the preacher of the next Convention Sermon.

The Sixty-third Anniversary was held at Worcester, October 25, 1892. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. Orville Coates, from Matt. 11 : 16, 17.

Rev. A. E. Reynolds read the Annual Essay on "Conscience and the Bible." A general discussion followed. The treasurer had received from the churches $929.79; from individual donations, $177.50; income of permanent fund, $1,152.93; balance from preceding year, $1,328.22, a total of $3,488.44. Appropriations had been made to 14 aged and disabled ministers, to the amount of $2,255. The balance to new account was $999.89. The permanent fund now amounts to $25,249.98. Obituary notices of 10 ministers who had died during the year, were read.

The annual meetings are held in connection with the State Convention; for the next meeting, Rev. J. P. Abbott was appointed as the preacher, and Rev. J. S. Swaim as the essayist.

The Seventy-first Annual Meeting was held at Worcester, October 25, 1892. An opening address was made by the retiring president, H. C. Graves, D. D. The only business transacted was the passing upon the report of the treasurer, which showed receipts from churches, $1,014.68; from associations, $139.78; from individuals, $169.78; interest and dividends, $1,699.71; on a policy of insurance, $35; making a total of $3,058.55, to which might be added balance from preceding year of $1,436.13. There had been paid to widows and orphans of deceased Baptist ministers $2,760, and balance to new account, of $1,514 14. The permanent fund amounts to $35,923.90. The annual meetings are held in connection with the State Convention.

The One Hundred and First Anniversary was held at Worcester, October 25, 1892.

The number of young men preparing for the ministry, who had been aided by this society for the year, was 79, all of whom had been at New England academies and colleges, and at the Newton Institution. The probability was that 70 would be on the roll for the coming year. The source of our information gives no account of the financial report, so that we go to press before obtaining this desirable information. The report of the Secretary showed that there were a few more contributing churches, and that the sum total of receipts had been larger than for several years. The addresses on the occasion were by R. J. Adams, D. D., at the opening of the business, President E. B. Andrews, on College Education, and Mr. W. A. Monroe in reference to the Newton Theological Institution. In this address, it was stated that $70,000 seem to be imperatively demanded for new buildings, and an effort is to be made to add $300,000 to the endowment funds.

The constituency of this society is not confined to Massachusetts, but is found in most of the New England States; but the annual meetings are always held in connection with the Massachusetts State Convention.

The Eighth Anniversary was held at Worcester, October 27, 1892.

From the report of the State Secretary it was learned that 19 new Sunday-schools had been organized, 112 cities and towns visited in the interest of the work, and over 14,000 miles traveled. There are 361 schools in the State, with a membership of 68,828, a net gain of about 2,000; their offerings amounted to $59,931.33 and there had been 1,841 baptisms from the schools. The report of the treasurer showed a surplus of $323.91, the receipts being $3,113.82, and the expenditures $2,789.91.

The body was addressed by K. H. Basmajian, on Armenian mission work; Rev. Alex. Blackburn and others reporting the condition of affairs in various portions of the State, and in the discussion of the general topic, "Progressive and Aggressive Ideas in Sunday-school Work"; by Rev. L. A. Freeman, on "Upbuilding and Growth"; Rev. C.

During the Anniversaries at Worcester, in October, 1892, delegates from the various societies of Young People assembled, and under encouragement of the State Convention, proceeded to organize this body. It is to act in harmony with the State Convention, and is to have the evening session of what is known as "Convention Day." The work of the young people is to be so framed that its central aim shall be not self-culture, but the propagation of the gospel. The committee to draft the code of laws is to report at the meeting for 1893. The principal address was by N. E. Wood. D. D., on "The Work at the Doors of our Young People."

The Fifty-seventh Annual Meeting was held at Benton Harbor, October 19-21, 1892. There were present 144 delegates, 12 life members, 7 representatives of Associations, and 19 visitors, a total of 182. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. C. W. Barber, from John 12: 32, on "The World's Greatest Attraction."

The State Mission Board reported a year of encouraging success. The work of the four district missionaries had been especially fruitful, and the churches aided by the Board were mostly prosperous, several becoming self-sustaining during the year. The Workers' Conference held under the direction of the State Superintendent, Rev. C. E. Cooley, in the various associations, had proved very helpful in preparing the way for revival efforts. The statistics of the work of the missionary pastors, showed 133 churches supplied, 3,199 religious visits, 216 baptisms, and 2 churches organized. The financial exhibit is the best ever made. The receipts from all sources were $13,026.72, the expenditures, $13,127.68. The report of the Treasurer of the convention showed that the invested funds were $31,093; bequests during the year were $3,000; receipts for education fund, $1,376.10; with expenditures of $945.76.

The Secretary's report showed that during the year 46 ministers had changed their fields of labor in the State; 17 had come in from other States, and 20 had gone from the State, while 18 had resigned without reported settlement elsewhere. Thirteen ministers had been ordained, 3 of whom came from other denominations; 14 ministers had died, among whom was the revered President of Kalamazoo College. Eight church edifices had been dedicated, and 12 others were in process of erection. Nine new churches had been organized, 8 of which had been already recognized. The number of baptisms was over 200. The Bureau of Ministerial Supply, under the direction of the Board, continued to be helpful.

The Home Mission Board reported receipts of $13,464.68, to which the Women's Home Mission Society had added $1,400. Eight churches had been aided in the erection of meeting houses to the total amount of $2,550. The report of the Foreign Mission Board showed total receipts of $5,759.58. A larger number of churches than in previous years had contributed to this cause, and the interest in the general work, and in the special work of the centennial year were correspondingly increased. One evening was devoted to the observance of the Centenary of Missions, at which time addresses were made by E. H. E. Jameson, D.D., O. O. Fletcher, D D., Z. Grenell, D. D., and Miss Ella MacLaurin.

The report of the Sunday-school Board showed that 4 Sunday-school institutes had been held in different quarters of the State, with good results and much interest. The receipts of the Board had been $3,323.22, and the expenditures $2,928.48. The reports of the two Sunday-school missionaries were full of interest; 1 labors in the upper, and the other in the lower peninsula.

The Board of Ministerial Education reported an unusually large attendance of students at Kalamazoo College, the success of the effort to add $100,000 to its endowment, and a very hopeful condition of affairs under its new President.

The next session will be held at Lansing, October 18, 1893. The Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. J. L. Cheney.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting was held at Benton Harbor, October 18, 19, 1892. The first session seems to have been a joint meeting with the Baptist Young People's Union at which a paper on "The Ideal Church Social" was read by Rev. E. R. Curry; an address was made by C. C. Bitting, D. D., on "How to Reach the Masses," and an address on "Stewardship" was made by Rev. O. P. Gifford to the young people.

At the second meeting, Rev. W. W. Whitcomb read a paper on "Perfectionism"; Rev. W. L. Munger, on "President Strong on the Divine Decrease"; and Rev. A. H. Beaver, on "The Use of the Imagination in Preaching"; Rev. C. C. Miller furnished a paper on "Theories of Infant Salvation"; Rev. G. F. Warren, made an address on "The Pastor's Relation to the Church." The next meeting is to be held in Lansing in connection with the meeting of the State Convention.

The Annual Meeting for 1892 was held at Benton Harbor, October 18, 19. There were present 188 representatives of 63 societies, and many local visitors. The first meeting was as indicated in the Report of the Pastor's Conference. At the second meeting, routine business was considered. There were reported to be 187 societies, of which 33 were Christian Endeavor, with a membership of 7,258 active and 1,653 associate, a total of 8,911. The receipts for the work, mainly correspondence, were $69.96; the expenses were $60.98. Associational organization had been effected in 18 Associations. Addresses were made by representatives of the various denominational enterprises. The question of the next annual meeting was refered to a committee to determine and answer at some future time.

Women's Work.

There were meetings of Baptist women in the interest of Foreign Missions and Education during the anniversaries at Benton Harbor. In foreign missions the women had contributed $4,657 to the regular work, and $104.00 to the State expense. A discussion was had on "Apportionment—What does it Mean, and What are the Benefits to be Derived from It"? A number of addresses were made on practical topics. In education the women decided to attempt to raise $500.00 for the furnishing of rooms in the dormitory of Kalamazoo College. General interest has been awakened, although no large amount of money had been raised. Mrs. O. K. McConnell, Jackson, president, and Mrs. H. B. Tefft, Tekonsha, is secretary of the Women's Education Society.

The Thirty-third Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, St. Paul, October 11-13, 1892. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. William Gilkes, from Col. 1 : 28.

The number of missionaries under appointment had been 47, and 5 district missionaries, in all 52; they had served 51 churches, and 48 out-stations; the number received by baptism was 335 and the whole number of additions was 676. The mission churches had raised $50,373.49, of which $12,348.32 was for salaries, and $13,132.49 for improvements upon houses of worship; 3 churches had become self-supporting, and the character of the other work at other points was specially encouraging. The report developed the fact that every American church in the State had at some time received aid from the missionary societies, and the Scandinavian churches owed their existence to such aid. The mission work in Minnesota is not yet self-supporting, the system of co-operation with the Home Mission Society being continued. In consideration of these reports, addresses were made by Rev. W. W. Dawley, on "The Influence of the State Convention upon the Churches"; Rev. J. W. Ford, on "The Influence of our Convention Work upon the State"; Rev. J. W. Crooks, on "The Possibilities of District Missionary Work in Minnesota"; and 5 minute reports from the mission fields were presented.

The subjects of Home and Foreign Missions were considered in reports, and an evening session was devoted to a mass meeting, at which addresses were made by Rev. G. H. McClellan, on "The Small Church in a Family of Churches, the Value it Has, and Our Duty to it"; Rev. W. P. McKee, on "The Missionary Spirit—How it Affects the Spirituality and Efficiency of a Church"; and Lemuel Moss, D. D., on "Christianity and the State Life."

The amount received from all sources by the Treasurer had been $11,793.19 and the expenditures had been $11,760 92; but to this is to be added an amount of nearly $4,000 which the Home Mission Society had expended in missionary work in the State.

Other addresses during the sessions were made by Rev. G. H. Gamble, on "The Work of a Missionary Pastor"; Rev. Frank Peterson, on "The Work Before Us"; Mrs. J. W. Barker, formerly a missionary in Burma, on "Women's Work"; H. C. Mabie, D. D., and a resolution was adopted expressive of the Convention's appreciation of Pillsbury Academy, and general denominational interests. The Convention closed with a special session commemorative of the Columbian Year, at which addresses were made by Wayland Hoyt, D. D., on "Marks of Providential Design in the Discovery and Occupation of the Americas"; W. N. Haigh, D. D., on "The Distinctive Characteristics of American Christianity"; and P. S. Henson, D. D., on "The Peril and Promise of American Christianity."

The Third Annual Meeting was held at St. Paul, October 12, 1892. For the aid of students at Pillsbury Academy $220.00, and for students at the Divinity School of the University of Chicago $215.00 had been raised, making the amount for the year $435.71. The number of students aided was 12, and the probabilities are that this number will be increased during the year, so much so that at least $1,000 must be provided if this work is accomplished. Pillsbury Academy has now 3 buildings in use, and a music hall, a drill hall, and a heating plant in construction, which when completed, will add a valuation of $40,000, the gift of Mr. George A. Pillsbury. The school had opened with 233 students, an increase of 32 over the preceding year. Two instructors had been added to the faculty.

The Society was addressed by Rev. M. F. Negus, on "Student Aid"; T. W. Powell, D. D. on "The House with Two Fronts"; Rev. S. A. MacKay, on "Pillsbury Academy and Our Duty Thereto"; and Mr. George A. Pillsbury.

The Second Annual Meeting was held in St. Paul, October 14, 1892. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. The opening address was made by T. S. Tompkins; Boston W. Smith made an address on "Grow"; Rev. E. R. Pope spoke on "Push, Pluck, and Persistency"; John H. Chapman, President of the National Society, and Rev. W. H. Geistweit also made addresses. We are without the statistics of the societies in this State.

Women's Work.

The Woman's Baptist Home Mission Society held a meeting in connection with the meeting of the State Convention which was largely attended, and at which Mrs. H. D. Gates, State vice-president, presided. The reports by directors of the Association indicated enlarged interest. One of the district missionaries had been entirely supported by the woman's societies. The amount raised during the year was $847.00. There were addresses by Mrs. E. M. Van Duzee; Mrs. W. W. Dawley, on "Systematic Study of Missions"; Mrs. T. K. Gray, on "Children's Work"; Rev. J. W. Crooks, and Miss M. G. Burdette.

In foreign missions the number of churches containing woman's societies, was reported to be 125; the amount raised during the year, $3,673.93; raised by the young ladies, $573.00; and by the children, $429.00; and 950 copies of missionary journals were taken. Mrs. F. Peterson presided over the meeting, and an elaborate programme of practical topics, illustrating the work of gathering missionary funds, was rendered. Addresses were made by Rev. F. Peterson, and by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, on their way to China; and Miss Minnie Buzzell, of the foreign field.

The Fifty-fourth Anniversary was held at Meridian, July 21–25, 1892. There were 30 Associations represented by 145 delegates, and 92 churches and missionary societies by 94 delegates, making 239 present. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. R. A. Cooper, from Heb. 6 : 9.

There had been employed 59 missionaries who had devoted 3,685 days to actual service, traveled 27,013 miles, occupied 257 stations, delivered 2,404 sermons and addresses, attended 501 prayer meetings, visited 4,283 families, baptized 228 persons, received otherwise 322, organized 9 churches and 46 Sunday-schools, distributed 15,343 pages of tracts, built 10 houses of worship and repaired 4 others. They also collected on the fields $4,698, and the value of the houses built was $9,529.50. The ministerial students enrolled at Mississippi College numbered 45. Of these, 39. had received assistance at a total cost of $2,421.13, of which $396 was in supplies and provisions contributed by the women. Three students had graduated and entered work. The Kells Memorial Building was in process of erection, to be ready at the opening of the next session. The receipts for ministerial education, including provisions and supplies, were $2,699.31.

The trustees of Mississippi College reported marked changes in the policy of the institution, especially the abolition of tuition fees and important changes in the Faculty. A new President had been chosen, and the character of instruction raised to a high order. The effort to increase the endowment had resulted in a fund of $39,000 bearing good interest. Perhaps the most important measure considered at this meeting of the Convention was the proposition to remove the College, which, after long and protracted discussions was determined upon, and in the event that the citizens in Meridian by a given time placed $50,000 in available funds to the credit of the trustees, and a clear deed to 30 acres of land in the vicinity in the city of Meridian, then the College shall be so located. The Treasurer of the College reported receipts from all sources $7,866.09, and an existing deficit of salaries of $1,530.78. There had been added to the endowment $9,966.61; total endowment fund was reported to be, of all kinds, $42,000.

The Treasurer had received for the general fund $2,887.38, and disbursed $3 104.85; for State missions, $9,556.62; church erection, $9,529.50; foreign missions, $5,933.17; home missions, $2,332.24; ministerial education, $391.48; seminary funds, $451.10; sustentation, $232.73, a total of $31,105.68.

The usual reports of the committees of various departments of Christian effort were made and discussed, and the centenary of modern missions was observed in addresses by I. T. Tichenor, D. D., J. B Gambrell, D. D., and J. M. Frost, D. D. The interests of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary were represented by F. H. Kerfoot, D. D., and a contribution of $776.66 was made to the students' fund; a contribution of $540 was also made toward the deficit in the salaries of the professors of Mississippi College.

The next session of the Convention is to be held at Vicksburg, beginning Thursday, July 20, 1893, and the Convention Sermon is to be preached by Rev. G. H. Carter.

Women's Work.

The Secretary and Treasurer of Women's work reported to the State Convention the contribution of $1,535.10 for foreign missions; $1,043.50 for home missions; $579.69 for State missions; $874.80 for ministerial education; $225.97 for Mississippi College; $885 15 for Jackson church building; $10,000 for general funds; $62.30 for sustentation; $23 for the theological seminary, and $4,650.42 for home use, a total of $9,850.78. A large quantity of brick cards, leaflets, tracts, mite barrels, circulars, and other literature had been distributed. There are 479 societies in the State. resentatives of 34 churches, and 44 representatives of 10 Associations, and 3 annual members, a total in attendance of 99. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. J. P. Johnston, from 2 Tim. 2 : 10.

There had been in employment 7 missionaries, who had devoted 482 days to the work, preached 433 sermons, baptized 72 persons, received 48 otherwise, constituted 1 church, and traveled 5,668 miles; there had been baptized also, by Choctaw preachers, 21. The work of this body is confined to East and Southeast Mississippi and among the Choctaw Indians. Among these latter there had been gathered 10 churches, with an aggregate membership of 300; there had been 93 baptisms during the year, so that the work is said to be encouraging. The absence of the Treasurer prevents a detailed report of receipts and expenditures, beyond the fact that a balance was in hand of $41.57. The Committee on Finance reported as sent up to this meeting for domestic missions, $407.69; foreign missions, $162; Indian missions, $63; special for a horse for one of the missionaries, $13.75, and ministerial education, $2.50, a total of $649.85; to this might be added collections on the field, $83.35, so that the total receipts may be taken to be $733 20.

The printed proceedings contained reports on temperance, publications, education, Sabbath-schools and missions, all of which were attended with profitable discussions. It is not the policy of this body to encourage prepared addresses according to programmes. Efforts are being made to stimulate more liberal giving from the churches to the cause of foreign missions.

The next annual meeting is to be held with the Union Church, in Smith County, to begin October 27, 1893, and Rev. J. N. Moore was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon.

The Fifty-eighth Anniversary was held at Lexington, October 18–21, 1892. The total number of delegates present was 333. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Kirtley, from 2 Cor. 5 : 9.

The report on State missions showed 57 missionaries and missionary pastors and 13 general and local missionaries. The number of churches aided was 50. The employes of the Board labored 12,277 days, preached 5,391 sermons, visited 5,940 families, attended 1,358 prayer meetings, baptized 1,146 persons; 3 churches had become self-supporting, and 5 new churches had been organized. The collections for State missions proper were $14,000, the receipts from legacies in cash $1,048.40, and there had been expended for church buildings on mission fields, $30,487.80. The amount of all benevolent enterprises were reported to be: District missions, $23,-989.31; State missions, $14,000; buildings on State mission fields, $31,587.30; home missions, $7,000; foreign missions, $11,000; ministerial education at William Jewell College, $2,461.56; at the Southern Seminary, $500.00. Baptist Sanitarium for buildings and furniture, $5,000; orphans' home, $13,000; aged ministers. $1,603 05, and college endowment and buildings, $14,000, a total of $143,341.42. There is one general board of missions through which all funds for this department pass. For home missions there had been received contributions from 60 Associations, 273 churches, 4 Sunday-schools, 44 women's societies, 4 young people's societies, and 10 children's bands. The contributions for foreign missions were evidently from a larger number.

The report of the trustees of William Jewell College, showed an enrollment of 280 students, the establishment of a reading room, the purchase of 10 additional acres of land, and the inauguration of a new president in the person of J. P. Greene, D. D. Ministerial students to the number of 80 were enrolled at the present session. A new building to be known as "Wornell Hall" is about to be commenced. The assets of the college are estimated at $288,000, of which $215,000 is productive. Prof. J. R. Sampey represented the seminary at Louisville, at which are 20 students from Missouri, and received toward their support $403.00. Eleven institutions, 3 of which are for female education exclusively, were reported to be in a thriving condition. William Jewell College for men and Stephens' College for women, are directly connected with this Association, which elects their trustees. It was proposed to establish a new board of education, combining the Board of ministerial education, and the committee on schools and colleges to foster general educational interests in the State, and after discussion this was made the subject for consideration at the next anniversary. There had been received for aid of ministerial students $2,-461.56, pledges $686.00, and 4 adoptions, and the number of students aided the preceding year was 93.

Much interest exists in the Orphans' Home, and the Baptist Sanitarium, the former of which is the property of the denomination and the latter fostered by it. The Orphans' Home has property valued at $31,000, and had received during the year 134 orphans. The present number in the home is 42. Receipts for this charity had been $13,-656.18, and the debt had been reduced to $4,000, and all current expenses met. The value of the property of the Sanitarium, including grounds, building and furniture, is $109,121.02. Of the 81 rooms, 65 are furnished, and of these 48 were furnished by churches, societies, and individuals.

During the year 573 cases were treated, 111 surgical operations performed. There had been 154 prayer meetings held, resulting in 26 conversions, all of which were added to the Baptist churches. Total expenses during the year were $12,347.78, and the total receipts from board, etc., $11,394.51 There is an existing debt on the property of $36,000, which is being reduced at the rate of $5,000 each year.

Addresses were made during the session by J. O'B. Lowry, D. D., and Rev. J. M. P. Martin, on "The Work Done.' Rev. J. S. Kirtley, Rev. M. L. Thomas, and Rev. D. T. Denman, on the "Orphans' Home." J. W. Ford, D. D., and Prof. J. R. Sampey, on "Sunday-school Colportage Work"; W. P. Yeaman, D. D., E. H. Sawyer, D. D., and Rev. S. M. Brown, on "The Needs of the Field"; Rev. W. C. Calder, Rev. W. B. Bagby and Rev. P. A. Eubank, missionaries, on "The Foreign Work"; I. T. Tichenor, D. D., and W. D. Powell, D. D., on "The Centennial Fund," and a number of others made addresses in general discussions as the reports were presented. A memorial service was also held occasioned by the death of Gov. C. H. Hardin, and Hon. John B. Wornell, both of whom had been prominently identified in Baptist educational movements in the State.

During the session an enthusiastic young people's mass meeting was held, at which a number of addresses were made in support of this movement.

The next session is to be held at Carrollton, to begin October, 1893, and Rev. J. C. Armstrong was appointed as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

This body was organized in the Calvary Church, Kansas City, October 17th, 1892. There were present 152 delegates, representing a large number of cities and towns in the State. F. L. Wilkins, D. D., the General Secretary of the National Organization, made an address on "The Baptist Young People's Movement," following which an open discussion occurred, which resulted in a determination to effect a permanent organization, and the above-named officers were elected and a constitution adopted. An address was made by Rev. D. T. Denman, on "Organization for Baptist Young People; Its Benefit in the Local Church." This address was followed by a general discussion upon the same subject. We are not informed of the plans for the next anniversary.

delivered by Rev. C. R. McDowell, from John 12 : 21. During the sessions a number of sermons were preached.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary seems to be devoted to the one purpose of establishing an educational interest. Neither the name or location of this Institution is mentioned in his report. The difficulties in the way at the beginning of the year are mentioned, but we are not informed by the report as to whether they were overcome. Acknowledgment is made to the Home Mission Society and the Third Church, of St. Louis, for $1,200, received for educational purposes. Besides these amounts, there is an itemized list of receipts footing up $2-, 331.12. It is very difficult to understand the system of bookkeeping adopted by the Corresponding Secretary, so it is impossible to say what was done with these funds, but presume that they were for the support of the Institution. The report of the Treasurer shows receipts amounting to $1,445.26, but in this is included evidently the gift of St. Louis white friends; the expenditures were $1,463.59, of which $1,127.00 was paid "on property,"—evidently again the school.

There is a Board of Managers, but the printed proceedings give no hint of any report which they made; so we are not advised of their doings. A report on financial matters complains of irregular methods in this direction, and it will probably be remedied. An important move was made in the matter of statistics, and we are hopeful that this will meet with success.

The next meeting is to be held at Carrollton, beginning Thursday, October 12, 1893, and Rev. H. J. Burton was chosen to preach the Annual Sermon.

The only Association in this State was held June 8–10, 1892, with Hon. P. H. Leslie, Helena, as the moderator, and W. C. Bacholer, Butte, as clerk. Only 13 churches were reported with partial returns from them. Reference should be had to the tables for the statistics. The work in this State is carried on by the American Baptist Home Mission Society, and the statistics of State missions are incorporated in the summary of that Society's work. There seems to be a general advance in nearly all the churches, new workers have entered the field, and the old workers appear to be greatly encouraged. The Association meets at Bozeman, July 20, 1893.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Omaha, October 26, 27, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. G. Evans, from Num. 14 : 8 and Matt. 3 : 17. The Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Read, from John 17 : 18.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary showed the employment of 40 missionaries who had performed 1,892 weeks of labor, preached 5,537 sermons, supplied 63 churches and 59 out-stations, attended 3,018 prayer meetings, made 16,138 religious visits, baptized 394 persons, added 473 otherwise, and distributed 94,105 pages of tracts. Twenty-seven new churches had been organized, 23 houses of worship were in progress of erection, 14 having been dedicated, 21 pastors had left the State, 4 died and 37 new pastors had come into the State. There had been 11 ordained. The mission churches had paid on salaries $12,091.72, and upon their property, $16,515.70. Ten churches had become self-supporting, and 6 others are about to become so. The report of the Treasurer showed receipts for State Convention work, $4,070.23 ; for Church Edifice Fund, $266.86 ; from Woman's Home Mission Society, $662.52, a total of $5,004.61. Forty-two Sunday-schools contributed $253.15, and 51 Sunday-schools contributed for chapel building, $267.86; 10 societies of Young People contributed $53-.07. The Home Mission Society appropriates $6,000 to the work of this State in addition to what was secured above. Expenditures were for missionaries' salaries, $10.791.66; missionaries' expenses, $395.89. The benevolent contribution for all purposes, from the churches amounted to $12,542.72, and for all purposes, including home or current expenses, $134,500, which is 88 cents per member for benevolence, and $9.50 per member for all purposes. The number of mission Sunday-schools was 67, of which 26 are newly organized; they enrolled 3,137 pupils and 320 teachers, and contributed for their expenses, $1,302.99, and for missions, $324.48. Two district missionaries were employed who visited 139 churches and 25 destitute points with a view to organization, conducted 10 protracted meetings, preached 349 sermons and delivered 51 addresses, attended 129 prayer meetings, distributed 11,871 pages of tracts, and baptized 34 persons. The General Superintendent had visited 105 churches and 50 points for exploration, preached 102 sermons, delivered 87 addresses, made 789 religious visits, distributed 9,505 pages of tracts, baptized 2, organized 1 church, journeyed 21,024 miles, and performed a vast amount of literary labor germain to his office. The reports were followed by a number of 5 minute addresses by missionaries of the Convention.

The Twenty-fifth Anniversary was appropriately celebrated. After devotional exercises conducted by aged ministers who were pioneers in the State, Rev. A. W. Clark spoke on "The Earlier Days," giving an account of the interesting details attendant upon the planting of the work. A few responses were made to an invitation for those present at the time of the organization to make themselves known. An address was made by H. C. Woods, D. D., on "The Fundamental Character of our Work"; W. P. Hellings, D. D., spoke on "The Glorious Promise." An address was made by J. D. Fulton, D. D., on "Spurgeon and Manning."

The Missionary Centennial was observed at a special session. The report on foreign missions was read by Rev. E. N. Harris, showing contributions amounting to $638.48 from the churches, and $289.37 from the women's societies; a conference of associational secretaries followed outlining methods of practical work. Mrs. E. T. Allen read a report of the State secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; the per capita to this cause was 8½ cents. Following these reports was a conference of associational secretaries for women's work. Addresses were made by O. O. Fletcher, D. D, Rev. O. A. Buzzell, and Rev. O. P. Gifford, Chicago.

The report on home missions was followed by an address by H. C. Woods, D. D., on "The Hand of God in America's History." The Women's Home Missionary Society reported contributions of $666.54. In these contributions, 62 churches out of 249 were represented. Mrs. F. M. Williams read a paper on "More Money for Home Mission:" Miss F. Townsley made an address. A contribution for State work was taken amounting to $72.50. The report on Church Edifice Fund stated that 12 churches had been helped by the Home Mission Society toward building. There are 85 churches in Nebraska without houses of worship. There were also reports on the Publication Work, Obituaries, in which the deaths of 6 prominent friends of the Convention were reported, and several special committees suggesting changes in the organization of the Body and indicating enlargement of the work by which the employment of students as missionaries during vacation was recommended. A closing session was devoted to educational interests, at which addresses were made by E. B. Hulbert, D. D., on "The True Education," and Prof. Wilson in presenting the claims of Grand Island College.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at a point to be determined by the Executive Committee, to begin Wednesday, October 25, 1893, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by Rev. H. W. Tate.

NEVADA.

In this State there is but a single church, and up to date of forwarding this to press, not a single Baptist minister resident. We have failed to obtain any information as to the condition of the church at Reno. It has associational connection in California, but even this association has failed to report at this writing. The outlook at last report was discouraging, and we have noted no indication of change in the denominational press.

The annual report stated that 26 churches had been aided to an aggregate amount of $2,543.35, and a general missionary had been employed. There was also a missionary among the French people, employed in conjunction with the Home Mission Society. Home and Foreign Missions, the Publication Society, and ministerial and other education received due attention in reports and discussions.

Sanderson read an essay on "Miracles." The statistical report by Rev. William Hurlin, showed among other things, that four ministers had died in the State during the year, only one being a pastor; and that four had died in other States, who were formerly New Hampshire pastors. Three had been ordained to the work of the ministry. The number of ordained ministers reported to the associations was 83, of whom 62 were pastors, and five of these supply two churches each. The Treasurer's report showed that four aged and indigent ministers had been aided from the fund, all of whom were over 82 years of age.

reported that he had practically completed the catalogue of Baptist pastors in New Hampshire, from 1832 to 1892. In this catalogue there are 535 names, concerning most of whom very full particulars had been obtained. The Sixty-third Annual Meeting was held at East Orange, October 25, 26, 1892. One hundred and thirteen churches were represented by 280 delegates. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. A. H. Sembower, from Matt. 31 : 3, on "The Needs in the Masters' March to Triumph."

The report of the Board showed that work had been prosecuted on 38 fields, comprising 43 churches. The missionaries occupied 50 stations, delivered 4,387 sermons and addresses, conducted 2,171 prayer meetings, made 10,584 pastoral visits, and baptised 167 believers. The Superintendent had given his time mainly to raising money, watching over new missions, and publishing a monthly paper in the interest of the Convention.

Rev. J. K. Manning presented a full report on denominational interests. Rev. I. M. B. Thompson read a paper on the work of the Convention in which it appeared that since its organization, $152,000 had been expended in direct work, not including large gifts of individual churches for church building. A practical address on the details of the work of the Convention was made by Rev. D. Dewolf, the Superintendent of Missions. Rev. H. F. Stillwell read a paper on "Women and State Missions"; and M. H. Pogson, D. D., spoke on "State Missions as a Factor in our Denominational Life." There were reports on home and foreign missions, following which were addresses by A. G. Lawson, D. D., A. H. Burlingham, D. D., and R. G. Seymour, D. D. The obituary report noted the death of 8 ministers.

There had been received from the churches and from legacies, $8,514.53. Mr. Asa Suydam, the treasurer since 1879, declined further service. It was resolved to attempt the raising of $12,000 during the coming year. The President, in an earnest address, proposed that a fund of $50,000 be created to insure an annual income sufficient to cover all expenses incident to the management and development of the State work. The Convention referred the subject to the Board with instructions to act, and the matter is now in the hands of a competent committee.

There is a constant increase of colored Baptists in the State, who are showing a desire for churches of their own. Something is being attempted for the larger German population in various places. A special effort is being made among the Scandinavians, who have gathered congregations in a number of localities. The wider denominational interests were represented in papers on the Publication Society by Rev. J. G. Entrekin and on the Home Mission Society by Rev. B. D. Hahn.

the churches had been $2,704, and a legacy of $1,900 had been paid. The appropriations for students amounted to $3,539.

The two educational institutions of the State were represented by Principal Perry, of Peddie Institute, and Rev. C. C. Tilley, for the South Jersey Institute, reporting as to their work and prospects. Rev. H. A. Griesemer made an address on "How to Increase the Income of the Society." An address was made by W. W. Boyd, D. D., on "The Relation of the Church to the Student." Rev. S. B. Meeser spoke on "The Relation of the Student to the Church."

The Eighty-fifth Annual Meeting was held at Gloversville, October 26, 27, 1892. There were present 314 delegates.

The adoption of the report was moved by Rev. B. L. Herr, on "The Mutual Interests and Relative Importance of the Churches," and the report was seconded by Rev. T. J. Cass, on "The Practical Care of all the Churches a Duty and a Responsibility." A special missionary session observing the centenary of modern missions was held, at which addresses were made by President Strong, D. D., on "Our Baptist Advantages in America"; H. C. Mabie, D. D.; and a number of brief addresses in a free conference conducted by Rev. G. H. Brigham. In the consideration of Sunday-school matters, Rev. A. L. Candee spoke on the condition of Sunday-schools in the State, and E. A. Taylor, D. D., on "The Sunday-school as Teaching Morality." An address, on "What Home Missions have done for America this Hundred Years," was made by H. L. Morehouse, D. D.

Prof. J. R. Lynch made a report from a special Committee on Education, in which was outlined the present condition of the various institutions in the State under Baptist management. Rev. J. L. Campbell spoke, on "The Training Needful in Practical Christian Work," and other addresses were made by Prof. N. L. Andrews and Rev. John Greene, Ph. D., of Colgate University. An interesting feature of the Anniversary was an address, on "The Carey-Williams Letters," by Mornay Williams, Esq., in which several letters of Andrew Fuller and William Carey were produced. The report of the Committee of Important Topics was the occasion of a full and free discussion of definite and systematic plans for increasing the efficiency of the body, and in which the general prosperity of the work in the State was made manifest.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting was held at Gloversville, October 25, 26, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. E. E. Chivers, from John 17: 18, 19. There were present 97 ministers, 47 of them being members of the Conference.

The Committee on the state of religion reported through A. C. Osborne, D. D., and E. A. Taylor, D. D., which showed that in 50 years an increase of 64 per cent. in church membership, 21 per cent. in churches, 54 per cent. in the ministry had been obtained; the population in the same time was increased 146 per cent.; in 1890, there was 1 Baptist church to 6,800 of population, and 1 Baptist minister to 6,500 inhabitants. Dr. Taylor's address was on "Aggressive Romanism." This report was followed by a free discussion. Other addresses were by Rev. R. T. Jones, on "Pastoral Visiting"; Rev. C. E. Bascom, on "The Proper and Improper use of the Old Testament"; and Prof. Benjamin I. Wheeler, on "Modern Bible Study." The Committee on Obituaries noted the departure of 27 ministers, many of them prominent in the history of the State.

The First Annual Meeting was held at Gloversville, October 26, 27, 1892. The opening address was of a practical character by F. H. Field, President of the body. Rev. W. H. Sherwood made an address consisting of facts and information relating to Young People's organizations. Mr. H. C. Vedder, Rev. J. H. Dudley, N. J., and Mr. Henry C. Ronalds made addresses on practical topics as affecting the work of Young People's Societies. A platform meeting was addressed by Rev. F. P. Stoddard, on "Impressions of the Troy Convention"; Rev. E. E. Chivers, on "Impressions of the Detroit Convention," and Henry C. Vedder, on "The Educational Feature of our Work." The next annual meeting is to be held in connection with the other anniversaries at Binghamton, October, 1893.

The Forty-first Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Rochester, May 19, 1892. In addition to the reception of the annual reports and the election of officers, there were addresses by Rev. Edwin P. Farnham, Salem, Mass.; Rev. Joseph V. Garton, Cambridge, Mass., and Rev. Benjamin D. Hahn, Newark, N. J.

This body has the executive control of the Theological Seminary of the University of Rochester. It had passed one of the most successful years of its history. The decision to elevate the character of instruction had stimulated young men to make better preparation, and brought more men to take this advanced course of training. Additions had been made to the faculty. The students represented 20 States, the District of Columbia, and 4 foreign countries. Seventeen universities and colleges, and 3 other theological seminaries are represented on the roll. In the English department the aggregate number was 52, in the German department there were 40, in the University of Rochester 34, and in the academies 18, so that the total of students under the care of this body was 144. The whole number of men aided had been 121. Of these, 18 Academy students had received $892.50; 33 University students, $3,165; 36 in the German department, $4,240; and 34 in the English department of the Seminary had received $4,700; in all, it had paid to students $13,097.50. At the same time the year had been marked with difficulty in securing the necessary funds. The number of churches represented in the list of contributors remains at about 200. The majority of the churches in the State do nothing for any work of ministerial education. Lack of interest among the pastors is a matter of complaint; of 500 appeals sent out, but 100 responses were had. The whole amount contributed by churches, Sunday-schools, individuals, and Young People's Societies, was $1,260; the German churches had given $1,585, so that the total contribution was $10,412.74. The endowment funds had been increased. One item of $75,000 had been realized from a legacy, and $10,000 had been given for the Lectureship Fund.

The report of the Treasurer shows the permanent funds, at the time of the meeting, to be $606,346.31, of which $94,782.03 had been added during the year. These funds are available as follows: Professorship Fund, $334,319.60; Scholarship Fund, $51,767.33; General Endowment Fund, $147,726.89; Reading Room Fund, $2,000; Alumni Scholarship Fund, $532.49; Trevor Endowment, $10,000; Trevor Lectureship Fund, $10,000; Bruce and General Library Fund, $50,000; The receipts from securities, Library Income, President's Loan Fund, and Current Expense Account were $6,438.07; for special expenses, $42 24; from President's Loan Fund, $1,044.69; income from Permanent Fund, $34,411.79; from legacies, $76,448.03; from students for incidentals, $980; from payments on mortgages, $96,127.42; Trevor Lectureship, $10,000; premium on sold bonds, $6,334; subscription, $3,000; total, $244,238.98. The disbursements were: To students for the ministry, $13,097.50; salaries of professors, $24,491.66; library, $3,781.41; current expense account, $8,673.87; loaned to students, $887.50; added to permanent funds, $184,931.12; cash balances, $8,285.92. The present value of securities in bonds, stocks, and mortgages is $606,346.31; real estate, $102,827.05; Library, Museum, and Loan Funds, $66,307.73; cash balances, $708.40; so that the whole property is valued at $776,189.49.

The printed report contains the usual reports of the President, professors, and instructor. The meetings of the body are held annually in Rochester, in the month of May, and the arrangements for them are made by the Board of Trustees.

The Seventy-fifth Anniversary was held in Hamilton, June 15, 1892. The addresses were by Rev. A. C. Dixon, on "Myths and Moths of Modern Infidelity"; Rev. Donald D. MacLauren, on "Power for Aggressive Work"; and by Vice-President Hillman, on "Growth and Contrasts in the Society's Work."

The report of the Board makes grateful mention of Mr. James B. Colgate's gift to the University of the Dodge Memorial Fund of One Million Dollars, which was received just after the last anniversary, and refers to the preliminary steps which have been instituted for a needed revision of the compact under which the Society and the University at Hamilton have held relations since the year 1847.

The total enrollment of students in the institutions at Hamilton, under control of this Society, reaches the largest number ever reported, viz.: 373 young men. Fully sixty per cent. of these have the ministry in view; directly under the Society's care were 151.

Lectures before the Seminary were given by Frank Russell, D. D., on "The Evangelical Alliance"; Smith Baker, M. D., of Utica, on "Mental Interferences," "Health in Professional Life," and related topics; W. M. Lawrence, D. D., of Chicago, on "Practical Relations in the Ministry"; lectures on "The Astronomy of the Sun," by Prof. C. A. Young, the eminent astronomer of Princeton; and a course on "Methods of Christian Work," by Rev. H. S. Loyd. The changes in the Board of instruction during the year were as follows: Rev. Dr. A. M. Beebe was assigned to the chairmanship of the faculty, H. Harvey, D. D., to the deanship of the Seminary and the department of pastoral theology, and Prof S. Burnham, D. D., to the headship of the department of Old Testament interpretation. Rev. D. F. Estes was appointed to the chair of New Testament interpretation, and Rev. Arthur Jones to the chair of homiletics, both of whom have filled their places acceptably since appointment. An enlargement of the course of study, and the introduction of a carefully selected system of electives, have been made by the faculty and approved by the Board; under the direction of the executive committee, the system of water supply has been greatly improved, the reading room has been enlarged and a consulting library established in Eaton Hall.

The financial exhibit shows the receipt of $31,085.03 on permanent fund account, and of $16,184.13 on the current expense account, of which $12,911.27 came from contributions and $3,159.85 from income from investments. The payments to beneficiaries were $12,940.13.

The obituary report makes special reference to the death in December, 1891, of Alvah Pierce, at the very spot in Hamilton where he was born, July 20, 1800. The minutes of the Boards contain this tribute: "A director of the Society from 1837 outward; its treasurer for fifty years; one of the original incorporators of the University and a member of its Board of Trustees since 1850; the Society has had no wiser counsellor, no steadier helper, no truer and better friend."

The next anniversary will be held in Hamilton, in June, 1893. The speakers appointed are Rev. S. T. Ford and Rev. J. W. Stuart.

The Sixty-second Annual Meeting was held in the Baptist Tabernacle, Raleigh, December 8–12, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Hardaway, from Isa. 52 : 1. The number of delegates enrolled was 216.

The report of the Mission Board showed that 116 missionaries had been employed, who had labored in 30 associations and supplied 228 churches; they had baptized 1,142 persons, organized 62 churches and completed 28 houses of worship, at a total cost of $33,600; they had preached 11,486 sermons, and performed a large amount of other pastoral labor. Work among the colored people had been undertaken in the form of institutes for instruction of ministers; in this way 186 ministers had been reached. The Home Board of the Southern Convention had aided in this work. The report of the treasurer showed the following amounts raised and expended during the year: For State missions, $14,272.95; colportage, $515.11; foreign missions, $10,247.72; home missions, $7,218.82; board of education, $3,781.56; endowment of Wake Forest College, $48.75; Robeson Institute, $3.600; Baptist Female College, $15,207.40; Aid Fund, $118.12; orphanage, $11,866.30; Ministers' Aid Fund, $1,075.05; church extension, $499.02; Sunday-schools, $7,019.10; total for all objects, $76,420.81.

In the department of Ministerial Education, 37 young men were reported as being aided in pursuing their studies at Wake Forest College, and that $3,000 had been contributed to this work. Addresses followed this report by W. E. Hatcher, D. D., of Virginia, when some $500 was secured for the work, and Prof. A. T. Robertson, of the seminary at Louisville. The Ministers' Relief Fund is for the aid of dependent ministers and widows of ministers, and during the year 11 ministers and 2 widows had been aided. The Baptist Orphanage is under the direction of the Convention. We have no statistics other than those found in the appropriate tables. In discussing foreign and home missions, there were interesting addresses by H. A. Tupper, D. D., Rev. W. B. Bagby, missionary in Brazil, Rev. D. W. Herring, Rev. J. Still, and W. D. Powell, D. D. An address on education was made by President C. E. Taylor, D. D., of Wake Forest College, which was followed by a general discussion in the interests of that institution. It is also anticipated that an institution of high grade for the education of women will be established by the convention in Raleigh, a Board having been created for that purpose.

The centenary of the mission movement was observed in addresses by F. M. Ellis, D. D., of Maryland, and W. D. Powell, D. D., missionary in Mexico, at the conclusion of which an effort to raise the quota of this State for the Centennial Fund, was partially successful.

The Thirty-sixth Annual Session was held at Hendersonville, October 19–22, 1892. The attendance was not large, but the sessions were harmonious and enthusiastic. In the absence of the printed proceedings we are unable to present a full account of the work done. Our correspondent informs us that 13 missionaries and colporteurs were in commission, and that about $2,000 was given for foreign missions, and $3,000 for home and convention missions. One church supports entirely a missionary in China. Addresses were made by J. L. M. Curry, D. D., on educational interests, and Rev. J. L. White and Rev. J. Q. Adams on foreign missions. There are thirteen counties in North Carolina contained in this body, but as they cover the mountainous section, the destitution is very great. About 2,000 members were added to their churches during the year, and there is a Baptist constituency of about 26,000.

The next meeting is to be held in Asheville, in the early part of October, 1893.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting was held at Fayetteville, October 18-21, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. C. C. Somerville, from Numbers 14: 8. Our information being from newspaper report, we are unable to give the interesting details of the work accomplished. There had been some missionaries employed, and a call was made in the report for an additional number. Home and foreign missions received large attention, and efforts are to be made to raise for these objects at least $5,000. E. M. Brawley, D. D., made an address on the convention missionary work. Rev. M. Vann and Rev. J. O. Hayes spoke directly on foreign missions and a collection in cash and pledges to the amount of $1,200 was made for that object. Rev. W. W. Colley addressed the white people by their invitation on the same subject. Plans were adopted to district the State, appointing superintendents in each district for the purpose of raising funds for the objects of the convention. Education also received marked attention, the various institutions in the State, notably "Shaw University," being made the theme of discussion and endorsement by resolutions. An attempt is being made to establish an asylum for colored orphans. The whole amount secured by pledges for all purposes during the year amounted to about $1,500.

The next meeting is to be held at Winston, beginning Tuesday, October 17, 1893.

The Ninth Annual Session was held at Grafton, July 23–25, 1892. There were present 77 delegates and visitors, representing 23 churches. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. L. Van Horn, from Eccles. 7 : 10. Within the State, 27 missionaries had received aid from the Home Mission Society, and 4 churches had been helped financially. The general missionary, Rev G. W. Huntley, had retired from active work after many years of honorable service. The change in the administration of State missions prevented a full report of work accomplished. The report covered only a portion of the year. In this time 21 missionaries had performed 291 weeks of labor, preached 666 sermons, supplied 31 churches and 33 out-stations, attended 345 prayer meetings, visited 2,198 families, baptized 22 persons, and received otherwise 41. They received from the fields $1,803.39, paid on church property $1,152, and raised for missionary churches $409.79. The value of church property on their fields is $33,061, with a seating capacity of 2,725, and an indebtedness of $3,881. There were 32 Sunday-schools, of which 10 had been newly organized, with 146 teachers, and 1,380 enrolled pupils. Two new churches had been organized and one which had become practically extinct was revived. An attempt made to raise $1,000 within the State for home mission work had resulted in securing $1,126.93. In addition the Treasurer had received $93.34, which had been expended in the cost of administration. The report does not include the work of the German and Scandinavian churches, and so this large element seems to be unrepresented in our report.

In educational matters an institution known as Dakota College had been established at Lisbon, which had enrolled 58 students. There had been expended $3,148.02, of which $2,292 had been secured by fees and gifts; the latter coming principally from the people of Lisbon. By the terms of the charter a majority of the trustees must be members of Baptist churches.

In addition to the introductory addresses, the Convention was addressed by Prof. Ira N. Price, Ph.D., on "The Messianic Prophecy"; Rev. T. O. Wold, on "The State's Religious Needs and the Opportunities Presented"; Rev. P. P. Farnham, on "Why Plant Baptist Churches in Places Already Occupied"; Rev. C. H. Holden, on "The Work of the Home Mission Society"; Rev. J. W. Davies, on "How Can we Interest Our Churches in State Missions"; Rev. G. H. Davies, on "The Home Mission Society and the Evangelization of Our Country." An address on the same subject was made by W. M. Haigh, D. D., of Chicago. Rev. Frank Peterson represented the cause of foreign missions. An address was also made by Rev. J. Flockhart, on "Apostolic Missions, Their Method and Results."

The other features of the meeting were routine in character, and we note nothing further worthy of attention, save the effort to raise $1,500 for mission work in the State during the year.

The next session is to be held at Grand Forks, to begin Friday, July 21st, 1893, and Rev. A. McDonald was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The other exercises were a paper on "The Minister's Call from God," by Rev. W. L. VanHorn; one on "The Minister's Preparation for His Work," by Rev. A. McDonald, and an address by W. M. Haigh, D. D., on "The Model Ordaining Council," and Prof. Ira N. Price, on "The Old Testament and Its New Friends." There was also a general discussion on "The Minister's Reward." The Second Meeting was held at Grafton July 24th, 1892. The only reference in the Annual to the meeting is that an address was made by R. H. The State Secretary for foreign missions reported the condition of the various societies, showing an increase of 8 circles, and 6 new bands, making 20 of the former, and 18 of the latter in existence. The report from the circles was incomplete, but from those which did report, the total amount for foreign missions was $307.05. The meetings were interspersed by brief addresses on practical topics.

The Sixty-seventh Annual Meeting was held at Zanesville, October 25, 26, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by G. R. Gear, D. D., from 2 Cor. 12 : 10. The annual report showed that there had been 36 missionaries employed and had rendered the following service: Weeks of labor, 1,391; prayer meetings held, 1,618; pastoral visits, 12,273; baptized, 288; received otherwise, 203; churches supplied, 34; sermons preached, 3,047; on the mission fields there had been raised for salaries of pastors, $11,798.10; buildings and improvements, $12,457.61; other expenses, $6,226.36. for State missions, $326.29; education, $71.60, foreign missions, $349.09; home missions, $205.37; Publication Society, $130.29; and other beneficence, $300.17; a total of $31,864.38.

There had been also 3 district missionaries who had performed evangelistic work in a large number of places, preached 635 sermons, making 135 addresses, traveling 14,449 miles, and baptizing 26 persons, while a number of others were baptized by assisted ministers. The Corresponding Secretary had performed much work of like character. He had delivered 137 sermons and addresses, written 4,892 letters, visited 91 churches, and 54 special religious meetings and arranged for and conducted the "Lake Side Assembly." The churches in the large cities were more than usually active in the work of church extension and the establishment of missions. The members had also given much attention in advising and co-operating with a number of churches in efforts to build new houses or pay debts incurred in building. It is proposed to make church erection a regular department of the work. A serious demand is made for enlargement because of increasing necessities of dependent churches in fields of great importance. An immediate call for $14,000 was made if the demands are met.

The report of the Treasurer showed receipts from collections, $1,052.32; from the Financial Secretary, $6,760.46; from the Finance Committee, $500.00; from interest on permanent fund, $605.65; from interest Toledo Association, $215.42; from Thatcher estate, $1,500; from loan, $1,900; a total of $12,533.85. All of this had been expended in missionary work with the exception of $4,226.05, the bulk of which was due on October payments of missionaries. The deficiency for the year was $448.35 after meeting these October orders.

The annual report gave occasion for general discussion of volunteer addresses among which were a number of reports from missionary pastors, and there were also special addresses by the district missionaries in explanation and outlining of their specific work. There were also a number of addresses in the interest of the proposed Church Edifice fund on the part of ministers whose work was retarded for the want of adequate buildings.

Sunday-school interests received attention in addresses by Rev. A. J. McElwain, Rev. W. E. Stevens, and Rev. W. D. Holt, on "The Mission School"; and Charles Rhodes, on "The Missionary Element in the Sunday-school." These addresses were followed by a general discussion. The usual report on home missions was attended by an address by Z. Grenell, D. D., Michigan, on "The Columbian Year and the Home Mission Society." The report on foreign missions was followed by volunteer addresses and general discussions. Reference should be made to the reports of the general societies as to the receipts for home and foreign missions. Charles Rhodes also made an address in the interest of the Publication Society and city mission work was the theme of an interesting free discussion. The Committee on Obituaries noted the death of 17 persons who had been prominently interested in the work of the Convention.

The next annual meeting is to be held at a place to be determined on by the officers and duly announced. The time is constitutionally fixed for the week preceding the 4th Sunday in October. The Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by Rev. J. L. Smith.

The annual meetings of this Society are held in July in connection with the commencement exercises of Denison University, at Granville. The semi-annual meetings are held in connection with the State Convention. At this meeting for 1892, it was reported that the Society had given, the preceding year, aid to 66 young men of whom 28 were in Denison University, 33 in Granville Acadamy, 1 in Marietta College, and 4 in the theological seminaries. There had been enrolled for the present year 34 men in Denison University and 41 in Granville Acadamy who would be dependent on the Society. It was certain that provision should be made for 64, besides others in theological seminaries.

The churches and Sunday-schools had contributed $2,753.20, special gifts amounted to $135.37, and interest on invested funds had been $917.56, a total of $3,806.13. There had been disbursed to beneficiaries $4,585.89, and other expenses, $1,349.09, a total of $5,884.95, and a deficit of $2,078.82. J. M. Stifler, D. D., delivered a discourse from John 17 : 6, on "God's Gifts to Men." Addresses were made by President Purinton in outlining the interesting features of Denison University, and E. N. Thresher, who discussed the marked welfare of the University and Sheppardson College. Mr. E. U. Smith spoke on the religious equipment of the University. An overflow meeting was held in an adjoining church at the same time of these addresses, at which G. W. Lasher, D. D., spoke on "Education in General and the Work of the Society."

The First Annual Meeting was held at Zanesville, October 26, 1892. There were present 125 delegates. They were reported 95 B. Y. P. U. societies, 46 societies of Christian Endeavor, and 15 societies of other names, making a total of 156 organizations of Baptist young people. The addresses were by Rev. E. W. Hunt, outlining the history of the work among young people, and Rev. E. E. Williams, on "The Educational Work of the Union." These addresses were followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting is to be held in connection with the meeting of the State Convention.

OKLAHOMA TERRITORY.

The general body for this territory is reviewed under the head of the Indian Territory; one convention occupies both of these territories. In Oklahoma, there are 3 small associations, the statistics so far as we have been able to gather them, appearing in the appropriate tables. The immigration into this territory has been very great, and there are now 6 towns of considerable population, 1 having 10,000, another 9,000, and another 6,000. The force of ministers has been largely increased through the efforts of the Home Mission Society, and the Home Board of the Southern Convention. The prospect of the addition of 7,000,000 more acres in the Cherokee outlet will largely increase the population. The whole country is therefore missionary ground, and demands close and immediate attention. Men are needed to gather and minister to the churches that are possible of construction.

Rev. C. M. Hill, Portland.

The Anniversary for 1892 was held at Independence. The attendance was the largest in the history of the body. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. T. G. Brownson, on "Baptists and Christian Union.

The summary of the year's work as outlined by the report of the Corresponding Secretary was 27 missionaries, who had supplied 57 churches and out-stations, and baptized 262 persons, and received otherwise 553. The value of church property in the mission fields is $76,000. Of financial matters, we have only the statement that $700 more than the preceding year's contributions had been realized; but as we had no report last year, this is indefinite. But the work is principally sustained by the Home Mission Society, and the results are contained in the report of that body. It was determined to enlarge the work during the year to come. Attention is given to work among the Scandinavians and Chinese, as well as the American population, and addresses were made by brethren specially interested in these departments.

The recognition of the "Columbian Year" was the occasion of addresses by Rev. R. M. Rabb, on "Christianity as a Formative and Conservative Force in American Life"; Rev. C. M. Hill, on "Christianity as an Aggressive Force," and sermons by Rev. Gilman Parker, on "Baptists as an Evangelistic Force," and Rev. C. A. Woody, on "Baptists and Liberty of Conscience." The cause of foreign missions and the centenary was also observed in addresses by Rev. G. W. Hill and Rev. J. Sunderland. Home and State missions and the Publication Society's work were also represented.

There is a Ministerial Union in connection with this Convention, but we have no information concerning it beyond the fact that an address, on "Pulpit and Pew" was made by Rev. R. D. Grant. Of the Sunday-school Convention and Baptist Young People's Union, we have learned nothing, even through the denominational papers, and our correspondence has failed to elicit reply.

We are not informed as to time and place of next meeting.

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Independence, October 22, 1892. An address was made by H. S. Gill, on "The Development of the Young People's Movement"; O. P. Coshon spoke, on "The Signification of Young People's Work to the Young People." A paper was read by Miss Rose M. Trumbull, on "The Relation of the Young Christian to the Temperance Question." Rev. R. McKillop spoke on "The Young People and Education." A discussion on "Forms of Organization" was led by W. W. Brooks, and there was a general discussion on practical direction of prayer meetings. Miss Josephine Robb spoke, on "The Interesting of Young People in Missions." The principal address was made by Rev. Roland D. Grant, on "The Bigotry of Close Communion and Other Things." Vigorous measures were inaugurated for pushing the work in the State, and a campaign fund was formed to enable visitation to each society and organization of new societies at points where there are none. The constitution was so amended as to bring this body of Young People into closer connection with the National Union.

The Sixty-fifth Anniversary was held at Franklin, October 18, 19, 1892. There were 114 delegates reported by the committee on enrollment. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. B. F. G. McGee, from Acts 27 : 25.

The Executive Board had commissioned 57 missionaries, who had preached 4,842 sermons, attended 3,936 other religious meetings, paid 11,877 religious visits, supplied 76 churches and 25 out-stations, and baptized 424 persons. The appropriations were made in 20 associations. One of the hindrances in the weak churches had been frequent changes in the pastoral relation. In some of the cities important missions had been established, some of which bid fair to develop into strong churches. The State evangelist had been at work the entire year under the direction and supervision of the President of the society. He had held meetings at 6 important points, from which good results followed. The receipts for the year from churches and individuals were $10,436.51. The Treasurer in his report showed receipts, including funds from other sources than those mentioned above, of $16,390.43, and expenditures, $16,117.96. The presentation of these reports was followed by general discussion, and by a large number of reports by missionaries upon the fields, giving detailed statements of the progress of their work.

A free discussion on "Forward Movements in State Missions," was opened by Rev. H. C. Applegarth, Jr. In these discussions the practicability of creating a church edifice fund of $50,000 or $100,000, was discussed and referred for further consideration. Emphatic resolutions respecting high license were adopted, as were also resolutions on the public school system as attacked by Roman Catholic ecclesiastics. Beyond these features, we note nothing of special significance.

The next session is to be held in October, 1893, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by Rev. W. M. Ryan of Scottdall.

The Fifty-third Anniversary was held at Franklin, October 19, 20, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. T. Chase, from Luke 22 : 22.

The Annual Report notes the admission of 26 students for the ministry at Crozer, Bucknell, Hall, Keystone, Lincoln University, and Rochester. Thirty-one students had terminated their connection. The whole number enrolled had been 94; 14 applications had been declined and 7 deferred. The receipts from all sources had been $14,590.11. The expenditures were $13,570.03. The present indebtedness was reported to be $1,541.92. It was reported that not less than $12,500, exclusive of special sums given by churches to their beneficiaries, would be required for the ensuing year. One legacy of $500.00 had been received.

The adoption of the report was moved by Rev. C. T. Morgan, and other addresses upon the report were made by Rev. H. C. Hall, Rev. J. N. Williams, Rev. H. C. Applegarth, Jr., and Rev. J. T. Griffiths. An address on "The Need of Theologically Educated Men at the Present Time," was made by B. C. Taylor, D. D. An address on "The Educating Power of the Religious Press," was made by H. L. Wayland, D. D. The venerable Secretary, Dr. Spratt, also made an address, and Rev. H. F. King spoke on "Our Academies." Rev. G. W. Watkins addressed the Society on "The Bible as a Factor in Education." The next meeting is to be held in connection with that of the State Mission Society in October, 1893, and Rev. R. H. Conwell was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

in attendance 4 life members, and 217 representatives of 46 churches; in all, 221. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. T. J. Jones, from John 8: 31, 32, on "Gospel Emancipation."

The Board of Managers had expended $2,441.67 in the aid of 13 churches. All of these churches were in an encouraging condition. One had finished their house at an expenditure of more than $6,000 raised on the field; one is prosecuting plans for meeting indebtedness; one had built a parsonage, and one had erected a chapel at a cost of $3,700; another church had become free from incumbrance. There is a State missionary employed all of his time, who had visited 29 churches, delivered 284 sermons, held 2,715 personal interviews, conducted 9 protracted meetings, and baptized 26 persons. The State colporteur had completed 10 years of constant work for the Convention; in which time he had been instrumental in the conversion of 671 persons, preached 2,937 sermons, and organized 2 churches and 6 Sunday-schools. In co-operation with the Home Mission Society, work had been maintained among the French population, the missionary had baptized 3 persons, and visited a large number of communities where this population exists. Supplementary work was rendered by a student who, in connection with his studies, supplied points in two cities. The "Concentration of Effort" for the year was the securing of $600 for the Norwood Church, which was not only accomplished, but as much more provided for other purposes.

The treasurer had received: balance due from preceding year, $1,084.02; from the churches, $2,363.04; dividends and interest, $1,403.27; miscellaneous sources, $144.40; a total for the general fund, $3,910 71. For the colportage fund, from churches, $679.36; dividends and interest, $608.37; miscellaneous, $150.78; a total of $1,438.51. Special purposes, including sums for missions and special gifts to churches, $1,608.15. The grand total was $8,041.39. The disbursements were on account of general fund, $4,526.35; colportage fund, $1,854.37, and special purposes, $1,554.25: total, $7,934.97. The Permanent and Trust Fund of the Convention is now $68,565.19, having been increased by $668.83.

In the routine of business, the object for the "Concentration of Effort" for the year to come, was made to be the South Church of Providence. The State missionary, Rev. E. M. Wilson, and Rev. J. B. Marsh, State colporteur, made addresses outlining their work, as also did the French missionaries. Rev. T. D. Anderson made an address, on "The Significance of the Carey Centennial." Rev. S. J. Smith spoke on the mission to the Siamese. Rev. Edward Holyoke addressed the Convention, on "The Young People, and the Work of the Convention." An address was also made by A. J. Gordon, D. During the year aid had been rendered to 21 students preparing for the ministry, and one young woman preparing for missionary service. The treasury had been dependent upon the donations of the living, since not one bequest had been received, and the small income from the invested funds. The contributions from all sources were $2,794.78, including $98 from invested funds, amounting to $2,200. The disbursements to beneficiaries aggregated $1,850, and the total expenditure was $2,193.92. There was a balance to new year of $600.86. But there is a funded indebtedness amounting to $1,200. There were some gifts made toward the reduction of this debt.

General discussions on Sunday-school finances, and the teachers' duties and privileges were also had. The Conven-

Abstracts from the letters of the schools are contained in the minutes, which show 78 schools in the State with 1,591 officers and teachers, and 12,619 scholars; of these scholars, 5,462 are over 15 years of age. There are 3,942 members of churches in the schools, and there had been 349 baptisms and 83 deaths during the year. There are 30,381 volumes in the libraries.

The treasurer reported receipts amounting to $656.35, of which $249.14 was contributed from Sunday-schools. All of this was expended, except a balance on hand of $18-.17; it would appear also that there is a mission fund, which now amounts to $93.84.

The next anniversary is to be held Wednesday, June 7, 1893, at a place to be decided upon by the Executive Committee, and the Annual Essay is to be read by Rev. G. P. Perry.

The Seventy-second Annual Meeting was held in Aiken, December 1–4, 1892. The Introductory Discourse was delivered by Rev. C. T. Scaife, from Matt. 14 : 3.

The Executive Board had in commission 81 missionaries, 53 acting in the capacity of missionary pastors, 1 woman missionary in the city of Charleston, 9 missionary colporteurs, 14 colporteurs exclusively, 2 missionaries in general, and 2 evangelists. There were 3 colored laborers included among these. They had supplied 157 stations, traveled 64,861 miles, gave 9,235 days of actual service, delivered 6,041 sermons and addresses, held 1,427 prayer meetings, made 17,320 pastoral visits, otherwise, 484 persons. There were 6,117 members in the mission churches. New churches organized, 9; new houses built, or in process of erection, 12. There had been expended in church erection, $9,519.75. Sunday-schools organized, 63. The number of schools in the mission fields was 132, with an attendance of 6,425. There were also in the same fields, 49 women's missionary societies. There had been raised for State missions, $1,470.29; for Bible and colportage, $9.30; for missions, $363.67; and for education, $122.61, on these fields. There had been distributed 91,493 pages of tracts. Eighteen new stations had been occupied, 5 being on new railways. Four church buildings had been dedicated. The children had given $272.61 to this object. Nine missionaries had carried supplies of books and other literature, in addition to the work done by the 14 colporteurs; 551 families had been found destitute of the Scriptures, and 528 had been supplied. The total of sales and gifts was $3,879.44. The Women's Central Committee had co-operated in the support of the woman missionary in Charleston, and had contributed a surplus beside. A large section of the State is yet to be supplied. While the year was a trying one financially, the work had progressed despite an excited political campaign.

The contributions for the year were for State missions, $11,370.28; Bible and colportage work, $29.32; church building by the children, $272.61; and by others, $563.45; at the mission stations for church building, $9,519.75; home missions, $4,656.69; foreign missions, $11,197.32. There had been disbursed, for printing and incidentals, $412.57; traveling expenses, $335.51; miscellaneous, $11.69; education of colored ministers, $59.00; and for mission work, $10,290.99; there was a cash balance of $260.52, but there was a funded debt of some $3,500, for which partial provision was made at the annual meeting. The total receipts were $37,609.42, and the disbursements were $37,348.90. There are 22 permanent funds of $100.00 each and 13 others as yet incomplete, making an aggregate of $2,976.84.

For ministerial education, 29 out of 33 associations had contributed; the aggregate had not been sufficient to pay all items of expense, yet the students at Furman University had been provided for and kept at work. Only $200.00 had been sent for the support of students at the Louisville Seminary, but the deficit had been made up by private benefactions which had not come under the control of the Board. There had been 12 students at Louisville; at Furman University 26 had received aid other than tuition, 12 had been aided by receiving tuition only, and 1 had met all his expenses, a total of 39 preparing for the ministry. The receipts on this account were: balance, $662.65; from associations and individuals, $2,628.37; a total of $3,291.02. There had been expended on support of students, including $200.00 for those at the seminary, $1,797.35, and expense account, $184.00, making a total of $1,981.35.

The trustees of Furman University reported 143 students as having matriculated, 39 being students for the ministry; these came from 27 counties in the State, besides from other States, Cuba and Mexico there were representatives. A new mess hall to be known as "Griffith Hall" had been completed, and 89 of the students avail themselves of this provision. Only 25 of the students are not professors of religion. The income now meets the ordinary expense, but there is a great need for enlarged facilities and funds for this purpose are much needed. The net amount for the J. C. Furman Professorship is $6,053.64, of which $875 came from the American Baptist Education Society. This sum represents the increase of endowment during the year. The female college at Greenville had 225 students in all departments, of whom 75 were boarding in the institution; the outlook promises a larger attendance. Steps were taken to merge the trustees of both these institutions into one Board, by the provision of a Sub-Board which should have particular control of the female college, but be members of the general Board. The question of the establishment and fostering of high schools in the Associations was considered but nothing definite reached at this meeting.

The "Connie Maxwell Orphanage" is now established at Greenwood. The main building was completed in May, 1892, and opened May 18. It can accommodate 30 children, and an increase to 40 can be easily accomplished. Its cost was $5,863. This had been provided for and $300.00 in addition for furnishings. Another building for chapel and school purposes is in process of erection. The superintendent has his own building, erected at a cost of $2,500. A children's cottage is anticipated, $450 being on hand in dollar gifts from the little ones. It is hoped that a memorial building will be soon erected. There had been received 25 orphans. A farm in connection with the enterprise provides much of the sustenance. The superintendent had received $7,763.59 since December 1, 1891, besides large quantities of supplies in clothing and provisions. The Treasurer reported receipts, $11,161.88, and disbursed $9,969.74, leaving a balance in hand of $1,292.14.

The Central Committee of the Women's Societies reported that it had received from 230 societies, 51 children's bands, and 23 Sunday-schools: for foreign missions, $4,311.13; home missions, $794.27; State missions, $462.40; and expense fund, $54.75, making in all, $5,622.75. The women are admirably organized, and are putting forth special effort to reach all the churches. A large quantity of chapel cards and other supplies had been distributed. Avery interesting meeting of the women was held during the sessions of the Convention.

The Centenary of Modern Missions was observed by the setting apart of an evening session, when the report on foreign missions was read by Rev. G. T. Gresham, and addresses were made by Lansing Burrows, D. D., of Georgia, and W. D. Powell, D. D., missionary to Mexico, and a large number of pledges were made to the centenary fund. During the sessions addresses were also made by J. M. Frost, D. D., and C. C. Bitting, D. D., on Sunday-school, Bible and colportage work; H. A. Tupper, D. D., on foreign missions; J. W. Jones, D. D., on home missions, and Prof. W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., in representing the seminary at Louisville. Very interesting was the memorial service, to which the Convention devoted a special hour, when in addition to devotional exercises, the report was read and an address was made by Rev. R. W. Lide, on "The Dead Minister." The fund for aged ministers had been increased by gifts amounting to $416, and 6 beneficiaries had received aid from it.

Two special meetings were held; one to consider the advisability of organizing a Sunday-school convention for the State, at which, after a free discussion, it was not thought best to do so. And another in the interests of the Historical Society, at which a paper on the life and character of Rev. Oliver Hart was read by B. W. Whilden.

The next meeting is to be held at Anderson, beginning Wednesday, November 29th, 1893. Rev. I. M. Mercer was appointed to preach the Convention Sermon.

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting was held with the Morris Street Church, Charleston, May 4-8, 1892. There were present from 26 associations, 59 delegates; from 12 Sunday-school conventions, 26 delegates; 5 representatives of as many churches and Sunday-schools, and 53 life members, a total of 143. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Watson, from Matt. 5:10 The Educational Sermon was preached by Rev. M. W. Gilbert, from Rom. 1:14. The Sunday-school Sermon was preached by Rev. D. M. Pierce, from Prov. 22:6. The Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. J. C. Daniels, from Luke 24:49.

Three missionaries, together with the Corresponding Secretary, had been at work; but there are no statistics given as a result of their labors. Their salaries were raised by themselves on the fields; hence they were at no cost to the Convention. Interest in missionary endeavor is increasing among the churches, and better houses of worship, and more interest in beautifying them is noted. For foreign missions less than $75.00 had been sent through the Board. Five young men looking to the ministry had received beneficiary aid, it would seem, to the amount of $107.15. It appears from the printed proceedings that $1,748.39 had been collected from all sources, of which $733.10 came from the preceding convention. There had been disbursed of this sum for educational purposes, $229.10; foreign missions, $51.45; expended for various purposes, $1,542.38, leaving a balance on hand of $103.17. It is extremely difficult to understand the method by which these financial operations are conducted, and a new system of intelligent book keeping is evidently needed to convey to the ordinary mind precisely what was done in the way of finances.

In addition to the regular discourses, a Doctrinal Sermon was preached by Rev. E. M. Brawley, D. D., from John 1:4, and a memorial service was held in commemoration of 3 ministers, who had died during the year. Much discussion was had on the subject of "Pulpit Affiliation with Pedobaptist Ministers," and resolutions to discontinue this practice prevailed. The educational work of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, was represented by M. McVicar, D. D., and the Publication Society was represented by E. M. Brawley, D. D. There were also interesting reports had on the various departments of denominational work. The printed proceedings are a great advance on those of previous years, and it would seem that the difficult matter of gathering the statistics of the colored churches of South Carolina was about to be solved by the obtaining of the competent Statistical Secretary. A list of ministers with their post office address is also appended.

The next meeting is to be held at Orangeburg, beginning Wednesday, May 3d, 1893.

The Eleventh Anniversary was held at Parker, September 30 to October 2, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by N. C. Mallory, D. D., from 1 John 3:2, on "The Incompleteness of the Sons of God."

During the year there had been 42 missionaries laboring with 64 churches and 49 out-stations. They had performed 1,501 weeks of labor, preached 4,412 sermons, attended 2,020 prayer meetings, visited 9,250 families, distributed 496 copies of Scripture, and 25,422 pages of tracts; received by baptism, 260 persons; and otherwise, 211. The total membership of mission fields was 2,633. There had been paid for building houses of worship, $2,373, and on church debts, $2,298.02. The value of church property on these fields was $108,540, with a seating capacity of 6,450, and an indebtedness of only $5,714. These churches contributed for their own support, $18,500; for home missions, $459, and for other benevolent objects, $1,459.78. The Sunday-schools under care of the missionaries were 52, with a total attendance of 3,490. There had been 6 new churches organized, and 8 houses of worship had been dedicated, aggregating in value $17,000; 3 of them were German churches, and two are in the Black Hills. Three other churches will probably be completed and dedicated by the end of the year. In many parts of the State the cause is full of promise, especially in the Black Hills, where in 3 years 7 churches and 1 association had been organized. In addition to what had been done by the churches, the Home Mission Society had aided in the support of pastors and in building churches. The Corresponding Secretary had performed a large amount of clerical labor, besides visiting churches, preached 116 sermons, delivered 56 addresses, and made 265 religious visits, organized 4 churches, and dedicated 6 houses of worship.

The report on Education was read by Rev. Charles Carroll, and followed by an address by President E. B. Meredith, of Sioux Falls University, which had opened with better prospects, and was in better shape to do work than ever before; it aims at present only at academic work. The report on home missions was read by Rev. D. R. Landis; it announced the completion of the fund of $1,000 asked for from the churches under the existing plan of co-operation with the Home Mission Society.

Addresses were made by Rev. C. G. Cressey, whose district is 200 by 100 miles in extent, and where 3 churches have been organized; Rev. Jacob Olsen, who represented the 17 Scandinavian churches of the State, and T. M. Shanafelt, D. D. It was voted to attempt to raise $1,500 for home missions during the coming year. In considering home and foreign missions, Miss Minnie Buzzell, missionary to China, made an address, and O. O. Fletcher, D. D., spoke on "The Centenary Movement." A Centennial address was also made by N. C. Mallory, D. D.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at Aberdeen in October, 1893, and Rev. D. R. Landis was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Eighteenth Annual Meeting was held with the First Church, Knoxville, October 12-16, 1892. There were present 208 delegates, representing 85 churches and 24 associations, and 9 visitors, making in all 217 enrolled. The Annual Sermon was preached by G. A. Lofton, D. D., from Mark 16 : 16.

The State Mission Board reported the employment of 43 missionaries and additional work given by others not under regular appointment. These had served 8,174 days, traveled 30,000 miles, preached 3,202 sermons, made 1,053 addresses, attended 1,085 prayer meetings, organized 13 mission societies, made 8,649 religious visits, baptized 531 persons, and added 1,062 to the mission churches, organized 9 new churches and 8 Sunday-schools, and distributed 29,491 tracts; they raised on their fields for State missions, $1,783.07; for home missions, $380.98; for foreign missions, $208.49, and for other benevolence, $46.37. The Treasurer reports receipts from 38 Associations for State missions, $9,033.31; less an appropriation of $1,200 from the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The receipts from the churches were for State missions, $7,833.31; for home missions, $4,574 59; and for foreign missions, $3,850.48. There had been expended for church building at mission stations, $6,064.39. There had been paid direct from the Board to their missionaries $8,397.20. The expenses of administration was $634 06.

The Board of Ministerial Education rejoiced over the fact that so many young men in the State were preparing for the ministry, there being 50 at the University at Jackson, 30 at Carson-Newman College, and 14 in the seminary at Louisville. At the South Western University at Jackson 23 had been aided to the amount of $427.32, and greater demands will be made for the present year. At Carson-Newman College 10 had been aided. There was collected during the year for the permanent fund in this institution, $1,035.65. The amount appropriated for aid to students was $405.67. The report on education refers to 2 institutions of high grade, 4 institutions for the education of women, 1 academy and 2 institutions for the education of colored people. Later statistics of these institutions appear in the appropriate tables.

An address in the interest of the seminary at Louisville was made by T. T. Eaton, D. D., and $809.30 was contributed to that institution.

A home for orphans has been established in this State to be located at Nashville. There was reported to the Convention cash receipts for this institution amounting to $3,433.25, a subscription amount of $8,533.95. The home has been opened and 29 dependent children had been received; 9 of these had been adopted in Christian homes and 1 had died.

The various departments of Christian beneficence were re-organized at this meeting by dividing the work between various Boards. The Board of Missions is located at Nashville; that of Sunday-schools and colportage at Chattanooga; that of Ministerial Relief at Brownsville; that of Church Extension at Nashville; and the Board of Ministerial Education is divided into subdivisions at Jackson and Mossy Creek.

Reports were presented on home and foreign missions and other kindred topics. Addresses in relation to the Centennial of Modern Missions were made by J. William Jones, D. D., representing home mission, and T. T. Eaton, D. D., representing foreign missions. The Committee on Obituaries noted the departure of 10 ministers and 2 deacons who had been especially active in the work of the Convention. The addresses during the session were, otherwise than indicated, voluntarily delivered in free discussions of the various reports.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Jackson, beginning Wednesday, October 11, 1893, and J. M. Frost, D. D., was appointed as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

This Body was organized in the First Church, Knoxville, October 11, 1892. There were 39 pastors enrolled as members. A code of by-laws was adopted. A discussion on "Pulpit Elocution" was led by Rev. Oscar Haywood. "The Weakness of the Pulpit" was a discussion led by Rev. W. L. Brown. Rev C. G. Jones made an address on "Soul Winning," and a paper was read by Rev. H. E. Truex, on "The Pastor's Interest in all the Churches." The next meeting is to be held at Jackson, Tuesday, October 10, 1893, in connection with the State Convention.

Women's Work.

The Fourth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of Tennessee, was held at Knoxville, October 13, 1892. Miss S. E. S. Shankland, Nashville, is the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer. Besides a large amount of correspondence, there had been distributed amongst the churches 460 pages of literature comprising leaflets, mission cards, mission papers, magazines, brick cards, mite barrels, Christmas envelopes and other appliances. The Central Committee is not a collecting agency, all contributions going to the Treasurer of the Convention and included in his report; it is more a distributing agency. There were reported 102 women's societies, 29 young people's and children's bands. There had been reported from these sources for foreign missions, $721.78; home missions, $888.08; State missions, $444.80; Sunday-school work, $438.20; ministerial education, $498.75; missionary literature, $101.05; and the value of 14 boxes to frontier missionaries, $642.57. In addition there had been given $6,053.38 for home church work, and $921.25 to general benevolence, so that the total represented by the women's work is $10,709.86.

The Seventh Annual Meeting was held at Belton, October 7-10, 1892. There were present 189 representatives of 11 churches, 57 representatives of 38 associations, making present 246. The Annual Sermon was preached by B. H. Carroll, D. D., from Rom. 11 : 13.

There had been 110 missionaries laboring among the people in 84 counties, and there had been co-operative work with 33 associations. The number of stations supplied was 645, days labored, 14,542; sermons preached, 8,173, exhortations and other religious addresses made, 4,472; churches organized, 65; baptisms, 1,512; total accessions, 2,871; Sunday-schools organized, 120; ministers ordained, 28; religious visits, 14,671; pages of literature distributed, 128,151. In addition, 54 church lots were secured, valued at $9,507, and 12 houses of worship, built at the cost of $15,468. The cost of Bibles and other books distributed was $822.37. It would appear that these figures cover only half of the year owing to a change effected in the administration of the affairs of the Convention. The work among the Mexicans had been very prosperous; a large number had been baptized, and a prosperous church organized at San Angelo; the force of missionaries among them had been increased. The German work had been continued, and work among the Swedes had been commenced. Among the colored people intimate co-operation exists with their State Convention with about 30 missionaries being sustained principally by this Body.

For foreign missions 785 churches had contributed, and of the 89 associations, only 3 failed to be represented among these gifts. The churches contributed $7,658.42, individuals, $4,635.21; women's societies and individuals, $1,064.76; young people's societies, Sunday-schools and children, $809.18; contributed otherwise, $367.47, a total of $14,436.04.

The receipts for State missions were in direct contributions, for the portion of the year that the report covers, $8,618.37, and in co-operative work, $10,637.57, a total of $19,255.94. Of this amount the Home Board of the Southern Convention contributed $3,000. The plan of co-operation with reference to missions was altered so that the Board of Directors will have in the future control of State, home, and foreign missions, with active co-operation with the home and foreign boards of the Southern Baptist Convention. The consideration of State missions was followed by a contribution in pledges amounting to $4,155.20. The report on foreign missions was followed by a similar contribution of $2,129. The report on home missions was after discussion followed with a contribution of $310 46.

The Board of Ministerial Relief reported that a comfortable home well adapted for the purposes had been obtained in the town of Lampasas. There had been received from all sources for this charity, $3,270.98. There had been paid to beneficiaries $1,793 88. The number of beneficiaries partially or entirely supported had been 35. The Buckner Orphans' Home had maintained an average of 225 orphan children among whom there had been no cases of protracted sickness. The school contains 150 regularly graded pupils, and is supplied with all the requisite appliances of a well furnished institution, employing competent instructors. There had been expended on the main building $4,805-.55, and it is anticipated that this edifice will be shortly finished and occupied. There had been collected from all sources $12,671.82, and disbursed, $14.720.94. By the generosity of Dr. Buckner, this deficit was assumed by him as his own contribution to the enterprise. A contribution in pledges was made amounting to $2,445.80.

The trustees of Baylor University reported the institution in a more flourishing condition than ever; the grade of studies much higher. The University had opened with 440 in the literary department, 30 in the commercial department, males, 294; and females, 176. The cash income the preceding year, exclusive of receipts for extra branches, was $15,345, of which $14,010 was paid on salaries of instructors. This does not include about $4,000 gratuitous tuition to children of ministers. The institution is in debt, but this is in process of settlement. It is proposed to secure $25,000 by January 1st, 1893, when with a gift of $15,000 from the American Baptist Education Society, the Convention would have $200,000 of school property free of incumbrance. Subscriptions were made to this fund amounting to $3,118.50. The funds for ministerial education received were $213-.97, all of which was paid out in the partial support of 11 students for the ministry; but there were individual gifts to special persons, so that the whole amount for this purpose collected was $485.32; pledges were taken amounting to $448 60. The interests of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary were represented by E. C. Dargan, D. D., and $1,032.85 were contributed to this institution. The Baylor Female College, also under the control of this Convention, reported enrolled at the beginning of the current session about 200. The institution is admirably equipped, and is furnishing the very best educational advantages.

Addresses were made by J. M. Frost, D.D., on "The Sunday-school Board of the Southern Convention"; W. D. Powell, D.D., on "The Centennial Movement," following which a contribution was made for chapel building in Mexico, amounting to $1,095; Rev. E. R. Carswell on foreign missions, when $2,129 was contributed for this beneficence; I. T. Tichenor, D. D., on home missions, followed by a contribution of $810.46; Rev. W. B. Bagby, missionary to Brazil, and free discussions followed all reports on the various phases of denominational endeavor.

The statistics of Texas ordinarily appended to the printed proceedings, are to be published in a separate volume by Rev. J. M. Carroll.

The next meeting is to be held at Gainesville, to begin Friday, October 6th, 1893, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by Rev. I. B. Kimbrough.

The Seventh Annual Meeting of the Baptist Women's mission workers was held at Belton, October 7–9, 1892. Twenty-two societies were represented by 47 delegates. The organization is very efficient. There had been distributed 10,691 copies of missionary literature, besides 582 letters and 6,000 copies of missionary journals. The contributions had been for the general work, and specially for North China and the centennial fund, amounting in all to $539.20, as having passed through the hands of the Treasurer; but it is confident that this is only a small portion of the contributions made by the Baptist women. A magazine entitled The Texas Baptist Worker, is published at the cost of $525.98 for the year, and receipts for this purpose had been obtained of $523 30. The number of copies published had been 15,950, containing 267,200 pages printed matter. The sessions of this Body were filled with practical talks and papers on various departments of work, and a special address was made by I. T. Tichenor, D. D.

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting was held with the New Hope Church, Waco, October, 12–16, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. D. H. Shivers.

There is a close co-operation existing between this body and the white Convention. In examining the report of work, it should be borne in mind that some of the items are incorporated in the report of the general Convention therefore. The missionaries had labored 4,226 days, supplied 170 stations, traveled 53,999 miles, preached 256 sermons, delivered 1,036 addresses, made 1,668 religious visits, baptized 600 persons, and received otherwise 308, organized 22 churches and 96 Sunday-schools, built 8 meeting houses, and distributed 52,264 pages of literature. There had been 39 women's societies organized, 18 lots bought for building churches, 61 missionary mass meetings held, and 35 ministers ordained. There were found 126 communities without churches. The collections from all sources amounted to $15,683.96, and there were collected also for lots, $1,165.80, and for buildings, $1,532.00, making whole amount $18,381.76.

The Vice-President for Texas of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society, reported the existence of 101 societies, with a membership of 2,725. These had gathered into Sunday-schools 1,203 pupils, brought back to the churches 324 backsliders, induced 243 sisters to give up the use of snuff, and 101 others to give up the use of beer. The societies had raised for the improvement of their own churches, $2,268.95; to State missions, $604 00; to African Missions, $223.85, and to the Women's Home Mission work, $165.97, a total of $3,262.77.

There are five churches in this Territory. Three of these are in Salt Lake City—the First, the Swedish and the East Side. During the year the First Church has completed one mission chapel and projected another, while the East Side Chapel, under the auspices of the Home Mission Society, has also been completed and a new church organized to worship there. The Ogden Church has secured a pastor and is greatly revived. At Provo the finest church building in the city has been erected. At Springville regular services have been maintained. The day schools at Ogden and Provo have been continued. The promise of success among the Mormons is constantly brightening. The denomination has made notable progress this year. The Home Mission Society operates in this Territory, and the statistics are included in its report.

The Sixty-eighth Anniversary was held at Fairfax, September 28-30, 1892. There were present 28 ministers, 5 delegates from associations, 18 delegates from churches, and 9 visitors. A total of 60 in attendance. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. R. F. Olds, from John 12:49; 17:18; and 17.14, on "The Words, Works, and Character Given by Christ to his Disciples."

The treasurer reported receipts from interest on invested funds, $1,193.32; for the Convention work, $3,968.02, and for minutes, $172.17; a total of $4,140.19. This, with balances from preceding year, made a total of available funds, $7,851.51. The disbursements were: on expense account, $562.87; for general missionary, $1,465.58; for 22 assisted churches, $2,850.44; a total of disbursements, $4,878.89. Balances for various funds, were $2,972.62. The permanent fund of the Convention was reported to be $19,465.12. This is invested in approved bonds and mortgages, and in real estate. A general missionary had been continued in the field in the performance of much faithful labor. He had traveled 2,000 miles, and visited 87 churches, in 8 of which he had held protracted meetings with gratifying results; in other churches he had labored to strengthen weakness and unite division. In the aided churches there had been 74 baptisms, and a net gain in membership of 51. These churches, with 7 others, continue as applicants for aid. To the Convention work, 86 churches had contributed $2,872.50, and the Sunday-schools of these churches, $199.33. Three legacies, aggregating $750, had been received; 10 of the churches aided by this Convention are in fields where there are no other evangelical churches. The reports were followed by free discussions, on "How can We Improve our Annual State Convention Meeting," and "How can We Advance Convention Work Among the Needy Churches."

In considering foreign missions, a sermon was preached by H. C. Mabie, D. D., from John 4:35. The report on ministerial education was attended by an address by George Bullen, D. D., the Secretary of the Northern Baptist Education Society. Principal George A. Williams, of Vermont Academy, also made an address. Six pastors who had entered the State during the year, were formally introduced and welcomed.

An evening session was set apart in the interest of young people, at which an address was made by Rev. Kittredge Wheeler, Connecticut, on "The Duty of Young Christians to put Their Talents to Use." The Convention approved a proposal to call a convention of young people, to form a State Union.

The next anniversary is to be held at Ludlow, beginning Wednesday, September 27, 1893, and Rev. Edwin A. Herring was appointed as the preacher of the Convention Sermon.

The meeting being called for this purpose, nothing was attempted further. There were addresses by Rev. W. R. Baldwin, on "Pauline Plasticity and Pluck"; Rev. F. J. Parry; Rev. Henry Crocker, on "The Modern Revolver," and a sermon was preached by Rev. Gibbs Braislin. A general discussion, on "What Work at the Present Time Ought Specially to Engage the Attention of Young People's Societies?" was opened by Rev. R. L. Olds.

The next annual meeting is to be arranged for, and announced.

The Sixty-ninth Annual Meeting was held at Danville, November 11-14, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by M. B. Wharton, D. D., from Prov. 3 : 9, 10, on "The Duty and Reward of Benevolence."

In the work of the State missions, 82 missionaries had occupied 200 stations, preached 6,869 sermons, baptized 1,465 persons, and aided pastors in meetings in which there were 1,859 other conversions, made 14,422 religious visits, organized 45 Sunday-schools and 10 churches, and engaged in building 15 new houses of worship of which 15 were completed. While the year was marked with many distractions, it would seem that it had been the most fruitful year in the history of the Board. Five important stations had become self-sustaining. The receipts for State missions were $12,268.82 which, with a balance on hand, made available resources for the year, $14,510.80. The expenditures were on account of salaries of missionaries, $12,388.22. Expenses, $621.90, a total of $13,010.12.

In the department of Bible and Sunday-school work there had been at labor 1 general superintendent, 1 Sunday-school missionary, and 33 colporteurs who had labored 5,815 days, traveled 52,122 miles, visited 23,778 families, found 1,308 persons neglecting the preaching of the gospel, 1,016 families destitute of the Bible and 1,797 families destitute of other religious literature, preached 595 sermons, delivered 762 addresses, held 428 prayer meetings, organized 55 Sunday-school conventions, baptized 50 persons, and held meetings in which 696 others professed conversion. They had sold 2,137 Bibles for $2,-321.98, 3,083 Testaments for $730.78, 7,866 books for $2,388.96, and 2,358,523 pages of tracts for $158.92; total sales, $6,100.64. In addition there were donated 255 Bibles, 492 Testaments, 767 books, and 65,603 pages of tracts of a value of $329.89; total sales and donations, $6,430.23. The receipts for this department were $5,992.76, of which $100.34 came from the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. All obligations had been met and no indebtedness exists, and a stock of books valued at $2,600 is in hand.

The Education Board has under its care 60 young men preparing for the ministry, 47 being at Richmond College, and 13 at the seminary at Louisville. The receipts from all sources for this work had been $5,879.50, all of which had been expended and $1,199.38 in addition.

The Board of Ministerial Relief for the care of indigent and aged ministers, their widows and dependent orphans, had received from all sources $9,407, including balance on hand from preceding year. The disbursements on this account were $3,081.

The work of home and foreign missions is entrusted to special Boards which make reports to this Body. In foreign missions a larger contribution has been made than in preceding year, the receipts amounting to $19,994.18. A great amount of work had been accomplished in the interest of the centenary of modern missions. A similar increase had been made in gifts to home missions, the amount being $10,029.22. There is in addition to these Boards a committee on co-operation, charged with the duty of inspiring effort on the part of the churches. Its report shows that notwithstanding the financial depression and distraction attendant on a presidential campaign, the gifts of the churches had increased over $4,000 more than any previous year, The whole amount of benevolent gifts as reported by the Treasurer were $57,031.36.

No provision is made in these meetings for prepared addresses according to programme. The interests of the Theological Seminary at Louisville were represented by E. C. Dargan, D. D., and an address on Sunday-school work was made by J. M. Frost, D. D. Home missions were represented by J. W. Jones, D.D. The Obituary report noted the death of 12 ministers. Attention was given to the Baptist Young People's Union. It does not seem that a State organization was effected although resolutions looking to this end were introduced.

The Virginia Baptist Orphanage is an institution controlled by trustees, but in close sympathy with the General Association. The meetings of the trustees are held in connection with the anniversary. The orphanage is located at Salem, being opened in July, 1892. There were reported 27 children in the institution and completed buildings that would accommodate 60. The total receipts had been $26,733; the disbursements, $25.789. A contribution of $1,200 was given for increase of the buildings.

The next anniversary is to be held at Roanoke, beginning Friday, November 10, 1893, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. W. F. Dunaway.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Session was held in the Metropolitan Church, Washington, D. C., May 11–15, 1892. There were present 132 representatives of 88 churches and other bodies. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Holmes, from Matt. 28 : 18–20. The Doctrinal Sermon was preached by Rev. R. H. Bowling, on the "Personality, Office, and Work of the Holy Spirit"; and a sermon on the "Christian Sabbath," was also preached by J. E. Jones, D. D. The Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. H. Williams, Jr., from Rev. 14 : 6.

The State Mission Work had been confined to Southwestern Virginia, where 3 missionaries had been employed at as many stations, but no statistics of accomplished work are given. Some lots of ground had been secured for church purposes, and there had been received from all sources for this purpose, $862.82, of which $611.75 had been paid to missionaries, and $100 to the building of a chapel. In educational matters there seems to have been more activity, but the proposed effort to raise $30,000 for the Virginia Seminary had not been successful. The receipts of the Board of Education had been $1,283.35; in the ministerial department, $286.11, and in the building department, $883.85; but these include balances from preceding year. For foreign missions there had been received $1,209.25, but $856.99 came over from the preceding accounts, and $625 was paid on salaries of missionaries in Africa where there are 2 men at work.

The Virginia Seminary is under special charge of this Body, part of the building is now erected and partially fitted for school purposes. There had been 167 students in attendance with prospects of a large increase. The receipts are given at $2,142.64; there had been disbursed for building material and labor, $1,049.58; for books, $206.20; and for teacher's salaries, $315. There is a bonded debt of $7,105.71.

During the sessions there were papers and addresses on the following subjects: "Home Missions," by Rev. W. Cousins; "The Bible against Romanism, and Romanism against the Bible," by C. B. W. Gordon; "Ministerial Education," by Rev. J. N. Armstead; "Secular Education," by Prof. G. W. Hayes; "Christian Romances of Afro-Americans," by Rev. B. W. Johnson; and "Our Relation to Foreign Missions," by Rev. E. Watts. The report of the Statistical Secretary adds little or no information to what is contained usually in our tables, the same difficulty of obtaining the facts appearing to exist with them as with the Editor of the Year-Book.

The next meeting is to be held at Lynchburg, beginning Wednesday, May 10, 1893, and W. H. Brooks, D. D., was selected to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Fifth Annual Session was held at New Westminster, British Columbia, October 15, 16, 1892. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. Roland D. Grant, on "The Second Coming of Christ."

The report of the Corresponding Secretary showed 32 missionaries in employment, who had served 44 churches; 7 meeting houses had been erected, and 6 new churches organized. The Home Mission Society had appropriated $7,700 to this field, and $10,048.50 had been raised by the mission churches for other current expenses. The total mission gifts of the Convention had been $2,842.65. The year was closed without indebtedness, although it had opened with much embarrassment. The larger number of the churches are themselves mission fields. The territory occupied by this Convention contains about 75 churches, with about 3,500 members north of the Columbia River, and west of the Cascade Mountains. Great changes had occurred in the pastoral relation, 21 pastors having changed their fields during the year.

The report was followed by addresses, on

"The Place of State Missions Among Missionary Enterprises," by Rev. W. E. Pritchard; "Prompt Work Among Scandinavians," by Mrs. M. A. Malmberg, and "What we Owe to Coming Generations," by Rev. Thomas Baldwin. Prof. E. T. Trimble spoke of the destitution in the southern part of the State, where, with 20 churches, there were only 7 houses of worship, and 1 settled pastor. On home missions, Rev. M. S. Rugg spoke, on "The Dangers and Duties of Immigration"; Rev. L. J. Goodwin, on "Christian Civilization"; Rev. P. H. McEwen, on "Needs of Money for Mission Purposes"; Rev. A. B. Banks, on "What Home Missions Have Done for the Northwest Coast," and Rev. R. D. Grant, on "How to Get the People to Receive the Gospel."

The movement beginning a year since in educational matters culminated in the organization of a Board to be styled the Northwest Pacific Coast University, to which all schools soliciting Baptist aid or recognition will be required to present articles of incorporation, curriculum, and instructors for approval, while they are pledged to incur no debt beyond 10 per cent. of their assessable value, or ask gifts or donations, except by the endorsement of the Board. Under this Board it is expected that there will come Grace Seminary, a school with about 100 pupils, between Tacoma and the Columbia River, and the new University of Seattle, which has opened its preparatory department, and probably Colfax College and an institution to be located in British Columbia. To this scheme, Hon. R. S. Greene, Chief Justice of Washington, is committed, and is esteemed the leader of the movement. There had been 22 young men in Grace Seminary preparing for the ministry, the care of whom was assumed by the Convention.

The next meeting is to be held at Seattle, beginning October, 1893, and the Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. W. C Weik.

The Eighth Annual Meeting was held at Spokane, October 6–8, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. D. C. Ellis. The general missionary, Rev. D. D. Proper, is the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, as well as of the Northwest Convention, so that the whole State of Washington is under his oversight. In this Convention, there had been 18 missionaries under appointment in 28 churches, who also served 20 out-stations. This is an increase of 5 missionaries and 13 churches over last year. They had baptized 46 persons and received 170 otherwise. The membership in the mission churches was 832, and the amount paid by them for pastor's salaries was $3,932, and for building, debts, and improvements, $4,305. The amount contributed to home mission work, was $1,081.99, which is double the amount given the preceding year. Four new churches had been organized, 3 new mission fields occupied, and 6 declining churches had been revived. Two churches had become self-supporting, and 5 new pastors had been added to the force in the State. The Convention has the strong aid of the Home Mission Society supplementing its efforts to evangelize the field.

The next meeting is to be held in October, 1893.

The Twenty-eighth Annual Meeting was held at Parkersburg, October 12–15, 1892. There were present 120 life members, 12 annual members, and 17 delegates of churches, in all 147 persons. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. Ross Ward, from John 4 : 24, on "The True Worship of God."

There had been 29 missionaries, occupying 62 stations in 25 counties; they had rendered 693 weeks of service, preached 2,161 sermons, made 529 lectures and addresses, attended 987 religious meetings, visited 5,971 families, baptized 287 persons, and received 225 otherwise; organized 6 churches, distributed 136 Bibles and Testaments, and 14,315 pages of tracts, traveled 20,994 miles, began the erection of 4 meeting houses, and finished 4 others, collected for self support, $2,012.30; for building and repairing church edifices, $6,383.41, and for missions and other benevolence, $1 299.41. In Sunday-school work, 13 new schools had been organized, and 14 conventions and institutes attended. The Superintendent of Missions had in addition given 26 weeks to the service, preached 66 sermons, made 110 addresses, visited 205 families, baptized 14 persons, dedicated 8 churches, and traveled 11,255 miles. There had been collected for State missions, $3,701.32; on the fields of the missionaries, $3,012.30; building church edifices, $3,469.89; for repairing church edifices, $1,240.60; on church debts, $1,673.52; for other purposes, $1,327.05, a total amount of $14,424.66. In addition to the work of the State Mission Board, the American Baptist Home Mission Society had 7 men at work in important fields. All the contributions from the State for home missions is returned with an addition of 33 per cent, and this plan of co-operation is reported as working well.

The building of new railroads fosters the growth of many new towns, and the population is rapidly increasing. The development of coal and timber industries adds largely to the permanent population. In consequence the demands upon State missions is greater than can be well supplied. Great activity prevails in the building of houses of worship. About 50 such being in process of erection at the time of the report. The completion of many of these is delayed for want of means. The amount of money expended directly for State mission work was $4,564.53, which is an increase above that of the preceding year.

In the department of education, 7 students for the ministry had been aided at Granville Academy, and one each in Crozer and the Southern Theological Seminary. Fourteen students were then reported as asking for aid. The whole amount contributed for this purpose was $827.50, of which $566.50 came from the churches, a greater number having contributed than ever before, with the balance from the preceding year, the whole amount handled was $1,366.63, of which $683.00 was expended in the aid of young men. Broaddus College was represented as making rapid growth in the number of its pupils. The enthusiasm among the scholars being greater and a higher standard of education being attained. There had been gifts to the institution which covered its old indebtedness, and $4,000 for purposes of enlargement. The citizens of Clarkesburg had subscribed $9,500 toward the fund of $20,000 for the purchase of more ground and the erection of the new building.

During the sessions there were addresses by F. H. Kerfoot, D. D., of the seminary at Louisville: F. C. Johnson, D. D., Rev. W. E. Powell, on the "State Mission Work"; Hon. Dave D. Johnson, Rev. R. B. Smith, H. D. Boughner, and others, on "Methods of Church Work"; Rev. W. H. Adams, on "Baptists and Religious Liberty"; G. W. Lasher, D. D., on "Baptists and Civil Liberty"; Prof. P. B. Reynolds and H. G. Weston, D. D., on "Education"; W. B. Walker, D D., and Rev. L. E. Peters, on "The Sunday-school Work"; Rev. A. G. Loving, on "The Life and Work of William Carey," and Rev. T. G. Fields, on "The Century of Foreign Missions." Rev. A. J. Irey, on "The Drink Habit and Finance," and the Rev. A. L. Williamson, on "The Saloon and Morals." In addition there were numbers of brief addresses in free discussions of all these topics.

The next anniversary is to be held at Charleston, beginning Tuesday, October 10, 1893, and Rev. C. M. Thompson was selected as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

Women's Work.

The Women's Baptist Missionary Society reported receipts as follows: "Balance and collections for current expenses, $7.46; foreign missions, $177.89; home missions, $66.57; State missions, $149.78: special contributions for the Publication Society, $15.50; for training school, $5.00; and for ministerial education, $15.00, a total of $437.20, all of which was disbursed. Miss Ella MacLaurin, Rev. R. B. Smith, Mrs. Jane A. Johnson, and Rev. H Langford addressed the Women's meeting on practical topics.

The Twenty-eighth Annual Session was held at Hudson, October 4-6, 1892. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. S. Sweet, from 1 Chron. 13 : 2-4.

The number of missionaries employed during the year was 67; they had supplied 69 churches and 71 out-stations, preached 5,795 sermons, made 17,625 religious visits, baptized 430 persons, and received otherwise, 428; they had organized 4 churches and 15 Sunday-schools, paid $26,440.55 for building purposes, and reported a total contribution from mission churches of $50,520.83. Notwithstanding the sickness of the general missionary, he had visited 180 points, traveled 15,892 miles, and baptized 18 persons. Pressing need for evangelical work continues, since there are county sites and rapidly growing lumber towns which call for work, and there are scores of towns in the newer portions of the State, having populations from 500 to 5,000, where the entire receipts of the Board could be expended to profit. There are 8 places of importance which could be entered, and churches organized at once. The receipts of the treasurer amounted to $8,948.63, but $1,000 of this came from the sale of a church property, and was appropriated to an old debt of $5,100 against the Convention. The expenditures had been $9,630.67, leaving a balance of $1,682.04 for the following year's work.

In considering these reports, Rev. W. A. McKillop addressed the Convention, on "Home Missions in Wisconsin; Our Opportunity"; Rev. L. A. Clevenger spoke, on "The Normal Place of State Missions in Our Missionary Enterprise." There were also a number of addresses by missionaries who are actively engaged on the various fields.

In educational matters, progress was reported from Wayland Academy, the school buildings of which were reported as full, and enough students rooming outside to fill another building. A new principal had been chosen, who made his initial address before the Convention; W. M. Lawrence, D. D., Chicago, addressed the Convention, on "Theological Education." The latest figures of Wayland Academy will be found in the appropriate educational table.

An evening was devoted to a special Columbian Home Mission service, at which the report of the Committee on Home Missions was read, and addresses were made by C. A. Hobbs, D. D., on "The Marks of Providential Design in the Discovery, Occupation, and Development of the Americas"; W. M. Haigh, D. D., on "The Distinctive Characteristics of American Christianity," and W. M. Lawrence, D. D., on "The Present Distinctive Responsibilities of American Christianity." The subject of foreign missions received attention in the report of the committee, and addresses by Miss Minnie A. Buzzell, David Spencer, D. D., C. F. Tolman, D. D., and O. O. Fletcher, D. D., were had. There had been contributed for this cause $9,196.45. Addresses were also made in the interest of the Publication Society by C. C. Bitting, D. D., and several of the Sunday-school missionaries in the State.

The next meeting is to be held at Racine, beginning October 3, 1893, and Rev. W. A. McKillop was appointed to be preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Hudson, October 6, 1892. The practical work of this body was principally in the line of co-operation in the supporting of 28 students who had labored on mission fields during the summer vacation, and in which work 64 Young People's Societies had assisted in the Convention. A paper, on "A Young People's Society in Every Baptist Church in Wisconsin," was read by Joseph Moody; one on "The Closet the True Source of Spiritual Power," was read by Miss Maude Barlow; an address, on "Young People and Our Foreign Population," was made by Rev. D. B. Cheney, Jr.; F. L. Wilkins, D D., spoke, on "Organization and Edification"; Rev. S. E. Price spoke, on "The Development of the Lord's Forces," and David Spencer, D. D., on "The Detroit Convention."

The next meeting is to be held at Racine, in connection with the other anniversaries.

Women's Work.

There were meetings of women, interested in both home and foreign missions, held at the time of the State Convention, but the reports which we have at hand do not contain the desirable items of statistics; but intimate co-operation exists between the general societies which have their headquarters at Chicago. There were varied literary exercises in connection with each of these meetings, principally among which we note a paper, on "Home Mission Literature," by Mrs. O. P. Bestor; an address by Miss M. G. Burdette; an address, on "Methods of Work," by Mrs. Jewett, and an inspiring occasion, at which an address was made by Miss Minnie L. Buzzell, just returned from the China field.

WYOMING.

There is a small State Association, from which we have no intelligence as to its meeting in 1892, save that it met at Cheyenne. There are nine churches in this State, with about 400 members. It is said that there are more Baptist members scattered throughout the State than are in the churches. We are not informed of the present officers, the communication to the last reported clerk having been returned to us as unclaimed.

ORDAINED MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES.

NOTE.—Among Baptists there exists no official register, as among other denominations, compiled by a central ecclesiastical authority. Because of this, perhaps, we suffer the disadvantage of an always incomplete list. The present roll is compiled chiefly from the Associational Minutes, and is as near exactness as it is possible to be. There are many Associations, however, which publish no lists of ministers at all, and many others which publish only the names of pastors, and these without postal address.

The policy of this YEAR-BOOK is to make the Associational Minutes the basis of operations, on the only and simple ground that it is deemed that every minister of good standing will be mentioned by the Minutes of his home organization. If names are omitted in this list that should be enrolled, let an examination be made first of the District Association Minutes, and the Editor then acquitted. Errors will be cheerfully corrected, however.

The perpetual movement of such a large body of men occasions almost incredible numbers of changes and alterations in the course of a year. The YEAR-BOOK does not claim that the appended list includes all the Baptist ministers of the country, but it claims only to present an accurate list.

In certain States, especially in the South and West, it is an impossible thing to obtain all the Associational minutes before making up this list for any given year. Consequently, the Editor does not claim that it is a complete list, but it is an accurate one so far as it goes, affected by the constant changes to which the ministry is exposed. In these States, the minutes for 1892 are closely followed, and where the minutes of that year are not at hand, those of 1891 are carefully compared with the list; so that if a minister has removed, his last known address is given, and his movements may be traceable from that office. No name appears that is not in the District Association lists within two years. If the names of any so contained do not appear, the Clerk of the Association has sent neither blanks nor minutes to us.

The list in many States has been submitted for careful revision to brethren who are likely to be well informed of movements of ministers in their respective States. In every instance of States having large colored membership this course has been pursued, but the YEAR-BOOK claims neither fullness nor accuracy in its list of colored ministers. It gives result of careful scrutiny and diligent endeavor, but has only partially, as yet, obtained the co-operation of the colored Baptists in its important work.

Before it will be possible to compile a full and complete list of American Baptist ministers, the friends of statistics must secure in their Associational Minutes these several features: 1. An alphabetical list of all ordained ministers living within the bounds of the Association, or serving churches, with their correct post-office address attached. This list to be published quite separate from the statistics of the churches, and to show, by simple abbreviations, whether the brethren are pastors, teachers, without charge, agents, or honorably retired. 2. A corresponding list of ministerial changes, showing who have entered the Association within the year; who have left it, and whither gone; and who have died, and when; and who have been ordained during the year.

If clerks of the Associations can be induced to adopt the suggestions above, and be careful to address a copy of their Minutes to the Editor of the YEAR-BOOK, in care of the American Baptist Publication Society, it would be very early that an absolutely correct list of ministers should be published. The attention of interested brethren in the Association, and of Editors and Statistical Secretaries of State bodies, is respectfully called to these considerations.

☞ Some weeks must necessarily elapse between the preparation of this list for the press, and the issuing of the volume. The work of final proof revision began January 12. For such changes as occur, and of which we have information in this interim, consult the Supplement at the close of the volume.

GENERAL DENOMINATIONAL STATISTICS.

PREFATORY AND EXPLANATORY.

There are no peculiar features in the statistics for 1893, to which especial attention is drawn. In many portions of the country the influences peculiar to what are known as "Presidential years" are traceable, but on the whole there has been about the same percentage of numerical increase which has obtained for the past five years. This indicates that but little more than the ordinary regular work of the churches has been the rule, and that no great wide-spread revival has occurred. In such cases where there are large accessions, the work seems to have been local. It is remarkable how the purging of church rolls continues. The column of exclusions continues to remain at a high figure, owing to the practice among the colored churches of periodically revising their rolls, and incontinently excluding such as have moved away without keeping in communication with the home church. It is not to be imagined for a moment that the large number of excluded persons represents so many against whom charges of unchristian conduct could truthfully be urged. The usual excess of dismissions over additions by letter disappears this year.

There is a noticeable increase in contributions. The increase in the value of church property arises from the obtaining of further information, although the year is remarkable for the number of new edifices constructed. The influence of the Centennial of Modern Missions could hardly be expected to be felt in the statistics for 1892. The gifts will swell the columns for the present year, and probably show a large increase in the next YEAR-BOOK.

The editor has been fortunate in obtaining reliable statistics of the colored Baptists in a few of the States; but the same unaccountable indisposition to co-operate on their part exists, making their collation the despair of the conscientious statistician. The editor still is compelled to plead for the aid of the white brethren in the Southern States, so far as obtaining and forwarding the minutes of associations that are adjacent to their homes.

It should be constantly borne in mind that, while in other denominations the policy which prevails is such as that the statistician may command the prompt and full returns from the clerks and secretaries of the various Conferences, Consociations, Presbyteries, etc., this editor is dependent entirely upon the courtesy of clerks, some of whom render most valuable assistance, while others are forgetful, or indifferent, or unwilling to spare the time required in filling up their blanks, or require compensation for that work beyond which the Society is able to render. The friends of the work can render most valuable assistance in their various Associations, by requiring their clerks, who are generally compensated, to furnish the footings of their tables to the YEAR-BOOK before the publication of their Minutes. The editor, in this remark, has no reference to the many clerks who need no authority such as this to induce them to follow out that plan; he is in communication with many clerks whose promptness, accuracy, and sympathy are a positive inspiration to him. So that in comparison with the figures of other denominations, the student should regard the fact that the absence of information from some quarters lessens the rightful totals, while, in some instances, the figures of mission churches located entirely outside of this country, are necessarily contained in the totals of other denominations, because of their connectional relation with their brethren of this land. This very important distinction would change materially the comparisons as between the Baptists and other large denominations of Christians.

In the division of the columns of Reported Contributions, in order to invite uniformity, the followin distinctions are made by the editor, when computing from the minutes. In the column of Salariesand Expenses, only those sums which are expended in the actual running of the interests are taken. These include salaries of pastors, sextons, etc., light, fuel, interest on indebtedness, and incidental repairs. In the column of Miscellaneous, the contributions for the poor, for purchase of minutes, for building and purchase of lots for building, as well as any other occasional expenditures, are noted. None of these latter are legitimate church expenses, unless the former, which is put under the head of Miscellaneous, because it partakes more largely of benevolence than expense, and often is not required as a perpetual charge upon the church. When it is possible to separate the contributions of Sunday-schools, the expense of conducting is put under the head of Salaries and Expenses, and the contributions to Missions under its head. Where this latter is not specified, nothing remains but to classify it as Miscellaneous. The tables are constructed upon the idea that the interests of Church and Sunday-school are identical, and form but one unit of work in any given instance.

* Churches in adjoining States not included. † There are several Colored Associations not embraced in this total; of those we know returns are difficult to obtain; diligent inquiry has elicited no information, and letters remain unanswered. We have never enjoyed co-operation of the colored brethren in this State.

NOTE.—Great difficulty is always experienced in forming this table, because of the immensity of the territory, and also for want of uniformity in methods of collating the statistics. The matter of uniformity is being remedied, however, and we are able to fill the column of baptisms with greater accuracy. It is not always possible to distinguish between ordained ministers and missionaries; some year-books including all missionaries as such. For America, Great Britain, Sweden, Germany, and a few other countries, as well as our mission fields, the figures are for 1892; the remainder for 1891. Acknowledgment is due the editor of the "Baptist Hand-Book" of Great Britain, the Rev. Samuel Harris Booth, D. D., for aid rendered in this table. The "non-reporting churches included under Great Britain are from Dr. Booth's estimate, and include those churches which have withdrawn from the "Baptist Union" of England.

"A more serviceable commentary for the average reader than the American Commentary would be hard to find, and it ought to be in every household.—The Baptist.

☞ Every Pastor and Teacher should have this valuable work, especially prepared for the Baptist host by Baptist scholars.

An Outline Analysis of the Books of the Bible.

By Prof. B. C. TAYLOR.

16mo, 192 pages. Price, 75 cts.

Prof. B C. Taylor has done Sunday-school teachers good service in preparing an Outline Analysis of the Books of the Bible. It is clear and comprehensive, yet small in size and price; it is a book that all studious workers will prize, and will prove a substantial help in the study of any one of the several books that compose the Bible. It gives information briefly of author, date, historical occasion, leading topic, chief purpose, and points of special interest, with a general analysis of each book.

Hours with a Sceptic.

BY

D. W. FAUNCE, D. D.

12mo, 256 pages. Price, $1.00.

This is a book on Christian evidences. It purports to be a series of conversations with a sceptic, but the arguments of a lifetime are crowded into it. It is strong, vigorous, and up to the times.

"Pastors will find it a very valuable book to put into the hands of young men who are more or less affected by the sceptical notions of the day."—Foreign Mission Journal.

"The clear and concise exposition of Scripture arguments contained in this work should make for it a place in every pastor's study."—National Methodist.

THE LONE STAR.

The History of the Telugu Mission.

By DAVID DOWNIE, D. D.

PRICE, $1.00.

No mission in existence has had a more romantic interest attached to it than has our Baptist mission among the Telugus. Its unpromising beginning, its struggle for continuance, its awful famine, its wonderful ingathering, its "Lone Star," its magic name of Clough, have all combined to give it a place in the hearts of American Baptists unsurpassed by that of any other. Two good maps, one a language map of India, several new illustrations, copious tables of contents, and a full index accompany the work. No one who wants to be posted in regard to our missionary work can afford to be without this book.

Charles H. Spurgeon:

HIS FAITH AND WORKS.

BY

H. L. WAYLAND, D. D.

Cloth. 317 Pages. 24 Illustrations.

PRICE, $1.25.

An Agent Wanted in Every Church.

The Christian Herald, Detroit, Mich., in its review of Wayland's "Life of Spurgeon," published by the Society, says: "We unhesitatingly pronounce it the foremost of the Spurgeon biographies yet issued from the press."

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

Clerks of Associations will greatly assist in the compilation of these figures, if they note the following particulars in their Minutes:

1. The number of churches. 2. The names and post-offices of all ordained ministers whether pastors or not. 3. The separated totals of additions by baptism, letter, experience, and restoration. 4. The separated totals of diminutions by death, letter, exclusion, and erasure. 5. Amount of church expenses and benevolent contributions. 6. Specify on the title-page to what State the Association belongs. 7. Indicate if any of the churches are located in other States.

The Minutes of State Conventions and General Associations have heretofore furnished valuable help. The value of these Minutes will be greatly increased if they embody:

1. Correct lists of all the Associations in the State, with the total of statistics as given above.

2. The name and statistics of all colored Baptist Associations.

3. The names and statistics of all unassociated Baptist churches.

4. The number of Baptist meeting-houses, their value and seating capacity, together with the number and value of church parsonages, and the total value of all church property.

5. The statistics of Sunday-schools—giving in full—the number of schools, officers and teachers, scholars, volumes in library, scholars baptized, school expenses, and benevolent contributions.

6. The name and post-office address of every ordained Baptist minister and of each superintendent in the State.

7. Ministers ordained, churches recognised, and meeting-houses dedicated during the year—giving the name, date, and place of each.

8. Ordained ministers who have died during the year.

The clerks or secretaries of all Baptist Associations, Conventions, Theological Seminaries, Colleges, and other educational institutions, are earnestly requested to forward, as soon as possible, two copies of their Minutes, Reports, or Catalogues, to Chas. H. Banes, No. 1420 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Should any churches fail to report at the annual meeting, let the membership previously reported be included in the total membership.

To insure insertion, these statistics should be received not later than Dec. 1.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

Letters to any part of the United States, two cents for every ounce, or fraction thereof prepaid. Registered letters, ten cents in addition to the regular postage.

Circulars, books (printed), and other printed matter, in packages not exceeding four pound in weight, one cent for every two ounces. All matter not prepaid at letter rates not free, must be so wrapped that it can be examined without destroying the wrapper. The sender may write his own name or address, with the word "From" above and preceding the same; and in either case may make simple marks intended to designate a word or passage of the text to which it is desired to call attention. Upon the cover or blank leaves of any book, or of any printed matter, there may be placed a single manuscript dedication or inscription, that does not partake of the nature of a personal correspondence.

Newspapers and periodical publications sent by persons other than the publishers and news agents, one cent for every four ounces, or fraction thereof.

Merchandise, samples, seeds in packages not exceeding four pounds in weight, one cent for each ounce or fractional part thereof. Samples may be numbered to correspond with the numbers in a descriptive letter.

Liquids, poisons, explosives, and other dangerous matter, excluded.

To Canada and the British Provinces.—Same as to any point in the United States.

To Brazil, British India, China, Denmark, Egypt, France, Germany, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Mexico, Newfoundland, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Sweden, and Turkey,—letters, prepayment optional, five cents per half ounce; newspapers, and other printed matter, or samples of merchandise, one cent for every two ounces.

The postage on all letters to be forwarded by mail to any part of the United States, or to any foreign country to which payment is required, must be prepaid by postage stamps. Letters deposited without being properly prepaid will be sent immediately to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

Anniversary.

The Seventy-ninth Anniversary was held at Denver, Col., May 26, 27, 1893. There were present 151 members, 80 delegates, 14 annual members, and 60 life-members, in all 308 persons, representing 33 States and countries. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. C. J. Baldwin, Ohio, from 1 Cor. 12: 6.

The exercises consisted of an address by the President on taking the chair, and the reading and consequent discussion of reports on the various departments of the work abroad. Especial interest was experienced in the report of the "Centennial Committee," which related the historical progress of the work looking to the securing of a fund in commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the foundation of modern methods of mission endeavor. Most gratifying increase had been made in the collections of the various districts, comparative tables being inserted in the report. This report is evidently up to and including the meeting of the Society, inasmuch as the receipts reported are in excess of those contained in the Annual Report, which includes nothing received after May 1st. Including a bequest from an estate not fully settled, the grand total of receipts for the centenary year were $1,010,-341.46. In addition to the reports and consequent addresses by such missionaries as were present in further detail of the work, there were special addresses by Alonzo Bunker, D. D., on "The Unreached Tribes of Burma"; Rev. Joseph S. Adams, on "The Shadows and Blessed Sunshine of Missionary Life"; Rev. W. M. Upcraft, on "Western China as a Mission Field"; Rev. Richard Montague, on "The Holy Spirit, the Author of Missionary Enterprise"; and Lemuel Moss, D. D., on "To Save One we must Save All." Several missionaries under appointment were introduced to the body. The action of the Society in relation to the Baptist Young People's Union will be found under the review of that Society. Resolutions expressive of the sense of the body on the Geary Law were adopted with enthusiasm. It was decided to restrict the active constituency of the Union at its annual meetings to authorized or delegated persons, to be duly certified. The question of the relation of schools and higher education to missionary operations was relegated to a committee to gather the data and report to the next anniversary. Appropriate allusion was made to the death of five missionaries, who had fallen on the field. Proposed amendments to the Constitution were announced to be acted upon at the next meeting, the effect of which would be to materially alter the method of organization. The annual meeting of the Board of Managers after the adjournment of the body was marked by nothing of special interest beyond the transaction of routine business.

The Annual Report.

Allusion is made to the active operations incident to the observance of the Carey Centenary. Toward the close of the year, March 19, 1893, the rooms at Tremont Temple were entirely destroyed by fire, by which the museum and library were lost, together with many objects of value and interest. The fire-proof vaults preserved the valuable securities, accounts, and records.

Financial.

The receipts of the Treasurer from all sources had been $865,751.93, as follows: donations, $547,185.80; legacies, $41,244 37; additions to permanent funds, $[illegible],869.00; Ongole Endowment fund, $5[illegible],000.00; Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, $96,-416.61; Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society (West), $39,563.26; income of invested funds, $24,599.82; government grants to schools, etc., $8,537.23; Bible Day collections, $1,890.38, balance of interest account $866.98; Children's Christmas Day collection, $823.55; American and Foreign Bible Society, $300.00; magazine account, $224.60; "Henry Reed" steamboat membership certificates, $130.43.

The expenditures were for appropriations for current expenses, $674,910.27; added to permanent funds, $93,969.00; and payment of debt the preceding year, $86,754 31; so that the balance on hand was $25,118.37.

In addition to the receipts noted above, $37,950 in conditional trust funds had been received, and $74,139 51 had been received by the Women's Societies, above the sum noted, making in all a grand total of $977,841.46.

The donations were from the following localities: Maine, $7,027.96; New Hampshire, $1,695.17; Vermont, $4,399.13; Massachusetts, $106,214.52; Rhode Island, $10,182 33; Connecticut, $18,312.48; New York, $144,351.44; New Jersey, $25,530.30; Pennsylvania, $58,-992.32; Delaware, $467.41; District of Columbia, $1,916.45; Maryland, $10; Virginia, $11.25; West Virginia, $2,440.28; Ohio, $25,198.10; Indiana, $6,380.93; Illinois, $39,681.68; Iowa, $8,058.59; Michigan, $10,408.83; Minnesota, $9,877.34; Wisconsin, $11,136.53; Missouri, $2,848.30; Kansas, $6,358 93; Nebraska, $2,-801.81; Colorado, $2,310.84; California, $12,-270.91; Oregon, $4,563.37; North Dakota, $1,259.73; South Dakota, $1,828.84; Washington, $1,978.80; Idaho, $151.80; Indian Territory, $133.61, Wyoming, $108; Utah, $56.25; Montana, $454.20; Nevada, $8; Arizona, $27; New Mexico, $56.55; North Carolina $25; South Carolina, -9 65; Georgia, $49; Alabama, $53; Florida, $174.33; Kentucky, $989 45; Tennessee, $85.90; Texas, $0 50; Mississippi, $117.50; Louisiana, $26.80; British Columbia,

The Foreign Field.

The movements of missionaries are thus recorded. The number of new appointees was 38, of which 25 were men and 13 were women. There had departed for the work, including both new missionaries and those who had been on furlough, 24 to Burma, 4 to Assam, 28 to India, 7 to China, 7 to Japan, and 16 to Africa, in all 86. Those who had returned home on furlough numbered 38. There had been 6 resignations, and the work of two others had terminated for other reasons. The death of three missionaries is noted. There are 30 missionaries under appointment whose stations are not yet designated. Nine are not now in active service on account of age or infirmity.

In prosecution of Bible work, steps had been taken for the printing of a new edition in the Mandarin dialect for use in Eastern China, for a new edition of the Telugu Testament, and to furnish copies of the Spanish Bible. A new Sgau-Karen Bible had been published at Rangoon. Dr. Brown's translation of the Japanese Bible, which is in process of revision, had been interrupted by serious illness. The revision of the Assamese Bible had been successfully prosecuted.

Digest of Operations.

BURMA.—The conditions render this field more inviting than ever, owing to increased immigration, and great lines of inter-communication by land and sea. The influences of the gospel after eighty years are marked. The work of extension into Upper Burma is hindered for lack of reinforcements. A new movement in educational lines is in progress, which has promise of great success. New life seems to be imparted into the college at Rangoon. It has been recognized by the State as one of its normal departments, and additions made to the course of study in consequence. This will call for increased endowment and accommodations, as well as an enlargement of the teaching force. The points occupied and the missionaries at work, are as follows:

TAVOY.—Forty miles from the sea, with a population of 13,500. Rev. Horatio Morrow, Mrs. Horatio Morrow, among the Karens.

THARRAWADDY.—A station near Thongze. Rev. W. C. Calder.

Assam.

Very active village work has been prosecuted, and rich results obtained, over seven hundred baptisms reported. Three men have been added to the force. A new station has been opened, where a deputation had asked for teachers. Others are under appointment to go out soon. The following are the points now occupied:

TURA.—The centre of influence among the Garos, and seat of the English government. Rev. M. C. Mason, Mrs. M. C. Mason. Rev. E. G. Phillips, Mrs. E. G. Phillips, Rev. Wm. Dring, Mrs. Wm. Dring, Mr. S. A. D. Boggs, Mrs S. A. D. Boggs, Miss E. C. Bond, Miss S. H. Mason.

GOALPARA.—An important centre for work among the Rabhas. Rev. James Craighead, Mrs. James Craighead.

India.

THE TELUGUS.

The ingathering continues. Anxiety is felt as to the proper care and training of the converts. The visit of Dr. Clough to America resulted in an addition of twenty-five new men to go out to this work; twenty of these are now on the field and the others are in preparation. A special effort for $50,000 for the expense incurred in sending out these men, and a like sum for the college at Ongole, had been successful. The great need among the churches of these people, is enlarged educational facilities. With the first of this year, the school at Ongole will be opened as a college. Famine and cholera had hindered somewhat in the work, yet encouragement proceeds from interest on the part of the Sudras and higher castes. The force is distributed at the following points:

MADRAS.—On the bay of Bengal, and capital of the presidency of Madras, with an extensive commerce, and a population of 406,000. Rev. H. Drake, Rev. Chas. Hadley, Mrs. Chas. Hadley, Miss M. M. Day, Miss Johanna Schuff, Rev. W. H. Beeby, Mrs. W. H. Beeby, Rev. Peter B. Guernsey, Miss Susan I. Kurtz.

Japan.

The changes going on among this people prevent any report of appreciable advance. The reconstruction of social and political Japan have demonstrated disorders, which are attributed to the introduction of Christianity, and this has produced a temporary effect of unwillingness to receive the gospel. There is no yielding to discouragement, but a change of methods is being resorted to, especially in attempts to raise up native evangelists and preparing them for useful work. The stations occupied are:

YOKOHAMA.—A city of European appearance, and one of the foreign settlements, with a large commerce and a population of 61,553. Rev. A. A. Bennett, Mrs. A. A. Bennett, Rev. C. K. Harrington, Mrs. C. SHIMONESEKI.—A city of considerable importance, with a large commerce. Rev. Richard L. Halsey, Mrs. R. L. Halsey, Rev. T. E. Shoemaker, Mrs. T. E. Shoemaker, Miss Olive M. Blunt, Miss Harriet M. Brown, Mrs. Ellen Sharland.

NEMURO.—In the eastern part of Yasso, the most northern of the large islands. Rev. W. B. Parshley, Mrs. W. B Parshley, Mrs. C. H. Carpenter, Mrs. E. L. Cummings.

Africa.

Encouraging progress is reported; conversions at each station; a readiness to listen is apparent; the converts are ready to take up the story of the redemption and repeat it, and thus native evangelists and Bible women are readily obtained. The increasing commerce and facilities for trading open opportunities on large scales for further effort. The stations are manned as follows:

MUKIMVIKA.—At the mouth of the Congo, and a healthful point. Franklin P. Lynch M. D., Mr. A. L. Bain, Mrs. A. L. Bain, Mr. John S. Burns, Mr. Wesley M. Biggs.

MATADI.—The starting point of the Congo Railway, and a busy place. The caravans up river now start from this point. Rev. Wm. A. Hall, Mrs. Wm. A. Hall, Rev. F. A. Agar, Mr. Theo. A. Leger, Mrs. T. A. Leger, Mr. Thos. Hill.

PALABALA.—One hundred and ten miles from the mouth of the Congo, at the foot of Livingston Falls, and the head of navigation. Rev. Isaac Cadman, Miss L. C Fleming.

BANZA MANTEKE.—Forty miles beyond Palabala, and located in a fertile and populous country. Rev. Henry Richards, Mrs. Henry Richards, Mr. C. E. Ingham, Rev. Chas. Harvey, Mr. C. B. Antisdel.

LUKUNGA.—Sixty-nine miles above Banza Manteke. Rev. T. H. Hoste, Rev. J. E. Ricketts, Mrs. J. E. Ricketts, Rev. Geo. H. Jackson, M. D., Mrs. G. H. Jackson, Rev. Lyman H. Morse, Miss C. A. Howard, Mrs. Bella Claflin, Miss Nora A. Gordon, Miss Bessie E. Gardiner.

LEOPOLDVILLE.—At the head of Livingston Falls, at Stanley Pool, a place of great importance. Rev. A. Sims, M. D., Mrs. F. C. Gleichman, Mr. J. H. Camp, engineer of the "Henry Reed," Rev. Thos. Adams.

BOLENGI.—Eight hundred miles from the sea, at the point where the Congo crosses the equator a second time. Rev. C. B. Banks, Mrs. C. B. Banks, Rev. J. B. Murphy, Mrs. J. B. Murphy, Mr. E. V. Sjoblom.

BWEMBA.—In a populous district, 170 miles above Stanley Pool. Rev. A. Billington, Mrs. A. Billington, Rev. C. B. Glenesk, Mrs. C. B. Glenesk.

KINJILA.—Southwest of Leopoldville, 70 miles. Rev. P. Frederickson, Mrs. P. Frederickson, Rev. Christian Nelson, Mrs. C. Nelson.

Europe.

FRANCE.—Events have been remarkable. There are now 19 churches, 7 being founded during the year, viz: At Avenue Neil, Paris, Marseilles, Toulon, Nice, Chartellault, Tramelon in Switzerland, and Ougree, in Belgium. The membership is 1,900, an increase of 600. Pastor Cretin, at La Fere, had died. At many points reports come of increasing willingness to hear the gospel. There are now three churches in Paris.

GERMANY.—The work is partially self-sustaining, only aid being given by the Missionary Union. There are now at work 202 pastors, 81 colporteurs, and 460 lay preachers. The preaching stations number 951 and the baptisms for the year 1892 were 2,621. There are 26 men who are really missionaries of the German Union, laboring not only in their own country, but in Switzerland, Austro-Hungary, Bulgaria, and Roumania. The press is prolific with scriptural and religious publications, the official organ now having a subscription list of 7,400; there were 42,000 copies of the Almanack sold; other periodicals have encouraging support. There were 65 in attendance at the theological seminary, 13 of whom graduated last year to enter the pastoral work.

DENMARK.—There had been five new chapels dedicated, and others are in process of construction; there had been 200,000 pages of tracts printed besides other pamphlets and a hymn-book; 189 had been baptized, but the loss from emigration to America was great; a whole Baptist church of 50 members was thus lost to the working force; over $10,000 had been raised by the churches for the work of the general cause.

SWEDEN.—In west Sweden there had been an increase of 14 per cent. by baptism; activity in pastoral and evangelistic work is reported in the face of Lutheran persecution; there is in progress a collection of 50,000 crowns for the endowment of Bethel Seminary,

FINLAND.—Rejoicing is reported over removal of certain State hindrances to the work, and the Baptists have a lawful right to exist. One new building has been erected. The usual work of publishing and distributing literature continues, with the ordinary work of the churches.

NORWAY.—A small appropriation had been made by the Society for evangelistic work in this country, and the Norwegians of America have sent out one of their number whom they sustain in the land of their nativity. He had baptized 31 converts, and the work is full of encouragement. The proscriptive laws have so far been modified as to permit the seating of a Baptist in the Parliament of Norway, the first case of a dissenter from the State religion being so permitted.

RUSSIA.—The work goes on notwithstanding opposition and manifold hindrances and conversions occur. The epidemic of cholera occasioned much hindrance, yet 209 baptisms are reported. Some of the brethren were exiled or dispossessed of their lands.

SPAIN.—There were no formal reports, but it is known that the new methods of work adopted are proving eminently successful in their operation. Some baptisms are known to have occurred.

Summary.

In missions to nominally Christian lands there are 1,099 preachers, 801 churches, 5,796 baptisms in 1892, 82,274 members, 67,059 Sunday-school pupils, and the amount of contri-enrolled, representing 32 States, 5 Territories, the District of Columbia, and British Columbia, Sweden, Burma, and India. The Annual Sermon was preached by P. S. Henson, D. D., Ill., from 1 Cor. 3 : 10.

The prepared addresses on the occasion were by J. P. Greene, D. D., Missouri, on "Baptist Publications for Baptist People"; W. R. L. Smith, D. D., Missouri, on "The Pastor's Relation to the Doctrinal Education of the Young in Baptist Churches"; Rev. Philip L. Jones, on "The Society and the Young People's Union"; Rev. Milton F. Negus, Minnesota, on "The Work of the Society in the West"; W. M. Lawrence, D. D., Illinois, on "The Pioneer Society"; Rev. E. D. Rundell, Michigan, on "In the Field"; Rev. F. L. Anderson, New York, on "Practical Colportage, Ancient and Modern"; and Boston W. Smith, Minnesota, on "What We Need."

The important matters considered were: a conference regarding the relations of the Baptist Young People's Union to this Society; the report on Sunday-school literature in which the Society was recommended to publish lessons on the inductive plan, and additional courses for primary pupils; resolutions bearing upon the closing of the World's Fair on the Sabbath; the dedication of the Chapel Car "Immanuel," the prayer being by Rev. J. K. Dixon, and the address by K. R. Tupper, D. D.; and contributions being made toward the construction of the fourth car of this nature.

Annual Report.

The receipts from all sources in the Book Department amounted to $534,529.93, being $873.34 more than the receipts in this department the preceding year. As in previous years, the Book Department has paid the salaries of the missionary and Bible secretary, and of all the assistants at the rooms in these departments. The amount paid and thus contributed by the Book Department to the missionary and Bible work amounts to $7,712.43. The receipts in the Bible Department, given in detail in the Treasurer's report, amounted to $21,336.23. The receipts in the Missionary Department were $127,217.33; making the total receipts in all departments for the year ending March 31, 1893, $683,083.49.

A new branch had been established at Dallas, Tex., and it is reported as having made an encouraging start. The completion of the American Commentary had been decided upon, so as to cover the Old Testament; the series of popular commentaries by Dr. Clark is also to be completed. There have been arranged for four works especially adapted for young people. Four prizes of $500 each for the best story on Christian Self-Development, Christian Indebtedness, Work and Character, and the Struggle of an Idea had been offered. Nine Bible Handbooks for Young People will be published. A series is also in preparation on Life Sketches of Notable Baptists, and Histories of Baptists in the five general divisions of the country.

There had been seventy-four new publications issued during the year. Of these there had been printed over 868,140 copies. During the year there had been printed of books, pamphlets, periodicals, and tracts, new and old, 35,428,692 copies, an increase of 25,192 copies over last year.

The total issues since the organization of the Society are over 500,000,000 copies of books, pamphlets, tracts, and periodicals (528,553,013); equal to 10,917,387,698 16mo pages. If all the publications the Society has printed from its organization had been put in book form, the Society would have made over 36,000,000 books, averaging 300 pages each.

Periodicals.

There have been issued during the year 33,770,600 copies of periodicals, an increase of 353,250 copies over last year. In detail these were:

Baptist Superintendent	87,400
Baptist Teacher	742,000
Our Young People	1,229,000
The Worker	390,200
Young Reaper	3,207,000
Sunlight	2,516,000
Our Little Ones	6,921,000
Picture Lessons	8,580,000
Bible Lessons	5,720,000
Senior Quarterly	470,000
Inductive Quarterly	75,000
Advanced Quarterly	1,948,000
Intermediate Quarterly	930,000
Primary Quarterly	955,000
	33,770,600

The number of new Sabbath-school library books was 24. The miscellaneous publications, including missionary work and a Spanish Manual were 7. There had also been issued 28 cheap books in leatherette and paper covers, and 14 new tracts, and three new packets of tracts. The new quarterly of Inductive Bible lessons should also be included.

Bible Department.

Receipts: $21,336.23, of which $1,890.38 was paid to the Missionary Union for such work in foreign lands. Balance on hand, $7,380.39. The copies of Scripture circulated during the year were 33,526. This work is done with economy, no paid agents being employed, but the work of colporteurs and missionaries being thus supplemented. Great destitution still prevails and calls are urgent. A contract has been made for the revision of the remaining unrevised books of the Old Testament.

Missionary Department.

Receipts: $127,217.33. The missionary fund was overdrawn by $2,484.02. The second Chapel Car had been completed and was dedicated at the anniversary. A brother had offered to build a third car, provided funds were supplied for a fourth one. The car "Evangel" had visited 88 places, 424 meetings had been held, with 474 sermons and addresses, 439 families visited, 25 persons baptized by the workers on the Car, 4 Sunday-schools established, 8 churches constituted, and 400 conversions reported. The report calls for an increase of the colporteur funds, by which all the Associations might be supplied, which could be accomplished by an annual expenditure of $700,000. The summary of missionary work for the year is: number of missionaries and workers, 124; days of service, 31,934; miles traveled, 524,769; books sold, 55,982; books given away, 2,568; pages of tracts distributed, 438,439; sermons and addresses, 18,282; prayer meetings held, 5,896; families visited, 44,641; persons baptized, 642; churches constituted, 49; Sunday-schools organized, 330; institutes held and addressed, 537; Sunday-schools aided by donations of Scriptures, books, periodicals, etc., 296; pastors and ministerial students aided with grants for their libraries, 332.

Financial.

Sales and receipts for merchandise and periodicals were: Philadelphia House, $168,617.55; New York, $59,235.53; Boston, $76,721.52; Chicago, $88,996.69; St. Louis, $66,457.59; Atlanta, $11,142.47; Dallas, $12,518.96; a total of $513,693.31. Including sales of previous year collected, rents in building, the Cassidy estate, and other items of interest and income, the total receipts in this department were $577,346.97, of which $42,817.04 was cash balance from previous year. The items of expenditure were for merchandise and periodicals, $357,807.00; expenses, including insurance, taxes, stationery, advertising, repairs, etc., were $35,082.10; salaries and wages, including whole force employed in all departments, including missionary and Bible departments, $58,045.93; branch houses, rent and expenses, $47,362.44; machinery and fixtures, $1,769 07; interest on conditional donations, $2,476.00; grants, $2,984.76; Cassidy estate, $4,221.91; increase of reserved fund for enlargement of work, $23,070.00; accounts worthless, $417.12; cash balances in various banks, $45,181.02; balance of open accounts due by the Society, $1,070 38. The assets of the Society were $1,007,579.95, and the liabilities were $23,195.22, making net assets, $984,384.73.

Missionary Department: contributions, $27,733.99; from Children's Day, $27,817.27; legacies, $2,031.67; profits on sales by missionaries and applied on their salaries, $4,969.82; Bucknell Trust, $1,897.67; income from permanent and conditional funds, $22,577.93; interest on bank balances, $620.19; received for permanent funds, $19,643.29; received for conditional funds, $10,200.00; special contributions and interest on funds not yet used, $163.00; receipts for Chapel Car No. 2, $4,572 50; held in trust for Chapel Car No. 3, $5,000.00; a total of $127,217.33. The payments were on general missionary work, $72,474.43; stock purchased for missionaries, $11,701.33; grants of various publications, $8,819.85; interest on conditional funds, $9,850.39; invested in permanent and conditional funds, $30,625.00; interest on funds transferred to principal, $258.94; accrued interest, $263.50; expense account, $3,297.11; refunds, $142.93; cash on hand, $17,041.80.

Bible Department: contributions, Bible Day, and from individuals and churches, $15,516.80; sales by missionaries, $409.08; income from permanent funds, $718.86; income from special funds and special contributions, $5,791.49; cash balance on hand, $6,349.69; a total of $27,685.92. There had been paid for Scriptures, $4,600.53; to the Missionary Union, $1,890.38; grants for Bible Day, $1,661.62; expense account, $2,247.63; transferred to funds and investments, $9,225 00; making in all, $19,625.16. The balance for Bible work is $7,380.39; for invested Bible Fund, $240.67; and New Testament Fund, $446.26.

The securities held in trust by the Missionary and Bible Departments amounted March 31, 1893, to $483,650.00, par value, the market value of which was $493,372.50. These are held for the Missionary Department, $407,200.00, and the Bible Department, $76,450.00, par value.

Branch Houses.

These are located as follows: Boston, Mass., 256 Washington Street; New York, N. Y., Times Building, City Hall Park; Chicago, Ill., 122 Wabash Avenue; St. Louis, Mo., 1109 Olive Street; Atlanta, Ga., 66½ Whitehall Street; Dallas, Tex., 345 Main Street.

Anniversary.

The Sixty-first Anniversary was held at Denver, Colorado, May 28-30, 1893, There were in attendance 108 delegates, 52 life members, and 24 visitors, a total of 184. The Annual Sermon was delivered by P. S. Moxom, D. D., Mass., from Joshua 17: 14, 15, on "The Opportunities and Responsibilities of Baptists in the Evangelization of America."

The addresses on the occasion were by H. C. Wood, D. D., Col., on "Pioneer Home Mission Work"; by various missionaries giving reminiscences of early days; Edward Judson, D. D., N. Y., on "The Missionary Spirit as Embodied in City Evangelization"; W. P. Hellings, D. D., Neb., on "Some Methods of City Evangelization"; John H. Chapman, Ill., on "Principles Underlying the Young People's Movement"; W. M. Haigh, D. D., Ill., on "The Value of Church Edifice Work During Past Ten Years"; Lemuel Moss, D. D., Ill., on "The Church and Its Home"; and a number of brief addresses upon the various phases of the work of the Society by persons engaged in them.

The committee to devise some methods for the care of dependent ministers reported progress and was continued. The effort of the Baptist Young People's Union to create a founding fund was endorsed. Vigorous resolutions regarding the Chinese Exclusion Law, the proposed admission of Utah as a State, temperance, and the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday, were adopted.

The Annual Report.

The total receipts of the year, including conditional and permanent trust funds (not including Church Edifice Loans prepaid), were $473,842.35.

These came from forty-eight States and Territories; also from British Columbia, Mexico, China, Japan, and Burma. The receipts may be classified as follows: From contributions of churches, Sunday-schools, and individuals, including $28,865.17 trust funds, $279,865.64. From legacies, $133,614.40. Income from church edifice loans and invested funds, $44,637,15. From the schools of the Society, $7,467.06. Miscellaneous, including receipts for "The Baptist Home Mission Monthly," $8,257 90.

A further analysis showing to what purposes these receipts are applicable, gives the following results: For General Purposes (i. e., for salaries of missionaries, teachers, officers and expenses of administration) — From general contributions, $187,916.59; from legacies, $53,936.63; from all other sources, $22,338.42; total, $264,191.64. Designated Funds.— 1. For Church Edifice work: (a) Benevolent Fund. Contributions from churches, individuals, and Sunday-schools, $11,886.46; legacies, $4,594.62; from income of invested funds, $9,228.83; gifts returned, $1,800; total, $27,507.91; (b) Loan Fund. From contributions, $1,037.00; from income from loans, etc., $5,498.88; (c) legacies for Church Edifice Investment Fund, $48,577.94. Total for Church Edifice work, $82,621.73. 2. For school buildings and other objects, $50,160.42. Permanent Funds (other than Church Edifice Funds) — From income to be added to principal, $575; contributions, $744.17; legacies, $24,205.21. Conditional or Annuity Funds (donors receiving annuities during their lives).—From individuals, $28,121.00.

The total expenditures for the year were $471,491.01. For missionaries' salaries, $217,763.44; for teachers' salaries, $88,236.24; gifts to churches, $45,196.93; loans to churches, $16,050; expenses of schools, $7,169.71; annuities, $16,025.76; expenses of administration at the Rooms, $14,375.50; general expense and publication account, $13,072.77; superintendents and district secretaries, $21,664.13.

Special mention is made also, that the receipts were $26,548.62 less than the preceding year; that in general there was no falling off occasioned by the effort of the Missionary Union in celebrating the Carey Centennial; that the legacies amounted to $49,791 less than year preceding; that for the seventh year in succession, no debt was reported, and that $600,000 would be needed during the coming year for the work of the Society. Detailed reports of the district secretaries are appended.

Missions.

The Society's operations had been conducted in fifty States and Territories, also in Manitoba, North West Territory, British Columbia, Alaska, and in six States of the Mexican Republic. The whole number of laborers supported, wholly or in part, had been 1,082, being the largest number ever reported.

Digitized by Google

They were distributed as follows: In the New England States, 30; in the Middle and Central States, 60; in the Southern States, 221; in the Western States and Territories, including 55 in Indian Territory, 733; in the Canadian Dominion, 6; in Mexico, 31; and in Alaska, 1. French missionaries wrought in 7 States; Scandinavian missionaries in 21 States; German missionaries in 20 States, Manitoba, and British Columbia; colored missionaries in 22 States.

Among the foreign population there had been 245 laborers; among the colored people, 236; the Indians, 46; the Mexicans, 31; and among Americans, 524.

Seventy churches had become self-supporting; 82 asked for reduced appropriations; 109 new mission stations had been taken up.

The Society aided in the maintenance of 34 established schools for the colored people, the Indians, and the Mexicans.

The missionaries represented fourteen nationalities or peoples, viz: Americans, Germans, French, Swedes, Danes, Norwegians, Finns, Welsh, Bohemians, Poles, Indians, Negroes, Chinese, Mexicans.

The summary of the year's work is: Number of laborers, 1,082; weeks of labor, 37,199; churches and out-stations supplied, 2,035; sermons preached, 84,316; prayer meetings attended, 47,214; religious visits made, 240,615; Bibles and Testaments distributed, 7,076; pages of tracts distributed, 1,278,816; received by baptism, 5,743; received by letter and experience, 6,017; total church membership, 49,364; churches organized, 136; Sunday-schools under care of missionaries, 1,177; attendance at Sunday-schools, 73,954; benevolent contributions reported, $113,356.96.

Special attention was given to home mission work in cities, and the pleasing fact was elicited that the anniversary was held with such favorable circumstances as direct fruit of the Society's operations. The report contains pictures of the present imposing house and the humble structure of the Baptists of Denver in 1868.

The list of general missionaries comprises able and efficient men for West Virginia, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado and New Mexico, Montana and Northern Idaho, Indian Territory, Oklahoma Territory, Wyoming, Washington, Oregon, Northern California, and Southern California. Their detailed reports are contained in the Annual Report.

Attention was given to the large influx of foreign people. Into New England are coming large numbers of French Canadians. Among nine nationalities are 245 missionaries. To the French are 17 workers, whose labors cost $3,628.52. The work is in Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Kansas, and California. There were six French students preparing for evangelistic work. Among Germans were 72 missionaries, at a cost of $16,062.79, one-half of which was contributed by German churches. Their labors were in 20 States and Territories and Canada. Rev. G. A. Schulte, New York, is the General Secretary. Missionaries among the Scandinavians numbered 123, costing $22 159.46, and working in 24 States. There are over 18,000 Baptists among these people, the increase being about 1,000 per annum. The 25th anniversary of the organization of the first Swedish church had been commemorated in December, 1892. In the Western States there are large colonies of Danes and Norwegians, their churches in Wisconsin, for example, being one-half of the Scandinavian communions. New work had been taken up in the East among the Swedes. The Bohemian mission in Chicago had made progress, 22 baptisms being reported. So of the mission to Poles in Buffalo, N. Y. Conversions among Finns in Massachusetts had occurred. Among the colored race, exclusive of the educational work, there had been 35 missionaries; including teachers, there were 115 colored persons under employment. Of these, 13 were general missionaries in States where their conventions co-operate with the Society. Of the 25 missionaries in the Indian Territory, 17 had labored exclusively among the aborigines; in Oklahoma there had been 6, and in California, 1, making in all, 32, at a cost of $7,982.99, of which sum, $6,500 was especially for Indian work. Much encouragement was reported from all the stations in this department. There are missions to the Chinese in California, Montana, Chicago, and New York City. An additional place for preaching had been obtained in the latter city. The Chinese Exclusion Law had worked badly in supplying laborers for important points; but a new mission has been established at Seattle, 48 conversions, with 19 baptisms had been reported, and contributions by these people enlarged. In Mexico, there are stations in 6 States, and the city of Mexico; 31 teachers, of which 25 are natives; cost of work, $12,719.04. A new mission had been opened in the city of Mexico. A special missionary to examine into and report upon the enlargement of the work had been appointed.

Church Edifice Work.

The whole number of churches aided by gifts and loans during the year was 110; churches aided by gifts only, 72—the largest number in the history of this fund; by loans only, 12—the smallest number in eleven years; by gifts and loans, 26. The total number of grants, therefore, from the Gift Fund was 98; from the Loan Fund, 38. These churches are in 29 States and Territories. Those receiving gifts, as follows: Arkansas, 1; California, 10; Colorado, 1; Idaho, 2; Illinois, 3; Indian Territory, 4; Iowa, 10; Kansas, 9; Kentucky, 1; Louisiana, 1; Mexico, 1; Massachusetts, 1; Michigan, 5; Minnesota, 1; Montana, 1; North Carolina, 1; North Dakota, 5; Nebraska, 8; Oklahoma, 4; Oregon, 4; South Carolina, 1; South Dakota, 6; Utah, 2; Virginia, 1; West Virginia, 2; Wisconsin, 8; Washington, 4; Wyoming, 1. Those receiving loans as follows: Arkansas, 3; Colorado, 2; California, 4; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 2; Indian Territory, 1; Iowa, 1; Kansas, 3; Massachusetts, 1, Minnesota, 1; Michigan, 1; Nebraska, 2; North Dakota, 4; Oregon, 1; South Dakota, 1; South Carolina, 1; Texas, 1; Utah, 1; Washington, 3; Wisconsin, 3;

West Virgina, 1. American churches, 82; Scandinavian, 6; German, 10; Colored, 8; Indian 3; Mexican, 1.

Of the 135 church edifices reported as erected in Western mission fields, about 100 were aided by the Society. The whole number of churches aided by the Society, taking the aggregate of the annual reports, is 1,407. Occasionally the same church appears twice as a recipient of aid, making the actual number slightly less. Of these 1,071 have been aided in the past twelve years since the organization of the Gift Fund; 632 exclusively by gifts, and 190 by gifts in connection with loans. Receipts from interest on loans had been $5,498.88. The principal of this fund is $117,199. Nearly the entire amount is loaned to churches, the balance in the treasury being only $159.46. The loans to thirty-eight churches aggregate $16,050.00, or an average of $422.37 to each church. Grants made to 30 churches, but not yet called for, amount to $11,650. Twenty-six churches paid off their loans during the year. The number of outstanding loans is 279.

Receipts for the Gift Fund were: From contributions, $11,886.46; from legacies for current uses, $4,594.62, and for the permanent fund, $48,577.94; income of permanent funds, $8,749.38; gifts returned, $1,800: other sources, $478.45. Total, $76,085.85. These are the largest receipts since the organization of this fund in 1881, mainly, however, because of a legacy of $48,577.94.

Educational Work.

The schools under the control or management of the Society are thus classified: Higher schools for colored race, 14, located in Washington City, Richmond, Va., Raleigh, N. C., Atlanta, Ga., Nashville, Tenn., New Orleans, La., Columbia, S. C., Jackson, Miss., Marshall, Tex., Selma, Ala., Louisville, Ky., and Little Rock, Ark. Secondary schools for colored race, 15, located in Florida, Louisiana, South Carolina, Indian Territory, Tennessee, Missouri, Virginia, Texas, North Carolina, Georgia, and Arkansas. Schools for Indians, 5, all in the Indian Territory, save one in Oklahoma. Chinese mission schools, 17. Schools in Utah, 2. Schools in Mexico, 4. In the schools for all these races were 246 teachers and 5,493 pupils. For the colored people, the schools contained 194 teachers, 81 men and 113 women, about 70 being colored; the number of students was 5,242; males, 2,791; females, 2,451; students for the ministry, 403; preparing for teaching, 1,413. These figures will vary from those contained in our educational tables, since our effort is to obtain the condition of these institutions on the first of the present year. It will be seen that 6 new schools have been aided. The year was marked by unusual activity in the erection of new buildings. Land has been added at Shaw University, and one of its buildings remodelled. A large normal school building at Spelman Seminary was about completed, at a cost of $56,000; it will be known as "Giles Hall" after the teacher who has been identified with the school from its beginning. A new building was in progress of erection at Bishop College, and nine acres added to the lands. At Jacksonville, three acres had been secured and a building was in progress. Valuable equipments for industrial education had been added to some of the institutions. Advance work in training teachers had been successfully begun, and a new undertaking is in the line of missionary training schools. At Shaw University is a medical and a law department, and at Spelman Seminary, a training school for nurses.

District Secretaries.

These are: F. T. Haslewood, D. D., Tremont Temple, Boston, Mass., for New England; Halsey Moore, D. D., New York, N. Y., for New York and Northern New Jersey; E. B. Palmer, D. D., 1420 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., for Southern New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and District of Columbia; E. H. E. Jamison, D. D., 106 Smith Ave., Detroit, Mich., for Ohio and Michigan; Rev. Dwight Spencer, Indianapolis, Ind., for Indiana and Southern Illinois; Wm. M. Haigh, D. D., 122 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., for Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and North Dakota; H. C. Woods, D. D., Colorado Springs, Colorado, for Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico, and Utah.

Next Anniversary.

The time and place of the next meeting were relegated to the Managers to determine, but it is probable that the place will be Saratoga Springs, N. Y., at the usual time, which will be in May, 1894, the exact dates to be announced.

Anniversary.

The Thirty-eighth Session (forty-eighth year), was held in the city of Nashville, Tenn., May 12-16, 1893. The whole number entitled to seats on money basis was 1,083, and on basis of Associational representation, 386, a total of 1,469; there were present on the money basis, 622, and as representing Associations, 168, which, with 19 reported visitors, made a total present of 818. These were from Alabama, 79; Arkansas, 21; Western Arkansas and Indian Territory, 2; Brazil, 1; District of Columbia, 3; Florida, 20; Georgia, 97; Kentucky, 123; Louisiana, 18; Maryland, 9; Mexico, 1; Mississippi, 41; Missouri, 51; North Carolina, 29; South Carolina, 66; Tennessee, 55; Texas, 89; Virginia, 75.

The Convention Sermon was preached by W. E. Hatcher, D. D., Virginia, from Romans 5: 4.

The work of the session in addition to the report of the Boards, as noted in their proper place, was mostly of a routine character. Various phases of the mission work of the Convention were considered in reports from committees appointed to consider and recommend future action. The Centennial Committee reported finally, giving account of the progress of the work of securing a commemoration fund in view of the Carey Centenary, with details of what had been accomplished. It would seem from the report of the agent that $133,000 had been secured in cash and pledges, and that when the final balance sheet was struck the fund would not be far short of $240,000. The work is to go on until the meetings of the State Conventions in the fall of the year. Much interest in this work was manifest, and several mass meetings in its furtherance were held and additional funds secured. The committee to recommend an altered basis of representation in the Convention reported two plans—one bringing the body to a numerical basis simply, and one which combined both numerical and financial. It was determined to consider the plans more fully and have a decision at the next meeting of the body. The detailed work of the Boards was considered, but no marked changes were effected. Resolutions regarding temperance, the relation of the denomination to the young people's movement, the Chinese Exclusion Act, and expressive of sorrow in the death or infirmities of several distinguished brethren, were adopted.

The printed proceedings contain portraits of J. L. Burrows, D. D., present at the organization of the Convention, three times one of its Vice-Presidents, and six times the President of its Foreign Mission Board, and Matthew Hillsman, D. D., for 27 years Vice-President of the Foreign Board from Tennessee. The tables of statistics of the denomination in the South are unusually full; they show 683 Associations, 9,386 ordained ministers, 17,710 churches, 82,478 baptisms during the year 1892, and a total membership of 1,321,540. There are also 21 colleges, 34 female academies, and 25 academies, with 754 instructors and 12,359 pupils; the endowment funds of these institutions amounted to $2,731,700, and the total value of the property, including endowment, $7,716,640. The reported value of church property was $15,600,061. The several State Mission Boards had employed 867 missionaries, who had preached 64,389 sermons, baptized 10,411 persons, and organized 230 churches; this is quite distinct from the work of the Home Board of the Convention.

In connection with this body, the "Southern Baptist Educational Conference" meets. The officers are: W. R. Rothwell, D. D., Liberty, Mo., President, and Thomas Hume, D. D., Chapel Hill, N. C., Secretary. The meeting was in connection with the American Baptist Educational Society. The papers before the conference were by President A. J. Emerson, D. D., Texas, on "Higher Education in Texas"; H. H. Harris, LL.D., Virginia, on "College Examinations and Degrees"; Prof. A. F. Williams, Kentucky, on "The Legal Relations of Baptist Schools to the Denomination"; and Prof. Noah K. Davis, Virginia, on "Intermediate Training, or the College Part of the Problem of Denominational Education." The body is simply a conference of educators in the South.

Foreign Missions.

As an indication of the increased interest created by the Carey Centenary, there had been 40 new missionaries appointed, 32 having already sailed to their fields. These were distributed: 10 to Mexico, 14 to Brazil, 3 to Africa, 2 to Japan, and 11 to China. One of the appointees had been transferred to the work in Cuba under the charge of the Home Board. Five had returned home on furlough. The relations of four had been terminated. The veteran, Dr. Hartwell, had been returned to the work in China. The "Foreign Mission Journal" is almost self-supporting. The societies of "Sunbeams," an organization among children, had increased to 526, with a total contribution of $1,783.34. The active work of the Women's Societies will be noted under the appropriate head of their organization. The Foreign Mission Board in its report alludes extensively to this valuable auxiliary. Two of the missionaries had died on the field, and the wife of the assistant corresponding secretary is also among the dead of the year.

The total receipts from all sources were $155,937.23. Of this, $1,250.95 was balance from preceding year. The contributions were: from Alabama, $11,904.06; Arkansas and Indian Territory, $1,867.88; District of Columbia, $1,345.00; Florida, $1,455.29; Georgia, $17,500.69; Kentucky, $16,653.34; Louisiana, $1,843.65; Maryland, $19,153.62; Missouri, $8,497.52; Mississippi, $4,216.43; North Carolina, $9,901.88; South Carolina, $15,009.75; Tennessee, $5,088.30; Texas, $16,193.87; Virginia, $22,803.72; other States, $1,146.90; other sources, $505.00. The disbursements included these appropriations for fields: Africa, $6,719.45; China, $29,685.96; Japan, $4,854.60; Italy, $19,989.33; Brazil, $23,543.54; Mexico, $25,627.34. The salary account was $5,270.80; other expense, including rents, traveling expenses, postage, stationery, printing, etc., $6,402.16; cost of agency work, $4,593.96. The net liabilities of the Board were $10,464.24. The receipts of centennial funds, included in the foregoing, were $2,438.91 for enlargement of the work, and $21,341.90 for permanent and chapel fund. To this should be added receipts of the Home Board on same account, and also the fact should be noted that the time of collection had been extended to November, 1893.

Digest of Operations.

Italy.

ROME.—George B. Taylor, D. D., 52 Via Giulio Romano, Sig. Paschetto.

FLORENCE.—J. H. Eager, D. D., Mrs. J. H. Eager, Via Oricellari, 16 bis, Sig. Bellondi.

MILAN.—Nicholas Papengouth.

VENICE AND MESTRE.—Signor Barbisani.

BOLOGNA.—Signor Colombo.

MODENA AND CANNES.—Signor Ferraris.

CARPI.—Signor Mattei.

BARLETTA.—Signor Basile.

BARI.—Signor Volpi.

NAPLES.—Signor Fasulo.

BOSCOREALE.—Signor Martinelli.

TORRE PELLICE.—Signor Malan.

MIGLIONICO.—Signor Piccinni.

CAGLIARI, SARDINIA.—Signor Arbanasich.

DOMUS NOVAS, SARDINIA.—Signor Cossu.

IGLESIAS, SARDINIA.—Signor Fortonese.

Partial statistics report 72 baptisms; 347 members, and $559.56 contributed. Despite some features of discouragement and difficulty, there was progress. One new church had been constituted at Miglionico, of 20 members. Two churches had become self-sustaining, and the work at Naples largely so. The work had been extended into many new parts of Italy. The colportage work has attained to large proportions and is very valuable.

Brazil.

Rio de Janeiro.—Rev. W. B. Bagby, Mrs. W. B. Bagby, Miss Emma Morton, Rev. J. J. Taylor, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, S. L. Ginsburg.

Bahia. — Rev. Z. C. Taylor, Mrs. Z. C. Taylor, Miss S. E. Johnson, Rev. R. E. Neighbour, T. W. Baptista.

Pernambuco—Rev. W. E. Entzminger, Mrs. W. E. Entzminger, Rev. S. J. Porter, Socrates Borbarema.

Maceio.—Senhor Joao Baptista.

Valenca.—Antonio Morgues.

Minas Geraes.—Rev. E. H. Soper, Mrs. E. H. Soper, Rev. J. L. Downing, Mrs. J. L. Downing, Jos. Aden, native assistant. Address—Campos, Rio de Janeiro.

Espirito Santo.—Rev. T. T. Martin, Mrs. T. T. Martin, and native assistant.

The total statistics of the mission were 96 baptisms, 453 members and $1,344.17 contributions. The work had been reorganized and reinforced. The work at Bahia had been helped by a boat for evangelizing tours, and a printing press. Some churches meet their own current expense, which is a gratifying advance. Churches had been constituted at Nictheroy and Barbacena, fruits of the Rio mission. Several new points for preaching had been seized and were being held with great promise. Translation and publication work had been commenced. The missionaries are full of hope and cheer.

Mexico.

Toluca.—W. D. Powell, D. D., Mrs. W. D. Powell, Rev. F. de P. Stephenson.

Musquiz.—Rev. A. C. Watkins, Mrs. A. C. Watkins, native assistant.

Saltillo.—Rev. H. R. Moseley, Mrs. H. R. Moseley, Miss L. A. McDavid, Miss L. C. Cabaniss, Miss Addie Barton, Rev. M. Gassaway, Jose M. Cardenas, E. Barocio.

Patos.—Rev. A. Trevino, Sen. Dominquez.

San Rafeal.—M. T. Flores.

Doctor Arroyo.—Rev. J. G. Chastain, Mrs. J. G. Chastain, Rev. Porfirio Rodriguez.

Zacatecas.—Rev. A. B. Rudd, Mrs. A. B. Rudd, Benj. Muller.

Parras.—Miss Sallie Hale, Pablo Rodriques.

Silao.—Rev. D. A. Wilson, Mrs. D. A. Wilson, Miss Smelser.

Morelia.—Rev. H. P. McCormick, Mrs. H. P. McCormick.

Gaudalajara.—Rev. P. H. Goldsmith, Mrs. P. H. Goldsmith, Mrs. J. P. Duggan.

Oaxaco.—Rev. I. N. Steelman, Mrs. I. N. Steelman, native assistant.

Only partial statistics were reported. These were 94 baptisms; 1,014 members; contributions, $1,526. Here also the work has been reorganized to better advantage, and new locations established; the work had been reinforced. There had been new lots of ground secured for future chapel building. The educational work has so increased that there is a demand for enlarged accommodations and new teachers. The Zaragoza Institute has become principally a theological school for the training of native workers. There is pressing demand for more buildings at various points which the men declare are ripe for such advances.

Japan.

Kokura, Island of Kiushiu.—Rev. J.W. McCollum, Mrs. J. W. McCollum, Rev. E. N. Waine, Mrs. E. N. Waine.

There had been 26 baptisms, and the two retiring missionaries had been replaced by two others. The regular work had been maintained. The mission is in its inception, the workers doing as best they can with an incomplete knowledge of the language. There is a call for reinforcements.

Africa.

Lagos.—Rev. W. J. David, Mrs. W. J. David, Rev. C. C. Newton, Mrs. C. C. Newton, Miss Alberta Newton, with three native assistants and teachers.

Abbeokuta.—Rev. W. T. Lumley, Mrs. W. T. Lumley, L. O. Murray, and Moses Stone, native assistant.

Awyaw.—Rev. S. G. Pinnock, Mrs. S. G. Pinnock.

Ogbomoshaw.— Rev. C. E. Smith (Henry Patterson Missionary), Mrs. C. E. Smith, and one native teacher.

Hausser Farm.—Albert Eli, native evangelist.

There had been 20 baptisms, and there is now a membership of 144, who had contributed $215.80; but these are partial returns. There had been political excitements which had retarded the work; but the missionaries report the condition for effective work never so good as now. The churches in large towns had been blessed for the first time in many years by union among themselves, and reaped results of faithful labor. An urgent call from the force at the front is made to enter the region of the Great Soudan, and cogent reasons are assigned for the proposed step. A call is made for American colored men for missionaries in this field.

China.

NORTHERN CHINA—P. O., CHEFOO.

Tung Chow.—Miss Laura G. Barton.

Hwanghien.—Rev. C. W. Pruitt, Mrs. C. W. Pruitt, Rev. W. D. King.

Pingtu.—Miss Lottie Moon, Miss Fannie S. Knight, Rev. W. H. Sears, Mrs. W. H. Sears.

CENTRAL CHINA.

Shanghai.—Mrs. M. T. Yates, Rev. E. F. Tatum, Mrs. E. F. Tatum, Rev. R. T. Bryan, Mrs. R. T. Bryan.

Soochaw. (P. O., Shanghai).—Rev. T. C. Britton, Mrs. T. C. Britton.

Chinkiang. — Rev. W. J. Hunnex, Mrs. W. J. Hunnex, Rev. L. N. Chappell, Mrs. L. N. Chappell.

Yangchow.—Rev. L. W. Pierce, Mrs. L. W. Pierce.

Canton and Vicinity.—R. H. Graves, D. D., Mrs. R. H. Graves, Miss Lula Whilden, Rev. E. Z. Simmons, Mrs. E. Z. Simmons, Rev. Thos. McCloy, Mrs. Thos. McCloy, Rev. G. W. Greene, Mrs. G. W. Greene, Miss H. F. North, Miss Mollie McMinn, Miss C. J. White, Miss Anna B. Hartwell, and 21 native assistants and Bible women.

The partial statistics show 75 baptisms and 938 members; they had contributed $1,722.89. Encouraging work had been pressed in towns and villages, and many missionary tours into the country are reported. Testimonies are many to the faithfulness and active energy of the native Christians. There had been several chapels opened, and preparations are being made for others. Native colportage is an interesting feature in some portions. The persecutions which had interfered with the work in 1891, had measurably ceased. The work in North China had been affected somewhat by withdrawal of some of the missionaries, owing to disagreement with the Board on methods of work; but their places are being filled and the work will not be hindered—possibly increased—as these missionaries propose to go forward in their work independently. In Southern China the work has peacefully gone on with no remarkable features, but with the customary fidelity; missionary work being supplemented by medical work, colportage, and education.

The summary of mission operations is thus stated: Main stations, 33; out-stations, 152; missionaries—male 39, female 35; unmarried females, 18; ordained natives, 21; unordained natives, males 49, females 8; organized churches, 75; members, 2,923; baptisms, 383; schools, males 4, females 8, mixed 4; scholars, so far as reported, 598; contributions on fields, $5,368.42.

Home Missions.

The Home Mission Board reported 368 missionaries, distributed: Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 24; Cuba, 20; Florida, 42; District of Columbia, 4; Georgia, 19; Indian Territory, 16; Kentucky, 9; Louisiana, 22; Maryland, 3; Missouri, 7; Oklahoma, 8; Tennessee, 6; Texas, 127; Virginia, 2; West Arkansas and Indian Territory, 38; West North Carolina, 20; West Virginia, 2. These missionaries had performed the following labors: Weeks of labor, 14,014; churches and stations, 1,482; sermons and addresses, 38,007; prayer meetings, 12,594; baptisms, 5,111; received by letter, 4,493; total additions, 9,604; Sunday-schools organized, 412; teachers and pupils, 16,611; religious visits, 54,134; churches constituted, 155; houses of worship built, 92; Bibles and Testaments, 1,748; pages of tracts distributed, 919,587.

Much interest is felt in the work in Cuba, where the baptisms had aggregated 169, and where 8 schools are maintained. There is an aggregate membership of 2,261, and over $3,000 had been contributed. The last installment on the commodious house at Havana had been paid. An English speaking missionary is to be added to the force, relieving the native workers of much of detail administration. Efforts are making to the establishment of a high school for Cuban girls. There are now 5 churches and 17 stations occupied on the island.

German work had been pressed in Texas, Maryland, Missouri, and Kentucky. Points in large cities are carefully looked after. Building operations for these people are in progress. Steady progress was reported in the work among the colored population. In Georgia, Texas, Kentucky, and Maryland, missionaries are sustained. Co-operation exists with State Boards in four other States. Emphasis is given to work in educating theologically the colored ministry in the rural sections by means of institutes lasting for several weeks. Some of the most influential white brethren are engaged in this work.

A similar work to this is pressed in the interest of the white ministry in the mountain regions. The work in the mountains of North Georgia is very extensive and highly encouraging. The long line of the Appalachian range is supplied by missionary workers by this Board.

Attention is given to the Indians in their territory. The interest of the Board is extended to mission work in large cities, New Orleans especially, where an onward impetus has been given by the location of several strong men. Aid is to be given to Jacksonville, the gateway to the winter resorts of Florida. Complaint is still made of the inability of the Board to answer appeals for aid in church erection. Part of the Centenary Fund is to be devoted to this purpose. There are large stretches of country, notably in Texas, where there are no suitable structures for worship. It is the intention of the Board to lay this subject more than ever upon the heart of the denomination.

The receipts of this Board from all sources were $106,989.58; arising from Alabama, $9,097-.82; Arkansas, $538.16; District of Columbia, $302.50; Florida, $1,448.04; Illinois, $1,002; Georgia, $13,908.25; Kentucky, $15,918.75; Louisiana, $1,405.45; Maryland, $14,630.83; Mississippi, $1,893.41; Missouri, $3,877.18; North Carolina, $4,689.47; South Carolina, $6,375.44; Tennessee, $4,775.83; Texas, $5,125-.18; Virginia, $11,826.68; other States, $184.65; other sources, $9,894.63. Of these amounts, $22,350.98 were for the Centennial Fund, and $13,691.71 for the permanent chapel fund. The disbursements were, to missionaries, $42,-672.89; Cuba work, $33,517.50, including payment on the Havana house; "Our Home Field," $2,183.07; salaries, $5,450; expense account, including centennial expenses and State agencies, $10,611.70; interest, $1,373.52. The cash balance was 2,784.41, but there were net liabilities of $1,276.01. In addition to the direct work of the Board, co-operative work with certain States was maintained, and $53,-354.41 was raised conjointly for mission work to be wrought upon the fields of labor; and $80,775.94 additional was secured for church building.

Sunday-School Work.

The Sunday-school Board had obtained the services of T. P. Bell, D. D., formerly of the Foreign Board. Their report shows an increase of more than $11,000 over the preceding year, giving a gross income of more than $43,000, a net gain of 34 per cent. The publications of this Board comprise a Teacher, Primary, Intermediate, and Advanced Quarterlies, "Kind Words" in three editions, Lesson Leaflet, "The Child's Gem" for primary classes, Lesson Cards, Bible Lesson Pictures, and "The Sunday School Leader," quarterly. Other appliances for the work are also supplied. From the net profits of publication, appropriations in money had been made to State Sunday-school Boards.

The receipts were: From balance, $1,065-.78; from periodicals, merchandise, and advertising, $13,078.71; a total of $14,144.48. The disbursements were for appropriations to Sunday-school missions in all the States of the Convention, and $118.80 to foreign fields, $3,413.45; periodicals, including printing, mailing, etc., $26,776.61; merchandise, song-books, catechisms, Scriptures, etc., $1,726.19 salaries and expense account, $6,734.90; miscellaneous items, $3,6?5.59. The assets of the Board, April 30, 1893, amounted to $7,824.19; as against this there were open accounts against the Board, $261.25; leaving net assets, $7,562.94.

Next Anniversary.

The next session will be held in Dallas, Texas, beginning May 11, 1894, and F H. Kerfoot, D. D., Kentucky, was selected to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Fifth Annual Meeting was held in Nashville, Tennessee, May 11, 1893. There were enrolled the names of 252 delegates, from 38 States and Territories, all of whom, however, were not present.

The public exercises consisted of the reports of the treasurer and corresponding secretary; the adoption of resolutions regarding the death of Richard M. Dudley, D. D., president of the Society; and addresses by President H. L. Stetson, D. D., of Des Moines College, on "Affiliation with the University of Chicago"; Mr. A. F. Williams, Vice-President of Bethel College, Ky., on "Legal Relations of Baptist Schools to the Denomination"; and at an evening session, popular addresses by Edwin Judson, D. D., N. Y., W. R. Harper, D. D., Ill., and J. L. M. Curry, LL. D., Washington, D. C.

The report of the Executive Board refers to the death of several of its members, including that of the president of the Society. During the year the following institutions had completed financial enlargement with the encouragement and initial aid of the Society: Connecticut Literary Institution, $50,000; Cook Academy, N. Y., $12,500; Los Angeles University, Cal., $12,500; Cedar Valley Seminary, Ia., $28,000; Williamsburg Institute, Ky., $35,000; Shurtleff College, Ill., $50,000; Bucknell University, Pa., $100,000; Baylor University, Tex., $55,000; a total involved of $343,000. Of this amount the Society had contributed $62,000 of its own funds. In addition, the Society is erecting a building for Spelman Seminary at Atlanta, Ga., contributing $35.000 from its own funds. A personal gift of Mr. J. D. Rockefeller, of $15,000 is to be added. $642.50 had been paid for extra instruction to Des Moines College, Ia. The outstanding pledges of the Society included $9,000 to Grace Seminary, Wash., towards $45,000, to be for payment of debts, building, and increased endowment; $5.000 to Grand Island College, Neb., toward $20,000 for furnishings, apparatus, and endowment; a further pledge to the Connecticut Literary Institution of $5.000 toward $50,000 increased endowment; $25,000 to Des Moines College, Ia., toward $65,000, of which $50,000 is for increased endowment, and also the salary of the president, and $1,000 for additional instruction secured through the affiliation with the University of Chicago; $15,000 to Baylor University, Tex., conditioned on the extinction of a heavy debt; $5,000 to Wake Forest College toward $25,000 for additional endowment; and $5,000 to McMinnville College, Ore., toward $20,000. According to the policy of the Society some of these amounts are already in process of liquidation.

The contributions of the Society to institutions in the South have aggregated $127,600, distributed among 8 States; in no case has any of these States failed to fulfill the requirements as to local aid, and the amount above stated has secured to the institutions an aggregate of $500,100 in cash or acceptable pledges. In the four years of its active operations, the Society has made pledges aggregating $336,516.66 on terms securing to academies and colleges aided $1,618,816.66. This is exclusive of the work in Chicago.

The Board during the year had adopted the following outline of the policy of the Society:

1. To promote the establishment of schools wherever deemed desirable for the development of a wise and comprehensive educational system, by such co-operation as may be practicable, in securing sites, buildings, and equipment; and in the early stages of such undertakings, by payment, in part, of teachers' salaries. 2. To stimulate effort for the endowment of institutions of learning. 3. To promote a lively interest among Baptists in Christian education, and especially to stimulate our young people to acquire the best education possible. 4. To promote the best education of the Baptist ministry, co-operating whenever advisable with existing organizations for ministerial education, and with our theological institutions in seminary extension work for pastors. 5. To contend for the application of the principle of separation of Church and State in educational matters. 6. To solicit, receive, and hold in trust, permanent funds, the income of which shall be applied to the general purposes of the Society or to the specific educational objects, as designated by donors. 7. To procure, compile, and publish annually the principal facts concerning the condition and progress of the educational enterprises of Baptists in North America.

The report enlarges upon the plans of affiliation of colleges with the University of Chicago, and a supplemental report outlines definitely the propositions made, by which subordinate institutions may become so attached to the University as to profit by its enlarged facilities.

The Treasurer's report shows receipts as follows: Balance from preceding year, $422.32; sundry contributions from churches and individuals, $188.82; payments by Mr. J. D. Rockefeller, on account of pledges, $42,457.79; on special accounts, Spelman Seminary and Des Moines College, $23,267.50; account loans and other items, $8,983.29; a total of $75,319.78. The disbursements were: To various institutions, $37,982.79; Spelman Seminary, new building, $21,000; Western Pennsylvania Institute, trust funds, $1,558.43; other like special items, including interest on trust funds, $8,983.29; special to Des Moines College, two items, $2,192.50; salaries and expenses, $3,529.19; balance to next year, $1,642.01. There are trust funds held by the Treasurer, belonging to two institutions, now amounting to $6,842.54.

The printed proceedings of the Society contain two prize essays: one on "The Duty of Christian Parents Concerning the Higher Education of their Children," by Rev. A. S. Carman, Ann Arbor, Mich.; and one on "The Duty of Young People to Obtain the Best Education Possible," by T. G. Brownson, D. D., McMinnville, Ore.

The meetings of the Society are arranged for by the Executive Board, generally alternating between the meetings of the Southern Baptist Convention and the anniversaries of the General Societies. In 1894, in all probability, therefore, the meeting will be held with the latter, although care should be taken to note the published advertisements of the meetings just before they are held.

Young People's Union.

Principles and Progress.

This new organization is designed to provide a fraternal union for all young people's organizations in the Baptist churches of North America. It was effected in the city of Chicago, Ill., at a convention called for the purpose, which met July 7, 8, 1891. It holds a yearly meeting. Delegates to the convention are appointed by regular Baptist churches, directly where such churches have no special young people's organization, or indirectly where the churches have authorized departments for young people's work—in which case the young people's societies name representatives whose credentials must be certified by an officer of the church. It is, therefore, a strictly representative body, closely related to the local Baptist churches sending delegates to meet in this Convention. The Convention is purely for conference and inspiration in this particular line of work. It has no legislative function; it does not, therefore, undertake to determine under what particular name or method the local church shall in any case conduct its work for young people. No special form of young people's organization is imposed as a condition of representation.

The Third International Convention.

The Second International Convention occurred at Detroit, Mich., July 14, 15, 16, 17, 1892. Four thousand one hundred and seventeen duly authorized delegates were enrolled, representing nearly every State and Territory in the United States and most of the Provinces of Canada. The Third International Convention occurred at Indianapolis, July 13, 14, 15, 16, 1893. On account of the distractions of the World's Fair, and the refusal of the railroads in many parts of the country to grant special rates, the representation present was reduced to 3,500, but in other respects the Convention was a distinct advance upon its predecessors, and the reports received from the continental field occupied by the Union, indicate a great widening of influence and intensification of conviction in favor of young people's organization—a conviction moreover that the training of Baptist young people should be committed, in accordance with the time-honored custom of Baptists, to a distinctive denominational leadership, in the local church, in the Association, in the State, and in the nation.

The exercises consisted of addresses of welcome by E. M. Stephenson, representing the Baptist Young People's Societies of Indianapolis, and Rev. W. F. Taylor on behalf of the Baptist churches of the city. Responses were made on behalf of the four great continental divisions, as follows: for the Green (Southern States), Rev. L. L. Henson; for the Blue (Northern States west of the Mississippi), Prof. L. D. Inskeep; for the Gold (Northern States east of the Mississippi), Rev. George E. Horr, Jr.; for the Red (Canada), Rev. Donald Grant.

The Annual Report of the Board of Managers was presented by F. L. Wilkins, D. D., general secretary. It was moved and seconded by two addresses: "The Movement and the Local Church," by J. B. Gambrell, D. D., of Georgia; "Our Federation and the Future of our Baptist Churches in America," by P. S. Henson, D. D., of Illinois. Other addresses given during the Convention were as follows: "Religious Liberty, the Trophy of the Baptists," by H. M. King, D. D., of Rhode Island; "The Perils of the Republic from a Christian Standpoint," by T. J. Morgan, D. D., of New York; "The Boys' Brigade," by Rev. M. R. Deming, of New York; "Fidelity to our Denominational Literature," by Rev. R. R. McKay, of Ontario; "The Vision of Christ as Outlined in the Great Commission." Three addresses: (a) "Its Scope," by Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes, of Pennsylvania; (b) "Its Motive," by Mornay Williams, Esq., of New York; (c) "Its Prophecy," by Rev. Wm. M. Upcraft, of China. Practical discussions were led in addresses as follows: on "The Monthly Symposium, or Educational Meeting," by David Spencer, D. D., of Wisconsin; on "Junior Work," by A. M. Brinckle, of Pennsylvania; on "Local Young People's Work," by J. S. Tustin, of Missouri; on "Federative Work Associational, State, Provincial, and International," by J. O. Staples, of Illinois; on "The Conquest, or Missionary Meeting," by Rev. Frank S Dobbins, of Pennsylvania; on "Our Lesser Federation—their Benefits and their Needs;" (a) "The Suburban Union," by Norman G. Lennington, of Illinois; (b) "The City Union," by A. L. Bates, of Missouri; (c) "The State or Provincial Union," by W. H. Merritt, of Michigan. President John H.

Chapman gave an address whose scriptural theme was, "Commit thy way unto the Lord and he shall direct thy paths." The Convention Sermon was delivered by A. C. Dixon, D. D., of New York, from Rev. 5: 12, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain."

The sessions of the Convention were held in Tomlinson Hall, an auditory seating nearly 5,000 people. The place was appropriately decorated with statements indicating the educational progress of the Baptists during a century, our denominational progress of a century, and "a century of missionary progress from a Baptist beginning." There was also displayed a complete outline in chart form of the Christian Culture Courses and missionary banners in beautiful profusion. Each session of the Convention showed a new arrangement of the decorations of the room in keeping with the particular theme of each session. Special features of the Convention were the early morning prayer meetings attended by many and characterized by great fervor, and the "Salutation of the Flags," a cermony of recognition to the representatives of the 29 States and provincial unions affiliated with the international body, with speeches from the representatives. Nearly every State represented held a rally of its own at a separate time between the sessions of the Convention.

Four meetings were held on the evening of Saturday, the 16th, known as the meetings of the colors, the main Convention holding no session that evening. The color meetings were largely attended, and considered matters pertinent to the particular portion of the field represented in each. A junior rally was held on Sunday afternoon, the 17th inst., in the First Baptist Church, attended by a great company of boys and girls from the Baptist Sunday-schools of Indianapolis, and as many of the delegates of the Convention as could be accommodated. Interesting addresses were made by Boston W. Smith, of Minnesota; Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, of Illinois, and others. The adoption of an advisory constitution for the organization of junior societies was one of the particular results of the Convention.

Christian Culture Courses.

The announcement of a complete educational system for local organizations of Baptist young people, known as the Christian Culture Courses, was the notable feature of the Convention. The courses are three in number, as follows: Bible study, missionary study, and general religious investigation. The courses are known as the Bible Readers' Course, the Conquest Missionary Course, and the Sacred Literature Course. The conductors for 1893-94 are as follows: Bible Readers' Course, in charge of Prof. Ira M. Price, Ph. D., of the University of Chicago, and David Spencer, D. D., Racine, Wisconsin; Conquest Missionary Course, in charge of Mrs. Sophie Bronson Titterington, the well known missionary author; Sacred Literature Course, in charge of Mr. Henry C. Vedder, author of a popular history of the Baptists. The object of these courses is training for Christian service. Twenty minutes a day of home study will permit any one to follow the courses without difficulty. The requirements are the reading of a chapter a day in the Bible, and about five columns per week in the Missionary and Sacred Literature departments of the Young People's Union. Side light readings in general literature are suggested but not required. Examinations will be provided for those who desire to enter. Certificates will be given to the successful examinees, and three prize banners to those State or Provincial Unions showing respectively the best record in each of the three courses, no competitor to receive more than one banner at the same convention. The three courses are intended to cover four years. The following is the curriculum: Bible Readers' Course.—1st year, historical books; 2nd year, poetical books; 3rd year, epistolary books; 4th year, prophetical books. Conquest Missionary Course.—1st year, "Convictions and Beginnings"; 2nd year, "Means and Methods"; 3rd year, "Fields and Forces"; 4th year, "Trials and triumphs." Sacred Literature Course.—1st year, "Preparation for Messiah"; 2nd year, "Christ in the Flesh"; 3rd year, "The Dawn of Christianity"; 4th year, "Struggles for Distinctive Principles."

Financial.

The total receipts for the year were $24,-239.25; the general sources of these receipts were as follows: Subscriptions to the paper, $10,006.86; advertising, $2,607.96; badges, $1,827.18; printed supplies, $1,578.85; Founding Fund, $7,174.47.

The Founding Fund was originally planned for the purpose of raising $25,000 to cover necessary loans incident to the purchase of the Young People's Union from the American Baptist Publication Society, which cost $14,-000, and also to supply necessary funds for opening a headquarters at Chicago, the putting forth of the necessary literature of agitation to bring the movement to the knowledge of Baptist churches, also to cover the immediate expenses of officers' salaries, traveling expenses, etc. The expense, however, which the continental breadth of the movement has involved, has proven that $25,000 is an insufficient foundation for so broad a work. The plans, therefore, have been enlarged, and the present purpose is to raise $50,000 for the founding of the Union.

It is not the purpose of the Union to make its work another regular dependency upon denominational benevolence, hence earnest effort is being made by development of the local supplies department, and the increase of subscriptions to the Young People's Union, and the inauguration of a book order department from which the young people may order any necessary literature for the prosecution of their particular work, to lay broad foundations for the support of the Union. It seems entirely feasible to make the work in the near future cover its own necessary expenses. To this end, however, it is necessary to raise a proper Founding Fund to supply the Union with its needed working machinery.

In order to encourage the raising of this necessary amount to found the organization, a beautiful certificate will be given to the individuals and societies who will subscribe, recognizing their contributions to the Founding Fund. These mementos will one day constitute noble monuments to the faith of those who stood together in the founding of this important branch of our denominational work. Resolutions were passed at the Indianapolis Convention, urging all our churches and young people's societies to lend a helping hand in raising the Founding Fund.

Next International Convention.

The next International Convention will be held at Toronto, Ont., July 19, 20, 21, 22, 1894.

Anniversary.

The Twenty-second Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Providence, R. I., April 19, 20, 1893. Besides the devotional exercises, reports, and business, addresses were given by several returned missionaries. There was a memorial service for missionaries and home-workers who had died during the year. Five ladies gave brief addresses on topics relating to the work of the Home Department. Miss F. Dunklee spoke on "The Use of the Literature of the Society." Mrs. S. A. Ellis recited an original poem on "Woman's Debt to Christ." Six missionaries under appointment were presented. A meeting for young women was conducted by Miss Ida Hunneman, and was addressed by Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, Mrs. W. M. Carleton, and two of the missionary candidates. At the Secretaries' meeting many topics of practical importance were considered ity funds, $40; transferred to account of House for Bible Study, as designated by donors, $1,650; reserved to meet obligations of centennial year, $34,000; balance to new account, $185.85. The receipts for Home for Missionaries' Children were $1 476.22; balance from previous year, $30.50; expenditures, $1,488.64; balance, $18.08.

The record of receipts and expenditures of the House for Bible Study was destroyed by the burning of Tremont Temple, but the balance, March 20, was $105.13; later receipts, $160; expenditures, $22.60; balance, $242.52. The endowment fund of the Home for Children of Missionaries is now $2,434.87. Other invested funds amount to $16,686.62, of which $1,500 are annuity funds on which interest is paid during the lives of the donors.

Home Department.

Statistics for Eastern and Middle Atlantic States: 41,591 contributors in 1,435 churches, besides 119 circles of young ladies, with 2,169 members, and 606 children's bands, with 11,719 members. The Board had held 20 meetings. Five missionaries had returned to the United States on furlough, one had resigned, two had returned to their stations, and five new missionaries had been sent out. Five young women had studied at Newton Theological Institution in preparation for the foreign field. Seventeen children of missionaries are in the Home. There had been 11 new publications issued and 28 reprints. The monthly letter had been sent to all the circles. The circulation of the "Helping Hand" is now 22,973, an increase of 472. The list of the King's Messengers having been burned, the statistics cannot be given.

Foreign Department.

There are now under this Society 58 missionaries, 8 under appointment, 129 Bible women, 321 schools, 9,730 pupils; the baptisms reported for the year were 815. The force is distributed as follows. Anniversary.

The Twenty-second Anniversary was held in the First Church, Minneapolis, Minn., April 19, 20, 1893. An opening Scripture reading on the subject, "Thy Will Be Done," and Scripture expositions on various passages, gave direction and power to the devotional exercises of the different sessions. The music was uplifting, the reports encouraging, and the discussions practical. The duties and difficulties of associational work were set forth by those who had experience in this department. "Methods in Mission Bands," under three heads: Leaders, Lessons, and Incentives, brought out helpful hints. The subject of "Giving" was considered, the motive, the frequency, and the obligation from the high Bible standard. Missionary addresses were made by Miss Parker of China, Miss Fife of Japan, Miss Eastman of Burma, and Rev. Wm. Upcraft of Western China. Mrs. Sweet, Wisconsin, read a paper on "Of Whom the World was not Worthy." District Secretary Peterson made an address. The Children's Band, conducted by Miss Katherine Kidder, showed thorough training. The Young Ladies' evening was well filled with reports and addresses covering work both at home and abroad.

Home Department.

The nineteen States which compose the constituency of this Society, embrace Ohio on the east, and Washington, Utah, and Colorado on the west, with the intervening States. There are 1,317 circles, 368 young people's societies, and 311 children's bands actively at work.

Financial.

The total receipts for the year were $58,807.60. The expenditures in the Home Department were $6,576.96, and in the Foreign Department, $51,047.72. A small balance is left in the treasury.

Missions and Missionaries.

Four new missionaries were sent abroad and two were returned to resume their work. Three came home on account of failing health. There had been a total of 43 missionaries, who, in addition to evangelistic work, maintained 60 schools, directed 40 Bible women, and 91 baptisms were reported. The following is the digest of operations.

Anniversary.

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting was held at Denver, Col., May 22, 23, 1893. The first session was mainly a symposium of State and associational officers. During the second session, were heard the address of welcome by Mrs. F. I. Smith, the annual address of the president, and the reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer. The third session was devoted to the interests of the Baptist Missionary Training School at Chicago, and the Missionary Training Department of Shaw University. The fourth session was given mainly to reports of committees and the election of officers. The fifth session comprised a map exercise, calling attention to the fields occupied by the society, addresses by missionaries representing Utah, the Blanket Indians, the colored people, and the West; discussions on the topics, "Our Children" and "Our Young People." The closing session consisted mainly of two addresses, "Pioneer Days," and "Attainment and Outlook." The recommendation of the Executive Board to enlarge the work by increasing the number of missionaries to 100, and the amount in the general fund to $60,000 was adopted.

The Annual Report.

The total number of adult societies or branches, reported at this meeting was 1,838; the number of mission bands, 481; thus making a constituency of 2,319. Growing interest among children's training and work is still reported. In the Missionary Garden Band there are now enrolled 171 boys and girls. Baby Band now contains 2,580 little ones, and their contributions again had sustained a teacher for six months.

The number of missionaries employed during the year was 92, distributed as follows: Afro-American, 18 stations, 38 missionaries; Chinese, 1 station, 4 missionaries; Bohemians, 1 station and missionary; Germans, 9 stations, 15 missionaries; Jews, 1 station and missionary; Danes and Norwegians, 6 stations, 5 missionaries; Swedes, 9 stations, 8 missionaries; Indians, 6 stations, 9 missionaries; Mexicans, 6 stations, 5 missionaries; Mormons, 1 station and missionary; the West, 8 stations, 8 missionaries; apparent total, 67 stations, 95 missionaries, but through duplication the true total is 92 missionaries. These laborers had served 2,507 weeks; made 52,702 religious visits, 18,087 religious conversations, besides the visits; held 2,882 Bible and teachers' meetings; 3,961 industrial schools and children's meetings; organized 73 Sunday-schools, and labored in 2,770; conducted 1,784 young people's meetings, 2,029 women's meetings, 13,515 missionary meetings, and 588 temperance meetings; organized 19 temperance societies, induced 655 to sign the pledge, and conducted 8,450 general meetings other than those described and including Sabbath services; there were 152 days spent in work on Ellis Island.

Financial.

The receipts in the general fund, which includes the administrative and missionary departments, were $50,849.48, and the disbursements were $49,041.82, leaving a balance of $1,807.66. Of the training school funds, the receipts for current expense and students' aid were $9,141.55; of this amount, $5,452.74 had been paid by students for board, and the remainder represents $280.00 interest on invested funds, and $3,408.81 contributed by friends personally or in collections at meetings held in the interest of the institution; to be applied toward the support of students unable to meet their expenses in full. The disbursements in this department were $8,037.90, leaving a balance of $1,825.71. In the building fund proper, the receipts had been $6,148.14, and in addition, $198.37 had been given toward furnishing. The disbursements were: to liquidate indebtedness on the building, $5,432.34; for furnishing, $182.51; leaving a balance of $90.83. The total receipts from all sources and for all purposes, including balances at commencement of year, had been $67,059.60, and the total disbursements, $63,355.40, with small balances in each department.

Co-operation.

Under the plan of co-operation with the American Baptist Home Mission Society, $1,195.00 had been paid to appointees of this Society in its schools toward the support of beneficiaries and in specific contributions to other branches of work. In accordance with the plan of co-operation with State and Territorial Conventions on the frontier, the auxiliaries of the Society had paid into their respective treasuries, $6,127.98; the total contributions through these channels were $7,322.98.

Publications.

"Tidings" had reached a circulation of 11,800, "Home Mission Lessons for Boys and Girls" had been printed in pamphlet form, and had become increasingly popular. A post-graduate series of lessons had also been published and received with favor. A total of 6,007,349 pages of literature had been published or purchased during the year, of which 5,194,451 pages had been sold or otherwise distributed.

The Training School.

The enrollment during the year had been, seniors 23, juniors 33, a total of 56. Of the seniors two had left before the close of the year to engage in missionary service, and two chose elective courses, leaving 19 in the graduating class of June, 1893. Of the 13 who had graduated in 1892, 7 were English speaking, 5 Germans, including a German Jewess and 1 Norwegian; all were promptly engaged, 7 by the Society itself, 1 by the other Women's Home Mission Society, 1 by the Chicago City Mission, 3 as church missionaries, and 1 as an assistant in a training school elsewhere, who is now under appointment as a missionary for China. In the Missionary Training Department at Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., an enrollment of 10 was reported; of these 3 were taking a full and 7 a partial course.

Next Anniversary.

The next anniversary is to be arranged for by the Executive Board, and will be announced in due time.

Anniversary.

The Fifteenth Annual Meeting was held with the Temple Church, Dorchester, Mass., May 3, 4, 1893. The enrollment committee reported 321 in attendance. An interesting worker's meeting preceded the regular sessions. After reports from vice-presidents, T. J. Morgan, D. D., addressed the meeting upon "The Relation of Roman Catholics to Indian Education." Mrs. G. F. Genung read a paper on "Our Life, a Stewardship." The evening session was in charge of young ladies. Miss Mary L. Howard presided. Brief addresses were made by Miss A. E. Stedman, on "Giving"; and Miss Ellen Potter, on "How Shall we Arouse our Young People"? The character of the work in Alaska and in New York City was described by missionaries there engaged. Miss Canie, under appointment to Alaska, spoke on "Consecration of Self to Mission Work." Papers were presented by Mrs. W. S. Apsey, upon "Our Heathen at Home"; Mrs. A. P. Potter, on "Girls and Missions"; Mrs. Edwin S. Small, on "Unchristian Treatment of Chinese in Christian America"; and a closing address was made by Rev. H. O. Hiscox, on "The Vitality of Missionary Endeavor."

Financial.

Fifty thousand dollars had been asked for at the preceding annual meeting, but as the Foreign Society was pressing its call for $200,000, the Board had deemed it unwise to urge the collection of so large a sum. Yet $41,000 had been received, which is the largest amount in the history of the Society; these receipts were from Maine, $2,912.12; New Hampshire, $1,613.78; Vermont, $1,071.05; Massachusetts, $14,208.33; Rhode Island, $2,488.93; Connecticut, $2,711.67; miscellaneous, $13,086.84. For the Alaskan orphanage, there had been specified $3,709.74. The disbursements for the year were $38,321.23.

The Work.

There had been maintained 12 teachers at the Spelman Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., and 3 others in its missionary training school; in this seminary there had been enrolled 752. At Mather Industrial School, Beaufort, S. C., there were 4 teachers who taught 180 pupils. At Hartshorn Memorial School, Richmond, Va., 3 teachers, with 120 pupils. At the State University, Louisville, Ky., 2 teachers with 120 pupils. At Roger Williams University, Nashville, Tenn., 1 teacher. At the Bible and Normal Institute, Memphis, Tenn., 2 teachers. Two teachers were sustained at Howe Institute, New Iberia, La.; Selma, Ala.; and the Baptist Academy, Atoka, Ind. Ter. One teacher each at Wayland Seminary, Washington, D. C.; Peachland, N. C.; Florida Baptist Academy; Winton, N. C.; Indian University, Anadarko and Muscogee, Ind. Ter.; Ogden and Provo, Utah; Fresno and Sacramento, Cal.; Butte, Mont.; Cadaretta, Jimines, and Santa Rosa, Mexico. Three were maintained at Dawes Academy, at Berwin, Ind. Ter. One missionary was posted at the Morning Star Mission, New York City.

President of the Foreign Board of the Southern Convention; Rev. J. V. Cova, one of the missionaries in Cuba; J. M. Frost, D. D., Tenn.; Rev. A. J. Diaz, Cuba; and papers were read on the following topics: work among "Colored Women and Children"; "Foreign Populations"; "New Orleans"; "Woman in Japan"; "Progress of Work in China"; "Needs of Italy"; "Needs of Africa"; "Missionary Intelligence Essential to Missionary Zeal"; "The Prayer Calendar"; "Band Work"; and the various reports of the work by State secretaries. The work outlined for the coming year was decided to be an effort to sustain the women workers on the foreign field; the Christmas offering to be for Japan; the introduction of "Missionary Day" in the Sunday-schools, cooperating with the Sunday-school Board; the continuation of supplies to home missionaries on the frontier; the sustaining of teachers and pupils in Cuba; and the prosecution of missionary work under the home board among foreigners arriving at the southern ports and other foreign resident peoples.

The Annual Report.

The efforts for the year had included the general work and the special centennial efforts among Sunday-schools especially. The correspondence had, in consequence, increased over 400 per cent. The statistics are; letters written, 17,718; postals, 866; leaflets, pamphlets, etc., distributed, 210,593; mission prayer cards, 20,878; chapel cards, 91,208; centennial certificates, 3,414; centennial Children's Day programmes and supplements, 88,967; Christmas envelopes, 81,406; return postal cards, 10,205; mite barrels, 5,456. In this is included a large amount of new literature published by the Society, and issued direct to pastors and others. The Christmas offering for Japan had amounted to $5,068.82, obtained through the distribution of 81,406 envelopes and 7,495 programmes, at an expense of $282.37. The boxes to frontier missionaries had been 130 in number, as an aggregate valuation of $8,224.79. The work among foreign populations had been pressed principally at Baltimore, and among the German and French peoples. The work of the chapel cards was directed toward the Cuban work, and attention had been given to female education in that island.

Financial.

The total receipts for all forms of missions as reported by the treasurer were: from Alabama, $6,198.33; Arkansas, $4,311.32; Florida, $3,996.04; Georgia, $22,081.21; Kentucky, $3,400.37; Louisiana, $2,060.78; Maryland, $10,296.34; Missouri, $4,920.88; Mississippi, $9,997.07; North Carolina, $4,729 36; South Carolina, $9,145.89; Tennessee, $12,074.87; Texas, $11,647.29; Virginia, $7,190.00; other sources, $585.80; a grand total of $112,635.55. These are divided partially: for foreign missions, through the foreign board, $36,052.78; home missions, through the home board, $26,283.97; a total for missions of these characters of $62,336.75. The expenses of this Society are derived from contributions from the Home and Foreign Boards of the Convention, and deduction of expenses from any special funds that may be undertaken; these aggregated $1,475.47; the disbursements were for printing, stationery, expressage, and postage, and incidentals, $1,379.53; leaving a balance of $95.94. There are no salaried officers; the only item in this direction being $524.58 for clerk and typewriting.

It would be interesting to know the number of constituent societies and bands, but this is not given in the report. In only a few of the States is the number of new societies given.

Next Anniversary.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Dallas, Tex., in May, 1894, in connection with the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention.

tions were: For home missions, $4,338.14; foreign missions, $2,100.16; education, $1,434.98; total contributions, including current expenses, $69,033.50. There were 78 Sunday-schools reported, with 983 officers and teachers, and 6,925 pupils.

The next session is to be held at Buffalo, New York, September 12, 1894, and Rev. W. Roeber was appointed as preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Central Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

REV. S. FRIEDRICH, Cleveland, O.

Clerk.

REV. A. VOGEL, Peoria, Ill.

The Thirteenth Annual Session was held with the Third German Church, Detroit, Mich., September 13–18, 1893. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. R. Stracke, of Ohio, from Ps. 145: 13. This Conference comprises 37 churches, of which 22 reported 238 baptisms; the entire membership is 3,761, a gain of 458 over the previous year. The contributions reported were: For home missions, $2,174.83; foreign missions, $748.96; education, $428.09; entire amount raised for all purposes, $44,846.36. The Sunday-schools reported were 34, with 3,626 scholars, and 13 missions, with 865 scholars. Two new churches had been organized. An aggressive mission work is carried on in connection with the American Baptist Home Mission Society.

The next session is to be held at Peoria, Ill., in September, 1894, and the Introductory Sermon is to be delivered by Rev. V. Furkel, of Chicago.

The Northwestern Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

REV. J. H. MOEHLMANN, Racine, Wis.

Clerk.

REV. R. J. HACK, St. Paul, Minn.

The Thirteenth Annual Session was held at Aplington, Ia., September 20–25, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Merkel, of Wisconsin. The 55 churches comprising this body were largely represented; 35 reported 384 baptisms. The entire membership is 4,474, a clear gain of 472 over the previous year. Four new churches had been organized. A general missionary had been in the field, whose labors were highly successful. Many new fields had been opened; yet there are many more in the great Northwest, which strongly appeal to the mission Board. The contributions were: For home missions, $2,432.68; foreign missions, $803.90; education, $333.72; total contributions, including current expenses, $38,634.70. There are 76 Sunday-schools, with 502 officers and teachers, and 3,435 pupils.

The next session is to be held at Berlin, near Eureka, North Dakota, beginning Sept. 12, 1894, and the Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. J. Schulz, of Minnesota.

The Southwestern Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

REV. D. FRANCHEL, Beatrice, Neb.

Clerk.

REV. J. H. PASTORET, Lorraine, Kan.

The Thirteenth Annual Session was held at Concordia, Mo., September 20–25, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was delivered by Rev. R. Macholz, Iowa, from Ps. 63: 8. There are 46 churches in this conference, 33 of which reported 339 baptisms; the total membership is 3,172, showing a gain of 448 during the year. New churches were reported in California and Oklahoma. The contributions were: For home missions, $1,426.08; foreign missions, $1,249.93; education, $443.45; the total contributions for all purposes were $30,069.31. There are 59 Sunday-schools, with 426 teachers, and 2,175 scholars. A general missionary had been laboring within the boundaries of this Conference with good results.

The next session is to be held at Ellinwood, Kansas, beginning October 10, 1894. The Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. W. Herrmann, of Missouri.

The Texas Conference.

OFFICERS.

Moderator.

REV. F. J. PETEREIT, Waco, Tex.

Clerk.

REV. H. C. GLEISS, Houston, Tex.

The Tenth Annual Session was held at Greenvine, Washington Co., Texas, July 27–30, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. G. Peitsch, from John 14: 26. The number of churches in this Conference is 13; only 5 reported baptisms, 14 in all. The entire membership is 518, a gain of 30. Several new pastors have entered the field, and there is a hopeful spirit prevalent above anything in the past. The contributions were: For home missions, $305.65; foreign missions, $204.50; education, $55.10; the entire contributions were $5,099.35.

The next session is to be held at Kyle, beginning Wednesday, July 25, 1894, and the Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Rev. F. J. Petereit.

Summary.

The five German Conferences show: 212 churches; 1,345 baptisms, which is esteemed a ground for much thanksgiving; 18,525 members; 260 Sunday-schools, including missions, with an attendance of 18,937; contributions for home missions, $10,677.38; foreign missions, $5,107.45; education, $2,695.34; total contributions for all purposes, $187,683.22.

The Fourteenth Anniversary was held in Washington, September, 1893. The Board made an excellent report of work done for the year. The report records the sad effects of the war in Africa, the flight of the missionaries for safety from the Vey territory, and the destruction of mission property. Rev. J. J. Coles and wife had returned to America, and since this meeting he had died. The report also speaks of the successful labors of Rev. J. O. Hayes, and gives a minute and interesting account of the action of the Board in regard to the Bahamas Baptist Union. Mr. Daniel Wishers, superintendent of this mission, had appeared before the meeting at Savannah, in 1892, and expressed the wish of these brethren to come into co-operation with the Convention. In December, 1892, four congregations in the New Providence Island, and fourteen congregations in the Island of Exuma, sent letters expressive of their desire for affiliation and help. The matter was left pending, and the action of the Board is to be taken after a thorough investigation is had.

The receipts from all sources for the work of the Convention were $5,590. It was decided to increase the missionary force in Africa, and to open a mission in the Luvitiku District, on the Congo, and to appoint Rev. J. E. Ricketts and wife, and a single lady as an assistant missionary, and Rev. R. A. Jackson, of Arkansas, as workers in this field, if all the way is made clear, both of the adaptation to the work, and means for sending out are secured.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at Montgomery, Alabama, beginning Thursday, September 13, 1894.

The Nineteenth Anniversary was held at Norwich, Conn., June 14-19, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. S. H. Browne, Mass., from Romans 1: 14.

From the report of the Board of Managers, there are three districts from which reports were received. We are not told the geographical boundaries of these. In the first district, there had been no missionary appointed, but the former mission stations had become self-supporting; how many, or where they are, does not appear. In the second district, there are 87 stations, some of which do not require further aid; 4 missionaries were in service; they had preached 140 sermons, attended 216 prayer meetings, baptized 10 persons, and made 1,020 visits; amount collected on field, $256.75; to this is added $169.73 as received in collections otherwise. In the third district, which includes New Jersey, it would appear that disintegration is setting in, and allusion is made to the organization of another body. There was no report from the fourth district.

The treasurer had received $904.76, of which $619.36 were from balance and receipts at last annual meeting. All of this was disbursed, save a balance of $85.09. The disbursements included $205.55 for missionary work, and $24 for educational work, the rest being taken up for incidental matters. The Widows' Fund had received $284.70, which was from balance on hand and interest, and $41.25 received at last meeting. The payments were $75.94.

No progress had been made in the establishment of a Baptist school. The Foreign Mission Department had been organized and an appropriation had been made of $50 to the help of a missionary in Africa.

During the sessions, an auxiliary Sunday-school convention was organized, with Geo. N. Quarles, New York, N. Y., as president, and J. M. Joyner, Providence, R. I., as corresponding secretary. There were a number of sermons preached at various times, and the meeting seems to have been enthusiastic and successful.

The next meeting is to be held with the Concord Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., beginning Thursday, June 14, 1894. Rev. C. H. Garlick was appointed as the preacher of the Introductory Sermon.

Anniversary.

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held in the meeting house of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa., October 17th, 1893.

The Secretary called the meeting to order, and Rev. Richard B. Cook was requested to preside. Dr. Benj. Griffith and Rev. James French led the Society in its devotions.

Lemuel Moss, D.D, of Minnesota, delivered a most thoughtful and timely address before a large audience. He chose as his theme, "The Historical Value of Contemporary Documents." Among other things he said: Not a popular theme. Cannot appeal to the great body of our membership; but surely our pastors and thoughtful people appreciate it. More than most any other people, the Baptists have suffered by the destruction of contemporary documents during the Reformation and prior to it. They are now being discovered to some extent and studied, and Anabaptists of the 15th and 16th centuries are beginning to take on very different colors and characters in the eyes of the world. These documents are letters, pamphlets, apologies, monographs, insignificant enough in the estimate of friend and foe when produced, but priceless now. Many ancient questions will be settled by the spade. That documents be contemporary much more important for historical value than that they be true or of a high literary merit. Post apostolic writers, valueless as theologians or ecclesiastics, but invaluable as witnesses to the usages of their day and the current reasons for them. Date should be given to all books, pamphlets. Great oversight in our religious book societies. Preserve denominational and other books, pamphlets, letters, coins, medals, memorials, however trivial and however partisan, send them all to the American Baptist Historical Society.

The report of the Board referred tenderly to the death of Hon. Horatio Gates Jones, so closely identified with the Society.

The report also said, "that each incoming Board has carefully and prayerfully considered the possibilities of a permanent and fire-proof building. The importance of the position which the Society occupies in our denominational life, is regarded by all as exceedingly great. Great is the loss which is being sustained from the valuable books which our brethren have written, but which cannot be recovered. We cannot afford to be unblessed with the piety, the learning and experience constantly accumulating in the lives of our consecrated men and women. The loss that has been suffered in the past by the destruction of valuable archives, urges the erection of a fire-proof building for our exceedingly valuable collection. We solicit your prayers and individual gifts in bringing about this purpose, for which so many have prayed and labored."

The additions to the library since last report have been: Minutes, 1,459; pamphlets, catalogues, and reports, 66; bound volumes, 23, making present number of bound volumes, 7,500. Total receipts, $613.96; investments: building fund, $2,500; other funds, $1,500; interest of the latter only to be used for expenses.

General Committee.

J. B. Thomas, D. D., Chairman.
Rev. Walter Rauschenbusch, Secretary.

The General Committee comprises about 150 names of contributing members—Baptist ministers and laymen.

Plan of Organization.

The object of the Congress is to promote a healthful sentiment among Baptists through free and courteous discussion of current questions by suitable persons. The work of the Congress is subject to the control of the General Committee, which is composed of persons who have consented to contribute $5 or more annually toward the expenses of the Congress. The General Committee elects a permanent Executive Committee of 15 persons residing in or near the city of New York, and to this Executive Committee is entrusted entire control over the public meetings, and the securing of a full stenographic report of the proceedings. The General Committee meets in connection with the public meetings, and when called together by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee secures the appointment of a Local Committee in the city or town where the public meeting is to be held, which is to provide a suitable place for the Congress, entertainment for the officers and appointees of the Congress. Any member of a Baptist congregation may become an annual member of this Congress, and thus be entitled to all its privileges, and to a copy of the published proceedings, by the payment of the sum of $2.

Rules of Discussion.

The chairman of the Congress is appointed by the Executive Committee, and on all points of order his decision is final. Any member of a Baptist congregation who, by sending his card to the secretary, shall signify his willingness to speak on the topic under discussion, may be called upon by the chairman. All writers and speakers take the platform, address only the chair, and confine themselves to the subject assigned for the occasion. No person speaks twice on the same subject. Readers of papers are allowed 25 minutes, appointed speakers 25 minutes, and volunteer speakers 10 minutes. The secretary notifies all participants by stroke of bell 3 minutes before, and also at the expiration of their time, beyond which no one is allowed to proceed. No resolutions or motions are entertained at the public conferences.

Eleventh Annual Session.

The Eleventh Session was held in the First Church, Augusta, Ga., December 5-7, 1893. The topics discussed were: 1. "The Church and the Money Power," by Rev. W. H. P Faunce, New York, and Rev. Walter Rauschenbusch, New York. 2. "Emotionalism in Religion," Rev. John Lipscomb Johnson, LL. D., Mississippi, Theo. A. K. Gessler, D. D., New York. 3. "Shall our Young People be Organized for Christian Work?" Mr. Henry C. Vedder, New York, J. B. Gambrell, D. D., Georgia. 4. "What Constitutes Valid Baptism?" J. Judson Taylor, D. D., Alabama, Rev. E. B. Pollard, Ph. D., Virginia, and J. B. Moody, D. D., Kentucky. 5. "Ethical versus Forensic Conceptions of Salvation," Rev. C. S. Gardner, Tennessee, Rev. R. G. Boville, Ontario, Rev. Geo. E. Horr, Jr., Massachusetts. 6. "The Indwelling Christ," Rev. Carter Helm Jones, Kentucky. Closing words were spoken by the pastor of the church, and the sessions concluded with a complimentary banquet at the Hotel Bonair, by the Local Committee and the citizens of Augusta.

Publications.

The proceedings of the Baptist Congress are published annually, giving in pamphlet form the papers, discussions, and addresses. Price, 50 cents. Copies may be obtained from the Corresponding Secretary, or from the branch offices of the Publication Society.

The Seventy-second Anniversary was held at Greenville, Nov. 7–9, 1893. There were present 77 delegates from 44 churches, and 52 delegates from 27 Associations, in all 96, besides 12 enrolled visitors. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. J. L. Lawless, from Gal. 2: 15, 16.

The Board of Missions reported the employment of 48 missionaries, who had rendered 8,704 days of service; traveled 27,626 miles; delivered 2,961 sermons and addresses; constituted 8 churches; baptized 344 persons, and 717 added otherwise; organized 41 Sunday-schools, 12 women's societies, and 34 prayer meetings; supplied 64 out-stations; distributed 10,856 pages of tracts; commenced 13 meeting houses, and finished 2 others; collected for church building and repairs, $7,254.20, and for missions and other beneficence, $1,612.78. The work had been prosecuted in several large centers of influence, and much evangelistic work had been done in the country districts; attention had also been given to similar work among the colored population, mostly by colored ministers. In 14 Associations effective colportage work had been done, sustained by a number of permanent funds for this purpose, now aggregating $2,464.82. The secretary of missions had superintended the centennial movement in the State whereby $14,595.22 had been secured for that purpose. The Board had handled funds designated for the following purposes: State missions, $9,210.62; home missions, $5,584.54; foreign missions, $8,382.81; ministerial education and Howard College, $411.40; aged and infirm ministers, $387.72; church erection, $533.59; Bible and colportage work, $539.52; Orphanage, $49.21; a total of $24,801.41. All contributions for home and foreign missions are not sent through this channel, for $8,267.40 was reported contributed for home missions, and $10,854.42 for foreign missions; so that for the three items of home, foreign, and State missions the grand total would be $27,867.32. In the department of colportage, the available funds, including donations of boxes and literature, and balance from preceding year, were $4,143.97. The 8 colporteurs had given 833 days of service, traveled 5,746 miles, visited 2,312 families, preached 677 sermons, delivered 107 Sunday-school addresses, supplied 162 families who were destitute of the Bible, sold 1,152 copies of Scriptures, and distributed 9,000 pages of tracts; the amount of sales was $1,476.42, and the expense account, including salary of the secretary, was $1,665.04.

The Board of Ministerial Education reported a lack of funds, and the existence of a debt of $700, and a determination, under the circumstances, to act on no application for help until the decision of the Convention could be had; notwithstanding, there were 25 students at Howard College, 20 of whom were aided, and 7 at the seminary, and 2 in academies, making 29 aided at the sessions preceding the meeting of the Convention. There were 15 at Howard College expecting aid, 6 at home waiting for encouragement to attend college, 3 applying for aid at the seminary, and 2 in academies, a total of 26. Contributions amounting to $2,443.93 had been received, which had been disbursed in the early part of the conventional year in the aid of students.

The Board of Trustees of Howard College reported enrolled 159 students, and a teaching force of 7 professors; the last graduating class was the largest in the history of the college, being composed of 22 young men. An additional professor had been secured, and a new president takes the place of Dr. Riley, who removed to the University of Georgia. Special attention had been given to the question of affiliation with the University of Chicago, according to the co-operative plans as suggested by that institution. The question having been brought before the Convention, after extended discussion, it was decided to instruct the trustees to gather all facts and information, and propositions that might be submitted, to report with recommendations at the next session for its final determination. The work of building has progressed until there are now a main college building, 4 brick dormitories, and a large frame building on the ground, besides other buildings used for mess hall and other purposes; there is a demand for $10,000 in additional buildings. The work of collecting subscriptions for these buildings progresses, though slowly and with difficulty. The Judson Institute reported 15 salaried teachers, and total enrollment of students, 131, of whom 96 boarded in the building; there had been 20 graduated at the preceding commencement.

Apart from the regular reports on the different departments of missions, the special matters of interest at this meeting were: The consideration of the establishment of a Baptist orphanage for the State, subsequently decided to be located at Evergreen; the abolition of the Board of Ministerial Education, and the relegation of that work to the Board of Missions, who were authorized to employ an Educational Secretary; alterations of provisions in the constitution regulating the membership of the body; and the securing of various funds in general collection for the work of the body.

During the sessions the Alabama Historical Society held a meeting at which 31 additional members were enrolled, and explanatory addresses were made by Rev. A. W. McGaha, and Rev. M. M. Wood.

The next meeting of the Convention will be held at Marion, beginning Wednesday, July 4, 1894, and the Annual Sermon was appointed to be preached by P. T. Hale, D. D.

Women's Work.

The work of the women, as reported through the Central Committee, shows $1,538.63 raised for home missions; $1,875.17 for foreign missions; $450.17 for State missions; and $2,765.30 for church aid, a total of $6,629.27; 11,800 pages of literature had been sent out, and a large correspondence maintained; the number of new Mission and Aid Societies organized was 22, and 9 new Young People's Societies; the Christmas offering for Japan was $533.20; 20 boxes, valued at $926, were sent to frontier missionaries; 4 Cuban girls are supported in the Havana school, and other educational work in the Mexican schools.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting was held at Eufaula, November 22-26, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. J. P. Barton, from Jer. 1: 10.

The report of the denominational press does not give the data of work accomplished. There was but one missionary in the field, and he probably is sustained in part by the Home Mission and Publication Societies. All of the old missionaries had resigned to engage in other work. We should imagine that the relations of the brethren were not so harmonious as could be desired. The report from which we quote states that one day "was spent almost wholly in foolishness." The representatives of the Home Mission Society were present and made addresses, which were well received.

The Board of Trustees of Selma University had secured the services of C. S. Dinkins, D. D., as president. About $3,000 had been collected for the institution, besides the usual appropriation made by the Home Mission Society. A subscription of $3,400, to be paid on installments, was taken for the completion of the buildings of Selma University.

The Statistical Secretary reported 67 Associations, with 1,224 churches and 168,106 members. We do not know the source of this information, as it does not tally with the results of the investigation of the Year-Book.

The next meeting is to be held at Anniston, beginning Wednesday, November 21, 1894.

ARIZONA.

There are a few isolated Baptist communities in this Territory. There was an Association which had a precarious existence for some years but it has died. The distances between churches are too great for such an organization. At last reports there were 7 churches and 4 ministers, but no reports have come from any of these, and it is not certain if they are all living at this time. Some of them were in a depressed condition when last heard from. The Home Mission Society does some work in this section.

The Forty-fifth Annual Meeting was held at Conway, November 3-7, 1893. There were reported 108 messengers from churches, and 78 from Associations, a total of 186. The Introductory Sermon was preached by W. A. Welsher, D. D., from Isaiah 52: 1.

The State Board reported that they had not been successful in employing an evangelist as directed, but by other means they had kept 16 missionaries in the field, who reported 1,645 sermons, 502 additions to the churches, and $1,400 collected; the collections being made at an expense of less than $50. In addition $1,200 had been given by the Home Board of the Southern Convention, making $2,600 expended in State mission work. The Sunday-school and Colportage Board had employed a secretary for 5 months, who had brought into line 20 Associations, and several hundred churches and Sunday-schools, and organized a work which is bright with promise, beginning the year with $100 cash, $1,000 in pledges, and a quantity of books and Bibles. In the rearrangement of the plans of operation this Board was made a part of the general

State Board, and the secretary was continued by election to retain his position.

The educational institutions reported large attendance and enthusiastic openings for the present year; the main interest centers in Ouachita College. The Central College at Conway is for female education, and is now composed of handsome buildings and grounds with no indebtedness. Another institution, at Mountain Home in the northern part of the State, is desirous of adoption by the Convention, and a committee was appointed to perfect the arrangements.

In women's work 27 societies reported $3,849.44 as raised; $117.17 for State missions; $199.90 for home missions; $345 50 for foreign missions; $2,592.40 for church aid, $80.80 for ministerial education; $200.45 in boxes to frontier missionaries; $58.65 for Japan; and $446.22 for other benevolence; 7,900 leaflets and cards had been distributed, besides a large correspondence conducted. Enthusiastic meetings were held at which reports were made from the different departments of Christian work, and an address made by T. P. Bell, D D., of the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Convention.

This meeting was remarkable for the large attendance, and for the protracted discussion concerning new methods of operation; much time was taken in the discussion of the composition of the State Board, which resulted in the construction of one upon which all the Associations in the State were to have representation, and which should be held responsible for all the varied interests of State missions, Sunday-schools, colportage, and education. It is thought that this action will harmonize and unify the various divergent influences which have hindered somewhat the progress of the work in the State.

The next session is to be held at Lonoke, beginning Friday, November 2, 1894.

We have no definite information of the Twenty-sixth Anniversary, which was held August 23–27, 1893. The report of the meeting was not encouraging No matters of importance came before the body beyond the consideration of educational matters. About $600 was raised for this work, and a small amount was secured for African missions. Plans were laid for more vigorous prosecution of State mission work. The next meeting is to be held at Helena, in August, 1894.

The State Sunday-school Convention was held at Newport, June 22–24, 1893. Rev. J. R. Bennett, Hot Springs, was made president, and Bennett J. Brown, Searcy, was made secretary. Rev. D. H. Harris, Hot Springs, was continued as State missionary. The constituents of this body, as reported to this meeting, were 2 conventions and 73 churches. Their statistics show 474 teachers and 5,806 scholars. The objects of interest in this body are not only Sunday-schools but education and foreign missions. The State missionary had traveled 6,603 miles, visited 205 families, preached 31 sermons, and made 281 addresses, and collected $420.78. He is partially sustained by the Publication Society. The collections at the meeting were $258.21. The meeting in 1894 is to be held at Forrest City, beginning Thursday, June 21.

The Woman's Baptist Missionary Association is the body with which the women are actively engaged. It held its seventh session at Newport, June 19–21, 1893. Mrs. D. N. Thompson, Little Rock, is president, and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Searcy, is secretary. The corresponding secretary is Miss L. S. Williams, Forrest City, and Mrs. M. J. Sweet is the missionary of the body. There were reports from 33 churches and 2 Bible bands, which sent up to the meeting $144.25. The missionary reported collections, $69,35. She had visited 52 churches, held 15 institutes, 35 mothers' meetings, made 175 religious visits, organized 22 sewing societies, and sold or distributed a large amount of religious literature; number of miles traveled, 1,277, of which she walked 120 miles. The time was largely taken up in hearing papers on various topics of practical interest. The annual meetings are held at same time and place with the Sunday-school Convention.

The Twelfth Annual Meeting was held at the Baptist summer resort, at Twin Lakes, near Santa Cruz, June 20–24, 1893. There were 46 churches represented by 118 delegates, and 5 new churches, with as many delegates, were admitted to membership. This body now comprises only Central and Northern California. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Reider, from Genesis 4:9, on "Man's Relation to Man."

The Missionary work of the Convention is under the management of a general secretary and an executive committee. The general secretary reported for himself, 20,280 miles traveled, 74 churches visited, 1,287 letters written, 87 sermons and addresses delivered, 199 meetings attended and special evangelistic work supervised. Besides this, in connection with the Home Mission Society, the Convention had employed 27 missionaries, who had served 34 churches, preached 2,391 sermons, made 7,595 visits, attended 1,268 prayer meetings, baptized 191 persons, and received otherwise 333; the total membership of the mission churches was 1,582 and 2,041 pupils were gathered into the Sunday-schools. The receipts from the missionary contributions of the churches were $4,390.41. The Home Mission Society contributed $7,000. Seventeen of the aided churches had become self-sustaining. Much new and successful mission work had been undertaken. The Church Edifice Missionary had been engaged in raising means for building and supervising construction at important points. The Church Edifice Department of the Home Mission Society co-operated on the basis of three dollars for each one raised on the field. Co-operation with the Boards of Associations connected with the Convention exists on the basis of dollar for dollar. The Woman's Home Missionary Society is an ally of the Board, having furnished $632.88 toward the support of a missionary and $446.19 to the Edifice Fund. The report on Chinese Missions was not as complete as could be wished, doubtless owing to the departure of Rev. J. B. Hartwell for missionary work in China; but it was understood that the work was progressing encouragingly. The new chapel car made for the Pacific Coast attracted much attention, and created fresh interest in its work.

The reports of the committees on the various subjects showed the Convention to be in active sympathy with the general societies of the denomination, as well as with California College and the Pacific Baptist Theological Union. The statistics of educational institutions are included in the appropriate table.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held in connection with the other societies at Twin Lakes, in June. The objects of this society, are to foster educational institutions, academic and collegiate, under Baptist auspices, and to aid students approved by its Board. There were addresses made by Prof. Bunyan Spencer, H. G. DeWitt, D. D., Rev. S. S. Fisk, Rev. W. T. Jordan, Rev. J. H. Reider, Rev. W. H. LaTourette, Rev. H. L. Dietz, and W. C. Houghton. No report from the treasurer was received, and so we are without financial information.

Pacific Baptist Theological Union.—This body held its Annual Meeting at Twin Lakes, June 21, 1893. The president of the faculty reported 16 students in his theological classes, and work done in California College. Some of these stuents are preparing for missionary work at home and abroad. A large class in distinctive Bible study, numbering between 30 and 40, had been conducted. Valuable additions to the library had been made. No indebtedness was reported. The items of expenditure are not included in the report.

Following the report was an address by Rev. J. H. Reider. A new Board was organized, with H. L. Gear, as President; and Rev. C. H. Hobart, as Corresponding Secretary; and standing committees appointed to supervise the interests of the scheme.

Women's Work.

There are associations of women, both for home and foreign work, in the bounds of the General Convention. Of the foreign work, we have no information up to this writing. The Home Mission Society is officered by Mrs. R. W. Davis, San Francisco, president; Mrs. W. H. LaTourette, East Oakland, vice-president; Mrs. S. C. Lillis, San Francisco, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wm. C. Spencer, Alameda, recording secretary; and Mrs. E. F. Joy, San Francisco, treasurer. The Twelfth Annual Meeting was held at Twin Lakes, June 21, 1893. The contributions were: For missionary fund, $632.88; edifice fund, $446.19; students' aid fund, $65.00; expense account, $122.20. Besides this, the Bureau of Supplies had sent out to missionaries on the field, boxes and barrels valued at $800. A department for children is in active operation. The Bureau of Intelligence had been doing excellent work in supplying the needy with literature.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting was held at Denver, October 17–19, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. F. A. Marsh, from Zech. 2: 1–5, on "The Measurements of Jerusalem."

There had been employed 30 missionaries who had supplied 57 churches, in which there had been 317 baptisms, and 378 added otherwise. Five new houses of worship had been completed, and four new churches organized. At the beginning of the year there had been a debt of $6,319.21, and this had been reduced to $4,780.61, with all the expenses of the year met. The sum of income for the work was $4,183.14. The work in this State is co-operative with the Home Mission Society, and the statistics of missionary work are included in the summaries of that Society. The features of the work in the State were the occasion of general discussions, noticeably among them being an address by Rev. G. P. Wright, on "Present Emergencies"; and one by H. C. Woods, D. D., on "The Problem of the Closing Century."

Rev. I. N. Clark represented the cause of foreign missions; and Rev. A. S. Phelps spoke on "Systematic Beneficence." In the matter of education there did not seem to be much progress reported in the enterprise of establishing a woman's college at Denver, but a committee was appointed to raise funds with which to relieve the property, and consider the legal relations between the Convention and the college. The usual resolutions were adopted, and encouraging reports made from corollary societies.

The meeting of women was held during the sessions, at which it appeared that $1,698.91 had been raised for home missions, and $141.77 by the young people for the training-school. Six new bands had been organized. There were addresses by returned missionaries on the work abroad.

The next meeting of the convention is to be held at Pueblo, beginning October 16, 1894, and H. C. Woods, D. D., was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Seventieth Annual Meeting was held at Danbury, October 17, 18, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. H. N. Thompson, from Jonah 4: 10, 11. There were 79 churches represented by 300 delegates.

During the year the Board had assisted 25 churches from the fund of the Convention to the amount of $2,765.50, besides special gifts of $900 to three other churches. Encouraging reports came from the fields, the number of baptisms being larger than in any previous year save one, and the benevolent offerings had exceeded those of any other year. Special work had been done at various points, so that $1,042.50 were expended on State work. Work had been successfully prosecuted among the French and Italians; and the Sunday-school work needed a new emphasis from this body. A number of missionary pastors gave account of the work on their fields, and an address on work among the French was made by Rev. A. St. James, and another on the work among the Italians by Rev C. L. Rhoades; there was also a report of a special committee recommending the employment of an evangelical missionary among the needy fields. Home and foreign missions were treated by W. P. Chipman, D. D.; an address was made by T. J. Morgan, D. D., on "What are the Baptists of the North doing, and what should they do for the Education of the Colored Man of the South?" H. C. Mabie, D. D., made an address on Foreign Missions; the report of the condition of the churches was made by Rev. W. P. Elsdon, and this was followed by a conference on their spiritual needs. The rest of the session was given to routine business.

The Delaware Baptist Union is composed of the Baptist churches of Delaware State and Delaware County, Pennsylvania, numbering in all, 25 churches and 38 Sunday-schools. It meets in May and November. The churches of the Delaware Union are all connected with the Philadelphia Association, and have been since their origin. The semi-annual meeting for 1893, was held with the Media Church, Penna., Rev. W. R. Patton, pastor.

The 16th Annual Meeting was held November 21st and 22nd, 1893, with the Second Church, Wilmington, Del. R. B. Cook, D. D., led the devotional meeting, and made the address of welcome, which was responded to by Rev. M. Jones, vice-president. Verbal reports were heard from the churches, Sunday-schools, and young people's organizations, delegates from all which were present. Addresses were made upon church work and Christian life, and upon the work of the Sunday-school and young people, Missions received due consideration, home, foreign, and State.

The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. B. J. Savage, Milford, Del., from Ephesians 4:4. A missionary sermon was preached by Rev. F. S. Dobbins. The ladies held their meeting in the interest of the women's mission societies separate, but several of them addressed the Union: Mrs. John Miller on the training school, Mrs. F. J. Jones on woman's work in foreign missions, and Mrs. S. M. Green on libraries for Sunday-schools. Dr. Palmer spoke for the Home Mission Society, and Dr. O. F. Flippo for the Publication Society. Prof. C. F. Foster read a paper on the duty of Baptists to their denominational schools. Prof. M. G. Evans discussed the subject of how to teach the Bible-school lesson by the inductive method. The closing sermon was preached by Rev. Frank C. Woods, pastor of the Upland Church.

The matter of the most importance considered, was the advisability of forming a new Association, and separating from the Philadelphia Association. Dr. Henry G. Weston, chairman, presented for the committee a report, advising, in view of the recent action of the Philadelphia Association, recommending a readjustment of associational boundaries, and the restriction of that Association hereafter to the churches of Philadelphia only; that the "churches constituting the Delaware Union shall be requested to consider the propriety of forming a new Association, and to propose such further measures as may be called for and expedient." The report was unanimously adopted, and the committee continued to carry out the provisions of the recommendation, and to arrange for the meeting some time in December.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The "Columbia" Association, which comprises the white churches in the District, held its Sixteenth Annual Meeting with the Calvary Church, Washington, November 20-23, 1893. C. C. Meador, D. D., Washington, was moderator, and S. M. Yeatman, Bureau Indian Affairs, Washington, was the clerk.

In co-operation with the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the Home Board of the Southern Convention, missionary work was sustained in the support of missionary pastors or supplies at four churches; besides rent for mission purposes, interest on edifice indebtedness, and payment for same; there had been also aid rendered by the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Convention toward expenses of one mission station. One of the missionary pastors had died on the field. For this work the churches had contributed $2,145.00; the Southern Convention, $600.00; for addition to one of the mission chapels, $662 65; and for minutes, $118.00; a total of $3,525.65. There had been disbursed for salaries of missionaries, $2,124.94; for chapel addition, $698.00; interest and rent, $300.00; and other items making the total $3,298.89; leaving a balance on hand of $695.94.

There is sustained by this body a Baptist Home for aged persons which reported received from all sources, including the sale of certain property, $8,606.59; the expenses of maintaining the institution were $1,656.09; the items in the necessary management of the property held for the institution involved $3,451.20, and there is a balance on hand of $3,499.30. There were 8 inmates in the Home, and 2 had passed away during the year.

In addition to the consideration of the general interests of the denomination in reports from committees, Rev. R. R. West preached from 2 Timothy 1:13; practical addresses were made upon features of the Sunday-school work; and a session was given to the consideration of the interests of young people, at which addresses were made by P. S. Foster, on "My Young People"; and Rev. E. T. Tomlinson, of New Jersey, on "Young People's Contributions to the Church."

The statistics of this Association are to be found in the appropriate tables. There are 2 colored Associations in the district, and 1 in Virginia, which is composed in part of churches from the district, the statistics of which it is hoped will also appear in the same table, although difficulty is annually experienced in obtaining the necessary information from this body.

The Thirty-eighth Annual Session was held at Lake City, January 6–9, 1893. There were in attendance 112 representatives of 16 Associations, 31 churches, and 8 societies. The Convention Sermon was preached by Malcolm MacGregor, D. D., from Jude 3.

The report of the corresponding secretary and treasurer showed receipts from all sources, $20,439.21; but of this amount, $3,229.69 are credited to the Home Mission Board of the Southern Convention and to givers in other States. So that $17,209.52 should be taken as the contributions of the churches. The whole amount was disbursed as follows: for church erection, $9,369.19; for salaries of missionaries, $7,265.34; for foreign missions, $2,084.04; for home missions, $771.59; ministerial education, $866.00; Telugu mission, $20.00; Bible work, $5.90; expense account and interest, $463.45.

Including the secretaries, 42 persons had been in employ, who reported 1,201 weeks of service, 73 churches and 58 stations supplied, 3,340 sermons preached, and 792 religious addresses, 20 churches, 52 Sunday-schools, and 22 missionary societies organized, 374 persons baptized, 394 received otherwise, 275 copies of Scriptures disposed of, and 801 volumes of religious books, 44,476 pages of tracts distributed, 4,610 religious visits, 18 houses of worship commenced, and 13 completed, and 52,777 miles traveled in furtherance of the work. Several new and promising fields had been occupied. The Board had aided 26 churches in church erection. Houses had been dedicated at 5 points, and at 5 others the incompleted buildings are in use.

Eight young men had been aided in prosecuting their studies for the ministry, three being new students; all these are the Stetson University. In several cases at expenses of these are borne by their Associations.

The co-operation of the organized women is a part of the Convention's work; there are 63 women's societies and 29 children's bands, whose contributions for the year amounted to $2,295; a constant stream of missionary literature had been kept flowing into the churches by this means.

The educational interest is the John B. Stetson University at De Land. Elizabeth Hall, a new building for study-work, had been entered, and a new dormitory had also been occupied. These two buildings add about $75,000 to the value of the real estate, all of which had been provided by generous friends save $5,000 which was in process of collection from the churches. These buildings have been formally dedicated with imposing ceremonies since the meeting of the Convention. The trustees ask for means for completion of the cost of the dormitory, the payment of the endowment funds secured, and the establishment of scholarships for the benefit of deserving young men. The latest statistics as to attendance should be found in our educational tables.

The Ministers' Relief Association reports to the Convention. There were 72 beneficiary and 75 honorary members enrolled, in all 147; these contribute small sums on the announcement of the death of any minister in association. Two deaths had occurred, the widows receiving respectively $104.80 and $130.00.

During the sessions, W. D. Powell, D. D., addressed the brethren on the Centenary of Missions, and received in pledges, $2,338.25 for the Centennial Chapel Fund of the Southern Convention; an address on education was made by Prof. J. F. Forbes, LL.D.; the discussion on State missions was attended by an address by I. T. Tichenor, D. D., and pledges for future work made amounting to $4,710.00; and the several committees reported on various phases of denominational interest, eliciting edifying discussions thereon.

The next session is to be held at Plant City, beginning January 10, 1894, and Prof. C. S. Fariss was appointed as preacher of the Convention Sermon.

The Seventy-first Anniversary was held at Dawson, April 4-6, 1893. There were in attendance, 156 representatives of 40 Associations, and 70 representatives of 46 churches; in all, 226. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. F. C. McConnell, from the 24th Psalm.

The Board of Missions reported the employment of 48 missionaries and evangelists, who had served through 270 months of labor, served 98 stations, preached 3,252 sermons, delivered 2,206 addresses, attended upon 3,498 other religious meetings, baptized 776 white and 182 black persons, organized 68 Sunday-schools, constituted 8 churches, traveled 53,992 miles, commenced the erection of 17 meeting houses, ordained 16 ministers and 29 deacons, and made 7,888 religious visits to families. In addition, the corresponding secretary had preached 103 sermons, delivered 125 addresses, and traveled 21,195 miles. There had been 29 women's societies organized. The Sunday-school secretary had held 14 institutes, attended 12 conventions, organized 5 other conventions, and held 4 centennial meetings. The Instructor of Colored Ministers, Dr. McCall, had held 24 institutes, and instructed 113 ministers and deacons among the colored people. The Board had presented the needs of the Orphans' Home, at Atlanta, as one of the subjects for Christian beneficence. The care of indigent ministers is also one of the departments of work; during the year, 10 ministers and 7 widows had been added to the amount of $1,616.95. Three of the beneficiaries had passed away.

The receipts of the Board for the various objects, were reported as follows: Foreign missions, all sources, $18,901.81; home missions, $12,531.08; State missions, $24,053.71; indigent ministers, $1,768.89; DeVotie Fund, which is permanent for indigent ministers, $790.35; for church building, including for Brunswick Church, $116.54, and collected on fields, $15,184.19; Orphans' Home, $11,455.86; Sunday-school work, $196.11; pastoral support on mission fields, $3,671.91; South Georgia missions, $18.83; various items reported bythe Women's Central Committee, $9,791.52; ministerial education, $1,449.67; denominational schools and Mercer Endowment, $15,419.70; for the theological department of Mercer University, $420.15; for the Seminary at Louisville, $2,128.65; total for missions, $98,424.80; for education, $19,418.17; grand total, $117,842.97.

The treasurer of the Convention reported the state of the permanent funds to be: Permanent Educational Fund, $25,355.95; Permanent Mission Fund, $264.00; Hearn Legacy (for educational purposes), $7,724.21; a total of $33,344.16. This is all invested in interest bearing bonds, save a cash deposit of $844.16.

The Trustees of Mercer University, controlled by this Convention, reported various changes by death and resignation in the working force of the institution. The resignation of Dr. Nunnally as president, has been followed since the meeting of the Convention by the installation of Jas. B. Gambrell, D. D., in that position, and the selection of several new professors. Our educational table should be consulted for the latest statistics as to attendance. The Executive Committee of the Convention is charged with the care of deserving young men, students for the ministry, who need aid. There were 16 of these, for whom $1,233.00 had been expended.

The preparation and delivery of set addresses is not encouraged in this body. The different items of interest come before it in reports of committees appointed the preceding years, and are open to general discussion. The general denominational work, however, was presented in extended speeches by J. M. Frost, D. D., of the Sunday-School Board of the Southern Convention; F. H. Kerfoot, D.D., of the Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky.; and contributions made for the latter. A committee was appointed to consider the organization of the young people of the churches, to report at the next meeting. The remainder of the work of the Convention was of a routine character.

The next session is to be held at Macon, beginning Tuesday, April 3, 1894, and Rev. G. S. Tumlin, was selected to preach the Annual Discourse.

The Seventeenth Anniversary was held at Carnesville, July 20-22, 1893. There were present 29 messengers from 29 churches, and 12 messengers from 4 Associations; a total of 41 in attendance. The Introductory Sermon was delivered by Rev. R. D. Hawkins, from Luke 12: 15.

are constituents of this body. It co-operates with the larger State Convention, and is not in opposition to it. It seeks to further the same ends. It sustains three missionaries in China, and one in the Indian Territory. Mercer University, the State institution, is patronized, but there is much attention given to smaller academical institutions, which are feeders to the University. The report of the corresponding secretary is not printed in the proceedings, but the financial summary is presented. The churches had contributed $926.42, which had been disbursed as follows: Missions, $517.08; education, $194.40; miscellaneous objects, $94.31. In addition, there were reported $3,625.00 for building purposes, of which $2,000 were for a Baptist college at Cumming, the remainder being for better houses of worship.

The next meeting is to be at Lawrenceville, in Gwinnet county, presumably July 19, 1894, no time being specified in the proceedings, and it is presumed that the same date will obtain as for the present session. Rev. C. T. Burgess was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon.

The Fourth Session was held at Statesboro, Nov. 15–17, 1893. It is not in opposition to the State Convention, but auxiliary thereto, and confines its operations to the vast missionary ground in what is known as "Wiregrass Georgia," lying to the South. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Eden, from Isa. 12:3. The time of the session was taken up in discussions upon the needs of the field and the quickening of the interest and enthusiasm of the churches to supply the demands for missionary labor. The officials of the State Convention and representatives of other bodies were present, giving aid and encouragement. A general missionary was put in the field, superintending various local missionaries who are commissioned and paid by the State Board, the local churches contributing to the common treasury for this purpose. The next meeting is to be held at Blackshear, beginning Wednesday, November 14, 1894.

The Twenty-second Annual Session was held with the Friendship Church, Atlanta, June 7–12, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was delivered by Rev. C. G. Holmes, from Daniel 9:25. The evenings were set apart for preaching services, and on the Sabbath, the Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. N. B. Williamson, from Acts 1:8, and the Doctrinal Sermon by Rev. C. S. Wilkins, from Eph. 2:19, 20.

From the report of the corresponding secretary, it appears that 7 missionaries had been engaged, who had preached 1,215 sermons, delivered 1,023 addresses, baptized 1,084 converts, collected $1,187.19 for missions, and $1,521.90 for other purposes, and traveled 24,393 miles. Following the report, is an extended summary of all sums collected, which, for want of recapitulation, it is difficult to foot up. The report of the missionaries are given also in a wearisome detail. The amount paid out to missionaries was $1,525.49. The Board of the State Convention (white) had appropriated $2,000 to the work among the colored people. The corresponding secretary states that he raised $920.44 on the field, in addition to what others raised, yet the sum raised from all sources is given at $2,536.44, which is confusing. The want of a detailed recapitulation is painfully apparent in order to arrive at the work done by this body. The treasurer's report is still quite separate, and shows $445.68 received by him, mostly at the time of the meeting.

The corresponding secretary also reports on educational matters the gratifying condition of the schools immediately under the patronage of the Convention. The churches had given to the Atlanta Seminary, $234.16, while friends from the North had given $5,600. This discrepancy of amounts is made to be a reproach by the report upon their own people. It does not seem that anything was given to Spellman Seminary from the churches, as nothing is mentioned in the report, and earnest recommendations are made to take collections for that institution. During the year, $80,553 had been given by friends at the North to this seminary.

In education, there is an increased interest, many of the Associations sustaining high schools and academies within their bounds. Six of these are mentioned in the report. Efforts have been made to secure the latest statistics for our educational table at the close of this volume.

The next meeting is to be held at Columbus, beginning Wednesday, June 6, 1894, and Rev. F. M. Simmons is to preach the Introductory Sermon.

The Twelfth Annual Session was held at Americus, July 21–24, 1893. There were enrolled 96 persons in attendance. Rev. J. M. G. Scott preached the Introductory Sermon from Luke 24 : 16. The evening sessions were devoted to preaching by various brethren. A number of practical topics and addresses on various themes were made. The Speaker of the National House of Representatives was present and addressed the body. "The Bible as a Lever to Elevate the People"; "The Ideal Sunday-School Teacher"; "Knowledge of Nature"; "The Influence of the Sunday-School on the Future Church"; were subjects of prepared addresses.

This body had 2 missionaries in the field, who reported 1,752 miles traveled, 17 schools addressed, 35 sermons preached, 40 families visited, one school organized, and $72.18 collected in funds. The corresponding secretary also performed some missionary labor. There were reported $330.56 as sent up to the meeting. For want of proper recapitulation, the financial reports are very confusing, and littered with a wearisome account of detail that simply entails much needless expense of printing, and throws no light on the situation. There is also a statistical table, which does not give a tithe of the Sunday-schools of the State, and which, in consequence, is worthless and an unnecessary expense of printing, unless it is intended to give only the reports of such schools as were represented at the meeting. This table would show only 724 teachers and 8,832 pupils in the whole State, which is far from the facts.

The next meeting is to be with the Mount Olive Church, Macon, beginning July 19, 1894.

The single Association in this State has for its officers: Moderator, Rev. I. S. Hicks, Caldwell; clerk, Joseph Kent, Boise City. There were 12 churches represented at the meeting for 1893. These reported 63 baptisms and a membership of 4,266. They have $22,500 worth of church property, and their total contributions were $7,464.69, of which $92.05 were for missions. Twelve Sunday-schools reported 56 officers and teachers and 463 pupils. There are some other churches in the State connected with the Utah Association; and also some in the northern portion which co-operate with the East Washington and North Idaho Convention.

The Thirth-fourth Annual Meeting was held at Jerseyville, October 17–20, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. A. M. Duboc, from Mark 12 : 37.

The report of the Board showed the employment of 53 missionaries, who had preached 4,557 sermons, attended 1,902 prayer meetings, made 7,600 religious visits, baptized 310, added otherwise 271 persons. The receipts for the year were $8,230.67, and the expenditures were $9,110.98; the deficiency of $880.30 was provided for during the session of the body. The total amount of trust funds was reported to be $10,577.58. The work during the year was affected by the absorption of interest in the centennial fund for foreign missions. The next year being the centennial of the first baptism in the State, it was determined to arrange for the observance of that event by raising the permanent funds to an amount, the income of which would support the superintendent of missions, and pay the incidental expenses. In connection with the report two district missionaries detailed their work, showing encouraging results, and a free conference on the general subject followed.

The committee on the state of religion reported the year as one of trial among the churches, with results not as might be desired; still there had been large blessings upon the labors of the missionaries, and the Sunday-school work had been greatly prospered. The educational progress had been unexampled. The report of the educational commission was attended by addresses by Prof. E. D. Burton, of the University of Chicago; President Kendrick, of Shurtleff College; President Leavitt, of Ewing College; and C. E. Hewitt, D. D., representing the Northwestern Baptist Education Society. The latest statistics of Illinois institutions will be found in the appropriate educational table.

The report of the Sunday-school commission sketched the work of two Sunday-school missionaries who had given to the work 668 days of service, traveled 11,969 miles, visited 104 towns and cities, 135 churches and 96

Sunday-schools, and organized 6 new schools. The expenditures had been $2,734.45, and the receipts $2,735.35, of which $150.00 was from the Publication Society. In this connection the work of the Publication Society was discussed by Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, and a general conference in which many participated. A Sunday-school testimony meeting was also held, the principal addresses being by Dr. A. L. Converse, on "The Home Department of the Sunday-school"; and E. A. Stone, D.D., on "Bible Doctrines." At another hour Rev. S. H. Bowyer made an address on "The Book We Study."

Other interesting features of the meeting were an address by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., on "Home Missions"; the presentation and report from several missionaries upon the foreign field, and some under appointment to labor in destitute portions of our own land; and the consideration of the usual resolutions, principally those looking toward more active city mission work in Chicago, and the relations which the colored churches ought to bear toward the denomination in the State.

The next meeting is to be held at Pontiac, beginning October 15, 1894, and Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce was chosen as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

Henderson, D.D., on "The Relations of Socialism and the Labor Question"; Rev. B. F. Wiseman presented a paper, on "How Far is the Federation of Evangelical Denominations for Work Advisable?" The committee on obituaries reported 6 deaths. A tribute was paid to the worth of pioneer ministers of Illinois in an address by Justus Bulkley, D. D. The meeting was also addressed by Rev. S. P. Merrill in the interest of the theological seminary at Rochester. A committee was appointed to consider the wisdom of dissolving this body, so that more time may be given to the General Association.

The Second Annual Convention was held at Jerseyville, October 20, 1893. It was full of enthusiasm. The report of the secretary showed 216 societies in the State with about 12,000 members, not including societies in Swedish or colored churches. The constitution was so amended as to provide for three departments of work, known as missionary, educational, and financial, at the heads of which special secretaries were appointed. The papers and addresses were on practical topics, and were full of suggestion for more efficient work. A sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Torrey, on "Christ's Ambassadors." The annual meetings are held in connection with the General Association, and so the next is to be at Pontiac in October, 1894.

The Sixty-first Anniversary was held at Columbus, October 3-5, 1893. There were in attendance 70 pastors, 45 life members, 10 annual members, 185 delegates, and 120 visitors, a total of 430 enrolled. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. Addison Parker, from John 18:13.

The mission work of the Convention was confined to 7 old fields, and 6 that were entered for the first time. All of these are important points, and some are county sites. There are new fields opening in what is popularly known as the "gas-belt." To neglect them would be to lose opportunities of free sites for houses of worship. The statistical information desired is not at hand, but it seems that the work has been only that of missionary pastors aided at feeble points. The receipts of the Board were $7,361.00, of which $2,000 was from the sale of property at Wabash, and $3,622 from what are denominated general collections. But to this sum should be added $2,500 expended in city and

Associational mission work. The consideration of the report was attended by addresses by Rev. A. Ogle, the superintendent of missions, and by Rev. U. M. McGuire, Rev. V. O. Fritts, Rev. Geo. Chandler, and Rev. T. C. Smith, missionary pastors; and Rev. W. F. Taylor, on "Typical Conversions." At another time the topic of State missions elicited addresses by Rev. W. F. Taylor, on "Indiana's care for Herself"; W. T. Stott, D. D., on "Our Duty to the Gas-Belt"; and Rev. A. Parker, on "The Place of Evangelists in State Work."

There had been contributed for ministerial education $375.00, which has been inadequate to the demands. A bequest of about $4,000 will shortly be at the command of the Convention. The college at Franklin was reported to be in a prosperous condition, with college classes larger than for many previous years. Rev. H. H. Smith spoke on "Beneficiary Education," and Prof. H. C. Hall, on "The College and the State." There were additional addresses by U. M. Chaillie and Rev. J. F. Williams.

It was reported that there was a Sunday-school membership in the State of 41,297, with an average attendance of 67 per cent. There had been 1,162 baptisms from the schools. Rev. F. M. Huckleberry read a paper on "Samuel," and a general discussion on Sunday-school methods followed. In the discussion of the general work of missions, Rev. P. O. Duncan spoke on "Principles in Missions"; Rev. W. J. Coulson, on "Money for Missions, and How to Raise It"; and Rev. Dwight Spencer gave a general review of the work for "Home Missions." Rev. J. W. Stark spoke on "Lessons from the Centennial Effort"; and S. M. Stimson, D. D., and Rev. J. S. Boyden reviewed the work and fields of foreign missions. The rest of the time was given to routine business.

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at La Fayette, beginning October 2, 1894, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. W. F. Taylor.

The Pastors' Conference.

The Third Annual Meeting was held in conjunction with the State Convention meeting at Columbus, October 3, 1893. Nine new pastors were received and welcomed. A paper on "How Shall We Bring more Money into the Lord's Treasury," was read by Rev. R. E. Neighbor, which was followed by a general discussion. Prof. H. C. Hall read a paper on "The State of Religion in the Churches," which was attended by discussion on the popular amusements of the day. "How to Promote Revivals," was the topic of a paper by Rev. S. K. Fuson. There were also interesting and profitable pastors' prayer meetings held. The annual meetings are held in connection with those of the State Convention.

The Third Annual Meeting was held at Columbus, October 4, 1893. The secretary reported total number of Associational Unions, 21; B. Y. P. U. Societies, 94; Y. P. S. C. E. Societies, 18; other named societies, 7; a total of 120. The whole number of active members is 3,801; associate members, 1,058; total membership, 4,859; the increase of members during the year had been 2,859; and in number of societies, 40. The treasurer reported receipts $47.00, and expenditures for the meetings, 24.00; a balance in hand is $23.00. It was voted to ask each society to contribute one dollar each toward the expenses of the State Union.

The interesting features were an address, giving the origin and growth of the young people's movement, by Prof. J. W. Moncrief; an address by Rev Wm. J. Coulson, on the "Christian Culture Courses"; and the outlining of the work of the junior unions, by Miss Caroline Gautier. The new president, Rev. A. B. The Eleventh Annual Meeting of this Convention, which comprises Oklahoma as well as the Indian Territory, was held at South McAllester, June 22-24, 1893. There were 6 Associations represented by 13 persons, and 25 churches by 38 representatives, in all, 51 present. The Annual Sermon was by Rev. D. Crosby, from John 7: 17.

The report of work is for 8 months, owing to a change in time of meeting. There had been 7 missionaries at work, who had rendered 191 weeks of service, preached 578 sermons, held 123 prayer meetings, made 978 religious visits, baptized 29 persons, and received 98 otherwise, organized 11 churches, distributed 207 copies of Scripture, and organized 5 Sunday-schools. Six churches were found with houses of worship and 24 without; 17 churches had Sunday-schools; there were 7 independent schools apart from churches. There were 21 unassociated churches found. The influx of settlers is making this an arduous work for the missionaries, yet the results are encouraging. The Home Board of the Southern Convention and the Home Mission Society had co-operated in the employment of missionaries. There is no itemized report of the treasurer, so that we are unable to give amounts raised by the churches. The treasurer reports $587.53 received, and 584.82 paid out. A contribution of $508.30 in cash and pledges was made for missionary work for the current year. From this fact it is argued that the report of the treasurer shows what the field has done independently of the work of Mission Boards without the Territory.

No report of work accomplished in education is contained in the proceedings, although reference is made to the raising of an endowment for some institution. The financial secretary of Indian University made an address, and secured pledges amounting to $275 for that institution.

The next meeting is to be held at Ardmore, beginning Thursday, June 21, 1894, although the minutes contain a call to change the month to July, and Rev. H. H. Cordell was appointed to deliver the Annual Sermon.

The Fifty-second Annual meeting was held at Davenport, October 25-27, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. E. P. Bartlett, from Acts 9: 31, on "Church Life and Growth."

The number of missionaries employed during the year was 69, who had rendered 2,588 weeks of labor, preached 8,979 sermons, baptized 448 persons, made 17,588 religious visits, and received in all 819 new members. The missionary secretary had traveled 21,465 miles; delivered 269 sermons and addresses; and collected $9,876.51. There had also been at work 4 district missionaries, who had organized 13 new churches, inspired a number of discouraged churches, and organized 14 new Sunday-schools. The Home Mission Society had acted in co-operation to the amount of $2,188.73 for missionary pastors; and $1,550 for church erection. The treasurer reported received $14,134.70; of which $9,730.19 came from the churches, the remainder being received from the Home Mission Society and balance from previous year. For church building there had been received $219.91, and there is $1,000 trust fund in addition. Rev. A. P. Leach followed the report in an address upon "Iowa as a Mission Field."

The report of the Sunday-school missionary comprised only two months of the year, in which he had traveled 2,618 miles, distributed 39 copies of Scripture, delivered 45 sermons and addresses, organized 2 Sunday-schools, and held 1 institute. Rev. George Kline made an address on "Baptist Bible Work," in connection with this report. A telegram at this juncture announced the death of Dr. Griffith, secretary of the Publication Society, and suitable resolutions were at once adopted. Rev. Herbert Tilden read a paper on "The Religious Press, its Place and Influence"; and Rev. J. W. Harris outlined the work of the Publication Society.

Much attention was given to the subject of State missions, several platform meetings being held during the session, at which numbers of addresses were made by the laborers on the fields, including representatives of the Swedish, German, Norwegian, and colored population. W. M. Haigh, D.D., spoke upon "The Future of our Work"; President H. L. Stetson, on "The Importance of Immediate and Thorough Evangelization of Iowa"; Rev. A. Loughridge, on "The Importance of Evangelization at our Educational Centers"; and Rev. E. H. Lovett, on "The Endowment of Power." The committee on pastoral supply had received letters of inquiry from 72 pastors; the churches, however, are well supplied, only 50 out of 450, being without stated pastoral services. The obituary committee mentioned the names of 8 ministers and other friends of the cause.

In outlining the work for the future the body resolved upon more general observance of Chapel Day; an economic appropriation of funds, urging the increase of 25 per cent. in mission contributions; and prayer and effort for the conversion of at least 10,000 persons within the year; the attention of theological seminaries was called to the importance of affording opportunity for the education of colored ministers.

In considering the home and foreign missions, addresses were made by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., and H. C. Mabie, D. D., and the usual resolutions were adopted. A session was given to Women's Home Mission. The report of the women shows $1,584.74 raised for the work; $449.47 for the State Convention; $333 76 in goods; and $62 50 for the training schools; a total of $2,433.47. Papers were read on practical topics, and addresses made by laborers in the field. The Women's Foreign Mission Society also

The Fifth Annual Meeting was held at Davenport, October 24, 25, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. M. E. Broaddus, from Psalm 84 : 12. There was also an address by Prof. N. Butler, Jr., of the University of Chicago, on "The Place of Christianity in Education." During the year there had been aided 27 students for the ministry to the amount of $935.00; 7 in the University of Chicago, $420.00; 7 at Pella, $185.00; and 13 at Des Moines College, $330.00. The year began with $556.64 in hand, and there had been received from a legacy $120.76, and in collections $411.25, so that the available funds were $1,068.65. Following the report there were addresses by H. W. Tilden, D. D., on "The Education of Christians"; and H. L. Morehouse, D. D. The Fourth Annual Meeting was held at Davenport, October 27, 1893. The secretary's report stated that 8 district conventions had been held, and 20 Associations had organised unions within their bounds. The number of junior unions organised during the year was very gratifying, and the majority of the societies are taking up the Christian Culture Courses. There were 166 societies reported, 125 being B. Y. P. U., 24 Y. P. S. C. E., 4 Loyalists, and 13 by other names, which is an increase of 27; the active membership reported was 5,022, an increase of 1,580; the associate membership was 1,154, an increase of 539. It is estimated that there are nearly 300 societies. Thirty-six are pursuing the Christian Culture Courses. The addresses and papers were by Rev. J. A. Hendrickson, on "The Relation of Local Societies to State and National Unions"; J. J. Coull, on "The Columbian Year"; Miss Leona A. Call, on "Our Work and the Church of the Future"; Miss Grace Butterfield, on "C. C. C. Work"; Mrs. F. W. Parsons, on "Junior Work"; and F. L. Wilkins, D. The Thirty-fourth Annual Meeting of this body was held at Ottawa, October 10–13, 1893. There were 382 delegates and visitors enrolled as in attendance. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. B. Hutchinson, from Matt. 24 : 35, on "Stable and Unstable Equilibrium."

The number of missionaries employed during the year was 53, who supplied 48 churches and 52 stations, organized 7 churches and 20 Sunday-schools, preached 6,449 sermons, attended 1,202 prayer meetings, visited 1,195 families, baptized 477 converts, and received 519 otherwise. In the mission churches, there are 3,051 members who paid $10,100 for salaries, and $12,340 for church erection; and in addition, the missionary secretary had traveled 23,737 miles, visited 104 churches, made 628 religious visits, and collected for the Convention work, $3,381.43. The work in this State is co-operative with the Home Mission Society, which placed $5,500 in the work, and the churches of Kansas contributed $5,183.20. The Women's Societies had contributed $615.42. Special work had been prosecuted among the Germans, Swedes, and colored people; of these latter, there are 10,000 in the State. The total expense of the work was $10,918.87, with a debt of $2,610.64. Following the report, were addresses by Rev. J. T. Crawford, on "The Relation of the Young People's Societies to the Convention"; and Rev. Claude Kelly, on "The Relation of the Pastor to the Convention Collections." It was resolved to enter new and promising fields where there was a prospect of permanent good, even if aid should be withdrawn from old fields where the prospects were not as favorable.

In Sunday-school work, which is in co-operation with the Publication Society, there had been 5 colporteurs actively at work, in addition to the work of the Sunday-school secretary; the summary of work is 20,570 miles traveled, 3,999 pages of tracts distributed, 697 addresses and sermons, 585 religious visits, 2 Sunday-schools organized, and 41 institutes held. Following this report, were addresses by Rev. H. G. Frazer, on "Where are the Boys?" Rev. J. N. Kidd, on "The Honor of the Teacher's Calling"; and by the colporteurs in giving account of their work.

In educational work, 30 students were reported at school, preparing for the ministry; the outlook financially, is embarrassed by a debt of $8,000, and plans were made for existing and prospective demands. President F. W. Colgrove, of Ottawa University, made an inspiring address.

In considering the work of the general societies, P. J. Williams, D. D., for the Publication Society, spoke on "The Unifying Influence of the Society's Work"; H. C. Woods, for home missions, spoke on the topic, "Is Christianity to Save America?" and there was a general discussion attending the report of foreign missions. During the session of the body, the report of the Women's Societies was presented, with addresses by returned missionaries and others. The report on the condition of the churches, stated that 21 Associational reports indicated that the total baptisms would not exceed 2,000, and that the gain in membership would be about 1,000 for the year; and that the benevolent contributions, would fall below prior records in 14 Associations; it was encouraging to note that now, the important churches are supplied with pastors; that several new churches had been organized; that it was markedly a year of church building; and several churches had had revivals of discipline.

In considering systematic beneficence, it was recommended to divide the State into sections, and adopt a regular system in uniformity of time and objects in securing funds. The usual resolutions, with reference to denominational interests, were adopted.

The next anniversary is to be held at a place to be selected by the Executive Board, at the usual time in October, 1894, and Rev. C. J. Page was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

the number of societies, as well as membership. So far as reported, there are 69 societies; 37 of these report a membership of 1,371; 16 Associations are organized; 40 societies were represented at the annual meeting; 433 copies of the Young Peoples Union are taken, and $103.03 contributed to the Founding Fund. The collections at the Annual Meeting amounted to $35. A paper on "Methods of Work," was read by Miss Lyons, and one on "Junior Work," by Miss Etta Reeks; "Our Relation to the Founding Fund," was a paper read by H. L. Raymond; and a free parliament was held upon practical workings of young people's societies. The principal address was made by John H. Chapman, of Chicago.

The Fifty-sixth Anniversary was held at Lebanon, October 21–24, 1893. There were represented 77 churches in 29 Associations, by 111 persons, besides 13 enrolled visitors. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. B. J. Davis, from Luke 24 : 46, 47.

There had been during the year, 49 missionaries at work, who had preached 5,464 sermons, conducted 1,927 prayer meetings, made 19,358 religious visits, reported 1,397 conversions, baptized 871, and added otherwise, 928; there had been 57 new Sunday-schools organized, and 77 other schools, with 5,534 pupils, were reported on the mission fields. On these fields, $1,982 91 had been collected for missions. $4,988.47 for Baptist high schools, and $16,063.61 for church erection. There had been sold or donated, $1,426.99 in Bibles and religious books, and 68,137 pages of tracts had been distributed. Of these missionaries, 12 were to the colored people. Up to the time of the meeting, the centennial offerings, passing through the Executive Board, amounted to $24,044.94. The tabulated statement of receipts shows that there had been contributed for State missions, $4,909.41; State Sunday-schools and colportage, $2,450.42; foreign missions, $18,-050.63; home missions, $18,701.20; district missions, $6,540.99; and for district Sunday-school work, $2,032.96; the aggregate of contributions for all purposes, was reported to be $46,141.06; this does not include the operation of the book depository for colportage which reported in merchandise $1,301.63.

The Fifth Report of the Baptist Ministers' Aid Society shows an increase in receipts of $13,868.90, of which $6,471.68 had been raised by the secretary in cash, and $3,767 in bonds; in his work he had visited 23 churches and 14 Associations; the present status of this fund is, bond account, $8,505.52, and cash and invested funds, $16,916.16. For immediate use of beneficiaries, there had been received $1,979.66, which, with amount already on hand, made available $8,621.10; the disbursements to beneficiaries for the year, amounted to $1,349. There had been assisted, 34 ministers and their dependent families since the organization of this fund, and there are now 20 on the list, of which 6 became so during the year; 2 had passed away since last report.

The report on schools and colleges mentions the Seminary at Louisville, the 2 colleges and high grade schools at Georgetown and Russellville, and 8 other institutions for female education; and academies and 8 institutions for the education of the colored race. Reports on home and foreign missions, Sunday-schools and colportage, and Orphans' Home, elicited general discussion; in the latter report, it appears that the new building finished a year since, was furnished complete and entirely without debt, and that the number of inmates was 85.

A general discussion was held as to the best methods for the development of the religious life, and directing the activities of the young people, which resulted in the adopting of a report recommending such organizations to be effected by the authority and through the direction of the local church; provided for reports of work done by churches in this direction, and for the establishment of a standing committee, to present reports which arise on the status of the young people's work; and also recommending the young people's paper, announced to be issued by the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Committee on Baptist History, reported the addition of important documents, including the history of 2 Associations, and valuable files of minutes and other historical matter.

The Twelfth Report of the Central Committee of Women's Missions outlines the work for the year, in which it appears that $1,633.88 had been raised for foreign missions, $1,263.37 for home missions, $265.97 for State missions, and $195 for special objects, a total of $3,295.52. The centennial funds, from children and young people principally, $968.75, and 5 boxes to frontier missionaries, valued at $238.33; contribution for expense fund and Christmas offering for Japan, $114.44, seemed to be added to these sums. The president of the Central Committee is Miss Eliza S. Broadus, and the corresponding secretary is Mrs. Geo. P. Weller, both of Louisville.

The next meeting is to be held at Carlisle, beginning Saturday, June 2, 1894, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by W. W. Gardner, D. D.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held at Lebanon, October 19, 20. The sermon for criticism was preached by Rev. L. H. Salin, from 2 Tim. 4 : 2, on "Preaching."

A paper on "The Sovereignty of the Holy Spirit in the Conversion of Souls," was presented by Rev. R. E. Kirtley; papers on "Singing in our Churches," were read by Rev. E. N. Dicken and Rev. J. A. Bennett; a paper on "Societies in our Churches," was read by W. W. Gardner, D. D.; a paper on "Permanency in the Pastoral Relation," was read by J. A. Kirtley, D. D.; and a paper on "How to Take Collections," was read by Rev. J. N. Bruce; and all of these topics were discussed generally by the body. The interesting exercise peculiar to this body, by which the oldest and the youngest minister present relate their Christian experience and call to the ministry, was observed in addresses of that character by Rev. L. H. Salin and Rev. G. C. Cates.

The next meeting is to be held preceding that of the General Association, at Carlisle, in June, 1894, and the Rev. C. H. Nash is to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Forty-fifth Annual Session was held at Mount Lebanon, August 18–22, 1893. There were reported in attendance 144 representatives of 72 churches, 2 representing 2 women's societies, and 20 representatives of 9 Associations, in all 185 persons. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. T. D. Bush, from Eph. 2 : 1 and Col. 3 : 5.

The Executive Board reported 17 missionaries, including the corresponding secretary. These had rendered 2,085 days of labor, organized 4 churches, preached 1,117 sermons, distributed 10,252 pages of tracts, delivered 221 addresses, attended upon 256 prayer meetings, made 2,941 religious visits, received by baptism 187, and by letter and restoration 181, organized 8 Sunday-schools, and distributed 233 copies of Scripture. There are 3 meeting-houses building, and 1 was completed. They had collected for missions, $1,375.82; and on their salaries, $2,204.00 They had also traveled 27,538 miles. In the furtherance of this work, $200 had been received on colporteur work from the Publication Society, and a very encouraging arrangement of co-operation made with the Home Board of the Southern Convention, by which work is being pressed in the city of New Orleans. The whole State is not in co-operation in this work, there being 11 Associations which do not join in it. Five of these, however, prosecute work within their own bounds, which is not included in the above summary. A permanent fund for colportage work had been started, with timely aid from the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Convention. This fund was reported to be $230.50, but with it as a working capital, $1,015.00 in books had been secured. Attention had been given to the beginning of work in several important towns, and the cause at New Orleans is in better shape than previously. The French work is in process of reorganization. The Home Board of the Southern Convention had given $1,535.35 to the State work. The destitution in this State is reported as appalling. Twenty out of 59 parishes or counties are without white Baptist organizations; 4 have only 5 each; 3 have only 3; 1 have but 2 each; and 3 have only 1 organization.

The receipts of the treasurer, probably including gifts from without, were for State missions, $5,024.22; foreign missions, $1,409.69; centennial fund, $834.60; home missions, $191.15; ministerial education, $129.65; colportage, $26.90; convention funds, $94.00; a total of $7,710.21. All of this had been expended for the objects named save a balance of $203.93.

The subject of denominational education received much attention. There are two institutions in the State, neither of which is under control and direction of the Convention. These have received the support and endorsement of the churches, but are held by self-perpetuating boards of trustees. It was proposed to appoint a special committee to report at the next session on the establishment of a denominational college; but the final action of the body was to invite overtures from the existing colleges looking to the adoption of one or both, or possible consolidation in one institution; and so the matter went over for another year. Both the existing institutions were reported upon to the body; reference to the educational table will give later statistics of attendance than those reported to the Convention. There were at Keatchie College 17 students for the ministry, to whom $1,900 in tuition had been contributed, and friends had contributed $732.85 for other necessities. At Mount Lebanon College there had been 8 students for the ministry.

During the sessions there were interesting discussions upon missions, publications, education, Sunday-schools, temperance, obituaries, relations to the colored people, and collections amounting to $599.50 for State missions, and $1,517.00 for foreign missions were taken.

Women's Work.

The secretary of the Central Committee for Louisiana reported the raising of $3,622.55 among the women of the State; of this amount, $1,269.45 was for missions, $1,175 35 for church building and improvements, $61.00 for benevolence, and $116.73 for education. Six new societies had been formed. A large amount of literature had been circulated among the churches. An interesting gathering of the women was had in connection with the meeting of the State Convention at Mount Lebanon.

The Sixty-ninth Anniversary was held at Auburn, October 2, 3, 1893. There were present 76 pastors, 149 delegates, and 7 visitors, a total of 232. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. A. Newcome, from Mark 12 : 16.

During the year 45 churches had received aid directly through the labors of 45 missionary pastors and 2 student supplies; in addition there had been a corresponding secretary, 2 State missionaries, 1 missionary in the Aroostook field, 1 lay missionary, and 4 others under appointment in specific service; these had delivered 650 sermons and addresses, attended 500 other meetings, made 25,000 religious visits, and traveled 19,000 miles. The reports from the beneficiary churches were, in the main, encouraging and showing some activity in church erection. Ten Sunday-school Institutes were held under the direction of the Board, by which several hundred workers had been reached, and many of the smaller schools benefited.

From the report of the treasurer it appears that the receipts for the year were $9,454.48, of which $3,847.49 came from ordinary contributions, and $4,663.21 from interest, dividends, and rents; in addition there had been drawn from the permanent fund $6,833.45; there had been paid, in aid of missionary churches, $3,946.24, and salaries of secretaries and general missionaries, $4,102.51, notes of the Convention, $5,900, and other items, making the total expenditures $16,112.90. The permanent fund now amounts to $52,824.54; of this there are at the disposal of the Convention, $31,252.96, and funds of which only the interest may be used, $15,900; the Convention also owns real estate of the estimated value of $20,000, besides holding in trust several church lots and parsonages.

During the sessions there were interesting occasions at which reports were made by returned missionaries, both from the foreign and home fields. The hand of welcome was extended to 8 new pastors, who had entered service in Maine during the year, and fraternal greetings were extended to representatives of the Free Baptists. The report on the state of religion was prepared by Rev. J. M. Wyman. Papers and addresses were presented by Mrs. I. B. Mower, on "The Rewards of the Sunday-school Teacher"; Rev. T. F. White, on "The Missionary Spirit in the Church"; B. H. Winslow, on "Our Finances"; T. J. Morgan, D. D., on "The Roman Catholic Church and Indian Education"; the interests of the general societies were represented by Dr. Morgan, H. C. Mabie, D. D., and Rev. C. H. Spalding. The organization of a State Union of Baptist young people was recommended. Resolutions regarding Sabbath desecration, advanced study in Sunday-schools, Bible work, the general societies, and expressive of the appreciation of the services of the retiring treasurer, who had given 30 consecutive years of efficient and gratuitous work, were adopted.

The Seventy-fourth Annual Meeting was held at Auburn, October 4, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Wyman, from 1 Cor. 1: 24.

The receipts for the year were, balance $6.19; from 58 churches and four individuals, $474.80; income from funds, $290.04; other sources, $29.52; a total of $800.55. There had been paid to beneficiaries, $773.47, ordinary expenses, $14, and balance in hand, $13.08; the invested funds amount to $4,700.

During the year 11 students had been aided, 8 in the regular course at Colby University, and 3 in academies. The number of applications pending for approval will make 12 beneficiaries for the present year. There are in this State 1 university and 4 academies, from all of which reports were presented at this meeting. The latest statistical information concerning them should be found in our educational tables. An address was made by Geo. Bullen, D. D., of Newton Institution, and Rev. T. D. The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held at Auburn, October 3. Nothing was done except to elect officers and receive the treasurer's report. This latter showed that the invested funds and cash on hand at last report was $3,249.51, and that there had been received in contributions, interest, and dividends, $331.71; there had been paid to beneficiaries, $195, and ordinary expenses, $6, leaving fund on hand amounting to $3,380.22. This Society meets annually in connection with the Maine Baptist Convention.

The Fifty-eighth Annual Meeting was held with the Brantley Church, Baltimore, October 24–26, 1893. There were enrolled 431 representatives of 45 white churches, 51 representatives of 15 colored churches, and 5 representatives of 3 new churches, a total of 487. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. F. B. La Barrer, from Acts 16: 9.

The number of missionaries employed during the year had been 27, who had given 1,062 weeks of labor; preached 2,602 sermons; delivered 1,282 addresses; held 2,816 prayer meetings; baptized 267 persons; traveled 26,129 miles; made 9,351 religious visits, and distributed 490 copies of Scripture and 38,239 pages of tracts. The stations occupied were in 13 counties of the State and the city of Baltimore, a total of 35; 8 of these were colored. Among this class of population an evangelist and a general missionary were stationed; a missionary also was employed to labor among the Germans and immigrants landing at the port of Baltimore, which is the second port of entry in the country for German immigrants. Of the aided churches, 8 white and 2 colored give promise of becoming self-supporting within a short time, and 4 white and 5 colored have no prospect of ever becoming so. The calls for aid are beyond the power of the Board to answer; there are 30 towns of over 1,000 population in which there is no Baptist church, but in some of them there is the possibility of organization if aid could be rendered; two churches became self-supporting during the year. The receipts of the treasurer were, contributions from white churches, $5,022.41; colored churches, $251.35; white Sunday-schools, $395.79; colored Sunday-schools, $17; women's societies, $231.14; Southern Baptist Convention, $125; dividends, interest, and rents, $844; a total of $7,800.19. There had been paid to mission fields, white, $5,327.17; colored, $877.03; repaid contra-balance, $236.94; sundries, $1,668.76; total, $8,109.90; leaving a contra-balance of $309.71. The investment account had received from legacy and mortgage, $5,725, the amount now being $6,045 10; for education there had been received $681-.95, which had been expended in the support of 15 young men, 2 of whom were at the Louisville Seminary, 3 at Crozer Seminary, 2 at Richmond College, 3 at Wayland Seminary, 2 at Richmond Seminary, and 3 in preparatory schools. The Building Loan and Gift Fund reported receipts, balance from last year, $345.99; contributions from churches, $805.83, total, $1,151.02; the securities belonging now to this fund amount to $2,314.22; there are other securities belonging to the Association aggregating, with what is known as the W. G. Rider Fund, $19,-312.50. The treasurer of the Widows' and Aged Ministers' Fund had received $3,558.14, of which $2,122 27 was balance from previous year; there had been paid beneficiaries during the year, $275.

The organized women's work is a part of this Association, although separate societies for home and foreign missions are maintained, and these report to the Annual Meeting. There had been raised for home missions by the women, $5,093.01, and they reported 36 auxiliary societies, and 34 bands among 42 churches and Sunday-schools; 15 boxes had been sent to frontier missionaries, and work had been maintained among the Germans and colored people at home, and the general and Cuban work abroad, besides the maintenance of the Chinese Sunday-school. For foreign missions the Women's Society had raised $4,736.40, all of which had been expended for the objects of the society. In addition the Maryland Baptist mission rooms, at No. 9 West Lexington Street, Baltimore, have been maintained; the treasurer of this enterprise reported cash from sales, $3,515.04, and other items, making a total of $3,860.63. There had been 3,769 packages mailed, exclusive of local sales; 187,500 copies of 33 leaflets were printed, and 5,000 mite boxes, 23,000 mission cards, and 10,000 printed postal cards had been sent out.

The time of the sessions was occupied in the consideration of prepared reports on education; home missions, pending which an address was made by Rev. F. C. McConnell; Sunday-schools, with an address by T. P. Bell, D. D.; State missions, attended by reports from a number of missionary pastors; city missions; foreign missions, to which R. J. Willingham, D. D., spoke; temperance; women's work, and the Baptist Orphanage, this latter reported a family of 20 children and 5 attendants, and total receipts for maintenance, $570.36. Appropriate resolutions on the death of Rev. Dr. Griffith were adopted.

The closing session was devoted to the Baptist Young People's Union of Maryland, Rev. L. L. Henson, presiding. An open parliament occupied the bulk of the time.

The next session is to be held with the Fulton Avenue Church, Baltimore, beginning Tuesday, October 30, 1894, and F. M. Ellis, D. D., was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Twentieth Anniversary was held in the First Church, Cambridge, October 25, 1893. There were present, 10 life directors, 24 life members, 145 annual members, 167 ministers, and 68 visitors, in all 414 enrolled. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. E. P. Farnham, from John 17: 26.

The secretary's report treated largely of the obligations accruing from the largely increasing foreign populations, work among which had been pressed with some degree of success, though the work naturally was slow and not immediately followed by conversions. The efforts of the Convention have also been directed to churches located in the midst of sparse and declining populations, and from nearly every field some tidings of good had come. Four new churches had been organized and one reorganized. Judicious aid had been rendered in the erection of a number of church buildings, and other churches are encouraged by the expectation of similar aid. The State missionary had been constantly employed during the year in evangelical and financial work.

There had been received from 233 contributing churches, $6,365.55; from individual donations, $120.75; net amount from invested funds, $34,249.00; balance from previous year, $6,918.66; a total from all sources of $61,360.76. There had been paid to 82 churches various sums amounting to $11,318.83; for work among foreign populations, $16,642.16; for church buildings and repairs, $21,445.81; a total expenditure of $48,399.96; leaving a balance of $12,960.80. The appropriations had largely exceeded those of the preceding year, and yet the income from all sources had largely decreased.

The consideration of the report was attended by a supplementary address by Rev. W. H. Eaton, and a general discussion which emphasized the need of aggressive work and increased contributions. It was resolved to appropriate $12,000 for building and repairing church buildings, and $5,000 for French and city mission work. The interests of the Boston Baptist Hospital were represented by Rev. Walter Calley. In addition to the usual resolutions the Convention expressed its sorrow for the death of Benj. Griffith, D. D., and appointed a committee to represent the body at the funeral.

The place of the next anniversary is to be decided upon by the Executive Committee, the time being in October, 1894, and Rev. Frank Rector was selected as the preacher of the next Convention Sermon.

The Sixty-fourth Annual Meeting was held in Cambridge, October 24, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. James P. Abbott, from Heb. 9: 28, on "The Second Coming of Christ." The Annual Essay was read by Rev. J. S. Swaim, on "True Christian Liberalism"; this was followed by a general discussion of the subject, participated in by a number of the ministers.

The treasurer's report showed contributions from churches, $930.31; from individuals, $16.75; legacies, $5,500; income of permanent fund, $1,325; and balance from preceding year, $999.89; total, $8,771.95; appropriations had been made to 15 aged and disabled ministers to the amount of $2,335.00; cash balance on hand, $800.09. The obituary report contained memorials of 9 ministers who had departed during the year.

The next meeting is to be held in connection with the State Convention; Rev. J. M. Hull was appointed to read the Essay, and Rev. M. F. Johnson to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Seventy-second Annual Meeting was held in Cambridge, October 24, 1893. The report of the secretary showed that aid had been rendered to 33 widows and orphans of Baptist ministers, and seriously pressing wants had been relieved. The total income reported by the treasurer was $3,223.94, of which $1,260.93 had come from the churches, and $1,918.01 from income of the permanent fund; legacies had been received to the amount of $2,000, and invested; the appropriations for the year amounted to $2,995.00. There was no prepared address, but a general discussion on the claims of this work by a number of the brethren.

The One Hundred and Second Annual Meeting was held in Cambridge, October 24, 1893. The report of the secretary showed that aid had been given to 80 young men preparing for the ministry; 63 being in the Newton Institution; 14 in various colleges, and 3 in academies; of those at Newton 22 had devoted part of their time to missionary work; in the last graduating class from this college 3 out of 25 went to the foreign work; in the place of those whose connection with the Society had ceased, 31 new students had been received, and the entire number aided this year is larger than ever before. The financial condition was reported unsatisfactory. It appears that 99 out of 500 churches in the district had contributed $1,260.93; the total income from all sources, including interest on invested funds, was $3,223.94; the invested funds now amount to $37,585.15; $2,000 had been received in legacies.

In addition to the address of the president on taking the chair, there were addresses of an historical character by R. C. Mills, D. D., and N. E. Wood, D. D. The Ninth Anniversary was held at Cambridge, October 26, 1893. The number of new schools organized during the year was 24, with an average attendance of 40.21, the total membership in the schools is 69,832. The contributions of the schools aggregated $63.-557.05; there had been 1,913 baptisms, and 412 deaths. The treasurer reported receipts amounting to $4,326.92; an expenditure of $3,995.65; and a balance in hand of $331.27. A pledge of $2,000 was made for the support of a chapel work at New Bedford. The character of the work maintained had been educational and evangelical, although churches had been organized and chapels built, and many old schools had been reorganized on new lines.

Rev. W. O. Millington spoke on "A Large Business on a Small Capital"; H. C. Graves, D. D., described the work done among French and Portuguese populations; reports from interesting fields, and of a special nature were made, and A. T. Eddy made an address on "The Work of the Holy Spirit."

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Cambridge, October 25, 1893. There were present 189 delegates, representing 83 churches. The secretary's report showed the gratifying fact that the friction between this organization and the Christian Endeavor Societies had disappeared, and the aim of the Union was better understood. The receipts for the year had been $60.03, and the expenditures $40.75, leaving a balance of $9.28. The canvass of 311 churches resulted in no returns from 51, and a report of no young people's organization in 35; so we understand that there are 225 Young People's Societies in the State. There are 74 B.Y.P.U., 130 Y. P. S. C. E., and 26 otherwise-named societies. Eight Associational Unions have been organized. The aggregate membership is nearly 12,000, only 11 per cent. of the churches being without an organization of some name. The addresses were by Henry M. King, D. D., on "The Educational Aim of the Young People's Union"; and Prof. H. T. Bailey, on "Our Young People and Our State Work."

The Fifty-eighth Annual Meeting was held at Muskegon, October 18–22, 1893. The committee on enrollment reported 222 in attendance. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. L. Cheney, from John 12 : 21.

There had been 62 missionary pastors commissioned, and 8 general missionaries and one superintendent employed, the largest number in any single year. By this means, 88 churches have been assisted in the support of regular preaching, together with 44 out-stations, the general missionaries supplied 76 points; the superintendent had visited 80 churches, attended 3 dedications, delivered 138 sermons and addresses, and traveled 14,572 miles. The number of baptisms on mission fields, was 721. For this work, the Board had disbursed $9,646.55, and the Women's Board had contributed in addition, $1,385.64, of which $720.75 was for the general missionaries. Encouraging progress had been noted in the completion of houses of worship and organization of churches at important towns, especially in the Northern Peninsula, and city mission work in the large communities had been successfully inaugurated. On the subject of State missions, addresses were made by Rev. J. C. Rooney, Rev. J. S. Collins, Rev. J. L. DeLand; Rev. E. Sorensen, representing the Norwegians; Rev. A. Pierce and Rev. G. A. Ames, all occupying important missionary stations.

The secretary's report shows that 23 ministers had left the State, 56 had changed their fields, 17 had resigned, 17 had come in from other States, 20 had been ordained, and 7 received from other denominations. There had been 17 houses of worship dedicated and 9 others are in process of erection; 3 churches had been organized.

The report of foreign missions showed $9,350 contributed by 280 churches, 70 Sunday-schools, 50 Young People's Unions, and 27 individuals. An address was made by Z. Grenell, on "Some Lessons from the Centennial Effort"; and Rev. J. S. Boyden represented the Missionary Union. In this connection, the women also presented a report of their work, and Mrs. C. W. Barber read a paper on the educational features. For home missions, $4,649.49 had come from 125 churches, 20 Sunday-schools, 11 Young People's Unions, and 15 individuals; besides $1,300 from the Women's Home Mission Society. As a contrast, the amount expended in Michigan by the home mission society was $10 in excess of the gifts of the churches in the State. Rev. W. Whitney read a paper in connection with the report on "The Gospel as a Factor in Saving the Nation"; and E. H. E. Jameson, D. D., followed in an address on the general home mission work. In considering the work of the Publication Society, it appeared that 2 Sunday-school missionaries had been laboring among the Scandinavian population, and 2 colporteurs sustained by the Publication Society. These had traveled 40,269 miles, organized 17 Sunday-schools, constituted 2 churches, preached 725 sermons, and visited 2,685 families. Addresses were made by these colporteurs, Rev. E. D. Rundell and Rev. J. W. Harris. The Ministers' Aid Association had received $1,712.49, and reported a beneficiary list of 81; 25 had received entire support from the society, 16 lived in the home at Fenton, and 56 received aid in monthly remittances at their residences.

The treasurer of the Convention reported permanent funds amounting to $33,650. The interests of Kalamazoo College were represented by Galusha Anderson, D. D., and President Slocum, showing the prosperous condition of the college. There were reports and discussions following, on temperance, the state of religion, and obituaries, and a sermon especially applicable to State mission work was preached by Rev. W. Whitney.

The next session is to be held at Lansing, October 17, 1894, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by J. L. Jackson, D. D.

The Twelfth Annual Meeting was held at Muskegon, October 17, 18, 1893. The topics considered were: "The Progress of Biblical Science," by Rev. H. F. Cochrane; "The Higher Education," in a general discussion in the absence of the appointed speaker; "Baptist Fellowship," by Rev. H. M. Ford; and "Conditional Immortality," by Rev. R. W. VanKirk.

It was voted to consider the designation, "Baptist Ministers," to include pastors of Free Baptist churches and licentiates. This is the recognition of the step lately taken by the ministry of this State to secure a blending of the "regular" and "free" Baptist churches; a deputation from the latter denomination was present, and fraternally received. In connection with this meeting, there was a business men's conference, which was attended by 50 laymen, and who were addressed by F. H. Thompson, S. L. Boyce, Prof. W. W. Beman, Roger W. Butterfield, Hon. T. E. Barkworth, and G. L. Prescot. It was determined to organize a Laymen's Conference, to meet annually. The last session was a blending of the two bodies, in which there was a general discussion, followed by a consecration service.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held a Muskegon, October 19. There were reported 217 senior unions, of which 187 are Baptist Young People's Unions, and 30 are Societies of Christian Endeavor, with 9,597 members; and 40 junior unions with a membership not exactly known. There is a gain of 30 in the number of societies. Every Association except one was represented in this meeting by 84 delegates, besides 39 visitors. Mr. J. L. Chapman and Rev. D. D. MacLaurin made the principal addresses. Miss Lou LaTourette, outlined the junior work in its peculiar features.

The next meeting is to be held at Lansing, in connection with the State Convention.

Women's Work.

There were meetings of the Women's Foreign and Home Mission Societies during the meeting of the State Convention at Muskegon. Mrs. C. W. Barber, Battle Creek, is the president; and Mrs. R. E. The Thirty-fourth Anniversary was held at Rochester, October 10–12, 1893. The number of churches represented was 38, by 110 messengers, and 7 visitors were enrolled, a total of 117. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Geistweit, from Acts 1 : 8, on "The Divine Plan of Evangelizing the World."

The churches which received aid during the year were, in number: 40 American, 15 Swedish, and 4 Norwegian and Danish. The statistics are: churches served, 59; weeks of labor, 2,709; sermons, 7,023; prayer meetings held, 3,807; pastoral visits, 14,879; baptisms, 590; received otherwise, 341; the membership of mission churches was 4,109; Sunday-schools were 72; and 13 of these had been organized; pledges to salaries on fields, $20,906; and of this $17,946 had been paid; paid on incidentals and Sunday-schools, $7,363; on improvements, including new lots and buildings, $5,008; on indebtedness, $3,120; paid to various benevolent causes, $3,652. The Board had attempted to raise $12,000, exclusive of the appropriations by the Home Mission Society. The calls were so urgent that before the labors of the Board were concluded the appropriations for work had aggregated $15,500. This being followed by the financial stringency occasioned much embarrassment, yet by management the obligations were reduced to $14,500. The treasurer's report showed as contributed by the churches $9,439.29, and a balance from previous year of $716.67. This seems to be exclusive of the Home Mission Society's contribution, as the estimated net deficit was reported to be $1,912.09.

A Sunday-school missionary was kept actively employed by the Publication Society, who has the superintendence of five other colporteurs and missionaries sustained by the same society. One of these has charge of the Chapel Car "Evangel," another controls a gospel wagon, and another devoted his time to the large population of Danes and Norwegians. The statistics of their work is included in the general report of the Publication Society. Another man is about to enter the field in this department of effort.

The educational interest is Pillsbury Academy, located at Owatonna. A Board of visitors reported on the general advance and excellency of the institution. A new department of physical culture had been established. The Music Hall, recently destroyed by fire, had been rebuilt. The curriculum had been enlarged, and the library had received valuable additions, although not as extended as is hoped for the future. The latest statistics should be looked for in the appropriate table.

The principal addresses made during the sessions were by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., on the "Work of the Home Mission Society"; Rev. J. W. Conley, on "State Missions"; Rev. E. P. Savage, on "Children's Aid"; Rev. W. W. Dawley, on "Minnesota's Obligations to the Home Mission Society"; W. M. Haigh, D. D., on "Encouragement in Home Mission Work"; Rev. Frank Peterson, on "Foreign Missions"; Rev. Wm. M. Upcraft, on "The Future Outlook in Western China"; J. W. Ford, Ph.D., on "The Value of Pillsbury Academy to the State"; "Voices from the Fields," by a large number of missionary pastors; and reports by district missionaries operating among the foreign populations. Reports on the various denominational movements were read, discussed, and approved. The Baptist young people's movement was endorsed. Resolutions looking toward the appointment of standing committees in the Association to advise as to ordinations were also adopted.

In women's work, the churches of the State are well organized, and are energetic in both departments of home and foreign missions. The connection with the general societies, located at Chicago, is very intimate. Full reports of the work in the State were made, although the details of receipts and expenditures are not given. For these reference should be had to the general reports. In foreign mission endeavor there appear to be 121 circles, 57 young ladies' societies, and 81 children's bands.

The next meeting is to be held with the Immanuel Church of Minneapolis, beginning Monday, October 8, 1894; and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. G. L. Morrill.

The share of the Society resulted in $101, coming from 39 churches in greatly varying amounts. Eight students had been aided. The Northwestern Educational Society, at Chicago, reported that it had received $205.88 as coming from 16 churches, 10 being Swedish, while it had paid to Minnesota students, $516. The treasurer of the society reported as received and disbursed $188.03. Following the report pledges for future work amounting to $215 were made. Secretary of Missions.

Rev. A. V. ROWE, Winona.

The Fifty-fifth Annual Meeting was held at Summit, July 20–24, 1893. There were in attendance 240 delegates representing 27 Associations, 80 churches and 25 societies of women. The Convention Sermon was preached by Rev. S. C. Mitchell, from John 8 : 32.

The number of missionaries at work had been 43. These had rendered 2,048 days of service; traveled 28,209 miles; served 73 stations; preached 1,493 sermons; attended 427 prayer meetings, visited 2,788 families for religious purposes; baptized 311 persons, and 173 others had been baptized in connection with their work; received otherwise, 114; organized 1 church and 12 Sunday-schools, and distributed 27,405 pages of tracts. Their collections for State missions amounted to $506.80, and for other purposes, $4,261.00, not including $972.92 for their personal services. In carrying out directions to give heed to Sunday-school work, these missionaries were instructed to give attention to the work on their fields, resulting in the maintenance of 88 such schools. The work had been prosecuted under difficulties. Beginning the year with embarrassment, the time passed had been one of unrest, departure of valued pastors to other fields, and agitation upon the matter of their college being added to the fact of financial depression. There was a debt reported of $2,047.14.

The Board of Ministerial Education reported the enrollment of 40 students for the ministry, of which number 31 had received assistance, more or less, as required. Others had received aid from other sources. The cash surplus from previous year was $328.58; cash received during the year, $1,184.63; value of box contributions, supplies, $301.80; a total of $1,815.01. The 31 beneficiaries had received from this fund, $1,487.11, and the supplies noted above, $301.80, making $1,788.91; leaving balance of $25.10. Six young ministers had been graduated, with high class standing. The Kells Memorial Building, for use of such students, is completed and ready for occupancy. From this source the Board will have a revenue from rooms not needed by ministerial students. There are two cottages also used for the housing of ministerial students.

The trustees of Mississippi College reported good work done by faculty and students, but an unfavorable year, owing to the agitation incident to the proposed removal of the institution. Three professors had resigned and their places filled; contributions had ceased on account of the uncertain future; subscriptions on the endowment fund had not been paid, for the same reason, and some part of the salaries had not been met. In the face of these unusual difficulties, the work had been bravely prosecuted, and as large a class as ever had been graduated at the last commencement. The following financial statement was submitted: Bonds for general purposes, $38,164.50; bonds for improvement of buildings, $1,000; Tribbett Scholarship bonds, $3,000; total investments, $42,164.50. The average rate of interest of these is six and one-half per cent. There does not seem to be any further agitation of the question of college removal, and the institution remains at Clinton. The Convention resolved to rally with new zeal around it, and make it more than ever "The pride of Mississippi Baptists."

The treasurer of the Convention had received for the General Fund, $2,491.92; State missions, $1,644.12; foreign missions, $2,353-.75; home missions, $607.58; ministerial education, $180.30; seminary fund, $5.00; sustentation, $37.05; centennial mission fund, $994-.66; a total of $11,314.38.

The various phases of denominational work were discussed upon reports of committees. The seminary at Louisville was represented by W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., and a contribution made to the students' fund of $503.74. A contribution of $36.80 was made to the sustentation fund, for aid to needy aged and destitute ministers.

The next meeting is to be held at Winona, to begin on Thursday, July 12, 1894, and Rev. M. V. Noffsinger was appointed to deliver the Convention Sermon.

The Fifth Annual Meeting was held at Summit, July 19, 1893. The Annual Address was by Rev. W. J. Davis, on "Baptist Heroes in Southeast Mississippi." The report of the corresponding secretary was simply a call for increased interest, and the urging of the importance of preserving sketches of the ministry of the State. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $39.80, which contained an income of $4.00, for the year. Rev. C. H. Otkin was appointed to make the Annual Address at the next meeting, which is to be held at Winona, July 11, 1894.

Women's Work.

The Central Committee of Women's Work reported to the State Convention at Summit, funds raised as follows: Foreign missions, $852.92; home missions, $613.87; State missions, $504.50; ministerial education, $544.50; centennial fund, $658.32; Mississippi College, $54.15; sustentation, $99.80; home uses, $3,700-.11; theological seminary, $49.50; Jackson Church, $610.20; general fund, $16.00; boxes to frontier missionaries, $395.95; total, $8,138-.20. There had been distributed 300 chapel cards, 1,100 Christmas envelopes, 20,000 leaflets and pamphlets, 391 mite barrels, 550 reports, 700 prayer cards, and 1,000 copies of centennial literature. The support and education of a Cuban lad had been assumed. There are 468 societies in the State, but reports came from only about one-half of them. The new societies organized were 25. Mrs Rebecca P. Sproles is the corresponding secretary and treasurer. Jackson is probably her address, although none is given.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held with the Mt. Olive Church, Jones County, October 28-30. There were present 31 persons, representing 20 churches, 33 representing 6 Associations, and 2 annual members. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. William Thigpen, from Romans 1: 16.

The Executive Board reported the employment of 8 missionaries, who had devoted 548 days to the work; preached 488 sermons; traveled 9,179 miles, and baptized 49 persons. All of these missionaries were engaged among the remnant of the Choctaw Indians located in Southeastern Mississippi. The constituency of this Association is composed of some 6 or 8 Associations in the southeastern portion of the State, but the Body is not out of harmony with the State Convention, or the general work as represented by the Southern Baptist Convention. There were sent to this meeting, and reported by the finance committee, $213.23 for foreign missions; $185.54 for home missions; $82.86 for Indian missions, and $10.60 for other objects. Reports were considered on temperance, publications, education, Sunday-schools, and missions. In this latter report it was decided to request the Foreign Board of the Southern Convention to set apart one of its missionaries, to be supported entirely by this body, and steps were taken to secure the funds necessary for the support of such missionary. The sessions were interspersed with sermons and devotional exercises.

The next session is to be held with the Bethel Church, Newton County, beginning Saturday, October 27, 1894, and Rev. J. D. Simmons was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon.

The Fifty-ninth Annual Meeting was held at Carrollton, October 24–29, 1893. There were present 278 delegates. The Introductory Sermon was preached by J. C. Armstrong, D. D., from Rom. 8 : 1.

The number of missionaries and missionary pastors engaged was 71, and 15 general and local missionaries; there were 62 churches aided; the missionaries engaged in 16,388 days of labor, preached 8,657 sermons, reported 1,871 conversions, 1,435 baptisms, and received otherwise 536 persons; made 10,786 religious visits, and attended 2,691 prayer meetings; there had been 3 churches dedicated on mission fields, and $20,000 expended on church buildings raised by the missionaries; the total collection from contributions and legacies amounted to $11,437.57. In the general discussion which followed, instances were given of remarkable growth upon several mission fields, and strong organizations with commodious houses as the result of small outlays of money at times of emergency; in 34 counties in Southeast Missouri only 7 churches observed preaching every Sabbath; in the northwest part of the State there are numbers of towns not only without a Baptist church, but without a church of any denomination at all; there are 19 towns with from 3 to 5,000 people with no Baptist organization; St. Louis was reported as denominationally the most destitute part of the State, its 14 churches and 10 missions being inadequate to the rapidly increasing population.

In this State, what is known as the Missouri plan, is prosecuted, by which a Board represents the general Societies of the North and the Southern Baptist Convention alike, excluding agencies from both, and relieving them of all responsibility in collections; the plan was reported to have worked admirably, a comparison of the last 4 years with the 4 years preceding its adoption, showing an increase of $26,000 for home and foreign missions, and the abolition of agency expenses; for the year $12,232.46 had been raised for foreign missions, and $6,693.28 for home missions; these contributions came from 336 churches, out of 1,657. In considering the general subject there were addresses by Rev. R. T. Bryan, missionary from China, and Rev. J. L. Downing, missionary in Brazil.

The report of the trustees of Wm. Jewell College showed 214 students enrolled up to the time of the meeting, 65 of whom are studying for the ministry; 140 are professed Christians, and there are 12 sons of ministers. The special needs of the college were a library building with more books, a gymnasium, additions to the scientific department, and an academy department. President J. P. Greene in an address plead for this latter enterprise, stating that $16,000 were in hand toward a needed $35,000. The memorial fund, which now amounts to $27,000, had its beginning in the suggestion of a lady who gave $10, the savings of a lad who had passed away. Stephens College is the institution for women controlled by this body; it reported property of the value of $100,000, but expressed need of $25,000 for a chapel, as well as increased endowment. There are a number of other institutions in the State, all of which were commended by name in the educational report, and for their latest statistics reference should be made to the educational tables. The interests of the seminary at Louisville were represented by E. C. Dargan, D. D., and $500 was collected in behalf of the students' fund; there are 23 students from Missouri, 11 of whom depend upon the students' fund. Time was given to the representative of the Macon City College for negroes, and $76 was contributed to this object.

The annual report of the Orphans' Home was read by Rev. J. S. Kirtley, showing that the indebtedness upon the institution had been reduced to $3,500; a home was provided for 58 children, but has a capacity for 75 if there were furnishings sufficient for them, and a call was made for increased contributions to enable the institution to accommodate to its full capacity. The sanitarium at St. Louis was also commended by this body. This is an institution for the cure of invalids; having property valued at $109,121.00, and a capacity of 81 rooms.

The memorial service of W. H. Williams, D. D., late editor of the State paper, was held, at which addresses were made by Rev. N. R. Pitman, A. W. Payne, and J. T. Greene, D. D. References were also made to the departure of Rev. W. C. Barrett, and Rev. Wm. H. Vardeman, pioneer ministers, who had departed during the year.

A short space was given the representatives of the Baptist Young People's Union, in which it was resolved that the General Association in future meetings provide a time for discussion and addresses upon the work of the young people, and their more perfect enlistment in the denominational work in the State.

The next meeting is to be held at Louisiana, beginning October, 1894, and J. B. Fuller, D. D., was chosen to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Fifth Annual Meeting was held at Carrollton, October 24-27, 1893. Our information is meagre. The principal object is to sustain an institution of learning at Macon, Mo. There was collected for this purpose at the annual meeting, $873.23. The reports from the school were most encouraging. It had opened with more students than were enrolled the preceding year. Rev. E. L. Scruggs is president, assisted by two other instructors. The next meeting of the Convention is to be held at St. Joseph, with the Francis Street Church, in October, 1894.

MONTANA.

The Montana Association held its Eleventh Annual Session at Bozeman, July 20-22, 1893. Hon. P. H. Leslie was moderator, and Rev. Willis H. Brooks, Dillon, was clerk. There are 16 churches in the State, with an aggregate membership of 856. The church property amounts to $71,500. The total monies raised for all purposes was reported to be $12,155.61. Very close co-operative relations exist with the American Baptist Home Mission Society. This society supports the general missionary, although contributions are made by the churches. A number of the churches are not only self-supporting but contribute to the general cause. Three hundred and ninety-eight dollars and sixty-six cents was raised for home missions; $461.05 to foreign missions, and publication and Bible work were recipients of gifts from two churches. An attempt is being made, with general aid, to sustain a small Baptist paper. Women's work and young people's societies have a place in church development.

The next meeting is to be held at Missoula, beginning Thursday, July 18, 1894.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Session was held at Lincoln, October 25, 26, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. H. W. Tate, from Psalm 40 : 5. The Missionary Sermon was prepared by Rev. E. N. Harris, then on his way to the foreign field, and the manuscript was read by Rev. H. L. House; it was based upon the great commission. The report of the corresponding secretary showed 38 missionaries, including 2 district missionaries; these latter visited 175 churches, organized 3 new churches, dedicated 2 houses, preached 292 sermons, delivered 42 addresses, held 125 prayer meetings, made 933 visits, and baptized 30 persons. The corresponding secretary had delivered 105 sermons and 93 addresses, held 125 other meetings, distributed 45,093 pages of tracts, besides much other personal work. The missionaries were generally pastors in located fields. In the State, 15 new churches had been organized and 17 houses of worship finished and dedicated, 7 others are in process of building, 184 churches have houses and 94 are homeless. There are 15 American Associa tions, besides German, Swedish, and Danish Associations, with 16 unassociated churches.

The treasurer's report showed a total of $4,913.60 raised from all sources, excluding the sum of $6,000, which had been added by the American Baptist Home Mission Society, so that the whole amount of resources was $10,913.60; the balance in the treasury was $317.27.

An historical discourse was delivered by Rev. A. W. Clarke, and Rev. H. L. House delivered an address on "The Work of our Convention." The report on systematic beneficence was made by Rev. E. J. Bosworth, and an address on the subject was made by Prof. Strong. The report on home missions was made by W. P. Hellings, D. D., and followed by addresses by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., and H. C. Woods, D. D., on "Is Christianity to Save the Nation?" The resolutions adopted commended the various general societies, urged the completion of the subscription for Grand Island College by the first of January ensuing, and reaffirmed the position already taken on the temperance question. Resolutions expressive of sorrow in the death of Dr. Benj. Griffith were also adopted after memorial addresses.

A session was given to the consideration of educational affairs, at which the report was read by Rev. H. W. Tate, and an address was made by President Sutherland, of Grand Island College, urging the value and importance of the institution. Of the $15,000 to be raised before January 1, 1894, $9,000 had been secured; a general response was made to meet the deficiency, which resulted in the pledging of $5,400 before the close of the meeting. Rev. H. W. Stearns entered upon his work as the new secretary of educational affairs. The addresses were by H. L. Morehouse, D. D., who offered $5,000 from the Educational Society, on condition that the $15,000 be secured by January 1, 1894; and W. P. Hellings, D. D., president of the trustees of the college.

During the sessions, there were considerations of women's work in home and foreign missions, at which Miss F. Townsley spoke of the needs of Nebraska; and Mrs. M. A. Hitchcock, State vice-president, made an address on "Systematic Giving."

The next meeting of the Convention is to be held October 31, 1894, but where, the "Annual" does not state, the report of the committee not being furnished.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held at Lincoln, October 23. The attendance was not large, yet did not lack in enthusiasm. There were a number of practical addresses on points of interest to Sunday-school workers, and a discussion was had, which resulted in the appointment of a committee to propose the unification of all denominational work in the State, under one convention management. The secretary reported the work of the Publication Society as wrought in this State, the statistics being contained in a general summary of that society. Rev. J. W. Harris, of Chicago, made the principal address.

The Sixty-eighth Annual Meeting was held at Keene, October 18, 19, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. F. S. Bacon, from Luke 5: 6, on "The Necessity of Deep Sea Soundings in Christian Life." Rev. E. D. Cloyd read a paper on "Our State Work," which set forth the interdependence and union of interests between the self-supporting and the aided churches.

The annual report showed that 25 churches had been aided to an aggregate amount of $2,829 95, and that a general missionary had been employed. One of the churches aided is the Swedish, which was organized in Manchester, in 1891, and another is a mission which was taken up at Crown Hill, Nashua, last year, and which was organized into a church before the year closed. A missionary to the French, in Nashua, had also been employed during the year, in connection with the Home Mission Society; and also with the same co-operation and the church at Somersworth, a missionary to the French in the latter city is to be employed during the coming year. Foreign and home missions, the Publication Society, ministerial and other education, temperance and other subjects received due attention.

The next annual meeting is to be held with the Pleasant Street Church in Concord, October 17, 1894. The Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. C. L. White, and Rev. J H. Nichols is to read a paper on the State work.

The Sixty-fourth Annual Meeting was held at New Brunswick, October 31, November 1, 1893. There were present 279 delegates and 5 visitors, a total of 284. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. D. T. MacClymont, from Luke 12:32.

During the year there had been employed by the Board 42 missionaries, who had served 47 churches; occupied 58 stations, delivered 5,361 sermons and addresses, held 2,731 prayer meetings, made 15,205 pastoral visits, and baptized 181 persons. The receipts for the year from all sources were $9,257.09, and the disbursements $10,638.97, showing a deficit of $1,381.88, which, however, is met by the amount in the guarantee fund. The effort to establish a sustaining fund of $50,000, the income to be appropriated to the superintendent of missions, had not been as successful as was hoped, the attention of the churches having been drawn to the centenary of missions, and the stringency of the times operating as obstacles. The report of the superintendent of missions gives the statistics for the State, which are incorporated in the tables of statistics following. An Association of colored churches had been formed. Reference was made to the Old Ladies' Home in Newark, which now affords shelter for 16 persons.

It was proposed to constitute a special department for the erection and aid in building houses of worship, similar to experiments which have been made in other States with great success; encouragement was given on the part of wealthy brethren to warrant such a movement. The department is to raise funds to be applied to the aid of weak congregations, the money to be secured by a conditional mortgage, without interest, so that in case the congregation should become extinct the property would revert to the Convention. Constitutional changes were adopted, whereby 6 vice-presidents were provided for, one from each Association, and an alteration in the term of service by the Boards of Managers. The efficient secretary, Rev. Dr. Buchanan, retired from the work after 9 years faithful service.

The reports on the various denominational enterprises were attended by addresses by James Lisk, D. D.; J. A. Chambliss, D. D.; Halsey Moore, D. D.; R. M. Luther, D. D.; Rev. J. J. Pierson made an address on "Our Young People"; and Rev. Richard Hartley, on "Cities as Fields for Mission Work." An interesting report on denominational work in the State was made by Rev. H. A. Greisemer. A number of addresses were also made by missionary pastors aided by the Convention. Resolutions on temperance and race-track legislation were adopted.

The next meeting is to be held with the First Church, Plainfield, beginning October 30, 1894; and J. E. Sagebeer, D. D., was appointed as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Fifty-sixth Anniversary was held at New Brunswick, November 1, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. H. F. Stillwell, from Rev. 4: 7.

The report of the secretary showed 47 young men who had been aided, of whom 40 were still beneficiaries of the Board; and also one young woman. There was a larger number of applications for help than in the 54 years of the Society's history. The report urged the importance of discovering and encouraging young men to enter the ministry. It appeared that one-tenth of the pastors in the State had been helped in their studies. The contributions from the churches amounted to $2,654.03, $1,500 borrowed, and a present debt of $625.64; out of 234 churches 93 had contributed to this object; the appropriations for students amounted to $3,944.27; the invested funds now amount to $4,000.

The addresses on the occasion were on the general topic of "Education in Church Efficiency"; President H. G. Weston made an address on "Education in the Pulpit"; Prof. R. W. Prentiss, of Rutgers' College, spoke on "Education in the Pew"; and F. Gifford Nelson, D. D., on "Education in the Pulpit in Relation to Moral Reform." The principals of the institutions at Hightstown and Bridgeton also addressed the Society in outlining the work done, and the prospects for the future.

The next meeting is to be held with the First Church, Plainfield, in connection with the meeting of the State Convention, in October, 1894.

NEW MEXICO.

There are two Associations in this Territory, whose statistics we are able to give in the appropriate place. It is mission ground, and the Home Mission Society is engaged in fostering certain interests which have hope and promise. As in other portions of the West, the distances between the churches is great, and the destitution is very great.

The Eighty-sixth Anniversary was held at Oswego, October 25–27, 1893. There was a total attendance of 254, distributed as follows: Associational delegates, 43; church delegates, 55; life members, 6; missionary committee, 25; delegates from young people's societies, 41, and visitors, 10.

There had been 121 missionaries engaged in the work, 78 being pastors and 31 evangelizing students; they served 399 churches, and baptized 818 persons; they rendered 3,668 weeks of service; preached 9,315 sermons; attended 5,858 prayer meetings; and made 19,277 religious visits. The report called for a larger increase of beneficence for missionary evangelization; nearly $50,000 is devoted to that kind of work within the State, but the amount contributed directly to the Convention was but a third of that. The treasurer reported receipts amounting to $17,436.94, and the expenditures and indebtedness $19,129.77; leaving a net debt of $1,693.83. In the Church Building Department the receipts had been $5,826.03, and $739 were on hand: 11 churches had been aided in the extinction or reduction of their debts upon buildings. The report also calls for an increase in the employment of lay preachers, and advocates the making of special educational provisions for the theological preparation of such laymen for preaching work.

The adoption of the report was moved by Rev. H. H. Hunt, on "The Baptist Church in Service to the People," and the address in seconding the motion was by Rev. E. Richmond, on "Missionary Committees and Co-operative Work among the Churches." At another time a special address was made by Rev. T. J. Morgan, on "The Ideal Republic." Other addresses during the session were made in the interest of educational work by J. F. Elder, D. D., surveying the work of the 3 academies, 3 colleges, and 2 theological seminaries in the State; Prof. Sylvester Burnham, D. D., on "Culture"; L. M. S. Haynes, D. D., in consideration of the report on the Organization of Young People, followed by Mr. Henry C. Vedder, who opened a conference on the Educational Department of the Young People's Movement; Rev. A. A. Walworth and Rev. W. H. Butrick, on "The Church and the Education of the Young."

The Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting was held at Oswego, October 24, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. P. Faunce, from Matthew 13: 31.

The principal addresses were on the general subject of the state of religion: first, affected by prevailing sentiment, by A. E. Waffle, D. D.; second, as indicated by contributions, by Rev. A. W. Cady; and third, as affected by current theological discussion, by Rev. E. P. Lipscomb. Practical papers were presented on "The Efficient Pastor," by Rev. A. G. Fuller; "Helps and Hindrances to the Pastor's Spiritual Life," by Rev. P. B. Strong; "How Can We Make Our Sunday Evening Services More Helpful to the People," by Rev. W. T. Dorward; and "Being Thoroughly Furnished," by Rev. C. E. Maxfield. The treasurer's receipts had been $79.56; and the disbursements $107.13, so that the permanent fund was reduced to $531.91.

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Oswego, October 25, 1893. The meeting seemed to be one for general discussion and enthusiasm, since we fail to note the presentation of any statistical reports. The sessions were held in connection with the State Convention, which yielded a portion of its time to the discussion of topics relative to the Young People's movement. There is a desire on the part of all young people's societies in Baptist churches to affiliate with the Young People's Union. During the sessions the educational features proposed by the B. Y. P. U. were discussed in practical and explanatory addresses, and a platform meeting was held, at which addresses were made by J. W. Ford, D. D., on "The Need of Denominational Training Among Young People," and R. S. McArthur, D. D., on "The Enlarged Church." The number of delegates in attendance at this meeting was 88.

The Forty-second Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Rochester, May 11, 1893. The reports were received, officers re-elected, and addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Richmond, Pa.; Rev. T. E. Busfield, Mass.; Rev. Wm. H. Palmer, R. I.; and Rev. B. L. Herr, N. Y. It was resolved that the time was propitious for the establishment of a distinctively Christian academy in connection with the institution at Rochester.

The report on the condition of the Theological Seminary at Rochester, controlled by this body, was full of encouragement. The entering class numbered 34, and the present year was anticipated as marked by the largest number gathered for instruction than has ever been at the seminary. The whole number was 114, of which 59 are in the English and 55 in the German departments. Twenty-four States and Territories, the District of Columbia, and 4 foreign countries were represented. They came from 25 colleges and 3 theological seminaries. In addition to these, there were 30 students in the University of Rochester, 9 in Cook Academy, 3 in Marion Collegiate Institute, and 2 in the Rochester Free Academy; so that the whole number under the care of the Society was 163 students for the ministry. Not all of these, however, were a charge upon the funds. In the English department of the seminary, 50 students had received aid to the sum of $6,565; in the German department, 32, who had received $4,160; 29 young men had tuition in the university, and also monetary aid amounting to $2,580; in the academy, 14 had been aided to the amount of $664; so that the whole number helped was 125, and the whole cost of aid was $13,969.

The general receipts were: Cash balance to credit of securities account, $6,203.74; library income account, $489.74; President's Loan Fund account, $1,373.78; current expense account, $218.66; total, $8,285.92. For aid of students, $8,092.73 had come from churches and individuals; $2,260 from German churches, and $600 from State education societies, making a total of $10,952.73. For special purposes, $1,267.68; for President's Loan Fund, $1,551.27; income from permanent funds, $34,366.02; legacy for Scholarship Endowment Fund, $1,600; incidentals account, $1,389.50; by payments on mortgages, $91,430.99; loan account, money borrowed, $5,000; a grand total of $155,844.11. The disbursements were: Paid to students for the ministry, $13,969; for salaries of professors and instructors, $25,266.67; for library, mainly in added volumes, $2,705.66; current expense account, $9,375.13; loaned to students, $1,540; amount invested, $94,085.32; paid for Trevor lectures, $356; cash balances, $8,546.33.

The permanent funds now amount to $607,946.31, distributed as follows: Professorship Fund, $334,319.60; Scholarship Fund, $53,367.33; General Endowment Fund, $147,726.89; Reading Room Fund, $2,000; Alumni Scholarship Fund, $532.49; Trevor Endowment Fund, $10,000; Trevor Lectureship Fund, $10,000; Bruce and General Library Fund, $50,000. In addition to these funds, there is an investment of $102,827.05 in real estate; $68,285.69 in value of Library, Museum, and Loan Funds, and $2,011.87 in uninvested cash; so that the whole value of property is $781,070.92.

The printed report contains the usual reports of the president and faculty. The annual meetings are held in the city of Rochester, in the month of May, and the arrangements for them are made by the Board of Trustees and duly announced.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting was held in the First Church, Hamilton, June 20, 1893. Annual reports were made, officers elected and addresses presented. Rev. S. T. Ford, of Syracuse, speaking on "Historical Revelation," and J. W. A. Stewart, D. D., of Rochester, on "The Dignity of the Pulpit"

The Theological Seminary, which is under the control of the Society, reported a year of uninterrupted prosperity. The enrollment of students was the largest number ever reached. The work done in every department exceeded any previous year's. The student body have been the happiest, most appreciative and most loyal seen in the institution for many a year.

The lecture courses before the seminary comprised, "Methods of Christian Work," by H. S. Loyd, D. D.; "Christian Sociology," by Rev. Leighton Williams; "Mission Work in Large Cities," by Edward Judson, D. D.; "The Preservation of Health," by Smith Baker, M. D.; "The Relations of Science and Religion, Touching Particularly the Antiquity of Man," by Prof. G. S. Wright, LL. D., of Oberlin, Ohio, and "The Problem of the Family," by Rev. S. W. Dike, LL. D.

The completion of Eaton Hall to meet the requirements of the enlarged number of students; the revision of the courses of study; the provision made for special students; the increase of electives, and the new facilities offered for physical training were the leading features of interest in the reports of the faculty and board.

The report of the treasurer shows the permanent funds to be $57,247.73, an increase of $1,868.43 over last year; contributions for beneficiary purposes, $13,099.06; income from investments, $3,813.44; payments to students, $13,722.35; interest paid on memorial funds, $290.50. On the Eaton Hall account, $8,895.25 had been received and paid, which frees the building and property of the Society of all indebtedness; $3,793.05 was collected and disbursed on the theological hall account.

A summary of the past fifteen years indicates that $172,000 has been raised and expended for ministerial education; the new theological hall planned, built and paid for; the seminary placed in the best position, as to instruction, courses of study and attendance, in its history; 305 young men fitted, under the Society's care, for positions of usefulness; 240 in the pastorate, 25 as foreign missionaries, and 18 as teachers, of whom three are college presidents, seven principals of Baptist academies, three professors in theological seminaries and five professors in Baptist colleges.

Rev. D. B. Jutten, of Fall River, Mass., and Rev. W. G. Partridge, of Scranton, Pa., were elected speakers for the annual meeting in 1894.

The Sixty-third Annual Meeting was held at Elizabeth City, Dec. 8–10, 1893. The number of delegates enrolled was 157. The Annual Sermon was preached by J. W. Carter, D. D., from Rev. 1: 13, on "Christ in the Church."

The report of the Board of Missions showed that 105 missionaries had been employed in the State, who had labored in 25 Associations, and supplied 103 churches and 229 out-stations; they had baptized 1,086 persons and received by letter into the mission churches 1,165; they had preached 1,527 sermons, organized 47 churches and 72 Sunday-schools; completed 31 houses of worship and have 68 others in process of erection. The churches of the Convention had put into new houses of worship $72,100 during the year, and $8,200 into homes for their pastors. The institute work among the colored people had been continued with success. The treasurer's report for all objects passing through his hands, showed receipts and disbursements amounting to $124,307.36.

There are from this Convention twenty missionaries in the foreign fields—in China, Africa, Mexico, and Brazil, and others are to go out under appointment of the Southern Baptist Convention during the current year. In consequence much interest is created in the discussion of mission work, which is generally free and from the floor, without set or prepared addresses according to a fixed programme. The presence of Rev. R. T. Bryan, one of this State's contributions to China, was an occasion of interest, and he and R. J. Willingham, D. D., made addresses upon the foreign work.

Much time was taken in the discussion of educational features. The principal institution, Wake Forest College, was reported in a continuously prosperous condition, as were a number of institutions of lower grade. It is still hoped to permanently establish a high grade institution for female education, and this interest elicited a general discussion. The relations of the State to denominational education was also the theme of animated debate, and it was resolved to memorialize the legislature as against any methods which would leave the colleges and seminaries established by citizens in the embarrassing position of being compelled to bring their institutions into unnecessary competition with the State.

In the consideration of home missions, Rev. F. C. McConnell addressed the Convention, and T. P. Bell, D. D., spoke in the interest of the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and C. C. Bitting, D. D., in the interest of Bible and publication work of the Publication Society. The interests of young people's societies was the occasion of an evening's discussion. The proposition to create a State organisation did not meet with favor, but a committee to foster the organisation of such societies was appointed. The condition of the Ministers' Relief Board was reported as not in a flourishing condition; under the influence of enthusiastic speeches it is hoped that interest may be revived. The Sunday-school and colportage work is to be continued separately from the Board of Missions, although the project of merging it was much discussed. One of the interesting features of the work of this body is the very flourishing Orphanage at Thomasville, which is in better condition every way than at any previous time.

The next session is to be held in Charlotte, beginning December 6, 1894, and Rev. C. W. Scarborough was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Thirty-seventh Annual Session was held at Asheville, October 18–22, 1893. There were enrolled 3 life members, 9 representatives of 4 Associations, 102 delegates from 34 churches, and 2 representatives of other bodies. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. D. A. Glenn, from Psalm 36:9.

There had been employed 9 missionaries, who had given 489 days to the work, traveled 2,488 miles, made 59 addresses, made 840 visits, baptized 50 persons, and collected for missionary salaries $425.77, and for other purposes, $47.35. The work of conducting Sunday-school normal institutes, begun with much promise, was abandoned, owing to the failing health of the man employed. The work of the corresponding secretary includes 2,854 miles of travel, 89 addresses, and $1,023.89 collected for missionary purposes. The amount received for the work of the Board was $1,908.07, which had been disbursed, save a balance of $278.88 There is no indebtedness. The Home Board of the Southern Convention contributed $600 to this work.

The treasurer reported for Conventional missions, $1,903.07; foreign missions, $185.74; Orphanage, $181.26; church building, $21.83; education, $2.94, and home missions, $12.46; a total of $2,607.30.

There were reports and discussions on periodicals; Sunday-schools, pending which C. C. Bitting, D. D., made an address on the work of the Publication Society; deceased ministers; home and conventional missions, during which addresses were made by T. P. Bell, D. D., and I. T. Tichenor, D. D., representing the Sunday-school and Home Mission Boards of the Southern Convention; education, in which it appeared that there are 1 college and 1 high school in the bounds of this Convention, besides a quickened interest in another community, and in which also Wake Forest College was endorsed; the Orphanage; foreign missions, and temperance The women's work is being organized with a full complement of officers, whose names only are given, without their postal addresses.

The Tenth Anniversary was held at Grand Forks, July 28–31, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. Peter Mitchell, from 1 Cor. 3: 22, 23.

Including the general missionary, there had been 36 men in the field, who had served through 936 weeks of labor, preached 2,606 sermons, supplied 27 churches, and 87 out-stations, attended 1,160 prayer meetings, made 6,720 religious visits, baptized 109 persons, and received otherwise, 92; there were 555 copies of Scripture sold or donated, and 27,278 pages of tracts distributed. There had been paid by the churches for houses of worship, $8,098.59; for local missions, $128.80; for home missions, $373.12; and for other benevolence, $593 95. There were 29 Sunday-schools on the field, 12 being newly organized, with an enrollment of 136 teachers and 1,293 pupils. The general missionary had with other labors preached 116 sermons, made 54 addresses, organized 1 church, and dedicated 3 houses of worship.

Other items of interest in the report are: nine ministers had gone from the State to other fields, and 12 had entered the work in the State. Seven church edifices had been built in the State. Two churches that had received aid had become self-supporting. Among the 80,000 Scandinavians in the State there were but 8 churches and only 3 of these have regular pastors. This population represents a third of the entire population of the State.

Following the report an address was made by W. M. Haigh, D. D., on "The Key-Note of the Convention." Several of the missionary pastors also made addresses. Addresses or papers were heard from Rev. W. L. Van Horn, on "The Relation and Duty to the Religious Future"; Rev. P. W. Longfellow, on "Systematic Giving"; Rev. L. J. Anderson, on "The Norwegian Work"; Rev. Frank Peterson, on "Foreign Missions"; Miss Ella Brainerd, on "Women's Missions"; and W. M. Haigh, D. D., on "Gathering Up the Crumbs."

The treasurer's receipts for the year from the churches amounted to $741.99. The work is mostly sustained by the Home Mission Society, which, under the last reported arrangement makes an appropriation of $10 to each one dollar raised in the State. Most of the ground is purely missionary fields. There is also work done by the Sunday-school missionary of the Publication Society, who had traveled 5,631 miles, sold or donated 129 copies of Scripture, and 115 books, and distributed 8,361 pages of tracts; he had also preached 69 sermons, made 111 addresses, and visited 742 families.

The Sixty-eighth Anniversary was held at Circleville, October 11, 12, 1893. There were present 166 delegates, representing 15 Associations and 75 churches. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. J. L. Smith, from Isa. 52 : 1.

There had been 34 missionaries employed during the year, who had been engaged 1,193 weeks of labor, preached 2,894 sermons; conducted 1,366 prayer meetings, made 10,578 religious visits, baptized 139 persons, and received 182 otherwise. The number of churches aided was 36; they had raised for all purposes, $27,480.22, of which $1,483.36 was for missions; 18 churches were aided in support of resident pastors, and 5 were aided in support of student supplies; the rest were aided for part-time service. There had been 3 district missionaries actively engaged for various periods during the year, besides a limited number of ministerial students to perform missionary work in their summer vacations. Great activity is noticed in the work of church erection, $11,079.17 being raised on mission fields for buildings and improvements. In considering the report of the Board an address was made by Rev. E. B. Jones, on "Baptists—Why?" and Rev. B. F. Zell, from the Freewill Baptist Church, spoke regarding prospective union between the two denominations.

The report of the treasurer showed receipts from collections for salaries on mission fields, $10,853.11; buildings and improvements, $11,079.17; Sunday-schools, $1,281.15; other home expenses, $2,683.43; raised on fields for home expenses, $25,996.86; for missions, $1,483.36. The expenditures under the direction of the Board of contributions from the churches of the State generally, were for missionary labor, $9,923.31; church edifice funds, $5,419.30; a total of $15,382.61.

Very interesting was the action of this body with reference to overtures looking toward the union of Regular and Freewill Baptists in Ohio. Rev. T. H. Drake made an address at the opening of the session, and a committee subsequently reported in reply recommending the appointment of a commission to join with the Freewill Baptists in formulating some practicable basis for closer fellowship and co-operation. Addresses in behalf of the various benevolent and missionary organizations were made by Rev. E. W. Lounsbury; Mrs. S. M. Fulton, representing the women's work; Rev. E. A. Read and Prof. C. L. Williams, for the Publication Society, on the topic "According to the Book"; and Rev. H. C. Lyman, on "A Higher Standard of Consecration." The obituary report made mention of the departure of 13 prominent workers in the cause.

In connection with this meeting an interesting session was devoted to the consideration of Sunday-school work. Addresses were made by C. E. W. Dobbs, D. D., of Georgia, and C. J. Baldwin, D. D. Rev. E. E. Knapp and Prof. H. E. Slaught presented the peculiarities of the Blakeslee method; and G. W. Lasher, D. D., spoke on the prevailing "International Lesson System"; the closing address was made by Mr. Charles Rhoads, representing the Publication Society. The usual resolutions were reported and adopted.

The next annual meeting is to be held during the week preceding the fourth Sunday in October, 1894, at Wooster; and Rev. H. A. Sumrell was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Annual Meetings of this Society are held in July, in connection with the commencement exercises of Denison University, but at the time of the meeting of the State Convention reports are made to another meeting; consequently at the anniversaries the Board reported beneficiaries, 62; 33 being in Denison University; and 27 in Granville Academy. For their support 155 churches responded, contributing $2,709.34, which swelled by income from other sources, made total available funds $5,060.21, which sum was not adequate for the demands made upon the Society. The disbursements were, in aid of students, $4,073.71; for other purposes, $2,631.17. The deficit has increased to $3,726.99.

The addresses on this occasion were by Rev. Emory W. Hunt, on "The Answer of the Church to her own Prayer"; R. S. Colwell, D. D., on "The Worth of Educated Men"; and Franklin Johnson, D. D., of Chicago, on "The Baptists, Then and Now."

The Second Annual Meeting was held at Circleville, October 11, 12, 1893, during the session of the State Convention. Minute reports were made from a large number of societies by Association. There are 22 associational unions of young people co-operating with this body. Beyond the reports, and an address by C. E. W. Dobbs, D. D., there did not seem to be any transactions of importance. While there are many scattering local unions throughout the State, no census has been taken, and there was no statistical report rendered to this meeting.

The annual meetings are held in connection with those of the State Convention.

OKLAHOMA TERRITORY.

The work in this Territory is combined with that in the Indian Territory, to which reference should be made. The convention covers both territories. Great advancement is being made in material things and the demand for religious privileges is correspondingly great. The number of new ministers in the Territory is large, as may be seen by reference to that list. Work is being done here by both the Home Mission Society and the Home Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. There are three Associations whose statistics are given elsewhere.

The Eighth Annual Session was held at Pendleton, October 19–22, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. R. D. Grant.

Our information is very meagre, lacking the data which it is desirable for the YEAR-BOOK to present. There was a slight falling off in the receipts by the treasurer. The Convention is in close co-operation with the American Baptist Home Mission Society, and the results of the State work are included in the summary of that Society. There were general discussions on home missions, the leading address being by Rev. G. T. Ellis; on education, Rev. A. J. Hunsaker leading; woman's work, both home and foreign, presented by Miss A. E. Boss and Mrs. Gilman Parker; and publication and Bible work, represented by Rev. W. H. McMichael. The Sabbath was observed in the delivery of sermons by Rev. Gilman Parker and Rev. J. O. Burroughs; and a platform meeting in the interest of missions was held, at which addresses were made by Rev. A. J. Hunsaker, Rev. J. Sunderland, and Rev. G. W. Hill, under appointment of the Missionary Union to Western China.

A session was given up to the young people, when the third annual meeting of the State Young People's Union was held. We are without any information of this meeting.

The next annual meeting is to be held at Oregon City, presumably in October, 1894.

In connection with the State Convention, there is a Ministers' Conference, which met immediately preceding the anniversary of the Convention. Rev. W. H. Pruett, Weston, was the chairman for 1893. A paper was read by Rev. E. A. Leonard, on "The Purity and the Efficiency of the Churches," which was attended by a full and animated discussion. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. C. A. Rice.

The Sixty-sixth Anniversary was held in the Tenth Church, Philadelphia, October 18, 19, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Ryan, from John 6 : 5.

The Society had sustained during the year, 2 evangelists and 66 local missionaries, distributed throughout the 20 Associations. The missionaries reported 6,770 sermons, 5,160 religious meetings held, besides regular preaching services; 16,215 pastoral visits, 727 persons baptized, and 40 out-stations supplied. The total receipts from all sources for State work were $18,284.16, of which $13,990.41 was from church and individual contributions; the total disbursements were $22,159.55; the deficit was reported to be $1,313.55. For the investment account, the receipts had been $7,011.80, of which $6,100 are invested in interest-bearing securities. The consideration of the report was attended by discussions on the general subject of State missions, as viewed from the standpoint of the missionary, by Rev. M. G. Smith, Rev. W. R. McNeil, and Rev. R. W. Perkins, Ph. D.; as viewed by the city pastor, by Rev. J. B. G. Pidge, and Rev F. B. Greul; and from the standpoint of the evangelist, by Rev. W. G. Patterson and Rev. Thos. Needham. Rev. Clarence Larkin spoke upon "State Evangelization and its Solution," with a map illustration.

The report on the establishment of a Building and Loan Fund was adopted, providing for the creation of a fund for the aid of feeble churches in the erection of new meeting houses, or in the liquidation of debts incurred in such erection. An address on the work of the Southern Convention in the Island of Cuba, was made by R. B. Montgomery, D. D., of New York. The obituary committee mentioned the names of 8 deceased friends of the cause, who had been intimately connected with the work of the Society. Resolutions on temperance were read and adopted.

The interests of the State Baptist Orphanage were considered at a platform meeting attended by a number of the inmates, at which the address was made by Benj. Griffith, D. D., who made an appeal for the liquidation of an indebtedness upon the institution; 80 children, of whom 8 are the children of Baptist ministers, are provided with a home by this charity; buildings at a cost of $40,000 had been erected during the year, and were about completed; a contribution of $400 was made at the close of the address of Dr. Griffith, which will be remembered with pathetic interest, as the last public address made by this distinguished man.

The next meeting is to be held at Altoona, beginning October 23, 1894, and G. E. Rees, D. D., was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Fifty-fourth Annual Meeting was held in the Tenth Church, Philadelphia, October 17, 18, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. Russell H. Conwell, from Mark 16 : 15, on "The Ideal Ministry."

The annual report shows $9,204.36 expended for 87 students. There had been 27 new students admitted, and 21 dismissed for various reasons, all honorable, save in the case of one. Thirty-eight are in the college department of Bucknell University, 16 in theological seminaries, 16 in Bucknell Academy, and the others in various institutions. The total receipts were $13,376.38, of which $9,624.49 were from the churches. The permanent investments amount to $30,000. There had been expended for aid of students, $9,204.36, and other payments left a deficit of $363.72.

The adoption of the report was moved by Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes, and seconded by J. M. Stifler, D. D., in admirable addresses; and the discussion was continued by President Jno. H. Harris, LL. D., of Bucknell University. Other addresses were made during the sessions, by J. K. Dixon, Rev. Warren G. Partridge, on "Young People's Work in Ministerial Education"; and Rev. Charles Colman, on "Supply and Demand."

The next place of meeting was recommended to be Altoona, in October, 1894. Rev. John Love, Jr., was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon, and W. A. Stanton, D. D., to preach at the Commencement of Bucknell University.

The Annual Meeting for 1893 was held in the Tenth Church of Philadelphia, October 18, 19. The attendance was very large. The lines of work suggested were, that every energy should be spent in pushing every undertaking which meets with the approval of the young people and their pastors, without seeking change in immaterial details of constitution; in seeking to develop the grace of giving in every young man and woman, so as to swell the sum total of every church's financial record; and in joining in a common study of the broader aspects of the coming of the kingdom of God on earth. The platform addresses were made by Rev. F. M. Goodchild, on "Thoroughness in Belief and Work"; and Rev. Russell H. Conwell, on "The Mission of the Church." The session closed with an interesting consecration service, held by Rev. J. W. Weddell.

The Sixty-ninth Annual Meeting was held with the Friendship Street Church, Providence, October 3, 1893. There were present 211 persons, representing 43 churches. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. A. Briggs, from Mark 12: 29–31.

Aid had been rendered to 15 churches, located in city and country neighborhoods, where young and progressive city interests and depleted country communities both required timely assistance. Also special interests were aided in the completion or securing of property essential to efficient work. An appeal brought aid from 44 Sunday-schools aggregating $771.11, for the purchase of a "Gospel Wagon," and this had been inaugurated, and was carrying the gospel to the unreached masses. The colporteur sustained by the Board had served through the year in 18 towns and 3 cities, holding 9 protracted meetings, in which 80 persons were converted, 38 being baptized; he reported 3,552 religious visits, and had delivered 385 sermons and addresses, a large number from the "Gospel Wagon" platform. The Convention missionary had visited 28 churches, delivered 258 sermons and addresses, baptized 24 persons, made 525 family visits, and held 2,520 personal interviews on subjects of religion. In addition to these labors, a stationed missionary among the French had given his whole time, distributed 3,000 pages of tracts, and 40 copies of Scripture; a student in the Newton Institution had spent his vacation periods in labors among the French; and a missionary pastor among the Swedes had also been sustained. The "Concentration of Effort" for the year had been upon the Congdon Street Church, Providence, in relieving it from pressing burdens, which had succeeded measurably, resulting in a donation of $1,820 24.

The general receipts and disbursements as reported by the treasurer were: For "Concentration of Effort," $1,820.21; the General Fund, $3,898.34; Colportage Fund, $3,187.56; special purposes, $1,997.16; miscellaneous income, $105.74; from Rhode Island Mite Society, $684.82; for the Gospel Wagon, $767.36; dividends and investments, $613.54, and other items making a total received of $9,512.32. The schedule of funds and investments shows an aggregate of $53,065.84, part of which is held in trust, the income to be devoted to specific interests.

During the meeting a report was made by the historical registrar of the accumulation of matter through the year; incidental changes in the constitution of the body were effected; addresses were made on the various departments of religious or denominational effort; the departure of five friends of the Convention to the better land was appropriately noted; and time was given to the consideration of the interests of young people, at which addresses were made by Rev. H. F. Perry, of Mass., and J. L. Campbell, D. D., of New York.

The place of the next meeting is to be determined by the officers, the time being Tuesday, October 2, 1894, and Rev. C. W. Burnham was chosen as preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The One Hundred and First Anniversary was held in the Friendship Street Church, Providence, October 2, 1893. The Annual Address was made by N. E. Wood, D. D., of Mass., on "Three Prime Principles of Baptists."

During the year 26 persons had received aid; 4 had completed their university course, 1 had retired on account of health, 1 had entered the Newton Institution, and 1, a young woman, had gone to the foreign field. There were 19 students as beneficiaries at the time of making the report. There was an immediate prospect of an increase of applications. Several individuals or churches had signified willingness to become chargeable for certain beneficiaries. In finances, no legacy had come in, and a serious indebtedness confronted the new Board. The treasurer reported balance from old account, $600.86; collections at annual meeting, $15.35; contributions of the churches, $2,245.43; a total of $2,861.64. The disbursements were the same, less a balance to new account of $297.33. The liabilities amount to $1,600.00; against this there are bank stocks and permanent funds, with cash balance, amounting to $2,497.33.

The next meeting is to be held in connection with that of the State Convention.

The Fifty-third Anniversary was held with the Friendship Church, Providence, June 7, 1893. Reports were in hand from 74 schools. The Annual Essay was read by Rev. Geo. P. Perry, on "Sunday-school Safeguards." It is published in the printed proceedings. Other addresses were by Miss Annie S. Harlowe, on Primary Work, with illustration of method; C. J. Spencely, on "The Story of a Young Man's Bible Class"; Rev. W. F. Arrington, on the Baptist Young People's Union; Rev. Burton Crankshaw, on "Temperance in the Sunday-school; What Shall We Teach?" Rev. C. H. Spaulding, on "Our Bible Lessons: Best Method"; and H. M. King, D. D., on "The Ultimate Aim of the Sunday-school."

There were 79 schools reported in the State with 1,610 officers and teachers, and 13,010 scholars. The number of church-members in the schools is 4,290; scholars over 15 years of age, 5,887. The baptisms were 409 for the year; the deaths were 94. There are 32,026 volumes in the libraries. Nine schools reported an average attendance of 200 and over, the largest reporting 622 average attendance out of a membership of 1,058. The four cities of the State show 29 schools with 8,855 members; the 27 towns show 50 schools with 5,774 members. There were 3 new schools reported. Thirty-six schools show increase of membership and 37 reported decrease.

The next meeting is to be with the Cranston Street Church, Providence, on Wednesday, June 6, 1894. Rev. W. L. Wood is to present the Annual Essay.

The First Anniversary was held with the First Church, Pawtucket, Nov. 1, 1893. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. It was an organization of all young people's societies in the State. The exercises consisted of a consecration meeting; practical talks on various departments of the work; addresses by Rev. W. L. Wood, Geo. E. Nichols, Rev. J. V. Osterhout, Rev. J. K. Wilson, S. W. Richardson, P. C. Sheldon; President Andrews of Brown University, on "Baptist Doctrine"; Rev. Alexander Blackburn, on "The Baptist Position Strategic"; the presentation of a State banner, and routine business.

Women's Work.

The Rhode Island Baptist Mite Society is among the oldest of such organizations in the country. It was organized for missionary work, Nov. 11, 1806. The membership fee is 52 cents per annum. The principal work has been done in the destitute portions of the State. Although an independent society, its contributions have been expended for many years through the State Convention, which itself was originated partly in response to needs which had been discovered by the Mite Society. The receipts for 1893 were $1,456.79, of which $818.03 were sent by individuals and Sunday-schools for the construction and current expenses of a "Gospel Wagon." The remainder of $638.76 was sent by the women of the churches toward the salary of the State colporteur, who had given very encouraging reports of successful work.

The Women's Auxiliary Committee of the Rhode Island Baptist Education Society had endeavored to awaken an interest in the work of this Society among the women of the churches. It had recommended two young women as beneficiaries, both of whom have already entered upon the foreign mission service.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society had held two meetings during the year, besides those held in the Associations. It has 1,400 members. There were reported 17 bands of children, with 458 members. The gifts of the centenary year amounted to $10,767.44. It is auxiliary to the General Society in Boston.

The Rhode Island Branch of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission Society had held an annual meeting, also holding meetings at the various Associations. The support of four missionary teachers constituted a large part of its work. It had also aided the Alaska Orphanage and other home mission schools. Its receipts were $3,099.68.

The Seventy-third Annual Meeting was held at Anderson C. H., November 29 to December 3, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. I. M. Mercer, from Titus 2 : 11–13. The attendance showed an enrollment of 186 representatives.

The number of missionaries commissioned during the year had been 79; of these, 67 were missionary pastors, 1 a lady, with Charleston as a field, 9 were missionaries and colporteurs, and 12 were colporteurs exclusively. They had served 186 stations, traveled 64,872 miles, engaged in 5,656 days of actual service, held 1,555 prayer meetings, made 16,147 religious visits, reported 626 conversions, and 585 baptisms; total additions to the churches, 1,265, making a total membership on mission fields of 7,147. Five churches had been organized, and 8 buildings built or in process of erection; there had been expended on buildings at stations, $14,031.80; the Sunday-schools organized numbered 66, there being 120 schools on the fields, with an attendance of 5,356; of the stations, 173 had collected regularly for missions; the number of Women's Missionary Societies was 57; the fields raised $117.54 for home missions, $1,857.07 for State missions, $327.06 for foreign missions, and $50.25 for ministerial education; there had been 50,000 pages of tracts distributed, together with a large amount of religious literature sold. In five important points new churches had been organized. The colportage work shows; Books and pamphlets sold, 10,469 for $2,673.41; Bibles and Testaments donated, 559, of a value of $127.41; special donations to needy Sunday-schools, $18.91; total amount sales and gifts, $2,819.73. The total amount of receipts as reported by the treasurer for State work, was $12,831.57. There are permanent funds on hand for colportage purposes, amounting to $2,983.59; in the church building fund, $593.35; and in the Mary Harley Fund, $900. The children in the Sunday-schools are called upon each year to work for church building purposes, and the "Little Church Builders" contributed for three such buildings, $397.30. Since 1888, these children have contributed to 13 church buildings, $3,831.14, all in small sums, pennies and nickels chiefly.

The Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood, is part of the organized work of this body. Several new buildings had been completed, the plan being to group the children in families, and avoiding a large structure. Forty-five children had been admitted, 10 having been transferred to permanent homes. Further improvement in the way of building is to be immediately commenced, as soon as further sums are in hand for the purpose. The present needs respect farming material and barns, and accommodations for mechanical training department. There had been received during the year from all sources, $7,688.47; and this was supplemented by collections at the session, of about $160.

The Aged Ministers' Fund had upon its roll of beneficiaries, 7 brethren; the prospect is for an increase of this number during the present year. Only about 25 or 30 churches had taken interest in this charity. There had been received $657.55, and there had been a balance in hand of $102. A collection, amounting to $51.25, was added to the fund.

The Board of Ministerial Education had aided 26 students at Furman University, paying $1,061.53 for their expenses, of which $100 only was for tuition. There were 13 other students for the ministry at this university, 12 receiving free tuition, and 1 paying all expenses. Up to the date of the Convention, 39 students for the ministry had been enrolled for the present session; of this number, 15 were receiving free instruction, and 24 that and other aid. At the Seminary at Louisville, there were 13 students from South Carolina. To them, $400 was paid by the Board, although the seminary funds had expended $852 21. The receipts on this account, were $1 939.83. The balance to new account was $248.30.

Other departments of work are the Negro Preachers' Fund, which did not report any special vigorous prosecution of work, on account of obstacles peculiar to the stringent period; the Home Board of the Southern Convention was invited to enter upon this work in the State. The Sunday-school Committee which had been appointed to consider plans for more active work in this department, and which reported making no recommendations.

In education, much interest was experienced in the two institutions at Greenville, for male and female education. These are now under the management of a single board of trustees, and it is proposed to attempt the securing of $12,000 for advanced work in the female department. The latest statistics of these institutions will be found in the appropriate tables. There did not seem to be any financial movement during the year, the past few years being very active in this work, although collections on pledges previously made, were constantly appearing.

In women's work, the Central Committee reported receipts for foreign missions, $6,694.20; home missions, $2,360.01; State missions, $546.47; expense fund, $146.12; a total of $9,746.80. The force was reported to consist of 273 societies of women, 47 children's bands, and 60 Sunday-schools organized for missionary work, besides a large number of individual givers. The work of distributing literature and general information on missionary topics is very large in this State, and is most gratifyingly organized.

The special features of this meeting, were a memorial service for the five pastors who had departed this life during the year, at which an address was delivered by Rev. F. C. McConnell; a Thanksgiving service on the day appointed for national thanksgiving, at which the sermon was delivered by Lansing Burrows, D. D., of Georgia; addresses by Rev. F. C. McConnell, on home missions; R. J. Willingham, D. D., on foreign missions; C. C. Bitting, D. D., on publication work; Rev. R. T. Bryan, on the work in China; and Prof. A. T. Robertson, representing the seminary at Louisville, following whose speech a collection was taken, amounting to $248 for the Students' Aid Fund. At a mass meeting for State work, addresses were delivered by Rev. G. T. Gresham, Rev. W. T. Derieaux, and Rev. D. W. Key. The Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention was also represented in an address by T. P. Bell, D. D.

Perry, on "Why Have Baptists Prospered in the South," was characterized as a valuable historical document. Rev. Jno. A. Brunson read a paper on "Baptist Principles; the Duty of Teaching them, and the Best Way." The programme and arrangements for the next meeting were entrusted to a committee. These meetings precede those of the State Convention.

The Seventeenth Anniversary was held at Orangeburg, May 3–7, 1893. There were 65 representatives of 27 Associations, 26 representatives of 15 Sunday-school conventions, 12 representing other meetings, and 6 representing individual churches, besides 39 life members. The Doctrinal Sermon was preached by Rev. E. R. Roberts, from Rev. 2 : 5; the Sunday-school Sermon was preached by Rev. J. O. Allen, from Prov. 22 : 6; and the Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. I. P. Brockenton, from Acts 20 : 35.

The Board of Managers had employed an assistant to the general secretary, who had visited all portions of the State in the interests of the body, and reported collections amounting to $653.75. Much local mission work was reported by the Associations, but there are no summaries of work wrought. Foreign missions received full attention, although not to that extent that the cause demanded; the churches co-operate with the Foreign Mission Convention of the colored people. The financial stringency had operated in checking the collections for educational purposes, $298 having been expended on 19 beneficiaries, and a balance of $104.65 being on hand. It was recommended to create a fund to be held in trust for the use of aged and infirm ministers. The total amount of collections reported by the secretary, was $2,385.30, all of which had been expended, save a balance of $47.08, for the objects of the Convention.

The special addresses during the meeting were by Rev. C. H Lee, on "The Press as an Educating Agency"; Rev. D. W. Blythewood and Rev. F. Brown, on foreign missions; Prof. Thos. L. Cotton on education.

The next meeting is to be held at Newberry, beginning Wednesday, May 2, 1894.

The Twelfth Anniversary was held at Aberdeen, October 6–8, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. D. R. Landis, from Luke 13 : 1, 2, on "The Attractive Christ."

The report of Dr. Shanafelt, corresponding secretary and superintendent of missions, showed there were 56 missionaries as pastors, laboring with 70 churches and 53 outstations; they had performed 1,787 weeks of labor, preached 4,834 sermons, attended 2,519 prayer meetings, made 12,254 visits, received by baptism 265 persons, and otherwise, 206; the total membership on mission fields is 2,919; there had been paid for building houses of worship nearly $15,000, and on church debts, $2,518.48; the value of church property on the fields aided is $129,060, with a seating capacity of 7,300, and an indebtedness of $9,776. These churches contributed for their own support, $21,200; for home missions, $513.70; and for other benevolent objects, $2,032.64. The Sunday-schools, under the care of the missionaries number 70, with a total attendance of 3,855. Five new churches had been organized, 8 houses of worship dedicated, and 3 parsonages built or purchased. The year had been the most successful in the history of the Convention. The work of the corresponding secretary had been very large, including 110 sermons preached, 8 dedications attended, 6 ordinations, 5 constitutions of churches, 2,235 letters written and 18,240 miles traveled.

The Sunday-school work is making encouraging progress and numerous institutes have been held under the lead of Mr. D. P. Ward, Sunday-school missionary. The report on Education made special mention of the work done by the Sioux Falls University, and its claim upon the Baptists of the State. Following this report were addresses by President E. B. Meredith and others. The report on home missions was full of interest, and was followed by addresses by T. M. Shanafelt, D. D., Rev. C. G. Cressey, Rev. Jacob Olsen and a general discussion by others. The report on foreign missions plead for enlarged contributions and urged that the interest awakened during the centenary year might be continued. An address was delivered by the Rev. Frank Peterson, district secretary, and Rev. J. W. Harris, for the Publication Society, followed in the behalf of that organization. It was voted to attempt to raise $2,000 for home missions during the coming year.

The next annual meeting will be held at Madison, beginning Friday, October 4, 1894.

The Third Annual Meeting was held at Aberdeen, October 5, 6, 1893. The report of the secretary showed an encouraging progress. Interesting reports were received from most of the local Unions in the State. Miss Nora Pleasants gave an address of welcome. W. H. Stifler, D. D., spoke on the educational features of the work among young people. A paper on "Bible Study," by L. F. Sawtelle, was presented. President E. B. Meredith, of Sioux Falls University, made an address. An interesting feature of the meeting was the presentation of a banner to the Brookings Y. P. Union, from the National organization, for the best work done along various lines of study during the previous year. The next annual meeting is to be held at Madison, in October, 1894, in connection with the anniversary of the State Convention.

The Nineteenth Annual Session was held with the First Church, Jackson, October 11–15, 1893. There were in attendance 155 delegates and 6 visitors. The Annual Sermon was preached by J. M. Frost, D. D., from Phil. 1: 20.

The report of the State Mission Board showed the employment of 40 laborers, including the missionary secretary and the general missionary among the colored people, beside various workers employed for short times at specific points; these had worked 7,528 days; traveled 36,115 miles; preached 3,136 sermons; made 724 addresses; held 1,145 prayer meetings; made 7,376 religious visits; reported 7,013 conversions, 514 baptisms, and 1,014 additions to the church; organized 2 churches, raised for missions, $2,857.97, and $111.97 for other purposes. The treasurer reported receipts for State missions, $7,950.60; for foreign missions, $3,018 90; home missions, $2,192.30; Sunday-schools and colportage, $1,378.83; ministerial education, $1,335.90; and ministerial relief, $110.62; a grand total of $15,987.15, as passing through his hands. The total amount contributed from the churches was $11,743.94. The colored missionary had traveled 11,952 miles; preached 193 sermons; delivered 231 addresses; held quite a number of institutes; and organized the colored churches for more efficient work. The policy of the Board in establishing churches at county seats begun some years ago is marked with gratifying progress; among the points now occupied by them are 14 county seats, 5 cities, and a number of towns and villages; and as partial results of this policy there are 50 churches holding weekly service, where but two years since the number was but 15. The efficient secretary, Rev. J. H. Anderson retired at this session, and his place was subsequently filled by the election of Dr. Holt, of Texas.

The Sunday-school and Colportage Board had sustained the corresponding secretary and three colporteurs in the field, who had traveled 15,957 miles; visited 2,243 families; preached 360 sermons; made 298 addresses; held 60 prayer meetings; reported 208 conversions, and 47 baptisms; organized 16 Sunday-schools and 2 churches; besides distributing a large quantity of Bibles and religious literature. The receipts of this account had been from sales, $1,314.87; from the churches and Sunday-schools, $922.64; from the Southern Baptist Convention, $500; and a contribution of $50 to a permanent fund. Total, $2,787.51. There had been paid on salaries and expenses $1,926.57, and the rest had been disbursed in the purchase of supplies.

The Board of Ministerial Relief had been working in a quiet way, endeavoring to enlist the sympathy of the churches in this work, requesting but small contributions, so that the cause might lie upon all the churches alike; and no effort was made to collect a large sum, so that the receipts amounted to $110.62 from 10 churches and associational collections. The Baptist Orphan's Home reported to this session the care of 24 children, and the receipt of $3,514.79. There are yet $8,840.62 in pledges considered collectable for this charity. The general cause of foreign missions was considered in a report, and an address by R. J. Willingham, D. D., and home missions was the occasion of an address by Rev. F. C. McConnell, besides a general discussion, there were also reports on denominational literature, women's work, co-operation, education, and memorials. In the educational report reference was made to the 2 colleges of high grade in the State, the 4 seminaries for the training of women, 3 academies, the seminary at Louisville, and 2 institutions for the education of negroes. There had been 32 young men in the University at Jackson, and 20 in Carson-Newman College preparing for the ministry, and 14 young men from Tennessee in the seminary at Louisville.

The report of the women's work as presented to the convention, shows: secured for foreign missions, $1,281.35; home missions, $2,065.15; State missions, $502.77; local work, $3,536.68; Sunday-school work, $217.06; ministerial education, $510.35; missionary literature, $45; general benevolence, $52.63; support of indigent ministers, $836 39; a total of $9,047.38. There had been distributed large supplies: 5,048 leaflets, 872 mission cards, 305 magazines, 1,307 chapel cards, and a large number of other incidental methods of securing money. The expenses amounted to only $19.27, which was obtained, and $2.86 left as a balance. Fifteen boxes, valued at $814.02, had been sent to frontier missionaries; the Christmas offering for Japan was $222.64. Interest had been taken toward organizing the women in colored churches. Mrs. G. A. Lofton, Nashville, is president, and Mrs. R. C. Stockton (address not given), is corresponding secretary of the central committee.

This Society met in Jackson, October 11, 1893. It seems to be an old organization, although reference to it hitherto has not been made in the Year-Book. Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee to ascertain the best use that could be made of the property of Union University at Murfreesboro, which appears to be the possession of this body. All of the time of the meeting was taken up in the discussion of the interests of the Union University, and steps were taken to the bringing of the schools of the State into closer relationship with the society. The time and place of the next meeting was not stated in the minutes.

The Sixth Anniversary was held at Nashville, July 5–10, 1893. The Annual Missionary Sermon was preached by A. L. Hall, D. D., from Heb. 10: 22, 23. A sermon on foreign missions was delivered by Rev. R. N. Countee, from Matt. 5: 13. The Conventional Sermon was preached by Rev. H. Smith, from Mark 16: 15. The Doctrinal Sermon, on the Sabbath, was on "The Good Old Way," by Rev. W. G. Parks, from Jer. 6: 16. A closing discourse was delivered by Rev. C. Moore, from Col. 4: 4.

There had been under the Executive Board, 9 missionaries, who had preached 703 sermons, made 500 addresses, held 215 prayer meetings, held 75 institutes, reported 150 conversions, and 200 additions to the churches, distributed 15,000 pages of tracts and 450 copies of Scriptures, traveled 18,320 miles, and organized 4 churches and 7 Sunday-schools.

It is impossible to arrive at the facts regarding the collections of funds, owing to the peculiar method adopted in making reports; there is no recapitulation. Several agencies were employed in collecting, and these seem to report independently. In one place it is stated that $524.09 was collected, as grand total, and in the report by Associations, $1,509.90 is accounted for. Nor do any of these amounts seem to include annual payments by members of the body. For foreign missions, a sum of $4.25 is also reported. For educational work, $171.95 are accounted for. Then the Finance Committee reported $83.44, as from weekly collections and collections on the Sabbath. A general review of the financial work, with a tabulated recapitulation, will be needful to understand what the whole amount would be.

The meeting seems to have been enthusiastic and harmonious; resolutions adopting the policy and endorsing the work of the corresponding secretary were passed; the themes upon which special addresses were made were: "Does the Centennial of Modern Missions Concern Us?" "Our Present Work as Compared with the Past"; and "Some Practices Which Impair the Growth and Influence of the Church." "The Christian Herald" was adopted as the organ of the Convention. The various institutions for the colored race in the State were heartily recommended.

The next meeting is to be held with the Tabernacle Church, Memphis, beginning July 10, 1894. The Introductory Sermon is to be preached by C. H. Clark, D. D.

The meeting for 1893 was held at Nashville, July 4, 5. The Annual Educational Sermon was preached by Rev. T. J. Jones, from John 17: 17.

The Constitution calls for an Executive Board, and requires a report from it; but there is no report printed in the proceedings. What was accomplished during the year is therefore not given. The Executive Board had appropriated $33.01 for ordinary expenses of the meeting, and $24.50 had been received during the session; also pledges to the amount of $167.50 were taken during the meeting. There is also reference to other sums aggregating $1,025.76, of which $631.69 were reported as cash collections, but for what, and how disposed of, we have no means of knowing. The law of the Society requires all moneys to be appropriated or returned to donors; but no information is given as to objects for which these funds were raised.

There were addresses on the questions, "How to Awaken a Deeper Interest in Christian Education"; "How can We Aid Worthy Students?" The Society, we are told, has on foot a movement for the erection of a building on the campus at Roger Williams University in honor of Dr. Phillips, to be called Phillips Hall.

The Eighth Annual Session was held at Gainesville, October 6–9, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. C. L. Seasholes, from John 3: 3 and Luke 18: 22.

There had been 105 missionaries laboring in 85 counties, who supplied 510 stations; labored 22,466 days, preached 11,775 sermons, made 6,033 religious addresses, organized 62 churches with 681 constituents, baptized 1,568 persons, and received otherwise 1,459; organized 169 Sunday-schools, made 23,558 religious visits, and distributed 265,908 pages of tracts. They also secured 4 lots for meeting houses, at a value of $1,550, and built 23 houses at a cost of $19,539.90; they collected on the fields for their own support, $11,379.76. The division of this work shows 3 missionaries among the Germans, supplying 8 stations and reporting 38 accessions; 3 among the Swedes, supplying 13 stations and reporting 10 accessions; 5 among the Mexicans, supplying 28 stations and reporting 139 accessions; 16 among the negroes, supplying 48 stations and reporting 567 accessions; and 78 among Americans, supplying 413 stations and reporting 2,954 accessions. The Board had co-operated with 36 of the Associations in their district work. The actual amount collected for the various interests were: for State missions, $18,072.63; home missions, $2,698.53; foreign missions, $13,163.83; centennial fund, $8,698.43; Orphans' Home, $85.91; ministers' relief, $234.63; a total of $42,973.96. Among the interesting facts cited were that, out of 92 Associations, only 3 gave nothing to State missions, 3 nothing to foreign missions, 18 nothing to home missions, and 2 gave nothing to anything. The churches contributing to State missions were 586, to home missions 213, to foreign missions 669, and to the centennial fund 152. With all the work that had been done the Board described the destitution as appalling; though the work was large it is difficult to get an accurate idea of the size of the State, nearly one-third of the territory is almost wholly destitute; 72 out of 246 counties are without a resident Baptist minister, and many of these counties are populous; of the other 174 counties not more than one-third are able to supply their own needs, and fields are opening faster than can be supplied. The indebtedness of the Board had increased so that it amounted to $6,219.70.

The trustees of Baylor University announced the removal of the crippling debt which had interfered so much with its work; not a vestige of obligation now rests against the institution. The proposition from the people of Waco to give $15,000 if the Baptists in the State would give $25,000, had been fulfilled. There had been valuable accessions to the faculty, and a general increase in all departments of students, the institution opening with 470 in attendance upon the classes, and a general revival of religion in the city of Waco had resulted in the conversion of a number of the pupils. Attention is now being directed to the Baylor Female College at Belton; this institution holds in all property $166,650.57. During the development of the institution the floating debt has grown to be $38,856.76, and the burden of this obligation has become so onerous that the denomination is now asked to afford relief. Following the report on this college the generous amount of $12,762.05 was subscribed in cash and pledges to be paid by January 1, 1895. It should be noted that 7 young men preparing for the ministry had been sustained at Baylor University, at a cost of $180.

The Thirteenth Report of the general manager of the Buckner Orphans' Home showed collections during the year for all purposes, $20,179.99; expended on ordinary repairs and support of the family, $13,565.90; and on the new brick building, $6,614.19—this building has now cost $24,755.51, and it is estimated that $9,500 will be needed to complete the work, so that the total cost will probably be $35,000; this, yet unfinished building is now partly used. There are other buildings together with factories and shops for industrial work, and rooms for school purposes, and a printing outfit already in actual use; and the commercial travelers of Texas have provided an artesian well which supplies an abundance of excellent water from a depth of 1,173 feet. Of the funds received for this institute $137.23 were for a printing outfit; 340.25 were from ladies' organizations; and $105 from the mothers of Texas. The inmates in this home now number 275. There had been collected for the Ministers' Relief Board in cash $3,780, and in pledges and notes $1,772, making a grand total of $5,552. A home has been established at Lampasas Springs, a former watering place; it is a building 3 stories in height, with 15 rooms, and well supplied with all conveniences. In the ministers' home there are now 6 aged brethren with their wives, and there are 32 beneficiaries scattered over the State, while others are applying for aid, which as yet cannot be furnished. This work is to be placed under the control and management of the State Mission Board.

Other matters occupying the attention of the Convention were of a routine character, comprising reports and consequent discussions upon the various phases of denominational endeavor.

The next meeting is to be held at Marshall, beginning Friday, October 12, 1894, and Rev. J. A. Ivey was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon.

The Third Annual Meeting was held at Waco, April 25–27, 1893. There were 193 representatives from 48 churches. The corresponding secretary reported a great revival of Scripture study, and cultivation of devotional spirit and investigation of Baptist doctrines among the young people. No statistics were reported. The principal addresses were by Rev. J. B. Cranfill, on "Inter-Denominational Union Detrimental to the Cause of Christ"; W. L. Sanford, on "The Attitude of the Churches Toward Theatres, Balls," etc.; and discussions were held on courses of Bible study, experience meetings, and finding and encouraging spiritual gifts. The treasurer had received $25.25, and reported a deficit of $6.75. A subscription of $100 was taken for the Founding Fund of the National society.

The Twenty-second Annual Meeting was held with the Mount Zion Church, San Antonio, October 12–16, 1893. There were present over 300 delegates. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. R. F. Taylor.

The report of the superintendent of missions showed that the missionaries of the Convention had traveled 33,645 miles, preached 2,174 sermons, made 921 addresses, reported 371 conversions and 280 baptisms, organized 50 churches and 60 Sunday-schools, built 18 meeting houses, and purchased 30 lots for such purposes, and collected for missions $1,697.90, and for the Convention, $804.45. The total amount collected from all sources was $6,955.63. Most of this was for educational purposes. The educational agent had collected $1,531.75 for the Convention's work, for needy churches in building, $337.50, and had traveled 12,968 miles in his work. The amount of $4,503.65 was distributed between Bishop College, Hearne Academy, and some missionary work.

From the report of the managers of Bishop College, it appeared that $617.23 had been received from tuition of day pupils, $823.76 from tuition of boarding pupils, $7,154.56 from board and room rents, $149.05 on old accounts, $471.39 from music fees and sundries, $1,021.18 from sales of books, etc.; and $10,707.84 from regular grant of the Home Mission Society. The whole amount received was $29,222.56, and the expenditures were $28,985.93. The present value of the property of the college is $74,650. There is no debt. The prospect for future usefulness is highly encouraging.

The Baptist Women of this convention hold annual meetings with it. Rev. F. G. Davis preached the Annual Sermon to them, and a paper was read by Mrs. R. A. Townsend. There are 101 missionary societies among the women. The collections reported were $52 for foreign work, $92.95 for State missions, $51.70 for the Women's Home Mission Society, and $2,592.75 for church improvement. Among the statistics reported are: Number giving up beer drinking, 39; giving up snuff, 32; children brought into Sunday-schools, 1,482; backsliders reclaimed, 329.

The time and place of the next meeting will be determined by the Board of Directors.

UTAH.

This is one Association in this territory, which held its Tenth Anniversary at Salt Lake City, October 17, 1893. There are 6 churches in Utah, and 3 in Idaho, which reported a membership of over 500, and a net gain of 137. During the year 2 houses of worship had been completed and dedicated, one at Provo, and, one at East Salt Lake City, each costing apart from the ground, about $5,000. Baptisms were reported from all the churches, the total number being about 60. The Home Mission Society aids in the support of every pastor in the Association, and has given largely to every meeting house. The aggregate amount of money expended in mission work in the territory was about $9,000, as against $50,000 expended by another denomination.

The Sixty-ninth Anniversary was held at Ludlow, September 27, 28, 1893. The attendance included 40 ordained ministers, 10 representatives from 6 Associations, 20 delegates from as many churches, 16 members of the Board and 4 visitors, in all 90 persons. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. E. A. Herring, from Isa. 52: 1.

The number of churches aided was 28, which is an increase over preceding efforts. Thirteen churches reported 81 baptisms; 10 reported a net gain of 71 members; 13 reported a net loss of 43; and 5 reported no change in membership; the net gain in the aided churches was 28; they have a total membership of 1,708, of whom only 1,193 are residents. Their benevolent contributions amounted to $1,724, 5 of them exceeding in their benevolence the amount received from the Board. There had been paid for this work by the Board, $3,179.55; orders on account of missionary service besides were drawn to the amount of $1,476.77; miscellaneous appropriations, $836.32; a total of expenditures of $5,452.64. A general missionary had been in the field; he had visited a large number of feeble churches during the year, and besides performing evangelistic work, had strengthened some interests that were in a perilous condition.

Receipts for the year were: From the Associations, representing the gifts of the churches, $3,059.97, plus 146.08 for minutes of the Convention. Miscellaneous, including some collections and small gifts, $191.49; received toward salary of general missionary, $767.10; interest on invested funds, $1,094.53; total, $5,295.17. The permanent fund amounts to $19,965.12, all of which, save a small sum is invested in approved mortgages and notes.

During the meetings, six new pastors were formally introduced and welcomed; W. S. Roberts, D. D., made an address on "The Baptist Young People's Union in America and Vermont," and reports were made on various phases of missionary and educational work. The obituary report contains memorials of six brethren who had labored as pastors, and three others who had at some time in their lives been identified with the work in Vermont.

The next meeting is to be held at North Bennington, beginning Tuesday, September 25, 1894, and Rev. Z. Marten was appointed to deliver the Annual Discourse.

This new body was organized at Ludlow, September 26, 1893. It was incorporated by the Legislature of Vermont, by an amendatory act, November 22, 1892. Its object is to extend aid to infirm and indigent Baptist ministers and their families in Vermont. The constitution was approved, and future meetings are to be held annually in connection with the State Convention.

Women's Work.

A meeting of Baptist women was held at Ludlow at the time of the State Convention. An increased contribution for foreign missions was reported, amounting to $2,474.83. For home missions, the women had contributed $1,070.05. There were reports from the detailed work of the societies, and an address by Mrs. J. E. Case, of Burma.

The Seventeenth Annual Meeting was held at Roanoke, November 10–13, 1893. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Rev. W. F. Dunaway, from Matt. 13 : 33.

There had been 70 missionaries employed during the year—20 laboring in the Tidewater district, 24 in Piedmont, Virginia, 9 in the valley, and 17 in Southwest Virginia. They had occupied 189 stations, preached 6,619 sermons, baptized 971 persons, aided in meetings in which 1,969 persons professed conversion, 13,050 religious visits, organized 25 Sunday-schools and 8 churches, completed 6 houses of worship, and commenced the building of 18 others. The receipts for the year were $11,598.53, which, with the balance on hand, made available resources $13,099.21; the disbursements were, for missionaries, $10,993.40; printing, $70.16; interest, $16.50; other expense account, $286.91; leaving a balance on hand of $1,732.24. Of the missionaries, 44 gave their time to rural districts, and one-half of the remainder served country churches in connection with town pastorates.

The Sunday-school and Bible Board reported one general superintendent and 33 colporteurs, who labored 5,941 days, traveled 57,222 miles, visited 25,618 families, found 1,051 families destitute of Bibles, preached 473 sermons, delivered 589 addresses and 378 Sunday-school addresses, organized 52 Sunday-schools and one church, held 6 Sunday-school conventions, and baptized 36 persons. The total sales of religious literature amounted to $7,240.56, and the amount of donations $365.66, a total of $7,606.22; 7,000 copies of Scripture, 9,051 religious books, and 2,278,173 pages of tracts were distributed; the cash receipts for this Board amounted to $13,358.50, and the disbursements were $13,392.

In the department of education, there had been sustained during the year, 45 young men preparing for the ministry. The receipt for this object were $6,032.55, and the balance from previous year of $809.18; the expenditures were $6,356.23, and the balance on hand was $485.50.

The Ministers' Relief Fund reported a decrease of contribution for this charity; the receipts amounted to $2,300, and the disbursements to $3,170, so that the demands upon this fund were some $800 in excess of the receipts from the churches, which would have entailed embarrassment were it not for the Permanent Investment Fund, which now amounts to $18,942.

Another charity sustained by this body is the Baptist Orphanage, located at Salem. There are in this home, 26 boys and 34 girls, which fills the capacity of the building; 30 applicants have been rejected for want of room. In addition to increased accommodations, there is need of a workshop and an infirmary; the receipts for the year were $8,863.81, which, from the beginning of the enterprise four years ago, makes $36,000 and 21 acres of land, and complete and commodious buildings.

There had been contributed, in addition to the above objects, $23,006.11 for foreign missions, and $11,547.30 for home missions. No provision is made in this body for set or prepared addresses, the various reports, as they are made, giving rise to free and full discussions. The interests of the Home Mission Board of the Sunday-school Convention were represented by Rev. F. C. McConnell, and F. H. Kerfoot, D. D., spoke in the interest of the seminary at Louisville. During the meeting, the interests of Baptist young people were considered in a special meeting, at which 49 churches were represented, and a State organization was affected, with Ernest M. Long as president, and J. Garland Pollard as secretary. The deficiency reported by the Education Board was provided for, and $1,600 raised for the existing indebtedness upon the house of the superintendent of the Orphanage. The charters of the Orphanage and the Relief Fund are to be so amended as to provide for the appointment of their trustees by the General Association. The Southwest Virginia Institute also came under the control of this body, the trustees to be selected by the General Association; it has a property valued at $120,000, with an incumbrance of $40,000.

The next session of the body is to be held at Alexandria, beginning Friday, November 13, 1894, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. J. M. McManaway.

The Annual Meeting for 1893, probably the third, was held at Roanoke, November 10. The subjects discussed were "Methods of Evangelization," by T. S. Dunaway, D. D., and Rev. B. H. Dement; "Inter-denominational Relations," by Geo. Cooper, D. D., and Rev. R. E. L. Aylor; and "The Baptists and the Classes," by W. E. Hatcher, D. D., and Rev. W. S. Dorset. This body meets in connection with the General Association.

This body was organized at Roanoke, November 11, 1893. The sessions were given much to the work of preliminary organization, although addresses were made by Jos. E. Toms, on "The Organization of the Local Union"; J. C. Moss, on "Its Legitimate Work"; and G. A. Duguid, Jr., on "Its Method." Rev. H. N. Quisenberry followed in an address, on "The Probable Effect of the Local Union on the Churches of the Future"; and W. H. Wranek, on "The Benefits of a State Union." An executive committee was constructed with its headquarters at Richmond. Probably this committee will arrange for future meetings. About 100 delegates representing 21 churches and societies entered into this organization.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Session was held at Hampton, May 10–14, 1893. The names of 104 members were enrolled. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. W. B. Johnson, from Luke 23:33. The Doctrinal Sermon was on the atonement by Rev. A. J. Brown, from Rom. 5:11.

The State Mission Board had co-operated with the Home Mission Society in its work in the State; besides the two regular workers there had been 10 missionary students from the seminary at Richmond in the field part of the year with gratifying results. So it appears that 20 stations had been occupied, 712 sermons preached, 398 prayer meetings held, 3,646 religious visits, 161 baptisms, and 295 received into the churches; 10 Sunday-schools organized, 5 churches constituted,

2,703 pages of tracts distributed, 117 copies of Scripture circulated, and $875.30 collected for all purposes. The receipts for the work by the Board were $1,952.55, and the disbursements $1,854.27.

The Education Board had received $1,067-.72, of which $883.85 had come over from the previous Board; there had been disbursed for maintenance of students $217.17, and for building $898.70, or appropriated for that purpose.

The Foreign Mission Board had received $1,061.89, of which $184.79 had come from previous year, and $872 had been disbursed on this account, leaving a balance unused of $189.89. The report of this Board refers to a great increase of interest in African missions throughout all the churches.

The Virginia Seminary is under the special patronage of this Convention. The managers reported the main building going up and ready for roofing; $3,000 is needed to complete it. Work had progressed however in educational lines. The Home Mission Society had aided in the payment of instructors to the amount of $1,500. The financial statement shows receipts $3,351.76, but $1,350 of this was borrowed in an emergency, and is not included in the disbursements as repaid; $3,240.72 had been paid for work on building, salaries of teachers, and interest mainly. The present indebtedness is $12,-202.58.

Among the other items of interest in connection with this anniversary we note a full report of the corresponding secretary, giving a review of the status of the colored Baptists in the country, and a number of addresses which were received with much favor. Some of these addresses were: "Organization and System Essential to Progressive State Missions," by Rev. J. M. Young; "Work of Women in the Church," by Rev. F. Cook; "Female Education," by Miss M. M. Booze; "The Effect of Twenty Years of Freedom upon the Moral Character of the Negro," by Rev. P. F. Morris, and a sermon by Rev. H. L. Barco, on "The Mission of the Church." There were also reports on other phases of denominational interest and endeavor.

The next anniversary to be held with the Diamond Hill Church, Lynchburg, beginning Wednesday, May 9, 1894, and Rev. L. B. Goodall was selected as the preacher of the Annual Sermon.

The Sixth Anniversary was held at Seattle, October 12–16, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. C Weir, from Matt. 28: 18–20.

There had been employed in the State 27 missionaries, who supplied 32 churches and 15 out-stations, rendered 1,112 weeks of labor, preached 2,633 sermons, made 6,710 visits, sustained 32 Sunday-schools, with an enrollment of 2,145 members. The churches had paid on pastors' salary $7,661, and the benevolence amounted to $1,895, the amount pro rata of all contributions was $14.97.

The corresponding secretary reported a complete year's labor, with 85 sermons, 41 addresses, 65 churches visited, and 11 points where there were no churches, 3 baptisms, 112 religious visits, 12,983 miles traveled, 2 dedications, and $1,550 collected for the Convention. A district missionary had entered the work during the year, who had engaged in 9 series of special meetings, the result of one being the organization of a church; he reported 33 weeks of labor, 180 sermons, 30 addresses, 160 religious visits, 1,682 miles traveled, 2,050 pages of tracts distributed, and 75 copies of Scripture, 49 baptisms, and $206.95 collected on the field; 9 new churches had been organized during the year, and 7 new meeting houses erected on mission fields; besides these there were other houses of worship dedicated, and still others in process of erection; aid from the church edifice fund of the Home Mission Society had been obtained to the amount of $3,950; several churches which had been pastorless and discouraged had been resuscitated; revival meetings had been held on mission fields with good results, the missionaries reporting 171 baptisms and 210 added otherwise.

This body is in financial co-operation with the Home Mission Society on a ratio of $1.00 to $1.00. The amount of obligations for the salaries and expenses of the year was $9,375-.40, the part of the Convention for this expense would be, under a changed basis, $1,937.05, which added to the debt from the preceding year made $2,328.57, for which the Convention was chargeable, and during the meetings the deficit was amply provided for.

During the meetings an invitation to visit the new Seattle University was accepted, and the body attended a reception accorded them on the grounds. The usual reports on home and foreign missions, temperance, and education were made the topic of general discussions. Women's meetings were held, at which it appeared that from this source $558.75 had been raised for home missions, and $852.77 for foreign missions.

The next meeting is to be held at Centralia, beginning October 11, 1894, and the Annual Sermon is to be preached by Rev. W. T. Fleenor.

The Ninth Annual Meeting was held at Moscow, Idaho, October 5–8, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. M. C. Cole, of Walla Walla, from John 1 : 17.

The report of the Board showed 11 missionary pastors, who had labored in 15 churches and 15 out-stations, giving 510 weeks of labor, 4,446 religious visits, and reporting 97 baptisms and added otherwise 114; there were 14 Sunday-schools maintained, with an attendance of 778; the churches had paid on salaries $3,729, on buildings and debts $2,369, on current expenses $898, missions $452; the general missionary is Rev. D. D. Proper, who occupies this field in connection with that of the Northwest Convention. He had given 17 weeks of labor to this field, preached 51 sermons and addresses, dedicated 2 churches, and traveled 9,491 miles. There was also a district missionary, who preached 142 sermons, made 102 addresses, organized 2 churches, made 310 religious visits, and traveled 8,425 miles. The collections for the work from the churches amounted to $7.090.10. There is a balance on hand of $240.58. The work is co-operative with the Home Mission Society. A number of new churches were organized and new buildings erected, but there are great tracts of country within the bounds of this body that are unoccupied and present most pressing demands for missionary work.

The educational interest is in Colfax College; President English made an address outlining the work of that institution. Addresses were made on the work of the Convention by Rev. J. H. Beaven on "The Field of the Convention as a Mission"; Rev. M. C. Cole, on "The Convention; What is it?" Rev. A. M. Allyn, on "Reasons Why the Churches Should Support the Convention"; and Rev. D. D. Proper, on "How to Secure Larger Contributions." Attention was also given to the Sunday-school work.

There were also meetings held for pastors and for young people. At the Ministers' Institute papers were read by Rev. G. F. Newman on "Ministerial Success"; Rev. D. C. Ellis on "Authority to Ordain"; Rev. A. J. Cable on "Church Authority"; and Rev. E. Stillwell on "A Pedobaptist Explanation of Close Communion." The young people's meeting showed representatives from ten societies of young people's unions. E. S. Clarke, Walla Walla, is secretary and treasurer of this body.

The next meeting is to be held at Walla Walla, beginning October 4, 1894, and Rev. G. A. Fair was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Third Annual Meeting was held at Seattle, October 14, 1894. There were delegates from 19 societies, representing portions of British Columbia and the State of Washington. The addresses were: "The Young People's Opportunity," by Rev. C. C. Marston; "The Relation of the Scandinavians to the Work," by Rev. C. W. Finwall; "Young People and Soul Winning," by Mrs. E. R. Bailey; "Young People and the Bible," by N. C. Criswold; "Young People's Union and Young Men," by F. H. Day; "The Young People's Union and the Regions Beyond," by Miss Carrie Kalloch. In active work the Convention expressed sympathy for and co-operation with the district missionary laboring in their territory, and commended the Founding Fund of the National Union. The Twenty-ninth Annual Meeting was held at Charleston, October 10–13, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. C. M. Thompson, from Exodus 4 : 13.

There had been 22 missionaries, who occupied fields in 22 counties; they rendered 655 weeks of service, preached 1,933 sermons, delivered 649 addresses, supplied 24 churches and 26 out-stations, attended 1,178 prayer meetings, made 6,065 religious visits, baptized 145 persons, and received 139 otherwise, organized 4 churches, ordained 11 ministers, distributed 12,868 pages of tracts, traveled 17,112 miles, erected 6 meeting houses; they raised for church erection $2,- 094, for missions $465.79, for education, $134.93, and for other benevolence $104.03. In addition, the superintendent labored 26 weeks, preached 66 sermons, made 129 addresses and 234 religious visits, dedicated 7 churches, traveled 10,446 miles, and collected for missions $4,187.39. The receipts for State missions were $2,912.95, and the disbursements $3,483.70, of which $2,632.98 was for salaries of missionaries. The total debt now upon the Board was $1,430.75. The development of this State has created a large number of new mission fields; during the last 5 years there have been 200 such fields opened in new villages and towns along the lines of new railroads; 22 of the 54 county seats are unoccupied by Baptist churches, as well as many other towns and villages; the number of unoccupied fields is estimated to be not far from 500, and in many of them there are Baptists sufficient to organize churches, which would be the case if some degree of financial aid was assured. The report also refers to church buildings which were in progress at 12 points, and lots in other towns had been secured for prospective building. There is a pressing demand for buildings where there are church organizations, although the buildings finished and in process of construction during the year would aggregate $45,000. The Home Mission Society has co-operated in this State work, having placed $1,946.50 in the field. The consideration of the report was attended by general reports from a number of pastors occupying mission fields.

For ministerial education there had been received $1,064.58, of which $557.45 came directly from church contributions, the available fund for the year $1,481.93, which was expended in loans to students $414.50, gifts to students $427, expenses $294.93, leaving a balance of $345.55. Twelve young men were applying for aid. A peculiar plan adopted is to help students in the form of a non-interest bearing loan, upon the condition that if the student, after graduation, shall return to the State to preach, for each year of service he should be released from the payment of the note executed for aid during one year, until the whole obligation shall have been cancelled. Pending the report addresses were made by Rev. J. S. Stump, in charge of this work, Rev. R. B. Smith, and D. B. Purinton, D. D.

Home missions were considered in an admirable report, and by addresses from Rev. John S. Stump, and Hon. W. A. McCorkle, the governor of the State. Foreign missions were reported upon, and addresses were made by the Rev. A. G. Loving, Rev. T. G. Fields and Rev. J. D. Simmons. There was also a report and general discussion on "Temperance." The rest of the business was of a routine character.

The next session is to be held at Grafton, beginning October 18, 1894, and the Annual Sermon to be preached by Rev. A. G. Loving.

L. H. CAMACK, Huntington.

This body was organized at Charleston, October 10, 1893. After impressive consecration services, Mrs. R. B. Smith read a paper on "Organization"; L. H. Camack spoke on "How Shall Young People's Work be Encouraged?" Rev. A. L. Williamson presented a paper on "How Can Young People be of Best Service in the Church?" and J. L. Montgomery read a paper on "How Can Our Young People Keep in Touch with the Young People's Movement in America?"

It is presumed that the annual meetings will be held at the same time and place as the General Assocation.

The State Convention (Colored).

The meeting for 1893 was held at Clarksburg, June 1–4. Our information is entirely from the newspaper press reports, as it has always been impossible to obtain any direct information from this body. There were reports on State, home, and foreign missions, and on education, which showed considerable advance in the work of the Convention. Two missionaries had kept on the field, and the Educational Board had maintained a school at Charleston. The session was said to be the best ever had by the Convention. The exercises seem to have been interspersed with sermons by various brethren, and Sunday was entirely given up to preaching at several hours.

The next meeting is to be held at Huntington, presumably in the early part of June, 1894.

The Twenty-ninth Anniversary was held at the Tabernacle Church, Milwaukee, October 3–6, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. A. McKillop, from Eph. 1 : 13, 14.

There had been employed during the year 56 missionaries, who supplied 124 churches and out-stations, baptized 615 persons, organized 5 new churches and 9 Sunday-schools, and raised for chapels, parsonages, and church improvements, $30,176.77. The total contributions for all purposes from the mission churches aggregated $54,137.77. The general missionary had been laid aside for half the year through ill-health, and yet he had traveled 8,691 miles, and attended 131 meetings in the interest of the Convention. Twenty-four student missionaries had occupied 72 fields during their vacations, where 161 had been added to the church. The women's societies had contributed $1.000 for the Scandinavian work. The contributions from all sources amounted to $10,706.24, and the expenditures were $10,628.93. The consideration of the report was attended by addresses by Rev. L. A. Clevenger, on "New Aggressive Missionary Lines"; and Rev. D. B. Cheney, Jr., on "Our Work in Wisconsin, and its History." Echoes from the missionary field were given by 7 pastors, aided by the Board. An interesting feature was an address by the corresponding secretary, reviewing his ten years of labor in Wisconsin, in which it was shown that 478 missionaries had been employed, who had supplied 280 churches, and added by baptisms, 3,332 persons; and in the ten years 54 houses of worship had been built and 4 rebuilt, having a total seating capacity of 17,800, and valued at $180,550; the Home Mission Society giving $8,000 and loaning $1,700; the Home Mission Society had also given in co-operative work, $19,000; including all raised from various sources the amount raised and expended was $107,000. W. M. Haigh followed in an address, on "The Plan of Co-operation in Wisconsin."

During the session 11 new pastors, who had entered the State, were given a formal welcome. Foreign missions was considered in a report by Rev. L. A. Clevenger, and an address by Rev. W. M. Upcraft, then on his way to China. Rev. E. W. White reported for the Publication Society; and Rev. J. H. Harris made an address; and reports were made by missionaries sustained among the Swede, Danes, and Norwegians. The consideration of educational matters comprised a report by Rev. D. B. Cheney, Jr., and addresses by Principal Vosburgh, of Wayland Academy, and C. E. Hewitt, D. D., of the University of Chicago, on "Theological Education."

The Women's Home Mission Society held sessions during the meeting of the Convention; they reported that there were 95 branches, with a membership of 1,252, and 21 bands with 280 members; 4 new branches and 2 new bands had been organized; the contributions aggregated $3,158.37, including value of gifts sent to the frontier missionaries; of this $1,000 was contributed by the Scandinavian women; $1,159.16 is to be devoted to the general work of the Women's Home Mission Society. Miss Lillian Madden made an address, on "Scandinavian Missions"; and Miss Susan Durfee, on "The Work Among the Colored People." The Women's Foreign Mission Society introduced to the Convention two young ladies who were about to depart for China.

The next meeting is to be held at a point to be determined upon by the Board, beginning October 9, 1894; and Rev. H. A. Buzzell was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Meeting was held at Milwaukee, October 2, 3, 1893. The Annual Sermon was preached by Frederick Evans, D. D., from 1 Cor. 3: 22, on "The Pulpit of the Future." A discussion on "The Evangelical Church—What it is and How Secured," was led by Rev. J. B. Reynolds and Rev. G. W. Smith. Rev. Herman Burns spoke on "A Pastor's Qualifications for Evangelistic Work in the Pastorate"; Rev. D. W. Hulburt read a paper on "Convert Culture"; L. A. Crandall, D. D., of Chicago, made an address, on "The Michigan Movement," which looks toward the union of the Baptist and "free" Baptist churches. An address was made by C. A. Hobbs, D. D., on "The Value of Consecrated Leadership"; Rev. Jacob Merkel, on "Examples in the New Testament"; Rev. C. M. Brodie, on "Hindrances to Consecrated Leadership"; and M. G. Hodge, D. D., on "Helps to Consecrated Leadership." The closing address was by E. B. Hulbert, D. D., of Chicago, on "Some Preparations for the English Reformation." The historical report, which dwelt on the changes in the State during the year, was prepared by Rev. W. W. Patengill.

The annual sessions are held on the day preceding the meeting of the State Convention.

The Third Annual Convention was held in the Tabernacle Church, Milwaukee, October 5, 1893. There are about 125 societies in the State, from a majority of which encouraging reports were received, indicating a great activity in this department of Christian work. Rev. C. M. Patterson made an address, on "A Plea for More Perfect Unity." Miss Nettie McKillop read a paper, on "Our Juniors"; Miss Emma G. Saxe spoke on the topic, "Shall We Have Associational Unions?" Rev. Benjamin Otto made an address on "Show Your Colors, or Baptist Loyalty"; Rev. H. A. Buzzell spoke on "Power for Service." Platform addresses on practical subjects were made by Rev. L. A. Clevenger, on "The Christian Culture Courses"; and Rev. Herman Burns, on "Our Convention Pledge." The closing address was by H. L. Morehouse. D. D., of New York, on "The Influence of Young People on the History of America."

The next meeting is to be held in connection with the other anniversaries.

WYOMING.

The single Association, which comprises the churches in this State, had no meeting in 1893, although the organization is complete and is working on notwithstanding that failure. I. C. Whipple, Cheyenne, is moderator, and Rev. Thos. T. Howd, Sheridan, is chairman of the executive committee. There are 9 churches, with a membership of about 375. Five of the churches have meeting houses at a valuation of about $36,000. The women are engaged actively in organized effort. The Home Mission Society and Publication Society each have missionaries in the State. The next meeting of this Association is to be held in September, 1894, but at what point we are unable to state.

ORDAINED MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES.

NOTE.—Among Baptists there exists no official register, as among other denominations, compiled by a central ecclesiastical authority. Because of this, perhaps, we suffer the disadvantage of an always incomplete list. The present roll is compiled chiefly from the Associational Minutes, and is as near exactness as it is possible to be. There are many Associations, however, which publish no lists of ministers at all, and many others which publish only the names of pastors, and these without postal address.

The policy of this YEAR-BOOK is to make the Associational Minutes the basis of operations, on the only and simple ground that it is deemed that every minister of good standing will be mentioned by the Minutes of his home organization. If names are omitted in this list that should be enrolled, let an examination be made first of the District Association Minutes, and the Editor then acquitted. Errors will be cheerfully corrected, however.

The perpetual movement of such a large body of men occasions almost incredible numbers of changes and alterations in the course of a year. The YEAR-BOOK does not claim that the appended list includes all the Baptist ministers of the country, but it claims only to present an accurate list as furnished by the Associational minutes.

In certain States, especially in the South and West, it is an impossible thing to obtain all the Associational minutes before making up this list for any given year. Consequently, the Editor does not claim that it is a complete list, but it is an accurate one so far as it goes, affected by the constant changes to which the ministry is exposed. In these States, the minutes for 1893 are closely followed, and where the minutes of that year are not at hand, those of 1892 are carefully compared with the list; so that if a minister has removed, his last known address is given, and his movements may be traceable from that office. No name appears that is not in the District Association lists within two years. If the names of any so contained do not appear, the Clerk of the Association has sent neither blanks nor minutes to us.

The list in some States has been submitted for careful revision to brethren who are likely to be well informed of movements of ministers in their respective States. In every instance of States having large colored membership this course has been pursued, but the YEAR-BOOK claims neither fullness nor accuracy in its list of colored ministers. It gives result of careful scrutiny and diligent endeavor, but has only partially, as yet, obtained the co-operation of the colored Baptists in its important work.

Before it will be possible to compile a full and complete list of American Baptist ministers, the friends of statistics must secure in their Associational Minutes these several features: 1. An alphabetical list of all ordained ministers living within the bounds of the Association, or serving churches, with their correct post-office address attached. This list to be published quite separate from the statistics of the churches, and to show, by simple abbreviations, whether the brethren are pastors, teachers, without charge, agents, or honorably retired. 2. A corresponding list of ministerial changes, showing who have entered the Association within the year; who have left it, and whither gone; and who have died, and when; and who have been ordained during the year.

If clerks of the Associations can be induced to adopt the suggestions above, and be careful to address a copy of their Minutes to the Editor of the YEAR-BOOK, in care of the American Baptist Publication Society, it would be very early that an absolutely correct list of ministers should be published. The attention of interested brethren in the Associations, and of Editors and Statistical Secretaries of State bodies, is respectfully called to these considerations.

☞ Some weeks must necessarily elapse between the preparation of this list for the press, and the issuing of the volume. The work of final proof revision began January 11. For such changes as occur, and of which we have information in this interim, consult the Supplement at the close of the volume.
